THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY CHRONICLE A FAMILY NEWSPAPER. THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST IN THE U. S.

Published Weekly by Matthias & Taylor.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME, Commencing May 20, 1837. The SATURDAY CHRONICLE is a family newspaper, published on a sheet of the largest mammoth size, and issued regularly from Philadelphia, every Saturday. It is entirely unconnecwith party politics, and secturianism, and is geniousy devoted to the cause of Literature, Science and General Intelligence, as calculated to entertain and instruct every branch of the family | Balance of Duplicate of 1836, uncolcircle. The design of the publishers is to furnish a newspaper that shall instruct as well as amuse, and onlighten the middle aged, as well as entertain, and direct to proper objects of study, the mind of youth. Their unprecedented success during the past year—(having obtained a very extensive circulation not only in Philadelphia and Pennsylvania, but in every State of the Union) induce them to believe that their plan of publication is a good one, and during the succeeding year, they will continue to pursue it zealously, with such im provements and modifications as may from time to time be suggested.

GENERAL CONTENTS OF THE CHRONICLE.

Tales and Essays on Literary, Scientific and Moral subjects-Sketches of History and Biography-Reviews of New publications-Stories from the Classic writers-Popular Statistics of the World-Ladies' Department -Original Communications from some of the best writers of Philadelphia and elsewhere-Medical Lectures-Science and Art-Agriculture and Rural Economy
-Popular Superstitions-Curious Customs and Manners-European and Domestic Correspondence-Articles on Music, the Drams, and other amusements-Varieties, amusing incidents, &c. and a carefully prepared synopsis of the Current News of the Day, both Foreign and Domestic. CORRESPONDENTS OF THE SAT
