

WM. BREWSTER, Editor

People's State Convention.

The Citizens of Pennsylvania who are opposed to the principles and measures of the present National Administration, and to the Election of men to office who sustain those principles and measures, are requested to meet in their respective counties, and to elect Delegates equal in number to their representatives in the General Assembly, to a PEOPLE'S CONVENTION to be held at HARRISBURG, on at 12 A. M., to indicate their choice for the next Presidency, nominate a candidate for Governor, form an Electoral ticket, appoint Senatorial, and to designate the time and mode of electing District Delegates to the National Convention, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary to ensure success at the General Election. LEVI KLINE, Chairman People's Executive Committee.

Mass Meeting.

In accordance with the usage of the American-Republicans of this county, there will be a Mass Meeting, at the Court House, in Huntingdon, on the evening of the second Tuesday of January next, for the purpose of appointing a delegate to represent them in the next State Convention which will assemble on the 22nd day of February next, and for the appointment of conferees to meet similar conferees from Somerset and Bedford counties, to name a Senatorial delegate. By order of the County Committee. WM. H. WOOD, Chairman.

To the Patrons of the Journal.

The relation which has existed between us for the last few years is now terminated. With this number our connection with the JOURNAL ceases. It is necessary to be stated in the Press, Type, and Subscription List, to JOHN LUTZ, Esq. of Shirelysburg.

Ms. Lutz is a gentleman of talent and experience, vigilant and firm in conducting a newspaper, a Whig of the Old School, and an active and influential member of the present party of the People; and this change of proprietorship works no change in the political principles heretofore advocated and sustained by the JOURNAL.

While we confess that we experience a feeling of relief in turning over upon the broad shoulders of our successor, the burden of day-labors and perplexities which the publishers of a newspaper must bear, we at the same time cannot take leave of our Patrons without pain and regret. In all the vicissitudes and vexations of Editorial life, the constant support of a noble band of Patrons has encouraged and sustained us; and we would do violence to our feelings if we did not, in parting, publicly express our obligations to you. Into whatever sphere of life our future lot may be cast we shall bear with us a grateful remembrance of your kindness and sympathy.

Permit us in conclusion to urge upon you to attend to, and sustain the principles of your party—the strife may be fierce and protracted but true victory will be sure.

"For Freedom's battle once begun, Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son, Though baffled oft it is always won."

To our brethren of the Press we return our thanks for their uniform courtesy.

WILLIAM BREWSTER.

Having disposed of the Huntingdon Journal to Mr. Lutz, all who are in arrears for Subscription or Job work to me will oblige me very much, and themselves too, perhaps, by immediately calling and settling their accounts. We intend to give our attention to settling and collecting these accounts, and closing them all up without delay. Costs will be saved by attention to this notice.

WILLIAM BREWSTER.

PENNA. ALMANAC.—We have received from the publishers, Messrs Davis & Co., Odd Fellows' Building, Pittsburg, a copy of the above named work for 1860, giving the History of the State, Foreign and Domestic Postage, Post Office directory of the State, full account of the Masonic and Odd Fellows' Lodges, Railroads, State and county officers, time of meeting President Judges, &c. To be continued annually, giving the latest Statistical information regarding the State.

The festival of Thanksgiving, on last Thursday, was celebrated, in this place, in a most orderly manner. Public and private business was suspended. Religious services were conducted at the several churches.

One of the Blair county papers says that bears are unusually plenty on the mountain, and so bold that they sometimes venture into the settlements in quest of food. Quite a number had been seen in this county, but only two cubs have been shot lately. They had been prowling about the premises of Mr. J. M. Tusey, of Sinking Valley, for some time when that gentleman laid in wait, and without much trouble succeeded in killing both.

A Vigilance committee has been formed in Barbour county, Va., and all abolitionists are earnestly invited to leave the county in thirty days. In Alabama, a similar warning has been given at all the "crossed" places on Brown's map, and committees are forming in every direction.

Excitement at Charleston!

