THE REW YORK DISCUSSION.

CHRISTIANITY tersus infidelity. CHARLES H. JACKSON & Co.,

PERIODICAL PUBLISHERS, No. 17, Ann Street, New York, TAVE in press, and will immediately publish in numbers of twenty-four pages, oc-avo, embellished with plates, price 12 1-2 cents, the late interesting and important discussion between Dr. Sleigh, in support of Christianity, and the D legates of the Tammany Hall Society, and of other Sceptics, in defence of Infidelity.—

This discussion which produced, and kept up a heological excitement, hitherto unparalleled in he city of New York, commenced Nov. 11th, 1835, and terminated Feb. 18th, 1836. The substance of the arguments both by Dr. Sleigh and his opponents was faithfully and impartially taken down on the spot, and has been carefully revised, so that this publication will contain the rguments and objections of both parties -Moreover Dr. Sleigh will add copious critical historical, and explanatory notes and also nunerous incontrovertible arguments in favor of D vine Revelation, some of which, it is thought, will be found to be original and never before rful objections of all the Infi tels that ever lived.

The Poblishers, in sol citing patronage for this work, present herewith the "Introduction." which furnishes many interesting particulars respecting the discussion. They also subjoin some articles which appeared in the public pa-iguments advanced by Dr. Sleigh were nices. sary than the glorious and triumphant result of the "Discussion," it is presumed that the testimonials of the most eminent clergymen and other distingui-hed gentlemen of New York herein contained, would soffice.

CONDITIONS, &c. The work will be printed on good paper, with new type, and each number will contain twentyfour octavo pages. The volume will be embellished with a portrait of Dr. Sleigh, and at least bers. RECOMMENDATORY NOTICES.

Dr. John S. Miller, Fredericktown, Md. I do hereby certify that I had this last spring and summer a constant pain in my stomach, and a great weakness in my kid neys, and pain across my eyes, for which I used a good many remedies without giving relief. I was at last recommended to try a bottle of Garlegant's Balsam of Health, prepared by John S. Miller. I accordingly that I was bed ridden. I think I can say, that the first relief, if not the entire cure, was produced by the use of the Balsam. It has been proportion.
