ponent was initiated, and since Grand Mas- degree or obligation, or ceremony of Ma- him, it is the same oath that he received as years. Fellow Craft's degree, page 59, and of Mas- bed in exhibit B. page 100, and of Past Master, page 114, If the professions of the Order are correct, seven and eight from the top, he is not cer- of Masonry. and of Royal Arch Mason, page 143, as con- so taught and instructed as a Mason. tained in exhibit B. were administered to of the Chapter, and since Grand Muster of To the ninth Interrogatory he saith. the Grand Lodge of Connecticut, and so he He has nothing to say.

has since heard them administered in other lodges and chapters. He further saith, that the degrees of the Secret Council, viz: Royal Master, and Se. Masonic party. tained page 167, and the latter an oath, con in exhibit B. are the same as he has him- or suspended from Masonry, or any associate however, is that the phrase was administer- sures for the press, this deponent reflected tion, viz: Secret Monitor, received from regular standing.

Grand Lecturer Barney, page 188; Heroine To the sixth cross Interrogatory he saith:

Light on Masonry, exhibit A. is the oath performed in the Royal Arch degree, in of violating his Masonic oaths.

sixth inclusive. To the fourth Interrogatory he saith: The ceremony of the Knight Templar's degree requires the candidate to participate ents of the first four libations are wine and Henry D. Ward, water, of the fifth libation, pure wine-which Levi H. Clarke, pure wine is to be drunk from a human campment, until he has participated in this Editor of the New York Commercial Adness received this degree in King David's

The answer should be "from a summouses was administered to him in this the disclosures were at the press, but he to the fifth Interrogatory.

To the eighth Interrogatory he saith:

Encampment are, Knight of the Red Cross,
Knight Templar, and Knight of Malta.—
Knight Templar, and Knight of the Red Cross,
To the 4th cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the 4th cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith.

To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith, it is with one exception, substantially the same with the one he took, when admitted to this degree.

To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith, it is with one exception, substantially the same with the one he took, when admitted to this degree.

To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith, they have before them. The oath of the Knight of the Kee Cross, page 220, of the Knight Templar, and He is a seceding Mason; was a Mason tion, on page 110, lines six, seven, and eight to the Knight Templar, and he has never been expelled or suspended Knight of Malta, pages 236 and 250 of ex- seven or eight years, before seceding; he has from the bottom, is in these words. "Fur- 188, 189.

self received, and as are generally conferred tion of Masons, to his knowledge. Up to ed to him.

of Jericho, page 193, and Knights of the He was restrained, while a Mason, and which he received in this degree, excepting The deponent further saith: that the state prohibited, from disclosing the peculiar prin- as doubtful, "they left to my own choice." of current opinion among Masons impressed He further saith, that he has received the ciples and obligations of Free-Masonry, by Having attentively read the oath of a Roy. him with the belief that he or any other, Degrees of Honor, called Intimate Secre- the charges, oaths, and penalties of the or- al Arch Mason, as contained in Bernard's could more easily escape from the penalty tary, Ark and Dove, Knights of the Round der. In one particular case, where the Light on Masonry, pages 129, 130, 131, ex. of the law in a common case of murder, than stand twelve tapers in form of a triangle, [Interrogatories same as those preceding.] was set in the room 13 inches to two feet this seventeenth day of January, A. D. 1832, Knight, John Bream, Sen. John Stealy, Milingdon township, Adams county. representing the twelve Apostles. For a particular description of the whole ceremony, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the book called Allyn's Rit.

ny, he refers to the refers t ual, from the fourth line on page 249, to the

To the fourth Interrogatory the Deponent they bade him remove his shoes from his Levi H. Clarke, bottom of page 250, including the notes, and also the plate facing page 250, exhibit B.

To the fourth Interrogatory the Deponent saith: that a libation is taken out of a husaith is a libation is taken out of a husaith is a libation is taken out of a husaith is a libation is taken out of a husaith is a libation is taken out of a husaith is a libation is taken out of He further saith, that after he had receiv- but it has been so many years since, this De. used connected with the miracle of the bush tleman, aged forty years and upwards, being Samuel Hollinger.

He further saith, that after he had received the fifth libation, he was informed by "Most Eminent," Benjamin M. Hill, then acting Generallissime in New Haven Engyman of New Haven, city, where deponent was dubbed and created, that objections gyman of neither saith was dubbed and created, that objections were often raised by candidates to proceed in different warts of the ceremony of the fifth Interrogatory and the part of the bush that he had any concern in the Encamp, which burned and consumed not.

To the fourth Interrogatory he saith: that he has never read Morgan's Reventations of Masonry. The subject was much fresher in his memory of the fifth Interrogatory the part of the bush the miracle ing in different parts of the ceremony of this degree; and in one particular case, he said to be embodied in Bernard's Light on then than now, and his impression at the Free Masons do take oaths in each degree.

To the second Interrogatory he saith, Strabun—Wm. M'Ihenny, Henry Yealedes of the holy St. John's of Jerusalem." degree, he cannot say, although it was ad- thought it was abandoned.

seen this degree conferred.

Deponent further saith, that he received with three others a copy of the entire "work"

Deponent further saith, that he received the with three others a copy of the entire "work"

JOEL PARKER, or the city of New York, and the city of New York.

