

Huntingdon Journal.
Wednesday Morning, Nov. 16 1859

W.M. BREWSTER, Editor

The Verdict of the People.
We were told freely that the Harper's Ferry affair would create a great reaction on the Democratic party.

When we look at the Northern elections, we find the reaction of which we have spoken in full activity. New Jersey, which voted for the Administration at the Presidential election, has carried the People's candidate for Governor by nearly 2000 majority.

Mr. Harding objected to the proceeding and insisted that the case should be proceeded with. He was not to be deterred by Governor Wise or any one else. He was not led by any one, and would only receive as a compensation for his arduous labors in the case, the small pitance allowed by the Circuit Court.

Mr. Sennett remarked that he had not consulted with his client, and as the jury was partly chosen, he would not consent that the State should hand over the prisoner, for what purpose was known to Gov. Wise, and had been foreshadowed by the remark of Mr. Hunter.

Mr. Hunter then remarked that he would then proceed immediately with the case of Stephens and hand over the prisoner, Hozlett, who has not been indicted, to the Federal Court. It was material whether Stephens would prefer a trial or not.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Harding desired the Clerk to enter his earnest protest against the whole proceedings. He considered the whole proceeding wrong, and wished it so shown on the record.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

DESPATCH FROM GOV. WISE.
He advised that Stephens be handed over to the Federal authorities—Attempt to bring prominent Abolitionists before the Federal Bar.

After a considerable number of jurors had been obtained, Mr. Hunter stated that he had just received a despatch which would probably interfere with further proceeding in the empanelling of a jury. He then read the following despatch from Governor Wise:—

RICHMOND, Nov. 7th.
To Andrew G. Hunter—Dear Sir:—I think you had better try Cook and hand over Stephens to the Federal Authorities.

Mr. Hunter stated that he had been in correspondence for several days with Governor Wise, and had in his possession a number of facts, important to the development of this case, which were unknown to the public, and would for the present remain so. He had since his last letter to the Governor, come in the possession of other facts which pointed to Stephens as the most available party to be handed over to the Federal authorities; as he felt assured enough would be ascertained to result in bringing before the Federal Bar a number of the prominent Abolition fanatics of the North.

Mr. Sennett remarked that he had not consulted with his client, and as the jury was partly chosen, he would not consent that the State should hand over the prisoner, for what purpose was known to Gov. Wise, and had been foreshadowed by the remark of Mr. Hunter.

Mr. Hunter then remarked that he would then proceed immediately with the case of Stephens and hand over the prisoner, Hozlett, who has not been indicted, to the Federal Court. It was material whether Stephens would prefer a trial or not.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Harding desired the Clerk to enter his earnest protest against the whole proceedings. He considered the whole proceeding wrong, and wished it so shown on the record.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

Mr. Sennett then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand over to the Federal authorities, and thereupon he preferred to be remanded to jail.

can base a requisition. The Executive of Virginia will exert all the power entrusted to him in bringing all offenders to justice—and no position in society, or in the government of any State, or the government of the United States, will shield the offender. The higher the position the greater the criminality of the offence, and the more strenuous will be the efforts to bring such offenders to justice.

The Executive of Virginia will vindicate her honor, and we hope the Southern States will be prepared to rally to Virginia when she orders her horse to be put in order. The Charles town trials may be over, but the end is not yet!

OLD BROWN'S ACT.
In a lecture on the Harper's Ferry Affair, at Boston, Benjamin F. Clark said of Old Brown's one-horse raid into Virginia: You may call it madness, insanity—what you will—but it is the madness of Curtius leaping into the gulf which yawned in the forum; the insanity of the Roman Consul, who dedicating himself to the infernal gods, plunged alone and in full armor into the jaws of the enemy, as a sacrifice for his nation. It is the madness of Armodius, of Iolo, treading, gathering to his bosom the spear and the sword—the madness of the three hundred who went to die at Thermopylae—the six hundred who rode into the jaws of Hell, to perish in vain, because it was their duty to do and die. It is a kind of insanity of which a few specimens are scattered along the course of the human race—wherever they are found they make the glory of the human race—and wherever they are found, they make the glory of human nature, and give us more faith in God and man. Such men die but their acts live forever—

Their memory wraps the dusky yvaintain, Their spirit sparkles in the fountains, The moaning rill, the mightiest river, Boils, mingling with their name forever.

