

Star & Republican Banner.

BY ROBERT WHITE MIDDLETON, EDITOR, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

VOL. 6-NO. 47.]

GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1836.

[WHOLE NO. 307.]

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Phrenokosmian Society

Pennsylvania College.
THIS Society will celebrate its fifth Anniversary in the Presbyterian Church, on Monday February 22d, at 6 o'clock. Several addresses, with appropriate music, may be expected. The Citizens of Gettysburg, and the Public generally are respectfully invited to attend.

F. WILLIARD,
S. WAGNER,
C. L. BAKER,
J. M. STEVENSON,
S. A. MILLER,
Committee of Arrangement.

GETTYSBURG GUARDS, ATTENTION!

YOU will Parade in front of the College, on Monday the 22d inst. at 10 o'clock, A. M. precisely. Each member provided with 10 rounds Blank Cartridges.

ROBERT MARTIN, O. S.
February 8, 1836.

CITIZENS wishing to DINE with the GUARDS on said day, are requested to leave their names with JAS. A. THOMPSON, Esq. or with either of the Committee of Arrangement.

SAMUEL S. MCCREARY,
WM. MILLER,
ROBERT MARTIN,
Committee of Arrangement.

CELEBRATION.

PETERSBURG, Feb. 12th, 1836.
MR. MIDDLETON—You will please give notice of a CELEBRATION, on the 22d inst. in Petersburg, (Y. S.) where there will be several appropriate Addresses delivered; and also a DINNER will be had on the occasion at the House of DANIEL MILLERS.

JONAS JOHN,
JAMES BRANDON,
SAMUEL A. MCCOSH,
Committee of Arrangement.

FRESH DRUGS

AND MEDICINES.
A SUPPLY just received and for sale at the Drug store of

DR. J. GILBERT.

Where can be had all kinds of Essences, Steer's Opodeldoc, Liquid Opodeldoc, Worm Tea, Balsam De Malta, Balsam of Life, &c. &c. by the dozen.

December 28, 1835.

FOR RENT.

THE Subscriber offers for RENT, from the 1st of April next, the HOUSE at present occupied by Mr. William McClelland, situated in West York Street, one door West of Mr. Forry's Tavern.

S. S. SCHMUCKER.

Gettysburg, Dec. 21, 1835.

Notice to Collectors.

THE Commissioners of the County being in need of all the money they can avail themselves of this spring, would particularly request all the COLLECTORS to be diligent in collecting and paying up their arrears on or before the first day of April Term next. Those Collectors who are two years in arrears, cannot expect much longer indulgence.

By order of the Board of Commissioners.
J. GILBERT, Treasurer.

February 1, 1836.

Estate of John Kugler, dec'd.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of JOHN KUGLER, late of Germany township, Adams county, Pa. deceased, are hereby requested to come forward and make settlement—and those having claims against said Estate are also requested to present the same, properly authenticated, for settlement.

The Executrix resides in Germany township, and the Executor in Mountjoy tp.

CATHARINE KUGLER, Ex'x.
JACOB KELLAR, Ex'r.

January 18, 1836.

Estate of Henry Snyder, dec'd.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of HENRY SNYDER, late of Franklin township, Adams county, Pa. deceased, are hereby requested to come forward and make settlement—and those having claims against said Estate are also requested to present the same, properly authenticated, for settlement, on or before the 1st of April next.

The Administrator resides in Franklin township, Adams county, Pa.

HENRY WALTER, Adm'r.

February 1, 1836.

Estate of John Miller, dec'd.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of JOHN MILLER, Sen. late of Germany township, Adams county, Pa. deceased, are hereby requested to come forward and make settlement—and those having claims against said Estate are also requested to present the same, properly authenticated, for settlement.

The Administrator resides in Mountjoy township.

JACOB KELLAR, Adm'r.

February 8, 1836.

GETTYSBURG TROOP, ATTENTION!

YOU will parade in Gettysburg, on the 22d of February next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. precisely, in full Uniform, with 10 Blank Cartridges.

F. DIEHL, Capt.

February 1, 1836.

CONSUMPTION.

Indian Specific,

FOR the prevention and cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, Consumptions, Spitting Blood, and diseases of the Breast and Lungs, prepared by Doct. CLARKSON FREEMAN, of the city of Lancaster.

BILL OF DIRECTION,

Accompanying each bottle of the Specific, pointing out in a conspicuous manner, all the symptoms in the different stages of these distressing diseases; also particular directions respecting diet and regimen, and how patients are to conduct through every stage until health is restored—for vain and useless would be the prescriptions of the ablest physicians, accompanied by the most powerful and useful medicines, if the directions are not faithfully adhered to.

The public are informed that the depositions of 287 persons have been taken, before proper authorities in the city of Lancaster, all completely cured in the most desperate cases of consumption, some of which are detailed in the bills accompanying each bottle.