Yeats, John C. Stephens, Benj. F. Gardner, Welland, and the city of New York, and with three others a copy of the entire "work" third Presbytery in the city of New York, and ceremonies, oaths and obligations of the degrees of Knight Templar and Knight of Sworn and examined on the part of the plain-ling of the chapter in which deponent was made, the word was given three ways at the open-ling of the chapter in which deponent was made, the word was given three ways at the open-ling of the chapter is also well described. In about twenty years since he received the Royal Arch degree, and he has no recollection of the Burning and James M'Cosh, Jr.

Hamiltonban—John Mickley, Jr. John ler and others, on which are erected a Stone Malta, in writing, from the said Benjamin tiff, doth depose and say, as follows, viz:

M. Hill, who required one dollar of each

[Interrogatories same as in preceding Depositions.]

Itom of the representation of the burning bush.

Hamiltonban—John Mickley, Jr. John Bush.

Wigney, (of E.) John White, Joseph Grist Mill, Log Clover Mill, and Saw Mill, person, and also an oath, that whenever they used the manuscript, or either of them, they have a significant formulation and has taken seven de land again Jah-buh-lun three times round, the libations they drink.

To the fourth interrogatory he saith, that whenever they as one and a half story stone and again Jah-buh-lun three times round, the libations they drink.

To the fourth interrogatory he saith, that Baugher, John Gelbaugh, John Irvine, Ja- a one and a half story stone and again Jah-buh-lun three times round, the libations they drink.

DWELLING F.

should neither lay it down, nor put it away, nor little was first wrapped up, sealed, and directed to some Sir Knight of the Order.

To the fifth Interrogatory he saith:

To the second Interrogatory he saith:

The book called Morgan's Illustrations

The book called Morgan's Illustrations of Masonry, is substantiably constant and has taken seven delibration three times round, and has taken seven delibrations they drink.

To the seventh Interrogatory he saith: that he knows little of the world by observation, but he has always been taught that its universality was one of the chief recommendations of Free Masonry.

The book called Morgan's Illustrations of Masonry, is substantiably constant and again Jah buh-lun three times round, and a large flow in the libitions they drink.

To the fifth Interrogatory he saith: has never seen Morgan's Revelations of Masonry, illustrated by numerous engravings, with notes and remarks, &c. By Avery in the libitions they drink.

To the seventh Interrogatory he saith: has never seen Morgan's Revelations of Masonry, illustrated by numerous engravings, with notes and remarks, &c. By Avery in the libitions they drink.

To the fifth Interrogatory he saith: has never seen Morgan's Revelations of Masonry, illustrated by numerous engravings, with notes and remarks, &c. By Avery in the libitions they drink.

To the fifth Interrogatory he saith: has never seen Morgan's Revelations of Masonry, illustrated by numerous engravings, with notes and remarks, &c. By Avery in the libitions they drink.

To the fifth Interrogatory he saith: has never seen Morgan's Revela of Masonry, is substantially courser. degree. Having read the oath of Entered mendations of Free Masonry.

He has seen it used by officers of the lodges Apprentice Mason, as contained in a book, To the eighth Interrogatory he saith: that marked exhibit B. which is, as near as he Fires.—We learn from a Hagerstown On the same day, and same place, in conferring the degrees, as a text book and called "Bernard's Light on Masonry," Wil- he was at Batavia just before Morgan's book can remember, substantially correct. Cer. paper, that the barn of Mr. Daniel Welty, in guide. With a few triffing exceptions it is hams edition, 1829, marked exhibit A. de- was published. He was told that it was emonies of different Lodges may be a little that county, was destroyed by fire together situate in Germany township, Adams county. according to "the work" as taught by Jeremy L. Cross, Grand Lecturer, whose busihe received, and his impression is, that it is was published. He was told that it was emonies of underent Longes may be a little doubt at the different, according to the peculiar character, whose busihe received, and his impression is, that it is

was published. He was told that it was emonies of underent Longes may be a little doubt at the different, according to the peculiar character, whose busihe received, and his impression is, that it is with its contents, embracing his entire crop ty, Pa. adjoining lands of Jacob Unger, Thos.

Willet and others, containing 53 Acres, ness it has been, to visit the different lodges the same in every word and letter, which he He enquired of a minister of the Gospel, the leading features, in the obligations, and in Monday previous, the barn of Mr. Isaac more or less, on which are erected a one and feely the same in every word and letter, which ne feely dath is initiation, as an Entered Apparent of the Gospel, the feel dath of the polar star of its purpose, the resident at feel defension is the following: In Morgan's same book, marked exhibit A. deponent of the feel dath of the polar star of its purpose, the resident at feel defension, as an Entered Apparent of the Gospel, the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of Ridenaur, near Hagerstown, was destroyed by fire. In both cases it is stated, that sus the lodges is uniformly the same.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith, he has never read Bernard's Light on Masonry.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith that it all the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obligations, and in the polar star of its purpose, the "work" of the leading features, in the obliga book, the first question in the lecture of an saith, that in all its important features, it is things, but as he was a minister of the Gos. To the seventh Interrogatory he saith, Entered Apprendice is: "From whence came | the same, with the oath administered to him | pel they did not communicate with him free- | he believes Free Masonry to be substantial | JEFFERSON COLLEGE, Pa.—The Hon. An you as an Entered Apprentice Mason? Ans. in this degree; but whether the clause re- ly upon the subject. One plan, he believed, ly the same throughout the world, with such | DREW STEWART, of Uniontown, Pa. is ex tate of Peter Brown.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith: ministered to him in some of the oaths of To the ninth Interrogatory he saith: that | he knoweth not Bernard's Light on Ma- | FEIVALE ACADEMY. contained in a book of which he is the author, That the book called Bernard's Light on Masonry. The phrase "square and angle he knows of nothing important to reply. sonry. entitled Allyn's Ritual, already produced and Masonry, marked exhibit A. is substanti of my work" the deponent does not recollect To the first cross Interrogatory he saith: To the ninth Interrogatory he saith, that marked exhibit B. is the oath of Entered ALLY TRUE. It varies in many inconsidera at all. Having read the Master Mason's he feels more interest in the success of the from his observations of the Order, he sin-