We copy an article from the Democratic Press which we believe listens to the moral guilt of Old Brown's foray upon the treasury of James Buchanan. Nor can Mr. Buchanan escape the guilt that must forever attach to him in that disgraceful episode at Harper's Ferry. He and his misguided slave-driving crew can never extricate themselves from the violent and bloody tragedy. Brown was only doing in the South what Buchanan attempted to do by the sword in the North. Buchanan was attempting to sustain slavery on free lands in the north, and poor old John Brown in his fanatical bravado was endeavoring to force freedom upon the south. Both he and Buchanan were using the same means. Well has Ferny of the Press opened up to the just condemnation of every man the conduct of this detestable general Administration. This coming from a Democratic journal requires serious reflection for every serious Democrat in the State:—

Mr. Buchanan himself is more guilty, in a moral sense, for the work of Harper's Ferry than poor old Brown. He was a party to the whole slavery question in the States and in Congress. He quietly abandoned his position, and went over, not to the people of the South but to a few Southern extremists, who suddenly discovered the brilliant idea that they could so construe the Federal Constitution as to make that compact proprio vigore establish and maintain slavery in all the public Territories. This scheme excited deep and universal disgust in the minds of the whole country. It gives rise to an impression that the Executive Government had undertaken to propagate slavery. The decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case was so perverted by Mr. Buchanan in his first message, as to cover his project. It was boldly avowed that slavery existed in all the new States, by virtue of the Constitution. This enormous and abominable heresy was followed by an Executive policy so weak, shiftless and time-serving as to impair the confidence of the country in the integrity and capacity of the President, and to convict him of a deliberate attempt to use his constitutional powers to propagate the institution of slavery, not only in opposition to, but in contempt of the people's right to it to determine that and every other question of domestic policy. Upon minds like John Brown's, this scheme of the President was destined to exert a powerful influence. In proof of this we only refer to the prevailing excitement which followed the public announcement of Mr. Buchanan's policy; to the condition of the Democratic party, distracted and broken up at every point; to the triumph of the Republicans in the free States; to the demonstrated zeal of the Abolitionists; and finally to the Harper's Ferry episode, with its fatal and disgraceful incidents, resulting in the conviction and sentence of Old Brown, about the only honest and brave disciple of the entire Abolition family. Had Mr. Buchanan pursued the course marked out in his election, and indicated by every sense of patriotism and fair dealing, there would have been no Harper's Ferry episode; no capture, by a handful of men, of a town of three thousand inhabitants; no arrest of guilty parties and the Government of Virginia might have been spared the intense mortification of vindictating her honor, under circumstances so equivocal and unseemly as those attending this whole affair. Upon Mr. Buchanan rests the chief responsibility for this unfortunate state of things. His is the moral guilt; while the legal responsibility falls upon a man honest and brave, but too weak to appreciate either the true nature of his offence or the source of his guilt.

There are thousands and tens of thousands of John Browns in this country—tens of thousands who entertained his opinions, sympathized with his projects, and only wanted the courage and integrity to unite themselves with his criminal expedition. There are thousands in the North and thousands in the South—men who believe that the sword of God—should be wielded to enforce their wild notions to propagate and establish slavery. Mr. Buchanan is one of these men in every practical sense; and he is the principal of all because a misled people have placed in his hands more weapons of mischief, more power to do harm than any other. His attempt to carry slavery into the mid of a hostile local opinion is of the same character as that of John Brown to secure freedom to a people who would have none of it. It was right in James Buchanan to force slavery upon a free people; it was right in John Brown to force freedom upon the South. Their authority outside of the law, was precisely the same. It is unfortunate that Mr. Buchanan had not possessed the honesty of purpose of poor old Brown. It would have saved the credit of the Administration and probably the life of that crazy and deluded agitator.

