PHILADELPHIA MIRROR. HE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of Balsam near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS. The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful the plan will be contined .-Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Capt. Blue Pill Marryatt and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Borax, Ref. Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in Burgundy Pitch this country, containing articles in Literature, Bears' Oil Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full Carmine accounts of sales, markets and news of the latest

It is published at the low price of $2. For Cassia this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter; each week enough to fill a Cream Tartar common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 Calomel read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, Caustic Lunar from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board Cavenne Pepper to the lakes. The paper has been now so long Charcoal, prepared established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus, the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian s.ys-"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family eral on the part of the editors, and no means ty in offering literary prizes." The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week! Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimension enable its enterprising proprietors, Messra-Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render i worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desired to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value." THE QUARTO EDITION. Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Mise Sedgewick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

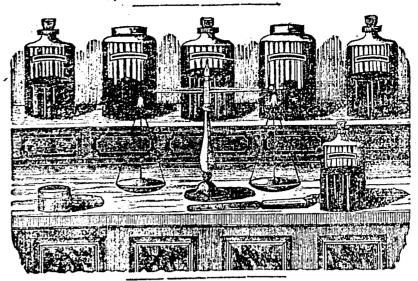

MAPS. In addition to all of which the publishers in tend furnishing their patrons with a series of enof the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canalfeatures, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, bandsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

> About two years ago I was severely aflicted with the dyspepsia, which I had for he last fifteen years, previous to the above named time, which was very much increased by my having a blood vessel ruptured upon my lungs, occasioned by lifting - which increased my complaint, dyspepsia and general weakness and debility to such a degree, that for two years previous to my using the Garlegant Balsam I never eat a meal but my stomach became so painful that I had immediately to throw it up. Seeing Garlegant's Balsam of Health advertised, I was induced to try a bottle; after taking the very first dose it appeared to strengthen my stomach; and every dose of the first bottle helped me so much, that in the course of a few days my stomach began to retain and digest every thing I eat. I continued to use the Balsam until I used seven bottles, which cured me entirely, and restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since, and not before for fifteen years.