He further saith, that the oaths of the degree, obligation, or ceremony, as descri- expressions he does not perfectly recollect; saith he has published a sermon preached at gations, than if they did not, thereby giving invited to attend. viz: "for the benefit of the craft when at Rochester thanksgiving day 1828, in which them an unjust influence in society. Fellow Craft's degree, page 59, and of Mass. bed in exhibit B.

ter Mason, page 71, and of Mark Master,

To the seventh Interrogatory he saith:

VIZ: "for the craft when at Rochester thanksgiving day 1828, in which the did commit himself, as to the principles."

To the first cross Interrogatory he saith, and of Most Excellent Master, page 127, Masonry is everywhere the same. He was tain that the phrase, and "they left at my To the third cross Interrogatory he saith: sonic political party.

To the ninth Interrogatory he saith.
He has nothing to say.

To the first cross Interrogatory he saith:
He is politically attached to the Anti-Masonic party.

Masonic party.

99, of the said Light on Masonry, marked exhibit A. deponent saith it is in substance the same as he received when made a Mark Master Mason. On page 99, line 13, the word "swap" he does not recollect, and the promise contained in lines fourteen and fifteness.

99, of the said Light on Masonry, marked exhibit A. deponent saith it is in substance the same as he received when made a Mark Master Mason. On page 99, line 13, the word "swap" he does not recollect, and the principles.

To the third cross Interrogatory he saith, not at all; he has no connection with an Anti-Masonic newspaper in any way.

To the fourth cross Interrogatory he saith, that for a year past he has considered to in the Borough of Gettysburg, On Saturday the 26th day September inst, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

To the third cross Interrogatory he saith, that for a year past he has considered to the Anti-Masonic newspaper in any way.

To the fourth cross Interrogatory he saith, that for a year past he has considered to in the Borough of Gettysburg, On Saturday the 26th day September inst, at 1 o'clock, P. M. Secret Council, viz: Royal Master, and Select Master, have, the former a promise, conlect Master, have, the form hibit B. are the oaths of the Encampment, as been Warden of a Lodge, Grand Master of thermore I will not knowingly set in any To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the sixth cross Interrogatory he saith: he received them of most eminent Laban Veils in a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; Lodge where any one presides, who has not he has never been expelled, or suspended, that he certainly considered he was restrain-Smith, Grand Commander and Sovereign Master of Infantry in a council of Red Cross received the degree of Past Master," this the or in any difficulty with any lodge, chapter, ed and prohibited from disclosing Free-Ma-Master of New Haven Encampment of Knights, and Junior Warden of an Encamp. deponent does not recollect. The phrase or Free-Mason, as such, to his knowledge. sonry, its principles and obligations, by the Knight Templars, No. 2.; and as he has ment of Knights Templars and Knights of before excepted to as doubtful in the Master's assisted in conferring them on others in Clinary, as not reconced. The phrase of the sixth cross Interrogatory he saith: nature of his Masonic oaths, and the common opinions of his fellow Masons. The ton Encampment, No. 3., of Connecticut, Masonic oath, excepting the honorary de- he wishes to put down as doubtful wherever Masonry binding, he never did disclose its penalties he always considered ceremonial. and in Morton Encampment of Knight Tem- grees of secret Monitor, Union Master and it occurs; so much dispute having been rais- peculiar principles, or obligations, and felt To the seventh cross Interrogatory he plars, St. John's Hall, in the City of N. York. some others not fully recollected. ed about it, that his recollection is not clear restrained from such disclosure, by the restrained from such disclosure from the restrained from such disclosure fr He further saith, that the oaths of the To the fifth cross Interrogatory he saith: upon the existence of that phrase in the oaths, ligious obligation of his oaths. When Mor- Masonry to promote the political advancefollowing Honorary Degrees, as contained He has never been at any time expelled as admininstered to him; his impression, gan was known to be preparing his discloment of Masons.

as contained on pages 120, 121, of said than marked out for a sudden and violent this eighteenth day of January, 1832, be-chael Schriver, Nicholas Deitrick and Capt.

Henry D. Ward, Commissioners.

Latimore-Col. John Wolford, John

Zeigler, George Deardorff, Esq. James

John Myers.

Levi H. Clarke,

Table, Mediterranean Pass, Secret Master, murder of Wm. Morgan was communicability. It is the same as he hibit A. deponent saith, it is the same as he and obligations of Free-Masonry. does not enable him to specify particularly. plar, he was restrained from communication and the seventh cross Interrogatory he Clapsaddle, Sebastian Weaver, John B. are requested to make payment to the subing it to the public for many months, by the Omnific," he does not recollect. The only saith: that the obligation to promote a Roy. Houghtelin, Geo. Hagerman, Peter Smith, scriber, who has taken out Letters of admin-The ceremony of the Burning Bush is dread of Masonic persecution, and the fear remaining part of which he has any doubt, at Arch Companion's political advancement Alexander Ewing, Geo. Weikert, Sheldon performed in the Royal Arch degree, in particularly described in manner and form particularly described in To the 7th cross Interrogatory he saith: treason not excepted."

