

DEFERRED ARTICLES.

The Surplus Revenue.

The Secretary of the Treasury states that the amount of money in the Treasury subject to draft, as shown by the running account of the Treasurer, was, on the first instant, $42,899,167 49, and the amount standing to the credit of the disbursing officers, as shown by the latest returns received, was $4,177,219 38.

Col. R. M. Johnson.—The New York Evening Star holds the following very ingenious language, relative to the charges made against this gentleman.

But something is due on the score of strict justice to Col. Johnson—something from old attachments, now that the election is over. He has been severely assailed by many of his own political friends, and an attempt is made to defeat his election on the ground that he is the husband of a colored woman, and as such unfit to be Vice President of the United States.

Col. Johnson, while a very young man, formed an attachment to a handsome mustee girl, belonging to the estate of his father, who was subsequently made free. He had two daughters—bearing no traces of this admixture of blood, who were educated in the District of Columbia, among ladies of the first families—and when of age married to gentlemen of character in the west, receiving fortunes from their father.

His mother, represented to be a pious woman, of whom the daughters knew but little, is now dead. How does this tally with the charge, that Col. Johnson was about to bring a black wife and yellow girls to Washington, and that the President was bound to introduce them in his own family, and the families of his Cabinet.

Even southern prejudices, strong as they may be against amalgamation, can find, we think, no cause of complaint on this point. We have known Col. Johnson for many years—known him as a kind-hearted man, and courteous to all—not a great man, it is true—but we believe an honest and a patriotic man. We say thus much who did not support him.

GEORGIA.—We have read with deep attention, the message of Gov. SCHLEY to the Legislature of Georgia. It abounds with important information and reflections. The worthy Governor commences with the subject of the Seminole and Creek wars, which he traces from their causes downwards to the present time; but as the events of these unhappy campaigns are familiar to our readers, it will be unnecessary for us to go over the ground again.

Suffice it to remark, that Gov. Schley, while he compliments the troops for past services, hazards no conjectures respecting the future, except such as are based upon assumed energy and a military skill. He then proceeds to commend the spirit of enterprise which pervades the citizens of Georgia—and congratulates them on the different rail-roads and other public works that are projected—encouraging them to persevere in such undertakings, for the obvious reason that, while they add to the value of land, they facilitate the commercial interests of the State to such an extent that Georgia promises to be behind no State in the Union.

He recommends that the Georgian share of the Surplus Revenue be taken into early consideration; and he suggests a probability, nay, a hope, that the amount will be appropriated to Public Improvements.

The other topics are decidedly local, but they all turn upon improvements, either in commerce, policy, or the promotion of profitable industry.

LOSS OF THE SHIP TALLAHASSEE FROM LIVERPOOL FOR NEW ORLEANS. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26, A. M.—The Exchange Bulletin here announces the wreck of the ship Tallahassee, from Liverpool for New Orleans, on the Tortugas. Passengers and crew saved, also part of her cargo. No other particulars given.

FROM FLORIDA.—Col. RANDALL, late Adjutant and Inspector General of the Army in Florida, arrived at Charleston from St. Augustine, on the 5th inst. bringing some interesting particulars of the movements of the Army in Florida, and also despatches to the War Department.

On the 11th of November the Army composed of about 2,100 men including the Creek warriors, marched from Fort Drane in pursuit of the enemy.

The army crossed the Withlacoochee on the 13th in two divisions, which by different routes were to meet at Dade's battle ground on the 19th or 20th, scouring the country in every direction on the march. On the 17th about 150 to 200 of the enemy were encountered, when a vigorous fight ensued.

The enemy were routed, and fled; leaving 20 dead, besides all their horses and baggage. Other dead and a great number of wounded were carried off by them during the fight. The loss of the whites was 1 killed and 10 wounded.

Another engagement took place on the 18th, in which the troops, under Gen. Armstrong, displayed uncommon bravery. The enemy were from 600 to 700, and attacked our troops on all sides; but were driven off—leaving 25 dead behind. Our loss was 3 killed—15 wounded.

The next day, 19th, the junction was formed at Dade's battle ground, and on the 21st the whole army returned to the scene of the conflict of the 18th. Another desperate battle took place, in which our troops became involved in an impassable morass, and night coming on, they were compelled to retire with considerable loss.

The Army is now at Volusia. Nothing has been heard of Gen. Jessup since his arrival at Tampa. Gen. Call is yet in feeble health.

The Army, after receiving new supplies of provisions and fresh horses, will enter speedily upon another expedition. Should Gen. Jessup afford the expected aid, the result it is hoped, will terminate the campaign.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

New Goods.

SAMUEL WITHEROW

HAS just returned from the city with a large and splendid assortment of FRESH GOODS, suitable for the season, consisting of every variety of Dry Goods, Groceries, and Queensware.

His assortment of Cloths and Cassimers.

he calls particular attention to. His Goods have been all selected with care, and will be sold as cheap as they can be procured at any other Establishment. The Public are respectfully requested to call and judge for themselves.

Gottysburgh, Oct. 10. 1f-28

PAMPHLET LAWS.

ALL persons desiring copies of the Laws of Pennsylvania of the Session 1836-7 who are not entitled by law to receive them, can obtain the same half-bound at 50 cents per copy, provided they leave their names at any time before the First Monday of January next with the subscriber.

J. GILBERT, Treasurer. 3f-36

Look at this, Sportsmen!

DEER & FOX CHASE.

SPORTSMEN and all others fond of such amusements, are informed that there will be lot loose, in Millerstown, on Friday the 23d of December next, at 9 o'clock A.M.

