VOL. 7--NO. 7.]

GBTTTSBVRG, PA., MOYDAY, MAY 16, 1986.

"I WISH NO OTHER HERALD, NO OTHER SPEAKER OF MY LIVING ACTIONS, TO KEEP MINE HONOR FROM CORRUPTION."—SHARE

[WHOLE NO. 319.

Office of the Star & Banner: Chambersburg Street, a few doors West of the Court-House.

CONDITIONS:

I. The STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER is published weekly, at Two DOLLARS per annum, (or Volume of 52 Numbers,) payable half yearly in advance—or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

H. No subscription will be received for a shorter period than six months, nor will the paper be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the discretion of the editor—A failure to notify a discontinued until the continued un ance will be considered a new engagement, and the cents for every subsequent insertion-longer ones in Street—and three doors North of Middle the same proportion. The number of insertions to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and char-

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Millinery.

THE subscriber respectfully informs her former customers, and the public generally, that she has re-commenced the above business at her residence, (at the house of Mrs. WAMPLER,) opposite the Post Office, where she will at all times be prepared to Make and Repair Bonnets IN THE MOST FASHIONABLE MANNER,

LATEST FASHIONS from Philadelphia regu. P. M.

S. SCHREINER. Gettysburg, April 11, 1836. 11-2

METY & CHEAP GOODS S.A.VEUEL OF THE THE COURS

NFORMS his Friends and the Public that he has commenced business at the old stand of MILLER & WITHEROW, and has just returned from the city with A LARGE AND SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF

GOODS. SUITABLE FOR THE SEASON

CONSISTING OF EVERY VARIETY OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, Sc. Sc. ALL of which he is determined to sell cheap for CASH or Country Produce. April 4, 1836.

BOOTS & SHOES.

BOOTS AND

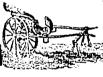

SHOES Just received and for sale by J. GILBERT, Gettysburg. Having made arrangements at home for that purpose, BOOTS and SHOES can be made to order in a workmanlike manner and at the shortest notice.

April 4, 1836. COACH, SABBLE AND TRUNK FACTORY.

THE Subscriber returns his thanks to the Public for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully old Stand in Chambersburg Street, a few doors West of the Court-House, to

Make, Trim and Repair

Barouckes & CARRIAGES

of all kinds, in a neat, fashionable and substantial manner, of GOOD MATERIALS and at the shortest notice.

He is also prepared to manufacture, and has now on hand,

SADDLES. BRIDLES. MARTINGALES,

Saddle-bags, Portmanteaus, Trunks, Harness,

AND EVERY OTHER ARTICLE IN HIS LINE OF BUSINESS The Public are respectfully invited to give him a call before purchasing elsowhere. OCTAIL kinds of Marketing taken in exchange for work at fair prices. EDWIN A. ATLEE.

Gettysburg, May 2, 1836.

Apprentice Wanted.

AN Apprentice will be taken to the above business, if application is made immediately. One from the Country, aged about 15 or 16, would be preferred.

SIX CENTS REWARD.

ANAWAY from the Subscriber, living in Liberty township, Adams co. Pa., on the evening of the 24th ult. an In. Reading Classes—Emerson's 1st, 2nd and dented Apprentice named GEORGE BO. RING, about 19 years of age. All persons are dereby forewarned, not to harbour or employ the said runaway, as I shall certainly prosecute any one so offending. Any person apprehending and returning to me Second the said apprentice or lodging him in the Jail of said County, will be entitled to the Grammar Classes-Kirkham's Grammar. above reward but no thanks.

JAMES McCLEARY. May 2, 1836.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. FFICE in York Street, next door to the Public Offices, in the room lately occupied by John L. Fuller, Esq. 3m-3 Gettysburg, April 18, 1836.

ROBERT F. McCONAUGHY,

REMOVAL.

DANIEL M. SMYSER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. AS removed his Office two doors North paper forwarded accordingly.

III. Advertisements not exceeding a square, will be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, be inserted THREE times for one normal content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of the tavern of Mr. John Barrett, and content of the tavern of tavern of the tavern of the tavern of ta

The Law partnership between T. Stevens, Esq. and D. M. Smyser will continue as heretofore, business in the criminal courts excepted.