Is, the word "not" in the phrase "murder and was generally received in the chapter, but them duly authenticated for settlement, on the cannot say it was ever acted upon. He Howard. the book, called Allyn's Ritual, marked ex- He has no recollection of having heard was used or not used, in that phrase, he does has never been a political man; has heard Howard. hibit B. page 147, line third to the twenty- the obligation to promote each others politi- not recollect. The clause requiring Royal the Royal Arch obligation administered in Mountjoy—Robt. Young, John Horner, cal advancement ever administered by Ma- Arch Masons to support each other's politithe chapter at Ogsdensburg, St. Lawrence John Wilson, Jacob Baumbgartner, Esq. cal preference to others of e. Co. N. York and in that of Salina, Ononda. James M'Ilhenny, Robt. Black, Sen. and Jo. qual qualifications, was administered to him, ga Co. N. Y. and has never observed any seph Clapsaddle. Examination taken, reduced to writing, the but the form of the words, was, deponent difference from the form in which it was adwith the Sovereign Master of the Encamp- witness subscribed sworn & to, on the 12th, thinks, that which is given in the note to ministered to him in King David's Chapter, David Scott, Andrew Heintzelman, Daniel ment in five libations. The candidate is 13th & 14th days of January, 1832, before us, this oath, exhibit A. page 130, as follows: at Auburn, N. York. To the last clause of Mickley, Sen. Jacob Biesecker, Jr. Capt.

skull. The candidate is further told, that he cannot be received a Knight of the EnNew York, aged thirty years and upwards, tormed in the Royal Arch degree. Deposometimes do.

To the third interrogatory ne saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they neglect their mutual obligations, which they and Jacob Deihl. libation, in receiving which, he is required vertiser, being duly sworn and examined on Royal Arch Chapter in Aubuin, Cayuga Examination taken, reduced to writing, mer, Thomas M'Creary, Wm. Sadler, Sen. One of the Administrators resides in Tyto kneel at the base of the triangle, on which the part of the Defendant, doth depose & saith Co., New York. A bush of ever-greens and by the witness subscribed and sworn to Samuel Sadler, John Duffield, James M'.

this degree; and in one particular case, ne knew a candidate at the base of the triangle, as above described, interrupt the progress of the ceremonies, for the space of two hours or more, by refusing to take the fifth by this Deponent touching the obligations, and sealed obligation; but in that, and in energy other instance of the kind, The and in every other instance of the kind, THE ponent saith: that he is not a seceding Ma- he has examined Bernard's Light on Ma- STANTIALLY CORRECT; to wit, the oath of STORY LOG CANDIDATE WAS CONSTRAINED OR CAUSED Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having nev-sonry, published at Utica, 1829, by Wm. Entered Apprentice, page 29, the oath of DAVIET LINC.

candidate in the different Encampments in which be lass ent his degree conferred.

Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having neveral described in said book, the Royal Arch Word, Pastor of the Free Presbyterian Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having neveral didebrand, Geo. Clash, Hugh restance of the anacting Mason, having neveral description and libation which often cause the candidate of the different Encampments in which he has seen this degree conferred.

Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having neveral dong since he saw a donation of williams, marked exhibit A. on the oaths of Master, page 29, the oath of Master page 19; the oath of Master page 100; the oath of Master, page 114; the oath of Master, page 114; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their general accuracy he has but one the different Encampments in which he has seen this degree conferred.

Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having neveral dong since he saw a donation of Williams, marked exhibit A. on the oaths of Master, page 29, the oath of Master page 100; the oath of Master, page 114; the oath of Most Excellent Master, page 114; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their general accuracy he has but one the different Encampments in which he has seen this degree conferred.

Son, nor is he an acting Mason, having neveral destricts, to true, page 29, the oath of Master page 100; the oath of Master, page 114; the oath of Master, page 110; the oath of Most Excellent Master, page 110; the oath of Most Excellent Master, page 114; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their general accuracy he has but one page 143; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their general accuracy he has but one page 143; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their general accuracy he has but one page 143; of said volume marked Exhibit B. To their page 100; the oath of Most Excellent Master, page 100; the oath of Royal Arch Mason, page 71; the oath of Royal Arch Mason, page

Allyn, Boston, John Marsh & Co. 1831,"

From the holy lodge of St. John's at Jeru- quiring him to obey all regular signs and had been to burn the printing office, in which qualifications as he has made in his answer pected to deliver an address before the two Literary Societies of this Institution, on the

To the eighth Interrogatory he saith, that 24th inst.

Apprentice, as he received it, under the instruction of Daniel D. or Daniel B. Brins- of Masonry, as he was taught it. These on Masonry pages 61, 62, 63, deponent or, but he is not a political man, and has made, then Master of the lodge in which de- variations may be seen, by comparing any saith that as far as his recollection serves not carried an Anti-Masonic vote these two ignorant part of the fraternity, by making commencing at 9 o'clock A. M. of Thursday, them think that Masons are more their and terminating on Friday evening. ter of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut. sonry, described in exhibit A. with the same a Master Mason, nevertheless the following To the second cross Interrogatory he friends for taking upon them Masonic obli-Gettysburg, Sept. 14, 1835. 6t-24

he is certainly not attached to the Anti-Ma- COUNTY MEETING. own election" was received by him. He sees no other point that he does not feel clear connected with an Anti-Masonic newspaper.