The Secret of Happiness.
The most common error of men and women is that of looking for happiness somewhere outside of useful work. It has never yet been found when thus sought, and never will be while the world stands, and the sooner this truth is learned the better for every one. If you doubt the proposition, glance around among your friends and acquaintances, and select those who appear to have the most enjoyment in life. Are they the idlers and pleasure-seekers, or the true workers? We know what your answer will be. Of all miserable human beings it has been our fortune, or misfortune, to know, they were the most wretched who had retired from useful employments in order to enjoy themselves. Why, the slave at his enforced labor, or the hungry laborer for bread, were supremely happy in comparison. Earnestly would we impress on young minds the truth we here state. It lies at the foundation of all well doing and well being. It gives tranquility and pleasure to the youth, just stepping across the threshold of rational life, as well as to the man whose years are beginning to rest upon his stoop shoulders. Be ever engaged in useful work, if you would be happy. This is the great secret.

A publisher of a newspaper out West, in the first issue of his journal, returns thanks to those who loaned him the pecuniary means, and gratitude to H. A. WISE, that there is no law in the State enforcing imprisonment for debt.

The Indiana "American" of last week notices that a black brown horse, and saddle and bridle were stolen from the stable of James Mitchell of that place, on the night of the 21st ult.

Attend the Concerts and the Lecture before the Standing Stone Literary Association.

MARRIED:
On the 20th ult., by Rev. T. H. Switzer, Mr. Mark Deaman, to Miss Lizette Simpson of Penns. Furnace, Hunt. Co.

On the 2nd inst., by Rev. A. M. Creighton, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Geo. Gansmore of Birmingham, to Miss Lettie J. Conrad of Mechanicsville, Hunt. Co.

On the 3d inst., by the Rev. T. H. Switzer, D. R. Fry, to Miss Maggie Enas, both of Warriorsmark, Hunt. Co.

On the 8th inst., by Rev. A. M. Creighton, David B. Bidloe, to Miss Hannah Spanioque, both of Warriorsmark, Hunt. Co.

By the Rev. G. Van Arsdale of Shade Gap, Pennsylvania, on Thursday Nov. 10th, Martin Rice Esq. to Miss Catharine Yohn, all of Juniata County, Pennsylvania.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE SIXTH ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT, and brilliant offers in another column.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
OLD BROWN HUNG!
GEBRET SMITH IMPROVED!
It is now a conceded fact that DAVID GROVE has just received at the old stand, near the corner of Hill and Smith streets, the cheapest and best assortment of 20-35s ever offered in this community. He is now prepared to furnish.

FALL & WINTER GOODS!
DRESS GOODS, DE LANES, BARAGES, COSETS, PRINTS.
And in fact he can supply any article in the dry good line. Also, trappings suited to all dresses and at reasonable rates.

REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC SALE.
Will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, on Wednesday, November 30th inst., All that value the FARM, in Tell tp., adjoining lands of Samuel Hackett, Wm. Widney and others, consisting of 200 ACRES of farm and 100 acres of mountain—the improvement, and 2 LOG HOUSES and a log barn. Two of the best springs of limestone water in the State lower end of the county are convenient to the houses. The fields are all watered. A good orchard is on it. The land is limestone in general, and will be sold as a bargain, on accommodating terms. The Stone Road leading from Hunt. Cabins to Perryville, runs direct through the farm, which is also within half a mile of a good mill, saw mill and an factory.

Lady's Book.
We are in receipt of the December number of this invaluable periodical. We could not do without it. The present number is a grand one. The world renowned Miss Simmens will again make her appearance as the keeper of a boarding house, and nothing richer have we ever read. He promises that the Lady's Book for next year will be better. We will give the Lady's Book and Huntingdon Journal for one year for $3.50.

