

Huntingdon Journal.

Wednesday Morning, September 21, 1859.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

It appears there is to be no Coronet elected this fall. We have been authorized, therefore, to omit the same, in printing the tickets.

The Vigilance Committee of the People's Party of Huntingdon Borough, is requested to meet on Friday evening, at Counts' Hotel.

FANCY.—The "Conservatory" which has been erected on our neighbor Miles' premises. It is a tasty building and confers credit on its projector and builder—Mr. Elias Bartol. Why don't more of our citizens manifest a similar taste for the rearing and preserving of beautiful flowers.

Our neighbor up town consumes so much of his space in noticing "big pumpkins, squashes," &c., &c., that he is compelled to let politics go by default. $75 a month is too snug a sum to ask a man to give up for opposing the repeal of the tonnage tax! E? neighbor?

THE ESCAMPMENTS.—Camp Logan will, no doubt, attract a large body of people at Tyrone, this week. We learn that about twenty companies intend being present. There is also an encampment to be held at the same time—from Monday till Friday—at Lewistown. The cannon taken by the Americans at Cerro Gordo will be there; and we feel confident that there will be a good time at both encampments.

We had the pleasure of a visit from our candidate for Auditor General—Hon. Thomas E. Cochran—last week. Mr. C. is a polished gentleman, and when he hears the tunder from "Old Mother Huntingdon" next October, he will know our honest yeomanry have delight in honoring him like "honest Tom Cochran," have risen to eminence from the humble walks of life, through their own exertions. Put us down for $800 majorly for Cochran and the whole ticket, sure.

CONCERT.—Prof. Huey gave a concert, or rather a concert accompanied with an examination of the singing class composed of our young folks, which he has been teaching for the past nine days, in the Court House, on Thursday evening last. The whole affair was highly creditable to the teacher and pupils. We have seldom seen a class make more rapid progress in the "divine art." The promptness in answering questions and the clear enunciation of the words in singing, prove that the class has been properly taught.

Pic Nic.—A number of our young men and maidens had intended visiting Terrace Mountain, on Friday last, on a pleasure excursion, and all the preparations for a good time, were made on Thursday; but alas! for human projects; Friday morning was ushered in with lowering clouds, and drizzling rain; proving the truth of the old adage that "The best laid schemes o' mice and men oft go awry."

We understand the party postponed their visit, and went to the Warm Springs, where they enjoyed themselves highly.

GOOD SERMON.—We had the pleasure of listening to another eloquent sermon from Rev. Reid, last Sabbath, on the text "The Lord is my portion." The subject was ably handled; and the vanity of earthly things strikingly portrayed. It awakened in many a bosom that sweet enthusiastic melancholy that sometimes steals upon the soul—when even thought itself is for a while suspended, and every scene in nature seems to wear an image of the mind. A kind of anticipation of those pleasures we are taught to expect hereafter; the soul seems entirely abstracted from every earthly idea, wrapped up in the contemplation of future happiness. Ask yourself in one of these moments, what there is in this world that is worth a thought; and you will answer nothing; its greatest sublimity is but as a dream, and vanishes like a shadow. This should convince us more than anything, that there is a future state; our souls were formed to taste higher delights, more refined sensations, than anything in this life can excite; and something from within tells us we shall one day enjoy them—else why these ideas—why these expectations—of what use would be those noble sentiments with which the mind is sometimes impressed, if we were only to act an insignificant part for a few years in this life, and then sink into nothing? No, there must be a future state, and that immortal.

Reflect on this, and think, ere 'tis too late, How short a space may terminate your fate; To-morrow—or to night may be your last, Then stay the fleeting minutes as they pass, Nor idly let them go neglected by, For every one leads to eternity.

