

THE NEWS-GATHERER.

Dr. Chastain's political works upon war, slavery, &c. have been re-published in England in one volume.

RECIPES FOR SPEAKING ENGLISH.—A servant girl in Edinburgh, who spoke Scotch so broadly as at times hardly to be comprehended even by her mistress, thought a native of Burns, Ayrshire, on being asked how she contrived to make herself understood when in service in England, where she had previously been, replied, "Oh! it's quite easy; ye've nothing to do but leave out a' the R's and gie the words a bit chaw in the middle!"

1. Why is a boy picking the wing of a chicken at a side table while the family are at dinner, like the Duke of Wellington at the battle of Waterloo?
He is engaged with a boney part (Bona parte).
2. What word of command does a captain give to his soldier which is like yourself reader?
"As you are."
3. Why is a flag of truce proceeding from one hostile army to another, like the Lords and Commons of England in session?
There is a parley meant, (Parliament.)
4. A man who had no legs married a woman who had no arms. Why were they matched?
He could find no happiness in her arms, and she saw that he had no understanding.
5. Why is Old Heaven like a man digging clams?
It is an ex-claim-ation.

A REAL TEASER.—The following "Norval's" description of himself, was given a few days since, by a six foot four son of the West, to a person, who from the appearance of the speaker, supposed him not able to pay for the goods he was contracting for. "You don't know me I s'pose, well, 'tis no matter—in-quire at Yoho's and they'll tell you—my name is Shiner, I am located at the Big Lick, and I can lick the biggest at the place—I can eat peaches without peckering my mouth—salt don't keep me nor liquor in-jure—I am a terrin' creature of the Ostamont school, and a most decided and total porker in politics—in religion I am neutral and in sex decided masculine."

From the New York Express.
Fashionable party among the colored folks.
Assistant Alderman Erben, of the Sixth Ward, who for some time past has had his slumbers broken by repeated applications at a late hour in the night, to repair to the neighborhood of the Five Points and quell disturbances, was again called on Friday night or Saturday morning, it being near 3 o'clock, to break up a colored assembly at a house kept by a Mr. Davis, No. 65 Orange st. Extensive arrangements had been made by the keeper of the house upon this occasion to have a grand ball conducted in due form and with all the laws of etiquette. Select invitations were served around, none were invited to be present except "gomen of good society, and ladies with lib wid 'spectable white folks." Early in the evening carriages drove up to the door in rapid succession,—the master of ceremonies was to be seen officiating in full dress, with black silk breeches and stockings of the same color, obsequiously "handing de fair seck from de coach," and gallanting them up the alley to the saloon.—the drivers were ordered to "turn de horses heads wards Cross st.," and every thing was duly arranged to give importance to the occasion, and show off "de Poss niggers to de best advantage, and to hab tings done like de white folks." Presently afterwards the gomen made their appearance, dressed a la mode, surrounded with the odor of the jessamine and the sweet smelling violet, and all the perfumes of the South,—the saloon was lighted up, partners chosen, the band struck up, and the gay assemblage simultaneously moved in the giddy mazes of the dance. Miss Dinah Johnson was queen of the Gala, and delighted the company with the Bayaderre dance, a La Auguste; Miss Phillis Jackson, a very 'spectable light colored young lady, "come de grand key phips" in Cinderella; Mr. Sampson, white washer and patent sweeper, "give de Highland fling fast rate," while Dutch Bill "come de double shuffle to 'tonish old folks." After a series of cotillions, fancy and country dances, which continued till a late hour, the master of ceremonies requested "de gomen to choose partners for de waltz," which unfortunate proposition was the occasion of an intestine commotion among the company that eventually led to their ruin and disgrace. The disagreement arose betwixt the leader of the ball, an exquisitely dressed, snuff colored little Philadelphia steward of one of the North River boats, and a dutch built Long Island negro, about six feet high, with a complexion upon which a piece of charcoal would make a white mark. The former insisted upon waltzing; Dutch Bill said "day had been fool in long enough with de waltz muss, he was for de old fashion dance;" words ensued, sides were taken, blows passed, and finally to end disputes the lights were put out—the ladies shrieked and fainting,—cries of murder were heard—the watch was called, when presently afterward Alderman Erben, attended by a posse of leather heads which he hastily collected together, rushed into the scene of confusion and arrested six and thirty of the travellers, male and female, and escorted them to the watch-house. In the morning they were examined before Justice Lowande, in the presence of Mr. Erben, and after an admonition of the latter gentleman that the next time that they wish to dedicate an evening to the graces, to select a shrine for that purpose somewhere out of "mis' Ward, which proposition was promptly acceded to, and the defendants were set at liberty.

