YE SKEETERS HEV CUM.

September—and yer here skeeters; well, I hev been a lookin' fur yer sum time since, An a hopin that ye would'n't cum At all, but yer bein here Won't keep me from speakin out mi mind, Fur I've got no respect fur yer presents returnal Pasts, wurs than the frogs that played Noar, And made him let the 'gyptions all go free; But that's a ole subjec.

MISCELLANY:

THE WIFE.

"A home to go to."—Mrs. Ellis. Beautiful, inexpressibly beautiful definition, suggestive of gentleness, affection, rest! Yes, rest and home. Even I—who have been a wanderer all my life long—who have never had a fireside all my own—mine to be sat by with a second self, dearer, if possible, than the fireside—even I, lingering over that phase, can scarcely reconcile myself to the fact that I am not to some fond and faithful heart that 'being to go home to.' Even I can shut my eyes and dream a dream of which that would be a blessed reality. I can see a cottage which love has made holy, nestling away in the sunny summer leaves, where the golden glory of sunset longest lingers, and the shadows latest reach. I can see the gentle wife, with her soft, sweet face gazing out through the open door, and down the lane to the turnpike where he is momentarily expected to appear. I can hear the hum of children's voices, and feel the pressure of cool, fresh kisses, which come only from childhood's lips. I can read in the sudden flashing of her eye that there is a step not too far distant for her impatient car to distinguish; and now I can see him, that impetuous, worldly man, leaving the world he has been bound to, to come to his wife in his arms; there are children clambering his knees for kisses; there is peace, quietude, home, all around him, and the worldly man, with the dust of city life on his spirit, with the knowledge of city cares and city speculations teeming in his brain, turns from them all to find rest and repose in the little nook he has set apart for love! God bless him, and God bless her—imaginary though they are; for while I witness their perfect love and content, I am remembering that I am still a wanderer. A wanderer with the knowledge that, had fate been more propitious, I, too, might have had my loving heart, my sunny home, and my loving children. But fate was inexorable, and where all this happiness might have been, lies stark and bare before me the panorama of two wasted lives. God help us all; we are not the architects of our own destiny, let moralists say what they will.

I know that the world is full of homes that are no homes, of wives upon whose artificial hearts no true husband could call for sympathy, or mothers upon whose bare, jeweled necks there is no room for childhood's fondling arms. I know all this, yet I cannot realize that it is so! Love seems to me so sacred, marriage so holy a tie, that man or woman's life should not be complete without it. Not the wild, fierce, persistent love which burns itself out in its own fire—not the marriage of circumstance or convenience to which so many lives are devoted, but the pure, true, lasting love—the wedding of souls that have grown indissolubly to each other—the uniting of hearts that neither time, nor distance, nor misfortune can effect—a union of soul, sense, and spirit, sure as death, and lasting as eternity. Pitiful, oh, most pitiful, that there are no more such unions! "A being to go home to!" Only the heart of man can tell how truly, in every life, such a being is needed. No matter how self-centered, or preoccupied, no matter how burdened down with the cares and perplexities of life, there come yearnings for that rapturous, human love, dreamings of fond lips and warm, loving arms, and anticipations of a time to come when one heart, out of the great wilderness of hearts shall best for him, and him alone. Lucky for him who, admits the unreal and artificial glare of life, gathers to his bosom this pearl of greatest price. Lucky for him who, when the tempest of care and worldly responsibility rage most fiercely, can feel that when the treasured toil is over, and the day is done, he has a being to go home to, who can minister to his comfort and sympathize with his cares.—The man who has a wife that he truly loves, and a wife who truly loves him, can make up his mind that he has anticipated the millennium, and commenced his paradise on earth.

CROVER & BAKER'S

MACHINES.

NEW STYLES—PRICES FROM $50 to $125 EXTRA CHARGE OF $5 FOR HEMMERS. 495 Broadway, N. Y. 780 Chestnut St., Phila. These Machines sew from two spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no re-winding of thread; they Hem, Fell, Gather and Stitch in a superior style, finishing each seam by their own operation, without recourse to the hand-needle, as is required by other machines. They will do better and cheaper sewing than a seamstress can, even if she works for one cent an hour, and are, unquestionably, the best Machines in the market for family sewing, on account of their simplicity, durability, ease of management, and adaptation to all varieties of family sewing—executing either heavy or fine work with equal facility, and without special adjustment.

As evidence of the unquestioned superiority of their Machines, the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE COMPANY beg leave to respectfully refer to the following

TESTIMONIALS.

"Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and a half I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed.—Family Sewing Machine, as well as for the purpose of Sewing, by Mrs. J. W. Morris, Editor of Home Journal, N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"I confess myself delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."—Mrs. J. W. Morris, Editor of Home Journal, N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."—Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of Brooklyn Star.

"I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and have found it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and is easily used."—Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, N. Y.

"Your Sewing Machine has been in use in my family the past two years, and the ladies request me to give their testimonials to its perfect adaptability, as well as a general account of its performance, of family and household sewing."—Robert Doorman, N. Y.

"For several months we have Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine, and have come to the conclusion that every lady who desires her sewing done quickly and neatly done, will find most satisfactory and profitable in the use of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine. It is a most valuable addition to the wardrobe of every lady, and its use is invaluable."—J. W. Morris, daughter of Gen. Geo. P. Morris, Editor of Home Journal.