TOMATOES.—This delicious, wholesome vegetable is spoiled by the manner it is served upon the table. It is not one time in a hundred more than half cooked. It is simply scalded, and served as soup porridge. It should be cooked three hours—it cannot be cooked in one. The fruit should be cut in halves and the seeds scraped out. The mucilage of the pulp may be saved if desired, by straining out the seeds, and adding it to the fruit, which should boil rapidly for an hour, and simmer; three hours more until the matter is dissolved, and the contents of the saucepan a pulp of mucilaginous matter, which is much improved by putting in the pan, either before putting in the fruit or while it is cooking an ounce of butter and half a pound of fat bacon cut fine, to half a peck of tomatoes and a small pepper pod, with salt to suit the taste.—The fat adds a pleasant flavor, and makes the dish actual food, instead of a mere relish. The pan must be carefully watched and but little fire used, and the mass stirred often to prevent burning toward the last, when the water is nearly all evaporated. The dish may be rendered still more attractive and rich as food by vigorously stirring two or three eggs, and stirring vigorously just time enough to allow the eggs to become well cooked may be put in tight cans, and kept any length of time; or the pulp may be spread upon plates and dried in the sun, or a slow oven, and kept as well as dried pumpkin, dried apples, peaches, or pears, and will be found equally excellent in winter. For every day use, a quantity sufficient for the use of a family a week may be cooked at once, and afterwards eaten cold, or warmed over.—We beg of those who use this excellent fruit to try what cooking will do for it. It has been eaten half-cooked long enough. It never should be dried until dry enough to be taken from the dish to the plates with a fork, instead of a spoon.

Nervous Diseases Controlled and Conquered.

Of all the various ills that detract from the enjoyment of human life, most of them may be traced to a disordered condition of the nervous system. The horrors of Epilepsy, or Falling Sickness, arise in most cases from this cause. Our readers may remember, on several occasions before, we have alluded to the wonderful cures, or modifications of Fits, made by the Vegetable Extract Epileptic Pills, invented and prepared by Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. We feel fully satisfied that these Pills have cured some of the most stubborn cases of Epilepsy, as well as the mild forms of Fits, such as severe Cramps, Spasms, &c. We now record the fact, that persons will find these Pills equally efficacious in curing every form of nervous debility;—no matter whether manifested in the acute and excruciating form of Neuralgia, Tic Dolorous, or Nervous Headache, the misery of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, the sufferings of Rheumatism, or Gout, the melancholy hallucination of depressed spirits or hysteria, their effects will be equally happy and certain.—Persons in the country can write to the inventor, and have the medicine forwarded to them by mail. The prices are, one box, $3; two boxes $5; twelve boxes $24; and sent to any part of the country, free of postage. Direct your communications to SEETH S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md.

THE CELEBRATED COPPER TOE!

Mitchell's Patent Metallic Tip, designed especially for Boys', Youths' and Children's BOOTS AND SHOES. AN IMPROVEMENT has been applied to Boots and Shoes, by which a saving of expense to the consumer, of two-thirds is realized, by actual experiment.

The Tip consists of a piece of copper or other indestructible material, neatly fastened to the toe of the boot or shoe, forming a complete protection. This invention is now presented to the public, with the fullest knowledge of its practical utility, having been tested over two years, and is destined eternally to supersede the old style, for CHILDREN'S BOYS' AND YOUTHS' BOOTS AND SHOES. The importance of this invention will be readily appreciated, as it is well known that children invariably wear out their boots and shoes FIRST AT THE TOE, and, with this protection, they will upon an average wear at least two to three times as long as the old style, while the expense is but a trifle more.

This invention is also especially applicable to Miners' Boots, and all occupations subjecting the toe of the boot or shoe to be cut or worn. Merchants, and the public generally, will see the importance of obtaining these goods immediately, as they are destined for general use, to supersede all other kinds. The Goods may be obtained of nearly all the wholesale dealers in the principal cities, or of the Subscribers, CHASE, McKINNEY & CO., (OWNERS OF THE PATENT.) Boston, August 31st, 1859.—6m.

TAGGART & FARR'S IMPROVED

Family Sewing Machines! NO. 103, NORTH EIGHTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

These Machines were awarded the first premiums at the Lancaster and Montgomery County Fairs (the only fairs at which they have been yet exhibited) in competition with the Wheeler & Wilson, Singer, and other machines, and are offered to the public with confidence as being the cheapest and best machine in the market. They are now in extensive use and have met the unqualified approval of all who have tried them. They are strong and simple in construction, and are not likely to get out of order, as an examination will fully satisfy every one. They will do as great a variety of work, do it as well and do as much of it as the high priced machines can do.

FAMILIES, TAILORS & SEAMSTRESSES Will find these machines adapted to their wants. They will sew fine or heavy goods of every description with equal facility. For Quilting purposes they are unequalled. By a simple adjustment of the tension, a stitch is made which gathers beautifully. The stitch is the Double Lock Stitch, strong and elastic, and will not unravel or draw the goods when washed. The thread is used from spoils of any size, as instructed at the stores, without re-winding. Instructions in operating the machines given to purchasers. Each machine is accompanied with directions, which are very explicit, and contain all the information necessary to operate successfully.

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz: THE VERMIFUGE, For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals
