LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TWO HOURS ON THE FAIR GROUND.—What curiosities were there—During our short stay on the Fair Ground we became satisfied that Huntingdon county can't be surpassed for good and nice things.

By reference to another column of to-days paper it will be seen that intelligence has been received of Sir John Franklin. Comment is unnecessary as his history is too well known.

OUR BOOK TABLE.—We have received the first number of Vol. 1 of a paper called the Practical Machinist, devoted to the encouragement of inventive genius and mechanical skill.

The September number of the "Printer" has been received. This work is devoted to the best interests of the craft. Published at $1 per year, by John Henry, No 1 Spruce st. New York.

"I WILL TRY."—This magazine is published in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland co., at 30 cents per year. Parents, subscribe to it for your children.

Medical impossibilities.—For a long time a certain class of diseases have baffled the skill and practice of the most eminent members of the regular medical faculty.

WHAT WE SEE AND HEAR.—A fight took place up town, on Tuesday or Wednesday night last. We have not learned the particulars.—A grand (?) ball came off at the Court House, on Thursday night.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.—PHILADELPHIA, September 21, 1859. FLOUR—Superfine, per barrel, $4 50/65 00. Extra, " 5 25/65 40.

GREAT BARGAIN.—Valuable Farm at Public Sale. Will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, on Friday, the 21st day of October next, the valuable farm, known as the Bowman Farm.

Our fellow townsman, Mr. Robert Stitt, has remembered us by sending us some fine grapes. We believe we have never before seen or tasted better grapes, and the fine present calls forth the thanks of all hands.