April 25, 1836.

Wrightsville and Gettysburg RAHL ROAD.

THE Commissioners of the Wrightsville and Gettysburg Rail Road Company heroby give notice, that BOOKS WILL BE OPENED at the following places for the subscription of Stock in said Company, on the 23d, 24th, and 25th days of May having made arrangements to receive the inst, from 10 o'clock, A. M. until 4 o'clock

At the Exchange, in the City of Philadelphia.

At the Eutaw House, in the City of Baltimore. At the Franklin House, in the Borough Gettysburg. At the house of Jacob Eichelberger, in the Borough of Hanover. At the house of J. Gossler, in Columbia

At the house of George Ickes, in Abbotts-

At the house of A. Picking, in Berlin.

T. C. MILLER, J. A. THOMPSON, T STEVENS, J. WILSON, WM. McCLELLAN, T. J. COOPER, J. E. MACFARLANE, J. B. McPHERSON, S. FAHNESTOCK. JAMES McSHERRY, D. MIDDLECOFF, GEORGE HIMES,

GEORGE ICKES, WM. HILDEBRAND, JOSEPH MILLER, A. PICKING. R. M. HUTCHESON, HENRY WERT,

J. L. FATHY. WM. WRIGHT C. McPHERSON, WM. D. LEWIS, JESSE R. BURDEN, JOHN GEST, JOHN B. MITCHELL, SAMUEL McCLELLAN, JACOB ALBERT, JAMES H. MILLER,

May 2, 1836.

Notice to Inn Keepers in the County of Adams.

Commissioners.

APRIL 27th, 1836. RULED by the Court, that no Tavern licence will be hereafter granted to any Inn-keeper who may be shown to be in the practice of furnishing his customers with Ardent Spirits without making a distinct state that he is at all times prepared, at his charge for the same, at full and customary prices, by small measure.

By the Court, T. DICKEY, Clerk.

May 2, 1836. JOHN J. YOUNG.

TAILOR, ESPECTFULLY informs his Friends Thomas Stephens and the Public, that he has removed

TAILORING BUSINESS will be thankfully received and promptly executed in a Fashionable and substantial manner, at moderate prices, for Cash or Country Produce. May 2, 1836.

NOTICE.

THE Subscribers, Teachers of Public Schools in the Borough of Gettysburg, believing that a uniformity of School Books, throughout the Borough, is essentially necessary, have resolved to introduce, into the Schools under their direction, none other tf-5 than those enumerated in the following list. They, therefore, respectfully request Parents and all others concerned, to purchase no School Books not hereinafter named.

JOHN SWENEY, J. A. HALL, J. R. EDIE.

May 2, 1836.

List of Class Books.

Orthographical Classes-Emerson's Spelling Book, (Philadelphia edition.) 3d Class Readers.

Arithmetical Classes-Emerson's Arithme tic, Nos. 2 and 3. First Geographical Class - Woodbridge and Willard's Geography and Atlas. Olney's Geogra-Do. phy and Atlas.

History Class-Grimshaw's History of the United States. 81-5 | Composition-Parker's Composition.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

IN pursuance of law the Commissioners and School Directors, convened at the Court House in the Borough of Gettysburg, on Monday the 2d day of May, A. D. 1836 .-The Convention was organized by calling JOHN MARSHALL, Esq. to the Chair, and appointing NATHAN GRIEST, Secretary. The Delegates hereafter named were present and voted upon the adoption of the Districts Delegates J. F. Macfarlane Borough M. D. G. Pfeiffer Geo. J. Hartzel Menallen Hamiltonban John Marshall Huntington Geo. Gardner Straban John N. Graft Jacob Wintrott Germany John Benner Mountjoy Cumberland Daniel Woldy Franklin William Kerr Liberty Tyrone Leonard Delap

Reading Hamilton Latimore Nathan Griest

Meeting adjourned to 1 o'clock, P. M. Resolved, That a Tax of twenty cents on the hundred dollars, of the assessment of the present year be levied in each district which

Resolved, That the citizens of the severd townships, which have voted in the affirmative, be requested to meet in their several townships on the 20th day of May inst. to decide whether any additional tax shall be levied.

published.

