LITERARY PUBLICATIONS, &c.

The New-Yorker:—Quarto Form—New Series.
PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.
THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most patriotic hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favor shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to re-publish the same in the current order of the volumes, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.
On the Twenty-fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1 of Vol. II, thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of becoming subscribers to two volumes, each unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advanced in receiving their copy in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing link between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who take it from the commencement; while, at the same time, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.
Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages, fifty-two of which will be Music.
The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favor which it has ever been their object to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, farther than to express their determination of leaving no means untended of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of any day of a similar character. To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that large as the edition is which will be printed, still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. An order for the current volume, which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

Conditions:
The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered.—Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the fifth edition for the next year, must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

DR. J. CARPENTER,
BOTANIC PHYSICIAN.
RESPECTFULLY invites those who are troubled with Rheumatic pains, either chronic or inflammatory, to give him a call, having had very good success in curing Rheumatism; and having within the short space of time that he has been here had upwards of forty cases of Rheumatism under treatment, and having given relief in every case, and failed in but five or six cases of performing a complete cure—and some of these were through neglect on their part; and others to the long standing of the disease, so that no perfect cure could be expected. He would, therefore, invite those afflicted with Rheumatic pains to give him a call, and satisfy themselves. Not desiring those who are unacquainted with him to rely on his statement, but to come into his neighborhood and enquire of those who know, and satisfy themselves before they employ him.
Dr. Carpenter still continues to reside at his former residence in Liberty township, two miles North of Emmitsburgh, and two miles from Rhodes Mill, on Middle-creek.

To House-keepers.
PATENT FEATHER DRESSER.
THE above machine for purifying and cleansing new and old feathers has been in operation in this place a few days, and in Lancaster, Philadelphia, and New York, for a number of months, and is pronounced one of the greatest improvements of the day. It cleanses feathers from all impurities or offensive smell, screens out the dirt, kills the moths or other animal matter, it thoroughly dries and calms them, so that three beds often make four—and moths will never live in them after going through this process. The expense is trifling, compared with the benefits. Persons living in the country can bring their feathers to town and have them dressed in time to be taken home the same day.
Young Men wishing to invest a small amount of money in a sure business will do well by calling on the subscribers at the Feather Shop in Chambersburg street, nearly opposite Mr. Forry's Hotel, or at Mr. A. B. Kurtz's Hotel.
N. B. Beds will be called for and returned the same day perfectly pure and dry.

NEW YORK TRANSCRIPT FOR THE COUNTRY.
SO many applications have been made to us for the publication of a semi-weekly paper, and the answer we give, that we do not publish one, is so unavailing to the applicant, the opportunity we possess of pleasing our friends in this respect is so extensive, and our desire to gratify them so great, that we have determined to issue, forthwith, a paper twice a week, entitled "The New-York Transcript for the Country." It will be of the same size as our daily sheet, but will be filled exclusively with reading matter, digested and arranged under appropriate heads, to the almost entire absence of advertisements, and other local circumstances only of interest to the city reader. A price current, and a bank note table, corrected to the last hour, will form an important feature in this publication, joined to the various other valuable and interesting contents, which have gained for the Transcript its present popularity. It will be affixed to our country readers at $2 per annum payable in advance, in all instances, and the attention shall be spared to render it one of the most interesting, varied, and valuable miscellanies of the day. The publication of the New-York Transcript for the Country, will be commenced on the first Monday of September next, and will be continued on every Monday and Thursday following.
Agents are wanted to obtain subscriptions for the semi-weekly, who will be liberally treated with.

TO PRINTERS.
THE subscribers offer for sale, two cast iron "Washington" Printing Presses, manufactured by Rust & Torney, of New York, one of them being the press on which this paper is now printed, and the other calculated to print an imperial sheet of the ordinary size.—Also, one RAMAGE PRESS,
large enough to print a super-royal sheet, and one
PORTABLE PRESS,
well calculated for light job work.
These presses are all in excellent order, having been in use but a short time, and are offered for sale solely on account of the desire of the subscribers to procure a press suitable to the contemplated enlargement of their paper.
They also offer for sale, Cases, Stands, Gallies, Columns and Head Rules, Leads, Composing Sicks, Chases, Banks, Watering Trays, Roller Moulds, Frames and Rollers, &c. &c. comprising almost every article necessary in a printing office, with the exception of the type.
The subscribers lately purchased an entire printing establishment with a view to obtain the type alone, and having no use for the balance of the materials, they are now offered for sale. Any person disposed to engage in the printing business, will find it greatly to their advantage to call upon them as they will dispose of the whole or any portion of the above articles upon liberal accommodating terms.

CONSUMPTION.
Indian Specific,
FOR the prevention and cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, Consumptions, Spitting Blood, and diseases of the Breast and Lungs, prepared by Doct. CLARKSON FREEMAN, of the city of Lancaster.
BILL OF DIRECTION,
Accompanying each bottle of the Specific, pointing out in a conspicuous manner, all the symptoms in the different stages of these distressing diseases; also particular directions respecting diet and regimen, and how patients are to conduct through every stage until health is restored—for vain and useless would be the prescriptions of the ablest physicians, accompanied by the most powerful and useful medicines, if the directions are not faithfully adhered to.
The public are informed that the depositions of 287 persons have been taken, before proper authorities in the city of Lancaster, all completely cured in the most desperate cases of consumption, some of which are detailed in the bills accompanying each bottle.
The price of each bottle of Indian Specific is $1, and each envelope of the genuine Specific is signed by Dr. Clarkson Freeman, and the initials, C. F., on the seal of each bottle. None can be genuine without his signature, a base composition having been attempted to be imposed on the public by a counterfeit imitation of this extraordinary article.

FOR diseases of the bladder, obstructions of the urine, &c. &c. The Buchu leaves have been highly recommended for diseases of the bladder, by some of the most distinguished physicians of Europe. "A variety of remedies have been advised (says Doctor M'Dowell,) for chronic inflammation of the bladder: most of them I have repeatedly tried with little or no effect; beyond that of being in some degree palliative.—The Compound Buchu having been lately strongly recommended, I was induced to make trial of it, and my experiments have resulted in the satisfactory manner, having succeeded in saving the most inveterate cases, in which I had no hope of success."
The above medicine has been frequently prescribed by, and found to answer the fullest expectations of the principal physicians of the cities.
