

FOR THE GETTYSBURG STAR AND BANNER.
LINES
Occasioned by the death of Miss CATHERINE N. GIBBS, who departed this life July 31st, 1836, aged 90 years, 7 months and 19 days. She re- membered her Creator in the days of her youth and enjoyed the confidence and affection of her Christian friends. For months she was con- fined to a bed of extreme suffering; but in all her afflictions she manifested great patience and resignation to the will of her heavenly Father. She has left her friends to mourn the loss— but their loss is her eternal gain; for she knew in whom she had believed. She is now triumphantly showing the praises of the Great I AM. May we follow her example, and love and serve the Lord—that our end, like hers, may be peaceful!
SWEETLY she rests! The storm of life is o'er,
The future's tales have waited her to part,
How'd she die, 'tis told us that peaceful shore,
And that the life of life disturb no more.
How f' at the change! What dote tongue can tell,
Or mind conceive, who that the spirit flew—
Burst a very chain, escaped the rage of hell—
What joy, celestial burst up her view!
Methinks, I half wonder at the glorious change,
The mid of late captivity in darkness lay,
Surrender'd with joy to the vision bright and strange,
A bond of the cherub, to go the ethereal way.
A hand celestial from the court above,
Cousins, could I light, their sister fly to meet;
She basins with us, though the realms of lore,
And aids advising at her Saviour's feet.
The Saviour smiles, and says "Well done!
Enter thy rest, my faithful servant thou;
The strife is o'er, thou hast the vict'ry won,
No sin, nor sorrow can distress thee now.
"In early life thou didst espouse my cause,
Rejoic'd as of the world's unchanging glory,
With firm unshaken zeal, 'till death's cross,
Which now thou hast exchanged for a crown.
"Take now the Book of Providence, unfold
Its mystic leaves; its various pages scan;
My judgment full and love be hold,
Though dark thy ways, may seem to erring man.
"Here, where I am, thou shalt forever dwell,
No more shall sorrow, or thy sense destroy;
Triumphant to appear 'fore the great hell,
Welcome forever to thy Master's joy!"
She takes a harp, a golden harp of bliss,
And sways it to the rhythm of redeeming love,
Of who can contemplate such joys as hers,
And not desire to dwell with him above?
A short farewell! We soon shall meet again
In the pure regions of eternal day,
Where parting is no more, and sin and pain,
Sorrow and death, shall all be done away!

Indian Specific,
FOR the prevention and cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, Consumptions, Spitting Blood, and diseases of the Breast and Lungs, prepared by Doct. CLARKSON FREEMAN, of the city of Lancaster.
BILL OF DIRECTION.
Accompanying each bottle of the Specific, pointing out in a conspicuous manner, all the symptoms in the different stages of these distressing diseases; also particular directions respecting diet and regimen, and how patients are to conduct through every stage until health is restored—for vain and useless would be the prescriptions of the ablest physicians, accompanied by the most powerful and useful medicines, if the directions are not faithfully adhered to.
The public are informed that the depositions of 287 persons have been taken, before proper authorities in the city of Lancaster, all completely cured in the most desperate cases of consumption, some of which are detailed in the bills accompanying each bottle.
The price of each bottle of Indian Specific is $1, and each envelope of the genuine Specific is signed by Dr. Clarkson Freeman, and the initials, C. F. on the seal of each bottle. None can be genuine without his signature, a base composition having been attempted to be imposed on the public by a counterfeit imitation of this extraordinary article.

COMMON SCHOOL NOTICE.