To the third cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the second cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the second cross Interrogatory he saith:

To the second cross Interrogatory he saith, that he has never committed himself the County Convention on the 7th inst. him under the administration of the above mentioned Daniel D. or Daniel B. Brins- lish the truth of Bernard's Light on Masonry Having carefully read the oath of a Mark capture of the Democratic connected with an Anti-Masonic newspaper. In any way to the public respecting the print the County Committee of the Democratic ciples or obligations of Free-Masonry, only Anti-Masonic Republicans of Adams Coun-Master Mason, as contained pages 98 and 99, of the said Light on Masonry, marked exhibit A. deponent saith it is in substance withdrew from the fraternity in 1828. He ciples or obligations of Free-Masonry, only by generally speaking against its peculiar by give notice, that there will be a General County Meeting of the Deposite Action of the

He has committed himself to the public, to pledge a second time, until it is lawfully ministered the obligation of the following ligations, because he believes them to be intained page 167, and the latter an oath, contained page 178, of exhibit B. the same that by written statements and by verbal declation, respecting the principles and obligations and obligations and obligations, because he believes them to be introduced to confer on the first, he does not recollect. Having read the oath of Past Master Ma.

He has committed himself to the public, to pledge a second time, until it is lawfully honorary degree, viz: Secret Monitor, and jurious to society and unjust. In the has been the importance of the crisis to the party, and the latter an oath, contained to configuration of the configuration of the crisis to the public, to pledge a second time, until it is lawfully honorary degree, viz: Secret Monitor, and jurious to society and unjust. In the has been the importance of the crisis to the party, and the latter an oath, contained to configuration of the configuration of the crisis to the properties and obligations, because he believes them to be introduced to configuration. He has been the importance of the crisis to the party, and he received and has assisted to confer on others.

He further saith, that the degrees of the Encampment are, Knight of the Red Cross,

To the 3d cross Interrogatory he saith:

He neither publishes, nor is any way con
Encampment are, Knight of the Red Cross,

To the 3d cross Interrogatory he saith:

Having read the oath of Past Master Ma. Knights of Constantinople. The oath of the son, as contained in said Light on Masonry be saith:

To the 3d cross Interrogatory he saith:

He neither publishes, nor is any way con
Having read the oath of Past Master Ma. Knights of Constantinople. The oath of the son, as contained in said Light on Masonry be saith:

To the 3d cross Interrogatory he saith:

He neither publishes, nor is any way con
Having read the oath of Past Master Ma. Knights of Constantinople. The oath of the son, as contained in said Light on Masonry be saith:

Having read the oath of Past Master Ma. Knights of Constantinople. The oath of the importance of the crisis to the party, and treasurer of a Royal Arch Chapter, or of a Blue Lodge; he has filled many offices prove their private business and contemporary degree or the crisis to the party, and the oath of the importance of the crisis to the party, and assemble to de
Having read the oath of Past Master Ma. Knights of Constantinople. The oath of the importance of the crisis to the party, and assemble to the importance of the crisis to the party, and assemble to the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in the importance of the crisis to the party, and in vote it to the promotion of the great objects

DANIEL M. SMYSER. ROBERT SMITH. G. L. FAUSS, M. D. G. PFEIFFER, W. McCLEAN, J. L. NEEI Y, ALLEN ROBINETTE. R. MeILHENNY.

J. D. PAXTON; County Committee.

Public Meeting. A POLITICAL meeting will be held at the house of Moses Degroffer, in Gerwith himself: "What if I were in Morgan's Examination taken, reduced to writing, many township, on Saturday the 3d day by Masons within the sphere of his observathe time of his secession he was in good and The most Excellent Master Mason's oath, stead? I should consider myself no better and by the witness subscribed and sworn to of October next, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

> Estate of PETER LOBACH, Esq.dec'd late of S. Middleton township, Cumb. Co.

NOTICE. Suits will be brought against delinquents ALEXANDER SEARIGHT.

Administrator of the estate of Peter Lobach, dec'd-South Middleton, Sept. 14, 1835. 6t-24 this oath, exhibit A. page 130, as follows: at Auburn, N. York. To the last clause of John Arrent, James Ewing, Peter Mickley, Sen. and John Mickley.

Sen. and John Mickley.

A LL persons indebted to the estate of JACOB BRAME, sen. late of Tyrone I will vote for a companion Royal Arch Masons on son, before any other of equal qualifications." all questions of general politics are found To the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: that opposed to each other, unless it be that they are the third Interrogatory he saith: the interrogatory deponent saith, that it is the saith interrogatory deponent saith. The interrogatory deponent saith, that it is the saith interrogatory deponent saith. The interrogatory deponent saith is the saith interrogatory deponent saith. The interrogatory deponent saith is the saith interrogatory deponent saith int ing claims against said estate, are requested to present the same, properly authenticated. rone township, and the last named in Hun-DANIEL BRAME, Jr. Adm'rs. JOSEPH BRAME, . {

September 14, 1835. Sheriff's Sales.

dv. Henry Lott, Geo. Gwin, William Mc. P. M. on the premises, the following Real with a good spring of water near the door, and a small ORCHARD.