Foots being on a visit to Lord Townshend's, at Raynham, happened one morning to look into the pig sty, and saw a silver spoon among the pig's victuals; one of the house maids coming by, and perceiving Mr. Foots, cried out, "Plague on the pigs, what a noise they make." "Well they may," said Foots, "for they have but one silver spoon between them."

Information Wanted.
JOHN HENRY MULL was taken from the City of Baltimore in May, 1832, then aged about 13 years, by a certain JOSEPH TURNER, living at that time near Carlisle, Cumberland county, Pa. In 1835, Turner removed to the State of Indiana, taking with him the said John Henry Mull, in both instances without the knowledge or consent of the boy's mother, who is a widow. Any information, leading to a discovery of the boy's residence, can be addressed to the Editor of the Gettysburgh Star. Editors in Indiana will confer a particular favor on the boy's mother by noticing the above.

Saddles! Saddles! SADDLES!
Important Improvement in Spring-seated SADDLES!

The Subscriber respectfully informs the Public generally, that he has purchased the Patent Right for making and vending Spring-seated Saddles of the Zig Zag or W spring in the Seat, And also a Spring attached to the Girth or Girths and to the tree. The saddle is made with or without a Pommel, just as persons may fancy.

Saddles made upon this plan are incomparably superior to any heretofore in use, in point of strength, durability and elasticity, to the horse and rider. The application of the spring to the girth is productive of ease and comfort to the horse, and protects him from injuries arising from violent or sudden exertions. The Spring is also applicable to LADIES' SADDLES.

It is deemed unnecessary to state any thing more. The public are invited to call and judge for themselves.
The Subscriber returns his sincere thanks to his Customers and the Public in general, for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully inform them that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martin gals, AND ALL KINDS OF Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS

Look Here!
THE subscriber wishes to inform his patrons, and others who may wish to patronize him in future, that he has recently purchased Mr. Callahan's Patent Right for the use of his valuable improvement in making

Spring-seat SADDLES!

Notwithstanding the prejudices against these Saddles heretofore, he feels justified in saying, that he hopes to gain the confidence and patronage of the public—as he is enabled, on the present principle, to ensure all his saddles without any extra charge.—That a soft, easy saddle is desirable to all persons who ride much, and particularly to those who may not be favored with a very pleasant horse; I presume all persons will unhesitatingly patronize the spring saddles, when they will be ensured as long as the purchaser may deem necessary.

The elasticity of the Saddle acting in harmony with the symmetry of the horse and rider, not only affords ease to the man, but incalculable advantage to the horse. All persons of judgment and experience must know, that a dead, unelastic weight on a horse is oppressive. The Spring in the Girth affords the following advantages: 1st Moving or yielding with the horse's chest in breathing, no cramps or cholics or any disease can arise therefrom. 2d The girth will outlast two or three of the common kind, because the yielding of the spring on the sudden expansion of the chest prevents the girth from breaking, and saves the rider from falling; many falls have been the fruits of breaking girths.

GENTLEMEN and LADIES are invited to apply, as the little difference in the cost of these and the hard Saddles is so trifling, and incomparable with the difference in comfort and safety.

N. B. Saddlers in the country can be accommodated with Township or Shop Rights at a trifling cost.

The subscriber returns his thanks to the public for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully state that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martin gals, Saddle-Bags, Portmanteaus and Trunks;

Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS, with every other article in his line of business.

GARLEGANT'S BALSAM OF HEALTH.