CHARLES DICKENS'S WORKS.
The well-known firm of B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, has just issued the fourth volume of their remarkable cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction containing the conclusion of Pickwick Papers, and commencement of Old Curiosity Shop. It is called "Peterson's Cheap Edition for the Million of the choice writings of Charles Dickens, Box," and will be issued complete in Twenty-eight weekly volumes. One volume will be published regularly on each and every Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-eight—is completed. The low price fixed by the publishers for them are only 25 cents a volume, or the whole twenty-eight volumes for five dollars. A complete set will be forwarded free of postage by Mail, to any part of the United States, by any one, by the publishers, on sending them a remittance of five dollars for the twenty-eight volumes.

The following is one of the Resolutions of a Democratic caucus held in New York:
Resolved, That inasmuch as the great majority of the Democratic party are unable to read the newspaper, and utterly destitute of intellect sufficient to enable them to form an opinion on subjects of vital moment, and inasmuch as the late terrible insurrection at Harper's Ferry affords the most delightful stock of political capital, to which the Democratic party has fallen heir for many years past, it is deemed advisable to appoint a committee of highly respectable democrats to collect the facts (or all such as can, by any possibility, be made to redound to the glory of our beloved but decaying organization) in relation to the late dreadful revolution in Virginia, and to lay the same before the public at the earliest possible moment.

The Indiana "American" of last week notices that a black brown horse, and saddle and bridle were stolen from the stable of James Mitchell of that place, on the night of the 21st ult.

Attend the Concerts and the Lecture before the Standing Stone Literary Association.

MARRIED:
On the 20th ult., by Rev. T. H. Switzer, Mr. Mark Deaman, to Miss Lizette Simpson of Penns. Furnace, Hunt. Co.

On the 2nd inst., by Rev. A. M. Creighton, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Geo. Gansmore of Birmingham, to Miss Lettie J. Conrad of Mechanicsville, Hunt. Co.

On the 3d inst., by the Rev. T. H. Switzer, D. R. Fry, to Miss Maggie Enas, both of Warriorsmark, Hunt. Co.

On the 8th inst., by Rev. A. M. Creighton, David B. Bidloe, to Miss Hannah Spanioque, both of Warriorsmark, Hunt. Co.

By the Rev. G. Van Arsdale of Shade Gap, Pennsylvania, on Thursday Nov. 10th, Martin Rice Esq. to Miss Catharine Yohn, all of Juniata County, Pennsylvania.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE SIXTH ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT, and brilliant offers in another column.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
OLD BROWN HUNG!
GEBRET SMITH IMPROVED!
It is now a conceded fact that DAVID GROVE has just received at the old stand, near the corner of Hill and Smith streets, the cheapest and best assortment of 20-35s ever offered in this community. He is now prepared to furnish.

FALL & WINTER GOODS!
DRESS GOODS, DE LANES, BARAGES, COSETS, PRINTS.
And in fact he can supply any article in the dry good line. Also, trappings suited to all dresses and at reasonable rates.

REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC SALE.
Will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, on Wednesday, November 30th inst., All that value the FARM, in Tell tp., adjoining lands of Samuel Hackett, Wm. Widney and others, consisting of 200 ACRES of farm and 100 acres of mountain—the improvement, and 2 LOG HOUSES and a log barn. Two of the best springs of limestone water in the State lower end of the county are convenient to the houses. The fields are all watered. A good orchard is on it. The land is limestone in general, and will be sold as a bargain, on accommodating terms. The Stone Road leading from Hunt. Cabins to Perryville, runs direct through the farm, which is also within half a mile of a good mill, saw mill and an factory.

Rewards for the Arrest of Fugitive Insurgents.
RICHMOND, Nov. 4.—Governor Wise has issued a proclamation offering a reward of $500 each, for the arrest of the following named fugitive Insurgents:—Owen Brown, Barclay Coppee, Merriam and Todd.

6th Annual Announcement!
CONTINUED SUCCESS OF THE COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION.

From all sections of the country subscribers to this popular Art Institution (now in its 6th year) are being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any previous year. Any person can become a member by subscribing $3 which will entitle him to:—1st.—The beautiful Steel Engraving, "Shakespeare and His Friends." 2d.—A Copy of the elegantly Illustrated Art Journal, one year. 3d.—A Free Season Admission to the Galleries, 548 Broadway, N. Y.

