Harrison's Anti-Masonry

Butler County. From proceedings given in the Pittsburg Gazette, we find, notwithstanding the boasts of the Harrison and Van Buren factions of the Anti-Masonic party there is some cause for rejoicing. Something new was given the proceedings of the Anti-Masonic party in that county, at which Anti-Masonic resolutions were adopted. Another was held on the 12th ult., at which DAVID SPER, Esq. presided, and the following spirited Anti-Masonic resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That the majority of the delegates to the Anti-Masonic Convention, held at Harrisburg, on the 14th inst., have, by their refusal to send delegates to the National Convention, and in proceeding to the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, disregarded the solemn pledge which they have taken, and have thereby betrayed the trust reposed in them by their constituents, and thereby contributed their aid towards the destruction of the national organization of the Anti-Masonic party.

Resolved, That the conduct of James Todd, in obtaining himself into the convention by an unwarranted artifice, and will receive the reprobation of every honest man.

Resolved, That the Anti-Masonic party had too long borne its testimony against the interference of executive officers in the deliberations of the people, to be permitted, with credit, to remain silent while a most flagrant instance is furnished by one of their members.

Resolved, That the conduct and proceedings of the minority of the delegates to the late convention is cordially approved by this meeting, and that they are to be commended to the public.

Your letter proposes to me two questions to which you request decided answers. The first is, whether the Anti-Masonic party is consistent with the genius and safety of a republic.

Secondly, whether the Anti-Masonic party is consistent with the genius and safety of a republic. I have, I think, in the preceding statement, given you a full and candid answer to the first question, and I have, I think, in the preceding statement, given you a full and candid answer to the second question.

Although there is something in the manner in which your last question is stated, which coupled with a reference you make in another part of your letter to the fact that the Anti-Masonic party is consistent with the genius and safety of a republic, I think that you are entitled to a full and candid answer to the second question.

It is not, I think, necessary to state that the Anti-Masonic party is consistent with the genius and safety of a republic. I have, I think, in the preceding statement, given you a full and candid answer to the first question, and I have, I think, in the preceding statement, given you a full and candid answer to the second question.

his companion Mr. Benton, and Col. Bonham of South Carolina, were among the number slain. Gen. Howe was much injured, and his leg sick and helpless. Gen. Cos on entering the Fort, ordered the servant of Col. Travis to point out the body of his master; he did so, when Gen. Howe was so much affected by the sight of the body of his master, that he fell in a swoon, and was carried to the center of the Alamo, and there he died.