The price of each bottle of Indian Specific is $1, and each envelope of the genuine Specific is signed by Dr. Clarkson Freeman, and the initials, C. F. on the seal of each bottle. None can be genuine without his signature, a base composition having been attempted to be imposed on the public by a counterfeit imitation of this extraordinary article.

For sale at the drug store of

Dr. J. GILBERT.

Gettysburg, Oct. 19, 1835.

To the Afflicted.

DR. J. CARPENTER,

BOTANIC PHYSICIAN.

WOULD respectfully inform the inhabitants of Liberty township, and the Public generally, that he resides at the house of Esther and Elizabeth Carpenter, in said township, two miles north of Emmittsburg, and two and a half miles south of David Eiker's mill, where calls from patients will receive prompt attention. Having studied with a celebrated INDIAN DOCTOR, who is very noted for his performing remarkable cures, and who has superior in curing chronic diseases, and having likewise pursued a regular course of Medical Studies, and believing that Botanic Medicines are superior to every other kind, he would therefore invite the attention of those who are afflicted with chronic disease, and can obtain no relief from other sources—believing that he can give general satisfaction to those who may see proper to employ him.

The diseases to which he would invite public attention are, Consumption—Those who are afflicted with this disease may find relief in a very short time by making use of those Indian remedies. Likewise those who are troubled with the Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Asthma or Phthisis, Erysipelas or Fulminating Fits, Female Debility, and Female Complaints in general, Fever and Ague, and Fevers generally, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Gravel and Stone, Rheumatism, and Piles. These troublesome complaints can be relieved in a short time.

Consumption—Those who are afflicted with this disease may find relief in a very short time by making use of those Indian remedies. Likewise those who are troubled with the Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Asthma or Phthisis, Erysipelas or Fulminating Fits, Female Debility, and Female Complaints in general, Fever and Ague, and Fevers generally, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Gravel and Stone, Rheumatism, and Piles. These troublesome complaints can be relieved in a short time.

Cancers will be cured without caustic or the knife. Those laboring under this disease may find relief in a very short time, and if the disease is not too far advanced, a permanent cure. Likewise, Inflammation and Ulceration of the bones, Mortification, Lock Jaw, White Swelling and Fever Sores, Scald Head, Pellons and Sores generally.

I also keep on hand most kinds of Medicine for family use. Also Thompsonian Medicines prepared for family use. Likewise a general assortment of MEDICINES, (prepared upon the true Indian principle) for the following diseases, which I will sell at moderate prices as any other medicine sold at the apothecary's shops for the same diseases—viz: For Coughs, Pain in the breast and side, or stomach, stitch or pain in the back, palpitation of the heart, spitting of blood, head ache, pain in the head, catarrh snuff, for the nose bleed, and hemorrhoidal or bloody flux, Fever and Ague, &c.

J. CARPENTER.

November 2, 1835.

The Weekly Metropolitan.

A GENERAL Literary, Historical, Congressional and Miscellaneous Journal, published at Washington, D. C. in all its departments aims at the highest character. Printed with good clear type, on large sheet of fine white paper, the whole of a being devoted to valuable and interesting reading matter.

Terms—One dollar and a half per annum, in advance.

Four papers will be sent to the order of any person acting as agent for the collection of subscribers, enclosing five dollars; nine for ten dollars; nineteen for twenty dollars; fifty for fifty dollars. The enclosures by mail at the risk of the Editors. The receipt of a number of the paper will be a sufficient receipt for the money transmitted.

Postmasters, booksellers, and, in general, all persons interested in the success of such an enterprise, are respectfully requested to act as agents for the METROPOLITAN, the above terms being of the most liberal character.

All letters to be addressed (free of postage) to

LANGTREE & O'SULLIVAN,

Georgetown, D. C.

Feb. 15, 1836.

Plaster of Paris.

30 or 40 Tons of Plaster FOR SALE at the subscriber's Mill, on Marsh creek, at the low rate of $9 PER TON. Those who may want the article by next Spring, will do well to call soon and supply themselves.

GRAIN will be taken in exchange for Plaster.

GEO. TROSTLE.

January 18, 1836.

Early York Cabbage Seed.

FOR sale at the Drug Store of DR. J. GILBERT. Gettysburg, Jan. 18, 1836.

THE GARLAND.

"With sweetest flowers enrich'd,
From various gardens cul'd with care."

SONG.

I'll deck with gems my gay attire,
And haste where pleasure dwell;
I'll twice the rose-and round the lyre,
That sounds my last farewell.
O'er charging faith and broken ties
Who will lay mourn and pine,
But where lone lovers pour their sighs,
I'll pour the sparkling wine.

For what though one has proved untrue,
There's many a beauty yet;
And he that's baffled by the blue
May bow before the jet.
So welcome, welcome hall or hearth,
And welcome shower or shine,
And wither there, how flow wreath,
Thou never shall be mine!

And Lady fair, a health to thee!
A health in brimming gold—
And store of lovers after me
As honest—and less cold.
My hand is on my bugle horn,
My heart on the bright star,
If ever gallant died of scorn,
I shall not die of thee!