Seized and taken in Execution as the Es-James Bell, Jr. Sheriff. Sheriff's Oflice, Gettysburg, / September 14, 1635.

THE GETTYSBURG STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER. C Devoted to Politics, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Literature, Science, Agriculture, the Mechanic Arts, Internal Improvement, and General Riscellany.

France.

CETTYSBURG, PA. Monday, Sept. 21, 1835. Democratic Anti-Masonic Ticketi

Joseph Ritner. JAMES MCKONKEY

> ASSEMBLY. Thaddeus Stevens, Esq. James McSherry, Esq. COMMISSIONER GEORGE WILL, Esq. AUDITOR, ALLEN ROBINETTE. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR.

BALTIMORE WARKET. [Corrected weekly from the Baltimore Patriot.] | ed the masons take." $ 6 25 to | Cloverseed | $4 25 to 4 50 | 1 25 to 1 30 | Flaxseed | 1 25 to 1 50 |

QUINTIN ARMSTRONG.

COUNTY MEETING.

an OVERWHELMING MAJORITY!

A Noble Example.

. € It is highly gratifying to the friends

"Ritner and Reform," will not fail to attend county, among the friends of the Democra. for Senator, says they are determined on rescuing the State | -nothing but the ticket! from the hands of PECULATORS and the One two Intelligent! thraldom of FREE-MASONRY. Let our

Another Prop Gone!

Out The "Republican Compiler," a Muh
Out The "Republican Compiler," a Mu Among the many efficient papers in lenberg Establishment, was sold by the ties. the Whig cause, is the Bedford "Inquirer." Sheriff to a Wolf man, on Tuesday last!--We have watched its course with much anx- His party now stands thus—a Renegade The Two Questions—The Next Governor iety for the last few months, and have much Priest, supported by the Renegade Junto! to raise the Ritner stag, and has supported "Butter and Cheese and all!"

and POLITICAL character of Free-Masonry—who take occasion, in their last paper, of taking up the gauntiet so vauntingly thrown down by the Masonne "Captain of the Host" in Bedford county; and from the spirit of the following extracts, the public will see that to conquer the new Champions of Auti-masonry, will be no child's play. The Editors have, however, nothing to fear, they are with the People in the maintainance of the "Supremacy of the Laws." The Inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"With regard to Musonry we did not inquirer says:

"A METTING of the Society will be held at the College, on Satterday Joenney Euphrates by the Euphrates by the English steamboats have been received. For a notice of its event for the has been received. For a notice of its we will be now they will sell on the most at the College, on Satterday Decenting Incurry in the following question will be fully down to the full be and the College, on Satterday Decenting Incurry in the Gollowing question will be fully with the Hallow must carry in the following question will be earlier for the members is required file of the members of Gire which his band of office holders, we will do much towards a Whige color in the state from the hands of Gire entirely removed by the Pacha of Euphrates by the Eagling location in the contents of the Consecutors in the followin time hereafter unless imperatively called on by a sense of public duty, to have said any thing; but as the author of the address has seen fit to place his claims along side with seen fit to place his claims along side with mended to all who desire to possess the mended to all who desire to possess the foreign journals on effort—all will nally to the support of Council.

| Council time hereafter unless imperatively called on always good, has greatly improved within the last year. It is certainly without a right one feeling prevail now. All doubts have subsided—all will unite together in one common effort—all will nally to the support of Council.

| King,—nothing less than a new code of laws for the regulation of the press. It was presented to the Chamber of Deputies, on the fourth of August, by the President of the Council.

| ATTORNEYS AT LAW. | Their office is on the corner between the council of the counci satisfied us, that the institution itself is positively evil, and under some circumstances may do positive injury.

AND

REPUBLICAN BANNER

BY ROBERT W. MIDDLETON.

Satisfied us, that the institution itself is positive injury.

The young gentlemen who spoke, all acquitted themselves honorably and well; and where all done well, it would be invidious to discriminate. If I may, however, be pardoned for so doing, I would say, that the address of Mr. Ezna Kellea, on "Conscience," which he will receive with the retired pay distinguished for sound reasoning, good sense, and solid reflection. This remark is not intended to display the 17th of October next, the following property, late bestow upon it; but will barely remark, that parage the others—all of whom did honor to them-selves and their Alma Mater. The other speakers Masonry has had it in her power to estab- were Mr. Dale, of Lancaster, Pa. Latin Salutatory.

> man for office, one of whose leading objects seems to be, to sustain the institution of Free Masonry. The Father of his Country," the immortal Washington, in his warned us against "farewell address," has warned us against "for the Star & Bunner.
>
> On the whole, sir, I retired from the church more than ever impressed with the conviction, that Pennsylvania College is destined to act no secondary part in the promotion of useful learning, sound science, and ult., with great pomp. Terrible riots had occurred at Burcelona in Spain. Several Convents were burnt and a number of lives Trackell, of Emmitsburg, Md.
>
> The other victims of assassination by the lit. On the 15th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Watson, Mr. Roneat Huston, of Eric, Pa. to Miss Faances Jen-kins, of this borough. On the same day, by the Rev. Mr. Hiner, Mr. John Myers, of this Borough, to Miss Margaret Trackell, of Emmitsburg, Md. the operations and influence of Secret So. Mr. EDITOR, the operations and influence of Secret Solutions, Mr. Editor, Citeties; and we cannot, therefore, vote for a list but right that something should be lost.
>
> There was an alarming riot at Dublin on John B. Houghtelm, of Mountpleasant township, to

The Parson's hopeful flock assembled together on Monday last, and settled a coun- execution receives sufficient eulogy, in the turbance, but not until several persons were ty ticket on the principle of "Muhlenberg ent, so much of the Evidence in this suit on and No Free Schools!"