In addition to which, over four hundred valuable Works of Art are given to subscribers as Premiums, comprising choice Sculptures, Paintings, Outlines, &c., by the first American and Foreign Artists.

The SEVERE ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive immediately on receipt of subscription, entitled "SHAKESPEARE AND HIS FRIENDS," is of a character to give unqualified pleasure and satisfaction. No work of equal value was ever before placed within reach of the people at such a price. The Engraving is of a very large size, being printed on every heavy plate paper, 30 by 25 inches, making a most substantial ornament suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor, or office.

It can be sent to any part of the country, by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage pre-paid. Think of it! Such a work, delivered free of charge, and the Art Journal one year, for three dollars! Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of Tuesday the 31st of January, 1860 at which time the books will close and the premiums will be given to subscribers. No person is restricted to a single subscription; those remitting $15 are entitled to six memberships in stamps of coin.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Provinces, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage. Persons wishing to form clubs will apply for a circular of terms, &c. The beautifully Illustrated Art Journal, giving full particulars, will be sent in receipt of 18 cents, in stamps of coin. Address: C. L. DEBBY, Actuary & C. A. 546 and 548 BROADWAY NEW-YORK.

Subscriptions also received by J. J. LAWRENCE, nos. 302, 304, 306, 308, 310, 312, 314, 316, 318, 320, 322, 324, 326, 328, 330, 332, 334, 336, 338, 340, 342, 344, 346, 348, 350, 352, 354, 356, 358, 360, 362, 364, 366, 368, 370, 372, 374, 376, 378, 380, 382, 384, 386, 388, 390, 392, 394, 396, 398, 400, 402, 404, 406, 408, 410, 412, 414, 416, 418, 420, 422, 424, 426, 428, 430, 432, 434, 436, 438, 440, 442, 444, 446, 448, 450, 452, 454, 456, 458, 460, 462, 464, 466, 468, 470, 472, 474, 476, 478, 480, 482, 484, 486, 488, 490, 492, 494, 496, 498, 500, 502, 504, 506, 508, 510, 512, 514, 516, 518, 520, 522, 524, 526, 528, 530, 532, 534, 536, 538, 540, 542, 544, 546, 548, 550, 552, 554, 556, 558, 560, 562, 564, 566, 568, 570, 572, 574, 576, 578, 580, 582, 584, 586, 588, 590, 592, 594, 596, 598, 600, 602, 604, 606, 608, 610, 612, 614, 616, 618, 620, 622, 624, 626, 628, 630, 632, 634, 636, 638, 640, 642, 644, 646, 648, 650, 652, 654, 656, 658, 660, 662, 664, 666, 668, 670, 672, 674, 676, 678, 680, 682, 684, 686, 688, 690, 692, 694, 696, 698, 700, 702, 704, 706, 708, 710, 712, 714, 716, 718, 720, 722, 724, 726, 728, 730, 732, 734, 736, 738, 740, 742, 744, 746, 748, 750, 752, 754, 756, 758, 760, 762, 764, 766, 768, 770, 772, 774, 776, 778, 780, 782, 784, 786, 788, 790, 792, 794, 796, 798, 800, 802, 804, 806, 808, 810, 812, 814, 816, 818, 820, 822, 824, 826, 828, 830, 832, 834, 836, 838, 840, 842, 844, 846, 848, 850, 852, 854, 856, 858, 860, 862, 864, 866, 868, 870, 872, 874, 876, 878, 880, 882, 884, 886, 888, 890, 892, 894, 896, 898, 900, 902, 904, 906, 908, 910, 912, 914, 916, 918, 920, 922, 924, 926, 928, 930, 932, 934, 936, 938, 940, 942, 944, 946, 948, 950, 952, 954, 956, 958, 960, 962, 964, 966, 968, 970, 972, 974, 976, 978, 980, 982, 984, 986, 988, 990, 992, 994, 996, 998, 1000.

LIST OF JURORS FOR A COURT of Quarter Sessions to be held at Huntingdon in and for the county of Huntingdon, the third Monday and 21th day of November, 1859.

