We observe in the last "York Ga zette" a series of remarks relative to the Wrightsville and Gettysburg Rail Road, in a strain of vulgarity and fulsehood which usually characterize the Editorials of that Masonic Jacobin press. We should certain. ly not have noticed them, had they not attempted to give a party bearing to the Act chartering said Company.

The Editors ask the Farmers to inquire into the reasons for granting this second Rail Road Charter; and state that Two Rail Roads from Wrightsville to York cannot be necessary. They then charge all this to the Anti-Masonic Administration!