The candidates, during the performance. The universal extension of the Evidence in this suit on the principle of "Muhlenberg delight that beamed upon every countenance, the assemblage could not be short of sixty the ent, so much of the Evidence in this suit on the subject of Masonry, as will give our readers a clear view of the genuineness of Masonry, as disclosed by seceding Masons. In our view, the evidence published, not only fully and substantially confirms such disclosures, but stamps the Institution with crimes of the deepest dyc—even of the Robbs of the Robbs

Our Senatorial Candidate. of correct principles to observe the perfect The York Republican, speaking of COUNTY MEETING.

On We hope our friends, the friends of which prevails, throughout the the merits of Mr. McConkey, our candidate House was occupied in hearing evidence.

The Marriag House was occupied in hearing evidence.

Price $6 per annum—Address Adam Waldie,

"Ritner and Reform," will not fail to attend the County Meeting at the Court-house in this place, ON SATURDAY NEXT.—

"He was brought up a FARMER—he commenced life a poor man, but by active industry, rigid, not parsimonious, economy, light a considerable portion of the evidence industry, rigid, not parsimonious, economy, light a considerable portion of the evidence of senatorial duty; and he is held in the high. ned, was consumed in gleaning statements, est estimation, not only by his own immedia and too often hearsay evidence, from perate neighborhood, but by every district of York county, as proved by the great una. sons admitted to be the adversaries of the County, Pa. about two miles from Conowa-evening from Spain, with 20 invalids from acres of which is in good timber. There is -The Next President. cause of gratification in finding it taking the bold stand it has. It was among the first three weeks we will bury them, Parson, Harrison, and assals him with as much bit three weeks we will bury them, Parson, and assals him with as much bit three weeks we will bury them, Parson, and assals him with as much bit three weeks we will bury them, Parson, and assals him with as much bit three weeks we will be a sale of the control of the last two months, and may a sale of 2000 men from Britain have already arrived at St. Sebastians, and a body of 800 were to proceed on service when the Upwards of 2000 men from Britain have on the farm. Harrison, and assails him with as much bit terness and malignity as it once assailed Royal Tar left. The Edinburgh, steamer, the claims of the Washington County Farer with much ability. We expect a good result from its labors.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Our readers will recollect the fame acquired by an adventurer in the "mysteries" of Free-Masonry, during the last session of our Legislature, "yclept James B. B'Elizee. The Masonic Wolf papers are now parading an "address" said to have been written by the redoubtable Captain, in which the question of Masonry is introduced and much praised, as an Institution of high value, and of having been cruelly abused by the wicked Anti-Masons! This open and daring at time of Masonry is introduced and much praised, as an Institution of high value, and the public and impudent manner in sorres in leight 21½ inches, and in circum.

A TRACT OF LAND,

A The Lier, deceased, situate in Mountpleasant township, Adams of the township, Adams of th the claims of the Washington County Far A Ritnerite," "Dexter," "E. H.," Mr. Clay; or, to go further back, General hostings to once assailed mounting 12 guns, was cruising off St. Se- late the Estate of Joseph Faller, deceased, under the firm of peal in behalf of the Masonic Institution, and the public and impudent manner in which he gives the Grand Hailing Sign of Distress to the members of the Fraternity, has opened the eyes of the Editors of the Inquirer to the WICKED, CORRUPT, IMMORAL our friends of the little Wolf and Muhlen-and POLITICAL character of Free-Ma- berg parties to beat this. RITNER A- Ritner will give a new impetus to exertion.

The Greek Admira The Greek Admiral Miaulis, died June

"With regard to Musonry we did not intended the first standard the first standard to the things but as the author of the address has seen fit to place his claims along gide with those of this institution, it would be cowardly in us not to express an opinion on the subject.

"Since the abduction and murder of Morgan, a murder perpetrated in pursuance of the institution as intinical to the spirit and character of our Republican Government. We did not, however, nor do we yet believe, that all connected with the institution a prove of that flagrant violation of the law, We have no doubt that many, very many Masons set but little value on the Cuty and Masons set but little value on the Cuty and Masons set but little value on the Cuty paramoent to teir masonic obligations. Yet, possible conduct that they hold their obligations to their conduct that they hold their obligations of their conduct paramoent to teir masonic obligations. Yet, possible set of the conduct of some of its members, have

