The New-Yorker:—Quarto Form—New Series.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement.

They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favor shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing it at the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1 of Vol. II, thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number, and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who take it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will consist of two annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will contain eight hundred and thirty-two pages, fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favor which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, farther than to express their determination of continuing to devote untiring efforts to the improvement of their publication, and of furnishing a sheet which will bear the most favorable comparison when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition in which will be printed, still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Anxiously are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance.

Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered.—Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The law who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4.50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

DR. J. CARPENTER, BOTANIC PHYSICIAN.

RESPECTFULLY invites those who are troubled with Rheumatic pains, either chronic or inflammatory, to give him a call, having had very good success in curing Rheumatism; and having within the short space of time that he has been here had upwards of forty cases of Rheumatism under treatment, and having given relief in every case, and failed in but five or six cases of performing a complete cure—and some of these were through neglect on their part; and others to the long standing of the disease, so that no perfect cure could be expected. He would, therefore, invite those afflicted with Rheumatic pains to give him a call, and satisfy themselves. Not desiring those who are unacquainted with him to rely on his statement, but to come into his neighborhood and enquire of those who know, and satisfy themselves before they employ him.

NEW YORK TRANSCRIPT FOR THE COUNTRY.

So many applications have been made to us for the publication of a semi-weekly paper, and the answer we give, that we do not publish one, is so unsatisfactory to the applicant, the opportunity we possess of pleasing our friends in this respect is so extensive, and our desire to gratify them so great, that we have determined to issue, forthwith, a paper twice a week, entitled "The New York Transcript for the Country." It will be of the same size as our daily sheet, but will be filled exclusively with reading matter, digested and arranged under appropriate heads, to the almost entire absence of advertisements, and other local circumstances only of interest to the city reader. A price current, and a bank note table, corrected to the last hour, will form an important feature in this publication, joined to the various other valuable and interesting contents, which have gained for the Transcript its present popularity. It will be afforded to our country readers at $2 per annum payable in advance, in all instances, and no attention shall be spared to render it one of the most interesting, varied, and valuable miscellanies of the day. The publication of the New York Transcript for the Country, will be commenced on the 1st Monday of September next, and will be continued on every Monday and Thursday following.

Agents are wanted to obtain subscriptions for the semi-weekly, who will be liberally treated with.

DR. HULL'S RECENTLY IMPROVED TRUSS.

The distinguished surgeons and medical faculty of the cities generally, and elsewhere, have come to the conclusion that this Truss, in its present improved state, is the only instrument surgically adapted to the disease of Rupture, and the only one that patients can rely upon for the safe retention of the bowels and the final cure of the disease.

In confirmation of which the following names of distinguished medical gentlemen of New York city, with many others, have expressed a decided preference for this instrument, are respectfully added:

Valentine Mott, M. D. George Bushé, M. D. A. A. Stevens, Feb. 20, 1834. David Hosack, M. D. John B. Beck, M. D. Samuel Ackerly, M. D. Cyrus Perkins, M. D. David M. Reese, M. D. John Stearns, M. D. Wm Anderson, M. D. Also, the following extract of a late certificate of Dr. Mott, of New-York:

"For the last twelve months, the curative powers of Dr. Hull's Truss have been tested under my own observation with the most gratifying success in cases of great difficulty, in which the mutilated imitation Trusses so common in our market, had only aggravated the disease. Dr. Hull is an experienced surgeon, who has displayed not a little surgical skill and mechanical ingenuity in bringing this un-wieldy instrument to represent a state of perfection, rendering it, in my opinion, the best I ever saw for securing, comforting and curing the ruptured patient and is in my opinion, the only instrument of the kind that is entitled to patronage of the profession, and the confidence of the people.

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D. Park Place, Feb. 20, 1834. Letters Patent of the United States have been granted to Dr. Hull for 14 years from the last improvement, dated July 5th, 1833. For sale at the Drug Store of