TRAVELING JURORS—SECOND WEEK.
Charles C. Vah, J. P. Barre, Michael Baker, carpenter, Alexandria. Isaac Cook, farmer, Carbon. Asabel Corbin, farmer, Onida. David Colestock, farmer, Huntingdon. Jacob Crowwell, surveyor, Cassville. John Dunsion, inn-keeper, Union. Benjamin Grafius, tinner, Huntingdon. W. H. Gorsuch, merchant, Springfield. Samuel Grove, farmer, Hopewell. Thomas Heas, farmer, Henderson. Thomas Henson, farmer, Franklin. Adam Hoffman, chair maker, Walker. Thomas Huston, farmer, Jackson. Joseph Hagey, farmer, Tell. William Johnston, farmer, Warriorsmark. George Miller, farmer, Onida. Henry Miller, farmer, Juniata. John B. Moreland, teacher, Clay. George McCruten, farmer, Barre. George Noss, Tanner, Tell. A. Jackson Osborn, laborer, Jackson. Abraham Pheasant, farmer, Cass. John Shires, laborer, Warriorsmark. James Stone, farmer, Henderson. James Swoope, clerk, Union. Peter C. Swoope, clerk, Huntingdon. Richard Swisher, farmer, Shirley. G. W. Thompson, M. D. Brady. E. C. Tompston, carpenter, Cromwell. Daniel Weight, farmer, Warriorsmark. John B. Weaver, farmer, Hopewell. Ezekiel White, carpenter, Carbon. Alex. B. Cunningham, merchant, Huntingdon. Benjamin Isenberg, laborer, Porter. John Thompson, tailor, Shirley. Huntingdon, Oct. 26, 1859.

FOODS! BOOKS!
40,000 Volumes of Books for Sale, $500.00 in Gifts for every 1000 Sold.
In order to reduce my extensive stock I will sell one thousand dollars worth of Books at the regular retail price, or less, and give ($500) five hundred dollars worth of presents varying in value from 25 cents to $100.00. Or, those who prefer can purchase at wholesale prices.—My stock consists of every variety and style of binding. School Books of every kind, Wholesale and Retail. Sales to commence Dec. 24th, Dec. 22, '59. WM. COLON.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
SAVE A DOLLAR!
PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.
SUBSCRIBE FOR 1860!
This popular Monthly Magazine has already a circulation of 100,000; but it is to be greatly improved for 1860. It will contain One Thousand pages of Reading! Fourteen splendid illustrations! Twelve Colored Fashion's! Twelve Colored Berlin Work Patterns! Eight Hundred Wood Cuts! Twenty-four pages of Music! All this will be given for only Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of the class of "Peterson's." Its Charming Tales and Novels! Are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write Originality for "Peterson's." It also publishes FASHIONS AHEAD OF ALL OTHERS.

Each number, in addition to the Colored plate, gives Bonnets, Cloaks and Dresses, engraved on wood. Also, a Pattern, from which a Dress, Manilla or Child's Pattern can be cut out, without the aid of a man-mak-r. It is the best Lady's Magazine in the world. TRY IT FOR ONE YEAR.

Public Sale of Real Estate.
Will be offered at Public Sale on Friday, the 2nd day of December next, the Farm on which the subscriber now resides, situated in Franklin township, Huntingdon county; containing one hundred and seventy acres, and one hundred and fifty-three perches, (neat measure)—about one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared, and in a good state of cultivation, having thereon erected a good and substantial DWELLING HOUSE and Frame bank Barn, Wagon shed, Corncrib, Wood-house and Hog-pen. Also, an Orchard of Apple, Pear and Peach trees. A never failing spring of limestone water and a good spring house near the dwelling house. Said Farm is nearly all Limestone land, and among the surest Wheat land on Spruce Creek. The Spruce Creek and Water street Turnpike runs through the same—and it is situated within half a mile of Colerain Forge, and three and a half miles from the Pennsylvania Railroad at Spruce Creek Station. It is also convenient to School houses and Churches. Sale to commence at one o'clock in the afternoon, when and where due attendance will be given, and the terms of sale made known by Franklin tp., Nov. 2, '59.—3c. Lewistown Gazette insert three times and charge the office.