NATHAN GRIEST, Sec'ry.

OF FOREIGN MERCHANDIZE,.

nished to me by the Clerk of Quarter Sessions of said County, designating those who have taken out their License for one year from the 1st of May, 1836. Wm. M'Clellan Wm. Gardner Enoch Simpson Hugh M'Sherry E. Owings Albert Vandike George Beck baugh Henry Roberts Hiram Boyd Geo. Arnold

S. H. Buehler Jesse Gilbert J. M. Stevenson S. Witherow l'aomas J. Cooper H. Bittinger OF-List of those who did not take out their. Licenses on the 1st of May, 1836: Robert Smith Jacob B. Lyon M. C. Clarkson Henry Schriver Wm. Gillespie Morritz Buddy Adam Epley Joseph Miller David Sheets Charles Barnitz Blythe & M'Creary Wm. Hildebrand

td-5 Wm. Johnston Jacob Haflaigh J. D. Paxton Abr. Scott Thos. M'Knight David Blakely A. S. E. Duncan John Mickley David Beecher John Miller Henry Sanders

Geo. Wilson Houck & Conron Fred. Becker Jesse Houck John Houck Adam Dener Peter Rider David White Michael Sanders Abraham King Peter P. Bercaw George Myers Joseph O. Thompson D. & J. Brinkerhoff Elias Eckenrode J. E. Temple

to the Borough of Gettysburg, near the their Licenses, will take notice, that agree-Catholic Church, where all orders relating ably to the duty of the Treasurer, he is comfore the first day of June next.

> License, or otherwise they will subject themselves to a fine and penalty. JESSE GILBERT, Treasurer.

Treasurer's Office, Gettys- burg, May 9, 1836.

about two years old, small for its age, very fine bone, halter-broken and quite gentle. It was purchased of Mr. Moses Kling, of Path Valley, Franklin county, and was seen its way to Mr. Kling's. The above reward will be paid to any person who will secure the Filly so that I SILAS HIBBERD. May 9, 1836.

MAWD-BULLS, G-OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,-50 Neatly and expeditiously executed at the OFFICE OF THE School Law, as follows, viz: aye That he can give it utterance: it imparts ave aye aye ave aye aye aye

Conowago Mountpleasant Abraham Eckert

heretofore or now accepts the School Law.

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and JOHN MARSHALL, Pres't. May 9, 1836.

A LIST OF RETAILERS

THIN the county of Adams, agreeably to a certificate of the same fur-

James A. Davis Morningstar and Ala-Sam'l Fahnestock

Philip Miller Joseph Carl George Bang Michael Stauter Thomas Himes Henry W. Slagle John M'Knight

All those who have not taken out pelled to institute suits against all delinquents who fail to take out License on or be-

N. B. All persons dealing as aforesaid who do not find their names on the above selves to the County Treasurer and obtain a $5 REWARD.

scriber, living on Little Pipe Creek, near Taney-town on the evening of its escape from the subscriber's pasture, making get her again; and all reasonable expenses paid if brought home

Star & Republican Banner, ORTTYSBURG, PENN.

THE GARLAND. her left car.

From various gardens cull'd with care."

FORGIVENESS. How beautifully falls From human lips that blessed word-Forgive! Forgiveness-it is the attribute of Gods-The sound which openeth heaven-renews again On earth lost Eden's faded bloom, and flings Hope's halcyon halo o'er the waste of life. Thrice happy he whose heart has been so schooled In the meek lessons of humility,

THE REPOSITORY.

Celestial grandeur to the human soul,

And maketh man an angel.

THE PATENT CHURN.

OR A BUTTER SPECULATION. "I only think with every son of chivalry and song, that a knight without a mistress is like a sky without a star." - Anne of Griestein.

