POETRY. To Mothers.

Mother, which those listle feet, Olimbing o'er the garden wall, Bonading through the busy street Ranging cellar, shed and hall. Nerver mind the time it cost, Little feet will go astray-Guide them, mother, while you may. Mother, watch the little hand Picking bersies by the way, Making bouses in the sand, Tossing up the fragrant hay; Nerver dare the question ask, Why to me this heavy task ? These same hands may prove Messengers of light; and love. Mother, watch those little feet Messengers of light; and love. Mother, watch the little tongue' Prattling eloquent and wild... What is said and what is sung By the happy, joyons child; Catch the vord while yet unspoken, Stop the row while yet unspoken, This same tongue may yet proclaim Blassings in the Saviour's name. Mathem settle the livit heart Mother, watch the lirtle heart,

Mother, watch the invite heart, Beating soft and warm for you; Wholesome lessons now impart, Keep, Oh! keep that young heart true. Eradicating every weed, Sowing good and precious seed, Harvest rich you then may see Ripening for eternity.
