Harrisburg Chronicle. PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE. THERE having been at no time within the recollection of the subscriber, precisely correct and impartial synopsis given of the Legislative proceedings in both Houses, and there being considerable anxiety manifested on this account throughout the State, the editor of this paper has made arrangements for giving full, fair and yet succinct accounts of all the sayings and doings in that body, the coming session. This preparation has been considered the more necessary, inasmuch as the next Legislature will be an unusually interesting one.

THE CHRONICLE is now printed on new type, and contains one third more reading matter than has been heretofore presented to its readers; and is now one of the largest (there being but one equal in size) papers published in this place. Along with the Legislative proceedings will be given regularly the proceedings of Congress and all other matters that may prove interesting.

TERMS: This paper will, as heretofore published twice a week during the Session of the Legislature, and once a week during the remainder of the year, on a five double medium sheet and new type, at $3 per annum, payable in advance. For six months including the session of the Legislature $2.50 in advance. No subscriber can discontinue his paper until all arrearages are paid.

Any person forwarding five names as subscribers shall have a copy of the Chronicle one year gratis. E. GUYER. November 7, 1836.

LITERARY PUBLICATIONS, &c.

THE IRIS. A Miscellany of Morals, Literature, Science and the Arts. EDITED BY Jas. Cooper & Wm. M. Reynolds.

THE Press, beyond a doubt, is the grand lever which now moves the intellectual world. Among civilized nations, public opinion bows so submissively to no other power; even despots reverence its voice, and demagogues tremble at its frown.

Desirous of contributing somewhat to the furtherance of such an object, we propose publishing a weekly journal under the above title. The Iris will endeavor to keep constantly in view and steadfastly advocate the objects to which it is professedly devoted.

With this brief exposition of their views and plans, the Editors throw themselves upon the indulgence of a discriminating public, pledging themselves, if they meet with encouragement, to render the work worthy of patronage.

TERMS. I. THE IRIS will be published weekly, on a half-sheet of imperial size, on paper of good quality, and in a handsome style, for one dollar and a half per annum—one half payable in advance, the remainder on the expiration of six months—If payment be not made within the year, two dollars will be charged.

II. Any number of persons forwarding five Dollars shall be entitled to four copies.

III. Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers upon the ordinary terms, shall receive a sixth copy for himself.

IV. No subscription discontinued, but at the option of the Editors, until all arrears are paid. The first Number will be issued on the first Saturday in January, 1837. Gettysburg, November 21, 1836.

COACH, SADDLE AND TRUNK FACTORY. THE Subscriber returns his thanks to the Public for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully state that he is at all times prepared, at his old Stand in Chambersburg Street, a few doors West of the Court-House, to Make, Trim and Repair GIGS, Brouches & CARRIAGES of all kinds, in a neat, fashionable and substantial manner, of GOOD MATERIALS and at the shortest notice.

He is also prepared to manufacture, and has now on hand, SADDLES, BRIDLES, MARTINGALES, Saddle-bags, Hornmanes, Trunks, Harness, and EVERY OTHER ARTICLE IN HIS LINE OF BUSINESS. The Public are respectfully invited to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

EDWIN A. ATLEE. Gettysburg, May 2, 1836.

DR. J. CARPENTER, BOTANIC PHYSICIAN. RESPECTFULLY invites those who are troubled with Rheumatic pains, either chronic or inflammatory, to give him a call, having had very good success in curing Rheumatism; and having within the short space of time that he has been here under treatment, and having given relief in every case, and failed in but five or six cases of performing a complete cure—and some of these were through neglect on their part; and others to the long standing of the disease, so that no perfect cure could be expected.

He would, therefore, invite those afflicted with Rheumatic pains to give him a call, and satisfy themselves. Not desiring those who are unacquainted with him to rely on his statement, but to come into his neighborhood and enquire of those who know, and satisfy themselves before they employ him.

Dr. Carpenter still continues to reside at his former residence in Liberty township, two miles North of Emmittsburg, and two miles from Rhodes Mill, on Middle-creek, October 3, 1836.

NATIONAL ENQUIRER AND Constitutional Advocate of Universal Liberty. Edited and Published by Benjamin Lundy.

THIS work has recently been established with the view of advocating the cause of Universal Emancipation. The Editor, having devoted more than eighteen years of his life to this important subject, and having, nearly the whole of this period, superintended the editorial department of another publication of similar character and views, conceives it to be unnecessary at present, to give an exposition of his particular sentiments in relation to it. Yet it may not be improper to state explicitly, that the principal aim and leading object of the work will be THE IMMEDIATE AND TOTAL ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN AMERICA, by the most efficient moral, judicious and Constitutional means.

The time was—and well indeed is it remembered—when but a solitary voice (except its own occasional echo) was heard throughout the land, in favor of a restoration of the "inalienable rights," and redress for the innumerable wrongs, of the American bondman. It was a dreary night of hopeless, soul-depressing toil and care! But within the period above mentioned, a marked and visible change has been effected; a wonderful impetus has been given to the progress of the holy cause; and the brightest cheering rays of hope and confidence in success, are beaming around us. It is true that much yet remains to be done, in order to guard against and ward off the awful, impending calamity, which has long threatened the peace and safety of our country. A severe contest is yet to be waged with the demon of oppression, ere the vengeful arm of Justice shall be stayed, and the power of moral truth established, and the renovation of our social system effected.

We must, therefore, buckle on the armor of righteous persevering energy—renew our zeal and activity in the vineyard of labor—pled with more fervor in supplication, at the Throne of Almighty Power, for the successful termination of our arduous, yet glorious undertaking.

With such views as are here expressed, the Editor of this work has assumed the station which he now occupies. He long since entered with alacrity this great arena of moral warfare, and yields to none, in the disposition to sustain the principles which he has for many years advocated.

The co-operation of all who are friendly to the object of the work is desired, and their patronage is generally solicited. Every exertion will be made to render it instructive and entertaining, while the appropriate motto will be ever recollected—"Fiat Justitia Ruat Cælum."

Terms of Publication.—The National Enquirer is published every Saturday, at No. 233 Arch Street, Philadelphia. The price of subscription is Two DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable half yearly, in advance. Twenty six Numbers will constitute a Volume. Any person who will procure subscriptions, and forward the money for the same, as aforesaid, will be entitled to six copies of a volume complete, for every Five Dollars advanced. The Advocates of Emancipation, generally, are requested to use their influence, and lend their assistance in obtaining patronage, and in circulating the work.

Letters and communications must be forwarded to the editor, free of expense, or they will not be attended to. This regulation is absolutely necessary, to prevent imposition on the opponents of our cause.

BENJAMIN LUNDY. Philadelphia, Dec. 5, 1836.