ATH.

FROM THE MOBILE CHRONICLE.

"O, THE JUNIPER TREE!"

The toper sat in his landlord's chair,
In a heavy sleep he reposed;
He dream'd of the juleps and cocktails that passed
His gullet that morning so sleek and so fast.
The toper, behold in his joyous pride,
The Brandy and Gin he saw by his side,
And they, with their labels, seemed to be
The stars of his rubicund destiny.

O, the Juniper Tree!
O, the Juniper Tree!

"Am weary of dozing," the toper soon cried;
"A cocktail I'll have, and I can't be denied;
And landlord be sure to have plenty of mine,
I'll be drunk before night or the devil's in!"
A julep soon followed the cocktail's track,
And Brandy and water took cast its back,
And the toper soon found the Elysium of Earth
Was the safest bricks on the Juniper Tree!

At length his vexed wife, with an oaken stick,
Disturbed his gay snoring with a terrible kick;
The parts to which poets now rarely allude
Were treated by her most outrageously rude;
O and was his fate so unpropitious,
She tore all his hair out as fast as she could;
She kicked him down stairs at the risk of his pate,
And this was, and this was the poor Tope's fate.

O, the Juniper Tree!
O, the Juniper Tree!

THE REPOSITORY.

THE THREE CUTTERS.

[BY THE AUTHOR OF "JAFRET"]

CHAPTER I.—CUTTER THE SECOND.

READER, have you ever been at Portsmouth? If you have, you must have been delighted with the view from the saluting battery; and, if you have not, you had better get there as soon as you can. From the saluting battery you may look up the harbor, and see much of what I have described at Plymouth; the scenery is different; but similar to the harbor where the Royal George was wrecked; our stupendous navy, are to be found on either side of the harbor, and on the other side of the harbor, and on the other side of the harbor, and on the other side of the harbor.

CHAPTER II.—CUTTER THE THIRD.

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

vice for laziness; but he was born so—and therefore it is not his fault. A sea-cutter, such as him, is half her time here; and he has no objection to boat service, as he sits down always in the stern-sheets, which is not fatiguing. Creeping for tubs is his delight, as he gets over a little ground. He is fond of grog, but there is some trouble in carrying the tumbler so often to his mouth; so he looks at it, and lets it stand. He says little, because he is too lazy to speak. He served more than eight years; but as for passing—it has never come into his head. Such are the three persons who are now sitting in the cabin of the revenue-cutter, drinking hot gin-toddy.

"Let me see, if was, I think, in ninety three or ninety-four. Before you were in the service, Tompkins."
"May-be, sir; it's so long ago since I entered that I can't recollect dates,—but this I know, that my aunt died three days before."
"When the question is asked about the date of the death of your aunt, you say—'Oh! she died about a year after my uncle.'"
"And when did your uncle die?"
"I'll be hanged if I know!"
"Then, d'ye see, you've no departure to work from. However, I think you cannot have been in the service at that time. We were not quite so particular about uniform as we are now."

"Nowadays, in your crack ships, a mate has to go down in the lock and split room, and after whipping up fifty empty casks, and breaking out twenty full ones, he is expected to come on the quarter-deck as clean as if he was just come out of a hair-box."
"Well, there's plenty of water alongside, as far as the outward man goes, and iron dust is soon brushed off. However, as you say, perhaps a little too much is expected; at least, in five of the ships in which I was first lieutenant, the captain was always hauling me over the coals about the midshipmen not dressing properly, as if it was their duty. I wonder what Captain Prugg would have said, if he'd seen such a turn-out as you, Mr. Smith, on his quarter-deck."
"I should have had one turn-out more," drawled Smith.

"With your out-at-elbows jacket, there, heh!" continued Mr. Appleby.
"Smith turned up his elbows, looked at one and then at the other; after so fatiguing an operation, he was silent."
"Well, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to-morrow."

"I presume so, by the leg of mutton coming on board."
"True—true—I'm regular—as clock-work."
After being twenty years a first-lieutenant, one gets a little method—like regularity. Now the admiral has never omitted asking me to dinner once, every time I have come into harbor, except this time. I was so certain of it, that I never expected to sail, and I have but two shirts clean in consequence.

"That's odd, isn't it? and the more so, because he has had such great people down here, and has been giving large parties every day."
"And yet time I have come into harbor, besides sweeping up those thirty-seven tubs."
"I swept them up," observed Smith.

"That's all the same thing, you know. When you've been a little longer in the service, you'll find out that the commanding officer has the merit of all that is done—but you're green yet. Let me see, where was I? Oh! it was about ninety-three or ninety-four, as I said, that it happened—Tomkins, fill your glass, and hand me the sugar, how do I get on? This is No. 15," said Appleby, counting some white lines on the table by him; and taking up the piece of chalk, he marked one more on his list. "I don't think this so good a tub as the last," Tomkins, there's twang about it—a want of juniper—however, I hope you shall have better luck this time. Of course, you know we sail to