Physician and Surgeon.
RESPECTFULLY OFFERS HIS PROFESSIONAL SERVICES to the citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity. Residence on Hill street; in the house formerly occupied by Dr. R. V. Miller. April 13, 1859.

Public Sale of Real Estate.
Will be offered at Public Sale on Friday, the 2nd day of December next, the Farm on which the subscriber now resides, situated in Franklin township, Huntingdon county; containing one hundred and seventy acres, and one hundred and fifty-three perches, (neat measure)—about one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared, and in a good state of cultivation, having thereon erected a good and substantial DWELLING HOUSE and Frame bank Barn, Wagon shed, Corncrib, Wood-house and Hog-pen. Also, an Orchard of Apple, Pear and Peach trees. A never failing spring of limestone water and a good spring house near the dwelling house. Said Farm is nearly all Limestone land, and among the surest Wheat land on Spruce Creek. The Spruce Creek and Water street Turnpike runs through the same—and it is situated within half a mile of Colerain Forge, and three and a half miles from the Pennsylvania Railroad at Spruce Creek Station. It is also convenient to School houses and Churches. Sale to commence at one o'clock in the afternoon, when and where due attendance will be given, and the terms of sale made known by Franklin tp., Nov. 2, '59.—3c. Lewistown Gazette insert three times and charge the office.

Physician and Surgeon.
RESPECTFULLY OFFERS HIS PROFESSIONAL SERVICES to the citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity. Residence on Hill street; in the house formerly occupied by Dr. R. V. Miller. April 13, 1859.

Public Sale of Real Estate.
Will be offered at Public Sale on Friday, the 2nd day of December next, the Farm on which the subscriber now resides, situated in Franklin township, Huntingdon county; containing one hundred and seventy acres, and one hundred and fifty-three perches, (neat measure)—about one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared, and in a good state of cultivation, having thereon erected a good and substantial DWELLING HOUSE and Frame bank Barn, Wagon shed, Corncrib, Wood-house and Hog-pen. Also, an Orchard of Apple, Pear and Peach trees. A never failing spring of limestone water and a good spring house near the dwelling house. Said Farm is nearly all Limestone land, and among the surest Wheat land on Spruce Creek. The Spruce Creek and Water street Turnpike runs through the same—and it is situated within half a mile of Colerain Forge, and three and a half miles from the Pennsylvania Railroad at Spruce Creek Station. It is also convenient to School houses and Churches. Sale to commence at one o'clock in the afternoon, when and where due attendance will be given, and the terms of sale made known by Franklin tp., Nov. 2, '59.—3c. Lewistown Gazette insert three times and charge the office.

VANHAAGEN & McKEONE'S DETERGENT SOAP PHILADELPHIA.

This Celebrated Washing Soap, is now in market for more than a year, and that it has given universal satisfaction, is evident from the fact that the Manufacturers of it, in order to supply the demand have been obliged to increase their capacity to make equal to One Hundred Thousand pounds per week. It is decidedly the best and cheapest soap ever made in this country; one pound of it will go as far, for any use, as three of the common soap in general use. It is made upon a new principle, of the best materials, and known only to VANHAAGEN & McKEONE. It does away entirely with the wash-board—saves the necessity of boiling the clothes; it does not shrink flannels, REMOVES GRASS, INK OR PAINT SPOTS perfectly, and from the most delicate fabric, gives fully one-half the time and labor usually spent to do the washing. It is warranted free from Sal Soda or other injurious alkalies, and guaranteed not to rot or injure the clothes. For sale by all respectable Grocers and Wholesale by THAIN & McKEONE, No. 23 and 24 South Wharves, PHILADELPHIA.

CAUTION.
There being several imitations of the Detergent Soap in market, the public are notified that none is genuine except VAN HAAGEN & McKEONE'S. It is stamped upon each Bar of the Soap as well as the Boxes. Nov. 2-3m.

New Goods! New Goods! D. P. GWIN'S CHEAP STORE.

D. P. G