Prepared only by JOHN S. MILLER, at his Drug and Medicine Store, opposite the Market House, Frederick, Md.
THIS valuable Medicine has already acquired a celebrity to which few others perhaps in so short a time ever arrived, and its extensive use for 4 or 5 years, in the various parts of our Country, Cities and Towns in Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, and New Orleans, which has attended it with unparalleled success.
Hundreds of persons have used it, and nine out of ten cases have been permanently cured of Dyspepsia, Cholera, Nervous Tremors, Lossness of spirits, Palpitation of the heart, and all those train of Diseases resulting from a disordered condition of the stomach and liver, or derangement of the Digestive functions, such as General Debility OR WEAKNESS, FLATULENCE, LOSS OF APPETITE, SOUR FERVENTIONS and ACIDITIES OF THE STOMACH, COSTIVENESS, HEADACHE, JAUNDICE, FLATULENCY AND BILIOUS COLIC, &c. &c.
To Adults and Children who are troubled with Worms, it will operate as a safe and thorough vermifuge. It is entirely botanical in its composition, and may be used by both sexes and of any age, with perfect safety, without any change of habit or diet.
A full and satisfactory Direction accompanies each Bottle, which can be had at one Dollar per Bottle, and by the quantity at a liberal Discount of the proprietor and of all his agents, which are named at the bottom of each direction.
New testimony of the cure are frequently received, a few of which follow in this advertisement, and many more can be seen on the directions around each Bottle.

About two years ago I was severely afflicted with the dyspepsia, which I had for the last fifteen years, previous to the above named time, which was very much increased by my having a blood vessel ruptured upon my lungs, occasioned by lifting—which increased my complaint, dyspepsia and general weakness and debility, to such a degree, that for two years previous to my using the Garleasant's Balsam, I never eat a meal but my stomach became so painful that I had immediately to throw it up. Seeing Garleasant's Balsam of Health advertised, I was induced to try a bottle; after taking the very first dose it appeared to strengthen my stomach, and every dose of the first bottle helped me much, that in the course of a few days my stomach began to retain and digest every thing I eat. I continued to use the Balsam until I used seven bottles, which cured me entirely, and restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since, and not before for fifteen years. I cheerfully recommend it to all persons who are afflicted with dyspepsia or debility of stomach. Given under my hand this 11th day of January, 1834.

HENRY LOUTHAN,
Frederick county, Va.
Certificate of Nicholas Weaver.
This is to certify that I bought of your agent at Gettysburgh, several bottles, of your valuable Balsam of Health, which completely cured me of the Dyspepsia. I had taken much of other patent Medicines, but found no relief, until I made use of your Balsam of Health, which effected a radical cure, and do recommend it to all those who are troubled with that obstinate disorder Dyspepsia.
N. WEAVER.
Gettysburgh, Pa. Nov. 2, 1836.

Certificate from the Rev. D. F. Schaffer, Pastor of the Lutheran Church.
JOHN S. MILLER—Dear Sir:—I do not it my duty to inform you that I consider Garleasant's Balsam of Health, prepared by you, a superior medicine. My wife has long been in a delicate state of health, and of course no means were left untried of which we could avail; myself opposed to nostrums and patent Medicines—I nevertheless consented to purchase a bottle of your Balsam of Health, and I do hereby certify that Mrs. Schaffer derived more benefit from the use of it than of any other medicine. My opinion is that if a cure can be effected, as regards the disease you mention, your Balsam will, if used in the first stage of the disease.

D. F. SCHAEFFER, E. D.
Frederick Aug. 23, 1836.
P.S. I used the Balsam in my own family and administered it to some indigent persons, and invariably found it a most efficacious vermifuge.

DR. J. CARPENTER, BOTANIC PHYSICIAN.

RESPECTFULLY invites those who are troubled with Rheumatic pains, either chronic or inflammatory, to give him a call, having had very good success in curing Rheumatism; and having within the short space of time that he has been here had upwards of forty cases of Rheumatism under treatment, and having given relief in every case, and failed in but five or six cases of performing a complete cure—and some of these were through neglect on their part; and others to the long standing of the disease, so that no perfect cure could be expected. He would, therefore, invite those afflicted with Rheumatic pains to give him a call, and satisfy themselves. Not desiring those who are unacquainted with him to rely on his statement, but to come into his neighborhood and enquire of those who know, and satisfy themselves before they employ him.
Dr. Carpenter still continues to reside at his former residence in Liberty township, two miles North of Emmitsburgh, and two miles from Rhodus Mill, on Middle-creek.