Gov. Wise visits the Prisoners.—Brown ready to die.—Cook wants to be shot.—Wise urges them to prepare for death.—Jno. Brown's Insanity—Pennsylvania tenders aid.—Gov. Wise declines the offer.—Fresh outbreak of Excitement.—A sentinel challenges a cow—She refuses to halt—another scare.—Three men in buckram fire on a sentinel—Whisky insurrection.

CHARLESTON, VA., Nov. 22.

Gov. Wise is here reviewing the military, and in the afternoon he had an interview with the prisoners. The Governor urged upon them the necessity of preparing for death, as the sentence of the court would be carried out, without any interference on his part.

Brown declared himself ready to die.—He justified his course, only regretting his error in not allowing the train to pass without interruption.

Cook said he was willing to be shot, but always had a great repugnance to hanging.

Gov. Wise said that Coppee was the only one that he had ever thought of commuting, but he had now determined to hang them all.

Gov. Wise, yesterday, received a dispatch from the Governor of South Carolina, tendering him any amount of military aid, in the defence of Virginia. Mr. Wise replied by thanking him for the offer, but assuring the Governor that Virginia was able to defend herself.

The Richmond military were all ordered to return home yesterday, but the people protested against such a course, declaring that if there was any necessity for them to come, that necessity still existed. Finally Governor Wise ordered two Richmond companies to remain, and also the Petersburg Artillery.

Several of the Richmond companies started for home this morning, and others will follow. He expresses the intention of having a thousand military present on the day of execution.

It seems that by the law of Virginia, even after trial and conviction, upon a suggestion made of insanity, a prisoner may be made that point tried by a Jury. To give the counsel of John Brown an opportunity to have such an issue framed and tried an application has been made to Gov. Wise to postpone the execution of sentence; and is a basis for his action in the premises a collection of affidavits taken in Ohio among the relatives and early acquaintances of Brown has been submitted to him. We have had an opportunity of examining these affidavits. It appears from them that Brown had resided the greater part of his life in Hudson, Summit County, Ohio, of which his father was one of the original settlers. Brown was absent many years since, for a few years in Pennsylvania, but returned again to Ohio, whence he removed some four or five years ago to Essex co., N. Y.

It is abundantly shown by these affidavits that on the mother's side Brown belonged to a family in which insanity was hereditary. His maternal grandmother was insane for six years and died insane.—Three of her children, a brother and two sisters of Brown's mother, suffered from the same disorder, and another brother who himself escaped, had three insane children, cousins of John Brown. The only sister of John Brown was also liable to attacks of insanity, as were a child of hers, and two children of John Brown himself.

A brother of John Brown's first wife states that at the time of her death, some twenty-four or five years ago, the conversation and conduct of Brown strongly impresses his relations with the idea of insanity on his part; and it is the opinion of this brother in law that ever since at intervals the mind of Brown has been more or less disordered. An uncle of Brown's who might be supposed to have some knowledge of the symptoms of insanity, as his own mother and three of his children were the victims of that disorder, states that he has regarded Brown, for twenty years, as subject to periods of insanity, not of a very marked type, but partaking of the character of monomania. Similar testimony is given by several persons who describe themselves as acquainted with Brown from early childhood. A physician of Hudson who has known Brown since 1812, has long been subject to attacks of insanity and has at times been fully convinced that such was his condition. A lawyer whom Brown was in the habit of consulting about his business affairs, considered him of a very excitable temperament and as constitutionally predisposed to insanity. Several of his old acquaintances, who saw him after his return from Kansas, state that there was something in his manner and conversation, and especially, the idea with which he seemed to be impressed, and of which he often spoke, that he was an instrument, in the hand of God for the overthrow of Slavery, which strongly impressed them with the idea that his mind was disordered.