WHEREAS, By the 11th section of the School Law, passed the 13th of June, 1836, one hundred thousand dollars, in addition to the one hundred thousand dollars payable by the Bank of the United States, are appropriated out of the School Fund, for the use of the different school districts in the commonwealth for the school year 1837, which year commenced immediately after the first Monday of June last;
And whereas, the aforesaid sum of two hundred thousand dollars is directed by the 10th Section of said act, to be paid by the General Superintendent directly to the Treasurers of the respective Districts, (townships, boroughs or wards,) of the commonwealth, and not to the county Treasurers, as heretofore, upon his being "furnished with a certificate, signed by the President and attested by the Secretary of the board of directors of the District," that the amount of school tax necessary to entitle such District to its proportion of state appropriation, has been "levied" thereon;
And whereas, it is provided by the 18th section of said act, "that every thing heretofore done in pursuance of said acts, (viz: the common school laws of 1834 and of 1835,) shall be valid," and by the 15th section, "that all taxes (heretofore) authorized to be raised for school purposes shall be collected as they would have been collected if this act had not passed;" the true intent and operation of which provisions, when in connection with other parts of the act, are:
1st. That no District is entitled for the present, to receive its distributive shares of the current year's appropriation, except such as were affirmative accepting Districts, in the proper joint meeting of delegates and commissioners, held on the second day of May last, or as shall entitle themselves to the privileges of accepting Districts, for the school year 1837, by complying with the 20th section of said act: And 2d. That the voting in the proper joint meeting aforesaid, by each of the affirmative Districts for, and the levying thereon of an amount of school tax, sufficient to entitle such District to its portion of the then existing state appropriation of $75,000, will be sufficient to entitle it to a distributive share of the present year's state appropriation of $200,000.
And whereas, it is proper and necessary that such part of the current year's appropriation, as may be due to accepting Districts, should be paid over to their respective Treasurers, with as little delay as may be, (the residue to remain in the State Treasury, for the use of non-accepting Districts, or till otherwise disposed of according to law.)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
all concerned, that the Districts entitled thereto, will receive their proper distributive portions of the present year's appropriation of $200,000, as soon as, and not before, the following certificates and documents shall have been received at this department, viz:
1. A certified account, by the commissioners of each county, of the proceedings of the joint meeting of delegates and commissioners, held on the first Monday of May last, setting forth distinctly which Districts were there, and which were not, affirmative Districts; and the amount of tax then voted to be raised by each affirmative District, or by the whole of them collectively, as the case may be.
2. A certificate, by the proper commissioners, that the amount of tax voted to be raised by each affirmative District as aforesaid, or by such as are entitled to the privilege of affirmative Districts under the 20th section of the new school law, has been duly levied on each.
NOTE: It is not necessary for the present year that the tax aforesaid, shall be actually assessed, individually, upon tax payers, before this certificate is forwarded to the commissioners. The apportionment thereof among the several districts of the proper county, by the commissioners thereof, for the purpose of being assessed and collected at the proper time hereafter, will be a sufficient compliance with the law to authorize the commissioners to forward the above certificate.
3. A certified list, by the proper commissioners, of the whole number of School Districts in each county, setting forth distinctly the name of each District, and the number of taxable inhabitants therein, according to the enumeration of 1835. See sec. 1, of the new law, as to what constitutes a School District.
4. A report from the School Directors of each District, that they have organized under the 3d section of the new law, (which they are hereby required forthwith to do,) for the purpose of carrying into operation the provisions thereof, stating also the name and post office of the President, Secretary and Treasurer of each board. See sec. 3. For the information of all concerned, it is proper to state, that the tax voted by the aforesaid joint meeting, as well as the additional tax under the 7th section of the act of 1834, are to be assessed upon the same articles, and to be collected by the same officers, as they would have been assessed upon and collected by, if that of 13th June last had not been passed.
All persons writing to this department on any business connected with the Common School System, will please address their communications to the subscriber as "Superintendent of Common Schools," and endorse the words "School System," upon their letters, or other communications.

THE LADY'S BOOK,

OR PHILADELPHIA MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
SEVERAL Ladies of the highest Literary standing in the country, have complied with the terms offered by the Publisher, and their contributions will appear in succeeding Numbers, commencing with Vol. 14.
This popular periodical has now completed the sixth year and twelfth volume of publication, and still continues, as at first, the most popular work of its class.
The printer is grateful for the patronage extended to him, and will endeavor by unintermitted exertions, to meet it. The Lady's Book was the first publication that attempted to give correct coloured representations of the Philadelphia Fashions. The work, as stated above, has now been published for six years, and the proprietor asks a careful examination of it from the many that have been subscribers from the commencement; and their candid judgment, whether it has not been constantly improving, from volume to volume. It may with safety say, that engravings, which adorn each number, are such as would be creditable to the same class of periodicals in England. The Fashions are superior to all but those in the Court Magazine, and equal to them. If the subscription shall still continue to increase, greater exertions will be made.—The promises made in the commencement of the year have by far been exceeded—and this is a fact that few periodicals can boast of—the promises made in advertisements, in general, far exceeding the performance.
MANNER OF EMBSLISHING.
January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, December.
Each number also contains either two Views or two Heads, from the Portrait Gallery—Embroidery—Fac Similes—Music—forty-eight pages of reading, and other matter, so varied as to require more space than can be spared to mention them.
The price is $3 per annum, or two copies for $5 in all cases payable in advance.

DR. HULL'S RECENTLY IMPROVED TRUSS.

THE distinguished surgeons and medical faculty of the cities generally, and elsewhere, have come to the conclusion that this Truss, in its present improved state, is the only instrument surgically adapted to the disease of Rupture, and the only one that patients can rely upon for the safe retention of the bowels and the final cure of the disease.
In confirmation of which the following names of distinguished medical gentlemen of New York City, with many others, have expressed a decided preference for this instrument, are respectfully added:
Valentine Mott, M. D. George Busho, M. D.
A. A. Stevens, M. D. David Hosack, M. D.
John B. Beck, M. D. Samuel Ackerly, M. D.
Cyrus Perkins, M. D. David M. Reese, M. D.
John Stearns, M. D. Wm. Anderson, M. D.
Also, the following extract of a late certificate of Dr. Mott, of New York:
"For the last twelve months, the curative powers of Dr. Hull's Truss have been tested under my own observation with the most gratifying success in cases of great difficulty, in which the mutilated imitation Trusses so common in our markets, had only aggravated the disease. Dr. Hull is an experienced surgeon, who has displayed not a little surgical skill and mechanical ingenuity in bringing this unrivaled instrument to its present state of perfection, rendering it, in my opinion, the only instrument of the kind that is entitled to patronage of the profession, and the confidence of the people."