Patience Peabody was a perfect Para gon of poetical personification-light as a fairy-blooming as a rose-eyes like a gazelle's-and beautiful as Psyche. Is it to be wondered, then, that I soon became over head and ears-wig and whiskers, in love? I saw her first in church, and nothing could in this same sacred place. I requested Obed Doolittle to introduce me to Ephinetus Close; Ephinetus, in time, made me acquaintbod; Ichabod with John Penbody, the cousin of Patience, the to kalon of all my hopes .--I ought to have won her, for never did mortal strive so hard to gain the presence of earth's potentates as I did to try my Patience. She it must be confessed, was rather repulsive towards me: indeed so much so, that I tooks wearly occasion of requesting her to show cause

"How is it, Miss Peabody, that one who strives so hard to ingratiate himself in your good opinion, meets so many rebuffs and crosses! what is the cause, my dear Miss?" I had asked this question setto voce at a quilting frolic, but the fractious little jade not seeming disposed for a whisper, cried out loud enough to fix all eyes on me-"Gals and boys, only hear this tarnal pesat me; he wants to spark with me, but I rather guess we Bangor gals dont want none of my love I proposed an immediate flight; of your city dandies, who's got more coat to which she replied.

tail than brains, any day. "Haw! haw! haw!" was roared out in regular "Down East" chorus.

"I guess, Mr. Jenkinson," said one of the beaux of the party, "you've missed a figure with our Patience; that ere speculation an't "Haw! haw! haw!"—was repeated.

half baked in these parts-but you'll find your bread all dough," "Haw! haw! haw!" re-echoed through the "You won't stand no more chance here with our gals, than you would to cut down a lessly exclaimingraft of white pines with a penknife." The chorus was decapoed. "Gingerbread and molasses," exclaimed the fair Patience, "did any one ever look so streaky as he does. He looks about as mean and little as the small cend of nothin' whittled down! But no matter, Mister, don't you be down in the mouth. I begin to think | bark." I'll take compassion on you, so as they're going to have a hop, why you shall be my partner." I thought this a favorable symptom; soon as I was somewhat relieved from my prevident churn that Jack sent home t'other day ons unpleasant predicament, and when in an incredible short space of time the room was cleared by putting the tables against the walls and thereon piling the chairs, we stood out in couples. A negro, the Dick Hamilton of the village, rolled into the room with a fiddle in his hand, and we were soon immersed in all the mysteries of "set to your down with me, and we were reduced to a partner-cut out-cross over-down in the second stand.

middle-up again." Patience was in excellent spirits, and seemed to kindle with exercise of dancing as if the buoyancy of her tiny little feet, (for roundabout. they were the sweetest little loves of feet I list, will do well forthwith to report them- ever saw,) as if, I say, their buoyancy had communicated itself to her head and heart. whole party rushed arguing and betting.her all the soft nonsense I was master of. I of cousin Jack. told her how irresistible was her smile—how like meteors were her eyes-how like the down of the turtle dove were the fringes that encased them; how much whiter than pearls were her teeth; how much more fragrant TRAYED from the pasture of the sub- than the rose were her lips—how Cupid about one mile from New Windsor, Freder intoxication from her sighs-in fine, I exick county, Md. on Sunday the 1st of May | hausted my vocabulary of compliments, and king an impression. There was a fascination in her glance which I could not resist -my eye followed her in the mazes of the dance, enraptured! True it was, she knew no more of a mazurka, or a gallopade, than a cow does of a sugar dish, or than she did of the Khan of Tartary; but native holiness was in her every clastic motion; other dancing might be the poetry of motion, hers was the poetry of grace itself. As she put up her sweet little face, and peering into my eyes while addressing her, I thought I could gaze forever! I quite forgot all her former quizzing, and was carried down the stream of feeling, full freighted with hope, and balasted with love amounting to an eternal con-

> In one of the sets of the country dance I took occasion to retain the soft hand which | me to the centre of the room, and bump a- divine origin.

stancy of nine days.

"Lovely Patience, your present kindness has bound me to you forever: will you not add to my obligation by giving me an opportunity of declaring in private my affection for you, and permit me to ease my heart nieces."