The whole history of John Brown for the last two years, so far as it has come to light; and all the incidents of his famous foray upon Harper's Ferry, have never appeared to us, from the first, as consistent with soundness of mind. We have no doubt, that, if the issue could be tried, a very strong case might be made out. It would, however, be too mortifying to the pride of the Virginians to admit that they had been so frightened by a crazy man, and Gov. Wise will no doubt dispose of this application as summarily as the Court of Appeals did of the application for a new trial.

CHARLESTON, VA., Nov. 23, 1859.

Gov. Wise left Harper's Ferry this morning for Richmond, after receiving a despatch from Gov. Packer of Pennsylvania, tendering him the services of 10,000 men and offering to station a guard along the dividing line between Pennsylvania and Maryland. Gov. Wise returned thanks for the offer, assuring Gov. Packer that Virginia was able to protect her honor.

After the departure of the Governor, Col. Elliot addressed the military, telling them that it was possible they might have to undergo arduous and perilous duties, and that he felt satisfied that should the venerable Commonwealth be invaded, they would affectually wipe out the stain.

Last night at 9 o'clock an alarm was given by one of the sentinels firing his rifle. Military orders were sounded from one end of the town to the other, and caused very great panic among women and children, and some men whose nervous systems have become much disordered by late events. Shutters were closed and lights extinguished in quick time.—The excitement continued until 10 o'clock when it was ascertained that the sentinel had mistaken a cow for a man—that he challenged her—she wouldn't halt and he fired.

At 3 o'clock this morning another alarm was occasioned by the report of three guns. A sentinel came rushing in and reported having hailed three men, who, instead of coming out, were seen to enter the town in an uproar for the balance of the night. The fact is that the soldiers regard it as a frolic and it is believed that some of them were under the influence of whisky, and were playing pranks upon their comrades. All has been quiet today.

Newspapers of a late date deny the assertion that Gov. Packer tendered aid to Gov. Wise.

GOV. WISE NO POWER TO PARDON BROWN.—It is ascertained that, under the laws of Virginia, the Governor cannot pardon a person convicted of treason to the commonwealth, except with the consent of the General Assembly, declared by joint resolution. This rids Wise of all responsibility in the matter. What the Legislature will do is not known. There is a hope through them. But in order to secure the interference of the Legislature an extra session must be held, as the regular session does not begin until January, a month after the time (December 2) fixed upon for the execution of Brown.

THE OIL FEVER IN VENANGO COUNTY.—The latest intelligence from the Venango Oil district states that the excitement attending the recent oil discoveries, to which we have before alluded, is greatly on the increase. Scores of 'sites' have been taken up, and new ones are being discovered every day. A number of capitalists from Pittsburg and other places are commencing operations. The Company formed in this place have secured an experienced operator, and have commenced boring near Hall's Mill. Col. Hoover has a favorable 'site' on the Allegheny river near the mouth of Big Sandy. He will fully test the matter in that locality. Leases of 'sites' are grabbed at with as much avidity as gold privileges in California and with quite as much prospects of their becoming remunerative in the end.

WEALERS NEAR BY.—For a week or more humpbacked whales have been seen off Second Point and in the vicinity of Martha's Vineyard and boats have passed them from different points. Wednesday, a dead finback whale was discovered by Captain Rufus Pease, of Edgar town, which was taken in tow and proved to be of the capacity of about sixty barrels. It had been killed by a bomb lance, and about five barrels of oil had been taken from it at Norman's Land or in Long Island Sound, and it is supposed to have drifted away from its captors. They commenced cutting blubber from it yesterday.

DOUBLE HEADED CALF.—A cow belonging to Mr. Mellinger, of Cumberland county, recently gave birth to a calf with two heads—each had being perfectly formed, with the exception that one of them had but a single ear. It lived but a short time.

THE CLARK'S FERRY BRIDGE.—This valuable public improvement is rapidly progressing towards completion. All the spans of the bridge are now up, and in a short time will be entirely finished. It is substantially built, and will not likely be again prostrated by the wind.

MARRIED:

On the 23rd ult., by the same, Mr. Wm. Rouch to Miss Elizabeth Grove, both of Penn. tp.