Extract of a letter from Thos. R. Leavitt, an American gentleman, now resident in Sydney, New South Wales, dated January 12, 1858: "I had in my mind to purchase a Sewing Machine, and a single seam of it has outlasted all the other seams sewed by sailors with a needle and thread."

"If Homer could be called up from his murky haunts, he would sing the advent of Grover & Baker as a more benignant, miracle of art than was ever Vulcan's smith. He would denounce midnight shirt-making as the direful spring of woes unnumbered."—Prof. North.

"I take pleasure in saying, that the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine have more than sustained my expectation. After trying and returning others, I have three of them in operation in my different places, and after four years' use, have no fault to find."—J. H. Hammond, Senator of South Carolina.

"My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public."—J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.

"It is a beautiful thing, and puts everybody into an excitement of good humor. Were I a Catholic I should insist upon Saints Grover and Baker having an eternal holiday in commemoration of their good deeds for humanity."—Cassius M. Clog.

"I think it by far the best patent in use. This Machine can be adapted from the finest cambric to the heaviest cassimere. It sews stronger, faster and more beautifully than can be imagined by any other machine I have ever seen."—Lucy D. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.

"I find this machine to work to our satisfaction, and with pleasure recommend it to the public, as we believe Grover & Baker to be the best Sewing Machine in use."—Deary Brothers, Allison, Tenn.

"If used exclusively for family purposes, with ordinary care, I will wager they will last one three score years and ten, and never get out of fix."—John Erskine, Nashville, Tenn.

"I have had your machine for several weeks, and am perfectly satisfied that the work it does is the best and most beautiful that ever was."—Maggie Amison, Nashville, Tenn.

"I use my Machine upon coats, dressmaking, and fine linen stitching, and the work is admirable—far better than the best hand-sewing, or any other machine I have ever seen."—Lucy D. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.

"I find the work the strongest and most beautiful I have ever seen, made either by hand or machine, and regard the Grover & Baker machine as one of the greatest blessings to our sex."—Mrs. Taylor, Nashville, Tenn.

"I have one of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines in use in my family, and find it invaluable. I can confidently recommend it to all persons in want of a machine."—G. D. Thompson, Nashville, Tenn.

STAGE LINE

FROM Chambersburg to Mt. Union

The undersigned aware that a suspension of the line of Stages over the road between Chambersburg and Mt. Union, cannot be but disadvantageous to a large section of the country, has, at a considerable expense and trouble made arrangements to run a line of Stages Tri-weekly between the two points. Good Drivers and comfortable Stages have been placed on the route, and experienced and reliable drivers will superintend the running of the Coaches. The proprietor of the line is desirous that it be maintained, and he therefore calls upon the public to patronize it, and to consent that it will be for their mutual advantage. Every attention necessary will be given, to the running of the Stages will be regular.

Times leave Mt. Union, every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday evening, arriving at Chambersburg the next day at 2 o'clock. Returning, leave Chambersburg, the 5th night at 10 o'clock, arriving at Mt. Union, the next evening at 10 o'clock. The line will be daily, and Shade Gap the line will be daily.

Fare through $3; to intermediate points in proportion. JOHN JAMISON.

HAIR DYE? HAIR DYE??

Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye!

The Original and Best in the World!

All others are mere imitation, and should be avoided, if you wish to escape ridicule.

GRAY, RED, OR RUSTY HAIR Dye! Dye! Dye!

is a beautiful and Natural Brown or Black, without the least injury to Hair or Skin. Fifteen Medals and Diplomas have been awarded to Wm. A. Batchelor since 1829, and over 80,000 applications have been made to the Hair of his patrons of his famous DYE.

Wm. A. Batchelor's HAIR DYE produces a color not to be distinguished from nature, and is superior to any other, and the ill effects of Bad Dyes remedied; the Hair invigorated by this splendid Dye.

Made, sold or applied (in 9 private rooms) at the Whig Factory, 233 Broadway, New York. Sold in all cities and towns of the United States, by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

The Genuine has the name and address upon a steel plate engraving on four sides of each box, of

HUNTINGDON WARM SPRINGS.

The Warm Springs at the base of Warrior's Ridge, five miles north of Huntingdon, overlooking Standing Stone Creek, and surrounded by romantic hills and woodlands, have been leased by the former proprietor of the Leamer House, &c., erected at great expense, and now owned by Wm. A. Batchelor, and the groves have been beautifully laid out and adorned.—The Hotel parlors and chambers airy and comfortable, and the prospect, from the verandas for beauty, cannot be excelled.

For half a century, these Springs have been celebrated for their medicinal qualities, and the great nature of the waters in rheumatic and chronic affections. The temperature of the water here is 69 degrees, renders the bathing delightful and invigorating. In the surrounding woods and mountains, game abounds, and the finest fish are caught in Stone Creek. Persons in pursuit of health or pleasure, will find this a most delightful and healthful retreat; and its proximity to the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the cheapness of the rates charged guests, give it a decided advantage over any other watering place in the State.

The Proprietor has had years of experience in the business and no pains or trouble will be spared to make guests comfortable.

Trucks run from Huntingdon to Warm Springs on the arrival of the Huntingdon Railroad trains—fare 25 cents. Families accommodated at moderate terms. JOHN B. HERD, Proprietor.