A DEER and a FOX.

All desirous of trying the SPEED and FLICK of their HOUNDS, are invited to attend and participate in the chase.

THE MANAGERS. Millerstown, December 5, 1836.

Houses & Lots FOR SALE.

WILL be sold at public sale on Monday the 26th instant, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the premises

A LOT OF GROUND,

Situate in Littlestown, adjoining lot of Ephraim Swope and an Alley—on which are

A Good Two STORY WEATHER-BOARDED

HOUSE,

Log Stable and a well of excellent water convenient.

Also—One other Lot of Ground

Adjoining the Littlestown Academy and an Alley—having erected thereon

A one story HOUSE,

Suitable for a Hatter, Saddler, Shoemaker or Blacksmith—the latter of which is very much wanted in that place.

Mr. Henry Shriver will show the above to any person desirous of purchasing. The Lots will be sold together or separately, to suit purchasers.

The terms will quite reasonable, and will be made known on the day of sale.

JACOB BAUMGARTNER. 18*-36

Call and See the Cheap

Hats, Caps & Bonnets

Wm. W. Paxton

RETURNS his sincere thanks to his Friends and the Public generally for the encouragement he has received, and informs them that he has now on hand, and will constantly keep, at his old stand in Chambersburgh street, nearly opposite the Indian King Hotel,

A large and excellent assortment of FUR & SILK HATS & BONNETS, of every description—consisting of Men's Castor HATS;

“Rorag do.

“Spanish body do.

“Plain Russian do.

“Silk Plush do.

Youths HATS, different fashions; Old Men's Broad Brims and Low Crowns, fashioned.

Also—LADIES' FUR & SILK BONNETS, of the latest New York Fashions, of the following colors, viz: black, brown, drab, pink, white and green.

TOGETHER WITH Second hand HATS, WOOL HATS; Hair and Seal CAPS, &c. &c.

All of which he will sell low for CASH or COUNTRY PRODUCE. Call and judge for yourselves.

AN APPRENTICE

Wanted to learn the above business, about 16 or 17 years of age.

W. W. PAXTON. 1f-35

Notice is hereby Given

TO all persons concerned, that the following TRUSTEE ACCOUNTS are filed in the Prothonotary's Office at Gettysburgh, and will be presented to the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Adams County on Tuesday the 3d day of January next, for confirmation and allowance—viz:

The Account of Henry Heagy, Trustee of Phebe Ashbaugh, wife of Frederick Ashbaugh.

The Account of Geo. Deardorff and Geo. Robinette, Trustees of John Day, Jr.

B. GILBERT, Prothy. 1f-36

TEMPERANCE.

THE Rock Creek Temperance Society will meet at the Rock Creek Chapel on Christmas-Monday, the 26th instant, at 1 o'clock P. M.

JOHN WILSON, Secretary. 1f-37

PUBLIC NOTICES, &c.

To Owners of Teams.

WESTERN LOADING,

At Wrightsville, York County.

THE Subscriber is now receiving LOADING for Pittsburg, Wheeling &c. to be forwarded by Wagons. Owners of Teams 't' will load at Wrightsville, will always get the Philadelphia price, only deducting freight on Rail Road from Philadelphia to the above place.

HENRY KAUFFELT. 3m-33

Wrightsville, Nov. 14, 1836.

CABINET-WAREHOUSE,

CHAMBERSBURG STREET.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his old friends and customers that he has on hand, and is prepared at all times to manufacture,

Hulogany, Maple, Cherry and Walnut FURNITURE, of every description in his line.

His materials are good; his work warranted, and of the latest patterns. His terms are moderate, and accommodated to the times.

All orders for COFFINS punctually attended to.

DAVID HEAGY. 1f-11

Gettysburgh, June 13, 1836.

Notice is hereby Given,

TO all Legatees and other persons concerned, that the ADMINISTRATION ACCOUNTS of the deceased persons hereinafter mentioned, will be presented to the Orphans' Court of Adams County, for confirmation and allowance, on Tuesday the 3d day of January next, viz:

The account of Jacob Miller and John Miller, Executors of the Estate of Ludwick Miller, deceased.

The account of Philip Beamer, Executor of the Estate of John Orner, deceased.

The account of George Belschner, Administrator of the Estate of Margaret Groll, deceased.

JAS. A. THOMPSON, Register. Register's Office, Gettysburgh, Nov. 28, 1836. 1c-35

LITERARY UNION: LADY'S BOOK

AND

Lady's American Magazine.

THE Proprietor of the Lady's Book, grateful for the increasing patronage which he has received, and for the kind and generous assistance sustained their own "Book," that he has made new arrangements for their gratification. Convinced that he could not in any way more effectively promote the interests, or realize the wishes of his numerous subscribers, he has secured the valuable aid of MRS. SARAH JANE HALE, of Boston, to whose superintendance the literary departments of the Lady's Book will hereafter be committed. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those of the most distinguished authors, will furnish it with a variety of interesting and valuable articles. For many years Mrs. Hale has conducted the American Ladies' Magazine—a periodical of uncommon merit, which will be merged in the Lady's Book. Her abilities and talents as a writer, her high reputation as one of the most graceful, vigorous, and accomplished of our female writers.

Under the judicious management of Mrs. Hale, the Lady's Book will not only maintain the excellent character it has already acquired, but it is confidently expected that it will be rendered more eminently worthy of the support of those to whose interest and amusement it has been, and will continue to be devoted. The superior talents and fine taste of the Editor will give the work a new impulse; while her own contributions, and those