

POLITICS OF THE DAY.

David Crockett won't stand! [From the National Intelligencer.]

Washington City, January 7, 1835. Dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th inst., in relation to the proposed nomination of David Crockett for Governor of Tennessee.

Washington City, Jan. 8, 1835. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst., in relation to the proposed nomination of David Crockett for Governor of Tennessee.

Washington City, Dec. 1, 1834. Dear Sir, I suppose the Democratic Convention is in earnest recommending me to be the President of the United States.

The next election for President Vice President and all the other offices in this place in America, except when Jefferson and the present "Government" was elected.

But, gentlemen, though I can't take the appointment myself, I will tell you who can and you won't have to persuade him long neither.

Where any other man has good quality he has too. We didn't get in the same chair together more than two years, but I have been in the same chair for more than twenty years.

He has been in the same chair for more than twenty years, but I have been in the same chair for more than twenty years.

He has been in the same chair for more than twenty years, but I have been in the same chair for more than twenty years.

He has been in the same chair for more than twenty years, but I have been in the same chair for more than twenty years.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph.

Interesting Correspondence. We invite the attention of our readers to the following correspondence between several of the leading members of the Legislature and David M'urtree, Esq., of Huntington, on the subject of Free-Masonry.

LETTER TO MAJOR M'URTREE. HONORABLE REPRESENTATIVE, Harrisburg, Dec. 17, 1834.

Major M'urtree, Sir: The undersigned are anxious to obtain the sentiments of intelligent and patriotic members of the Masonic Institution, on the subject of the character, tendency and operation of its oaths and obligations.

Very Respectfully, Your Obedt. Servant, DAVID M'CURTREE, JR., Members of the Legislature of Pa.

THE PRESIDENCY. DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR 1836. JOHN MCLEAN, OF OHIO.

JOHN MCLEAN, OF OHIO. THE PRESIDENCY.—All that is necessary on the part of a man to be elected to the office of President of the United States, is to be a native-born citizen of the United States, to be at least thirty-five years of age, and to have been seven years a resident in one of the States.

MAJOR M'URTREE'S REPLY. HUNTINGTON, Dec. 27, 1834. GENTLEMEN.—I am honored with your favor of the 17th inst., in relation to the subject of Masonic Obligations.

THE HONORABLE REPRESENTATIVE. JOHN MCLEAN, OF OHIO. THE PRESIDENCY.—All that is necessary on the part of a man to be elected to the office of President of the United States, is to be a native-born citizen of the United States, to be at least thirty-five years of age, and to have been seven years a resident in one of the States.

DAVID CROCKETT. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th inst., in relation to the proposed nomination of David Crockett for Governor of Tennessee.

THE GLOBE.

Washington, Dec. 17, 1834.

The Globe is in trouble, says the U. S. Gazette, about the nomination of John C. Calhoun to the office of President of the United States.

EXECUTIVE PATRONAGE.—It has increased, and is increasing, and ought to be diminished. The country owes its thanks to Mr. Calhoun for his resolution, (for which see proceedings of Congress), and for his offering to grapple with an evil the most alarming of the age.

THE NEWARK (N. J.) DAILY ADVERTISER. The Newark (N. J.) Daily Advertiser states that Judge McLean was arrested at the residence of a friend in the woods, charged with being concerned in the acts of piracy at Barnegat Inlet.

THE THERMOMETER AT BANGOR, (ME.), stood at 34° below zero, on Sunday the 4th inst.

MURDER.—We understand—says the Carlisle Volunteer of last week—that a man called Bucher was committed to prison on Tuesday evening, for the murder of one Salsman. They both resided in Shippensburg, in Cumberland county.

YORK, Pa. Jan. 14. AN ENCAMPMENT.—Two Indians, one an aged man bearing the weight of sixty years, the other a youth, both from the hunting grounds of the Indians, were seen at York on Sunday the 13th inst.

THE WASHINGTON TELEGRAPH in speaking of the report on the relations with France, presented to the Senate by Mr. Clay, says: "It is a great relief to the public mind, and we are glad to see it."

MASSACHUSETTS.—The town of Ware, Hampshire county, Mass., by the last census contained over 2,000 inhabitants. It originally consisted of 10,000 acres of land given to a company from Narragansett, for the services an expedition against the Indians, who were hostile to the settlement.

THE REPORTER IS MISTAKEN. There are "whispers" not loud but deep, about the necessity and propriety of bringing forward a new man for Governor by a certain party.—But the utmost harmony, so far as we are able to learn, prevails among all the avowed opponents of the present imbecile and profligate administration.