Interesting Intelligence from England and WALDIE'S LIBRARY .- The last number the Estate of ISAIAH WHITE, deceased-viz: of Waldie's Library, contains the conclusion Masonry has had it in her power to establish her innocence of the serious charges preferred against her. Her votaries declined the investigation, a course utterly incompatible with innocency, and have forced upon us the conviction That the accusation of North Carolina. Eight young gentlement of whose training this opin intense of the serious charges of North Carolina, and the investigation, and will not support any man for office, one of whose leading objects are man for office, one of whose leading objects than ever impressed with the conviction, that Penntage is the control of the serious charges were Mr. Dale, of Latin Salutatory. Mr. Shuman, of this place, on Modern Science.—Mr. Steven, of the packet ship United States, Capt. Holdridge, we ship United States, Capt. Holdri candidate for office, who will uphold a secret said in reference to the Music at the recent the third of August. It grew out of the disof Mountjoy township. association, and who denies, in the face of commencement of Pennsylvania College. sentions of the Orangemen and the Reform-the irresistible testimony on the subject, the And I would avail myself of a place in your ers. Between twenty and thirty thousand existence of "such obligations," as it is provexellent paper, to express my sentiments, bludgeons, knives, pikes, stones, &c. Two borough, aged about 15 years. and that of all who are susceptible of mu-bludgeons, knives, pikes, stones, &c. 1 wo borough, aged about 150 years.

sic's sweetest harmony. The selection of companies of the 99th regiment, and the On the 12th ult., a child of Mr. Michael Degroff, of the pieces manifested a taste of propriety, highly creditable to Mr. HARDT. And the LITTELL'S MUSEUM. Contents of the September Number.

DWELLING

-ALSO-

On the same day, of the Nabobs of the land! If it receives its crimes of the deepest dye—even of Murder and Blashmens! After this, it cannot be expected that the people can or will support any man for office who takes such Oaths and defends and carries them out, and obtained to the County of Adams.

Our ticket.

of the Nabobs of the land! If it receives its and so well qualified to appreciate the excellence and dignity of music, as the citical description of the name and one of the Bill, and moved that the ceive and so well qualified to appreciate the excellence and dignity of music, as the citical description of the land of the Rabobs of the land! If it receives its and so well qualified to appreciate the excellence and dignity of music, as the citical description of the land of the Rabobs of the land! If it receives its and so well qualified to appreciate the excellence and dignity of music, as the citical description of the land of the committee upon it. The confessions of the late Mrs, Homans; The author of Lacon; Criminal Trials, Jeremy Benthem in India; Japhet in Search of a Father; Madrid in Shatis parcent of the Allegations in the House in support of the allegations in the Borough.

AMATOR MUSICES.

OUR TICKET.

of the Nabobs of the land! If it receives its and so well qualified to appreciate the excellence and dignity of music, as the citical dignity of nusic, as the citical dignity of music, as the citical dignity of nusic, as the citi opposed the amendment, but it was carried, lections of an excursion to the Monasteries of 200 are first rate Lime-stone land-and the contents 124, non-contents 54, majority a. Alcobaco and Batarha; Gastronomy and Gastron- balance in excellent Timber. gainst Ministers 70. On the seventh, the omers; Marble; Literary Chit Chat; Notabilia; Literary Intelligence. The Morning Herald says,--"The ex- Philadelphia.

Public sale. Let the old and the young—the Mechanic, the Laborer, the Farmer, the Merchant and all others, lay aside their callings for one Masonic candidate. Huzza! for Ritner, the Merchant are admitted by political oppoday, and assemble together and show that A FARM.

ly all the fields are well watered.

JOHN MARSHALL, JOHN WITHEROW, Admr's. The second division of recruits from Ire- Double Log Barn, Stone Spring house, there Sept. 14, 1935. land had arrived in Spain, The Royal Tar, are also two wells of excellent water on the mises, will be shewn the same on application the force recently landed at St. Sebastians. also a first rate ORCHARD of choice fruit LEATHER.

A TRACT OF LAND.

750 Pernambuco do.

per Leather, A MEETING of the Society will be held

of Building Com. 1200 Chili

October next, the following property, late

HOUSE,

l og Kitchen, Double Log Barn, Wagon Shed, Corn Crib and other necessary build ings, with two wells of water at the house. About 150 acres cleared, 20 acres in meadow, and the residue excellent timberland. There is also a good orchard of choice fruit on the farm. Persons desirous of purchasing the above farm, can be shown the same

Sale to commence at 12 o'clock m., wher due attendance will be given, and terms made known, by ANDREW HEINTZELMAN, Jr.

by calling on the Subscriber.

Administrator, De bonis non September 14, 1835.

good two-story Stone DWELLING HOUSE. LARGE STONE BANK BARN, WA-About 20 Acres are in good meadow, and as much more can be made as desirable. Nearthraidom of FREE-MASONRY. Let our opponents see that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are determined to carry them through by CNED WHELLING.

York county, as proved by the great unal corporations, and sometimes not in the presence of the public. Nearly the whole of what may be termed "general observations," in the shape of censure or complaint, which are erected, what may be termed "general observations," in the shape of censure or complaint, which are erected, and others, containing 63 acres, more or less, on which are erected, in the shape of censure or complaint, which are erected, and working man, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and that we are united in the support of our MEASURES and MEN, and the balacter of the public. Nearly the whole of what may be termed "general observations," in the shape of censure or complete, and our ministry with which he was nominated as a constant of the form of the public. An indisputable title will be given by a constant of the public. An indisputable title will be consulted as a const

Any person wishing to view the presteamer, arrived at Plymouth on Friday place. About 5 acres in meadow, and 12 to either of the Administrators.

William W. Abbott and Robert

1500 light Southern do. for Up-

2700 Heavy Green Salted and Dried Patna Kipps for upper Leather-100 Barrels best Straits and Bank Oil, all of which

SPANISH HIDES. TANNER'S OIL AND LEATHER-viz: 3500 La Plata Hides