She looked as if into that very soul for a few moments, and then replied in a whis-

"As soon as the young folks are a little tired of this stomp down, I guess they'll be after falling to work on the mince pies and mulled cider, which are laid out in the next this body on Thursday-those of Wednesroom. So do you start to go home after this, day having been given in our last. but come back as soon as you hear Jake stop his fiddle-give a tap on the window, and I will be here to meet you-for all the rest will be in the other room and too busy eating and drinking to miss me!" I was about to vent my thanks, when a look of hers put me on guard, and with diffi. | ted. We subjoin a copy of them. culty I restrained their expression. An opcompany. I pleaded business-and made a or would have contented me but a wind up shone more beautifull and every thing was Masonic Party at the approaching Presidenso pure and soft and calm, I felt as if I could | tial election. gaze forever. At length a step approached -it was my valet Simon, whom I ordered ed with Sy Stokes; Sy with Joe Palmer; Joe to stop for orders about this hour. To him mistaken policy of honest though erring with Madison-Mason; Madison with Icha- I communicated my little arrangement and settled that he should go back with me to the a moment suppose that it is the intention of house, as his presence might be necessary others to abandon, the glorious advocacy of in case Patience should consent to an immediate elopement.

The fiddle ceased! oh love! oh rapture! borne on my ark of promise, like the wandering dove of Arrart. I curbed my impatience for a few moments as a matter of precaution, and then tapped on a pane of glass. The door opened almost immediately.

"Hush!" said Patience, "come in gently -they're all at the good things-but who's this?' "Divine essence of female beauty and condescension," replied I, "only my trusty servant Simon." We walked in tip tip tip—as softly as mice after cheese-I seized the hand of Paky dandy, what curious questions he pokes tience and covered it with kisses-she was all yielding and loving. After reiterating they defeat by recalling, through a sign, a

> "Ah, sir, you must be generous-1 have no power of resistance; but are you not about to deceive a poor simple country girl?"

"No, by heaven," I exclaimed, "may I thorn." "Well, then," said she, "let me steal slily "Perhaps, Squire, you think we're only > coming, hide, but dont go out of doors as they may see you from the windows." On she went like a winged messenger of ife, and I was in an ecstacy of joy-she > however instantly returned! almost breath-"Hide! hide! cousin Jack Peabody's coming; and if he sees you, we are done up as slick as a bee in clover time without a honey bag: hide! hide!" "Where! where! let me go out of doors."

"Well, where the devil shall I hide?" cried I. "I have it-I have got it," aid Patience, "such an idea-here get into this large pat-its large enough to hold two of you." I strenuously objected, but at last the sound of approaching footsteps warned me that no time was to be lost and in spite of the bran new suit of black clothes that adorned my outward man, I plunged in and bade Simon follow; but the poor fellow couldn't pack the character and skill of the Masonic me-

"Up the chimney--up the chimney," said Patience, and up Simon scrambled, leaving many a spot of soot on his white pants and

Scarcely had we ensconsed ourselves snugly, when the door opened, and in the I seized the lucky moment and poured into High above all the rest was heard the voice

> "I tell you it's the tarnellest fine churn chooses, but he aint going to budge me one of freemen. inch from the consait I've got of the patent -so now, back again!" "Well, Jack," retorted Sy, "you needn't patent churns at the other. So now, back appointed, dares not even complain; is de-"But boys," said another voice, "the proof of the pudding is eating the bag; so let's try Jack's churn; Patienco, run and bring the light a fire that we may mull some more cider-quick, now. My heart was beating against my ribs-I was in a trap, but cogitation was out of the question; there I was, and the cream of the oke was, there I had to remain. I soon heard Jack again exclaim:

"Ah, here comes the cream-now Sy take off the kiver, and Patience help me to cant over the stuff—now boys, see how quick 'll make the butter come—pour away!"

sion, and gently squeezed it-I sighed into | roost by Dorothy's fire! he black as an incarnate devill and I as beautiful a cream color as ever was seen. We stood a moment as we encountered each other-then simultaneously sprung towards the door, and as we beggared the winds in the swiftness of our retreat, the of its load of love, which, like a pent up evening breeze joined in the laugh against earthquake is tearing this fond soul to us, as it bore the sounds of their merriment after us for nearly a mile.

