DIVONCES .- At a late term of the Rhode Island Supreme Court, held at Providence, there were fourteen petitions for divorces granted, ten on the application of females and four by males.

The principal cause for divorce shown by one of the petitioners was that her husband had put her head into a kettle of hot water. It is needless to add that the husband was himself heated by ardent spirits. The petition was granted.

We believe that honest Jack will not be disappointed. At least he ought not to be.