In Huntingdon, Pa., on Nov. 23th, by Rev. G. W. Zahrtzer, Mr. Charles E. Adams, of Snyder, Onondago County, N. Y., to Miss M. Antoinette Hollister, of Phoenix, Oswego Co., N. Y.

Dr. Locke will be in town on the 5th of December and may be found at his office one door East of the Bank, (up stairs) persons wishing the services of a good dentist should give him a call.

The Secretary of war has received a despatch from Lieutenant General Scott, expressing the opinion that his suggestion to Gov. Douglas of a temporary adjustment of the existing San Juan difficulties will be accepted.

It is said that Gov. Wise has information of the organization of thousands of men in Ohio and elsewhere, bound by horrid oaths, to rescue John Brown and take vengeance on those who were instrumental in the conviction of him and his associates. Another fright!

Some Virginian fools have lately threatened to dissolve the Union in case the elections in this quarter should go against their friends. They seem to have forgotten that only the other day seventeen white men and five negroes were able to conquer the whole of that great State, and frighten its people so that they have not yet recovered their senses.

THE CANAL.—Navigation on the canal is to be kept open late this season. A notice issued by the superintendent states that the Eastern Division will be kept open until the first of January, and if previously closed by frost, a force will be employed to break the ice and kept open until the first of January, unless the boats are previously withdrawn or laid up, when the water will be drawn off and navigation suspended.

A QUESTION FOR DISCUSSION.—If two powerful Southern States, backed by their whole military force, are unable to defend themselves against an insurrection of twenty-two men, and have to call on the General Government for assistance, how will it be when the Union is dissolved and they have no Generalized revolt should occur.

LUCCY'S JUSTICE.—Atchison, Stringfellow and Burford are acquitted of justice. The miser who squinted tobacco juice into the eyes of Old Brown's murdered and dying son was rewarded for the act with the office of United States Marshal. Old Brown is sure to get the gallows for his reward. Only ruffians in behalf of Slavery are honored. Such is Luccy's justice.

CALIFORNIA BIDS FAIR TO EXCEL OHIO in the production of native wine. Most of the wine made there is consumed in the State, and hence very little of it is seen in this quarter, but one of the San Francisco papers gives a list of twenty six various brands. One dealer has a stock of one hundred thousand gallons, another eighty thousand gallons, and a third, thirty thousand gallons. The sale of California wines in San Francisco this year will amount to half a million of dollars.

A MAN WEARING HOOPS.—A person supposed to be a female, giving the name of Ann Page, was arrested in Savannah, Ga., on Monday, wearing very extended hoops. An examination, however, showed that the person was a male. On his examination he stated his name to be Charles Williams. The Savannah Republican says he converses freely and well, and with all of the action and delicate, toned voice of a woman. He is an exquisite counterfeiter, and seems up to the arts of the sex, assumes the female admirably in his manners and deportment, wears her clothes gracefully, and they are arranged with a certain degree of taste, wholly inconsistent with the habits of males. The mayor sentenced him to prison for ten days.

Weights and Measures.—A proposition will be submitted to Congress at its ensuing session, backed by the unanimous approval of the Legislature of New Hampshire, having for its object the establishment of a uniform system of Weights and Measures, based upon the decimal principle so happily imbedded in our Currency. In other words, Congress will be asked to establish a table thus: 10 lines, 1 inch; 10 inches, 1 foot; 10 feet, 1 rod; 10 rods, 1 mile; 10 miles, 1 league—with names expressive of the several measures.

The need of this change is very great. Our present Weights and Measures are defective and uncertain to an extent that will not be credited to a generation hence. We are perpetually buying and selling by the barrel; but who can say how much a barrel is?—other measures also?

We trust the reform suggested will be made and that it will be very careful and thorough. Then let us buy and sell everything but liquids by weight, not measure: a pound hundred, or tun of potatoes or apples being a definite quantity, while a bushel or hundred bushels being considerably more or less according to the sleight of hand of the measurer.