NATIONAL CONVENTION. National Anti-Masonic Convention. The following are the proceedings of

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5, 1836. Mr. T. H. Burrowes, from the committee on resolutions, presented sundry resolutions, which after some discussion were adop-

Resolved, That it is inexpedient, under portunity soon presented itself to leave the existing circumstances, to put in nomination Anti-Masonic candidates for the offices of bow. After gaining the garden gate, I look. President and Vice President of the United ed up at the moon, and thought it never States, to be supported by the National Anti-Resolved, That in thus yielding to the force of adverse circumstances, and to the friends, we do not give up neither do we for the principles of equal rights involved in the cause of Anti-Masonry. Resolved, That the sole object of Political Anti-Masonry is the entire and lasting destruction of the Institution of Free-Masonry, and of all other secret oath bound societies, because they are at war with, and if permitted to continue will inevitably destroy the following principles of civil liberty and equality; viz: 1. The sovereignty of the established government—which they render ineffectual and powerless by erecting another government within it, and unknown to it, whose secret tribunals punish even unto death acts not criminal by the laws of the land. 2. The supremacy of the laws, which grip, or a word, to the memory of the judge, the juror, the witness, or the public officer, the penalty of his obligation, and the Masonic fetters which Satan has forged for his conscience. 3. The Republican simplicity of our Inperish, if ever I plant in that bosom a stitutions, which they corrupt by creating in our midst an organize cratic and kingly dignities, whose knights, up stairs, and get a bundle and I will be lords, princes, kings, and potentates possess down in a minute, should you hear any body regal power, and exercise exclusive privileges, secretly and unfairly subtracted from the mass of common republican rights, and who, if suffered to flaunt their gaudy trappings in the view, and exercise their usurped power over the head of insulted republicanism, will eventually pollute its spirit, and

4. The purity of the ballot-box, to the test of which the genius of all our free institutions declares that each citizen should be enabled to submit his claims and his merit. "No, no; some of them are looking out and whose decision should be uninfluence of the window, thinking they heard the dog by any cause not known to himself, and to all these who apply it, but which the swind ling spirit of secret-working Free-Masonry controls with a cold-blooded disregard of claims however strong, or of merit however high, defeating the expectations of the fair voter, and crushing the hopes of true merit, by elevating the incompetent, the undeserving, and the worthless follower of the lodge.

deprive us even of its name.

5. Fair competition in the various callings of life, which they paralyze by manufacturing in the Ledge room, and emitting through its thousands of sworn emissaries, praises of chanic and professional man, and hints, insinuations, and slanders against his uninitiated competitor, thereby depriving the latter of his means of support, and of the estimation of his fellow citizens, and causing the former to flourish, and "be praised of men," though his deeds be those of darkness.

6. The national spirit of Independence which they neutralize, by teaching our citizens that there are means of acquiring business, reputation, and office, other than that sturdy reliance on their own honest exeryou ever did see, and Sy may say what he tions, which should be the only dependence

7. The sense of moral right, which is blunted at every step from the first to the might nestle in her dimples and drink love's carry your skirts so long-don't I know The candidate for Masonic honors swears highest degree of the deceitful mystery.something about churns—aint an uncle of to perform acts of the nature of which he is mine in Connecticut got a mill, and if you wholly ignorant—expects to acquire light I had the satisfaction to find that I was ma- put cedar posts in at one end it will turn out and science, and when he finds himself disgraded in his own eyes and those of his brethren by the humiliating ceremonies of initiation, and yet is obliged to assert the dignity and reverendness of the order; and when large basin of cream, and tell Dorothy to he has finally arrived at the depth of the iniquity, must either exercise a spirit of independence which will subject him to the complicated vengeance of the craft, or bethe guilty agent of luring others into his own fallen condition.

8. The sacred regard for religion and for the obligation of an oath, which they impair by the unnecessary, profane, and demoralizing multiplication of the latter, and by the indecent and impious exhibition of the rites of the former, in their lying explanation of A splash! a shrick, and one bound brought their mysteries and attribution to them of the figure had given me the right of possess gainst Simon! who had been roused from his Resolved, That the means which have