

Wood Wood! The prospect of a clear, and the coldness of the weather, prompt us to record our friends, that a few loads of WOOD will not come amiss just at present.

Wood Wood! We have received the first and second numbers of "Carey's Library of Choice Literature," a new catalogue of public favor, the prospect of which we meted a few weeks since. It is published in Philadelphia at $3 per annum. It commences with the biography of Sir James McIntosh, which is highly interesting. It bids fair to take a high standing among the periodicals of the day.
