A large ladder was then used as a battering ram, and the door gave way. The rioters fired briskly, and shot three of the Marines, who exchanged shots through the partly broken door.

The rioters were brought out amidst the most intense excitement, many of the armed militia present trying to get an opportunity to shoot them.

the Western bound train, which was turned back this morning, gives the following particulars:

"I walked up to the bridge and was stopped by the insurgents, but was afterwards permitted to go up to see Captain Anderson, the commander of the insurgents. I was then taken to the Armory, the Captain in command of which was named Bill Smith, where I was detained as a prisoner for more than three hours.

After being released I went into the tavern kept by Mr. Chambers, and found about thirty inhabitants of Harper's Ferry collected there with arms.

Mr. Simpson was escorted back over the bridge by six negroes. He reported the train with the Frederick military to be lying at the Point of Rocks.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

The undersigned, assignee of Jonathan Leslie, will offer at public sale, at the Court House in the borough of Huntingdon, On Wednesday, November 16th, 1859, at ten o'clock, A. M., a FARM, situate in Wayne township, Mifflin co., containing 125 ACRES, more or less, adjoining the Juniata River and lands of Elijah McVey, a large frame house, (unfurnished) and a frame barn building erected thereon, with a frame bank barn about 40 by 66 feet, with a wagon shed and corn crib attached thereto; also a stone spring house. There are two never failing springs of good water upon the premises, one of them near the house and barn; also an apple orchard containing from 50 to 75 trees.

This farm is good limestone land, about 50 acres wooded, some of which is choice land for cultivation. It lies on the south side of the Juniata River, about one mile from the Newton Hamilton Station of the Penna. Railroad, and the Newton Hamilton Dam of the Penna. Canal is in part upon the premises. A portion of the land lies upon Sugar Ridge, in the vicinity of large deposits of iron ore, and is considered a good site for manufacturing establishments.

This Farm will be sold as the property of the said Jonathan Leslie, for the benefit of his creditors.

TERMS: One half of the purchase money to be paid on the first day of April next, when possession will be given, and the other half in one year, with interest, to be secured by bond and mortgage.
