GONE IN HER BEAUTY!

BY MISS HANNAH F. GOULD.

Oh, she is gone! the wistful blasts, that sweep Wild round her mansion, trouble not her sleep, Gone in her beauty! Past the drifting snows Fall cold, but harmless, o'er her deep repose!

PATENT WATER-PROOF BOOTS

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has purchased the Patent, (Mr. P. G. NAGLE, of Philadelphia,) all his right, title and interest in the County of Adams, for making, constructing, using and vending to others to be used, his patented method of making BOOTS AND SHOES COMPLETELY IMPERVIOUS TO WATER.

An article of this kind has long and anxiously been looked for by the public. The certificates are in the subscriber's possession, prove the great efficacy of this desirable desideratum. To prove the utility of this article, and its great advantages to the public, the Patentee has obtained from the American Institute two Diplomas or Premiums. The improvement renders the Leather soft and pliable and is a sure preventive against its breaking.

Public patronage is earnestly solicited. All Orders thankfully received and punctually attended to, by the subscriber, residing in Hampton, Adams county, Pa. SOLOMON ALBERT. Hampton, March 13, 1837. 11-50

O'NEILL'S Anti-Rheumatic Decoction AND LEMMONT, RHEUMATISM.

It also cures LUMBAGO and SCIATICA and will be seen by some of the certificates given from Physicians and others, that it is a sovereign remedy for SCROFULA, WHITE SWELLING, DISEASE OF THE HIP JOINT, and all affections arising from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD.

The undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to the public that he has discovered a Sovereign Remedy for Rheumatism &c. It never fails to cure where the medicine is taken agreeably to the directions which accompany each bottle.

Unnumerable instances might be given of the happy effects and powerful virtues of this preparation, in the cure of those painful and distressing diseases which have been named above, and against whose restless attacks the artillery of medical science has so long been directed in vain. The transcendent merits of this preparation, its sanative powers and unparalleled efficacy in the cure of Rheumatism &c. may be seen forth the voluntary pledges of thousands, who by its use have been restored from pain and torture, stiffness and decrepitude, to ease, strength, activity and vigorous health; credulity and scepticism must disappear before the powerful array of testimonials voluntarily furnished by Physicians of high reputation, who use it in their practice and have the honesty to give it the character it so justly merits.

Letter of Dr. Jos. Getzendanner of Montjeu, Switzerland, who was severely afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism, and finally cured by two bottles of O'Neill's Medicine:

Dear Sir:—In compliance with your request, I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of your Anti-Rheumatic Medicine, and no selfish consideration could induce me to withhold it. My motto is, "honor to whom honor is due." I was greatly afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism, and discovered that the "Materia Medica" contained nothing that would reach my disease. It is unnecessary here to state in detail, how much I suffered; suffice it to say, that I have been severely afflicted for many years, and suffered great pain; and that I obtained two bottles of your Anti-Rheumatic decoction, and two phials of the liniment, which accompanied it, and that it has banished every vestige of Rheumatism from my system. The afflicted would do well to resort to this remedy. Your ob't. servant &c. JOSEPH GETZENDANNER, M. D.

From the Frederick Times and Dem. Advocate

Highly Important to the Afflicted. It will no doubt be gratifying to our readers to learn that the undersigned, who has attended to the preparation of O'Neill's Anti-Rheumatic Medicine, which has been ascertained to be a specific not only in Rheumatism, but also in White Swelling, disease of the Hip Joint, Sciatica, &c. &c. We are urged to make these remarks, not from the certificates of unknown persons, but from our own knowledge of several instances, and from the testimony of a gentleman of high rank, who has been severely afflicted with this disease. The undersigned created general anxiety in the minds of his friends, and especially of Miss E. Rohr, the daughter of our worthy Postmaster, who, after years of suffering, has been relieved solely by the use of Mr. O'Neill's medicine—the Medical Faculty having tried every thing in vain. These are Miss Rohr's own statements. The high reputation of Mr. O'Neill's endeavors justify us in saying that their statements merit universal credence.

From the Baltimore Chronicle. We are not in the habit of expressing an opinion of the efficacy of Patent Medicines, but in the case of the above mentioned remedy for Rheumatism, we feel compelled to do so, because it has effected that which it had the most surprising effects. The inventor is a gentleman in whom the greatest reliance can be placed; but he has other than his own testimony in favor of the medicine which he offers to the public. Clergymen, physicians, and those who have been relieved, have borne voluntary witness to its astonishing efficacy; and those who have the misfortune to be afflicted with this distressing complaint may be assured of immediate relief by resorting to this remedy.

The following is from the Fredericktown Herald, edited by Wm. Ogdon Niles, Esq. April 6th, 1837:

Mr. O'Neill's Rheumatic Medicine, offered to the public in this day's paper, if we form an opinion from the character of the maker, and numerous certificates in his possession from highly respectable individuals, who have been cured by the use of it, is one of the most valuable of recent discovery. Its effects upon those afflicted with chronic and inflammatory rheumatism, have been truly marvellous; a few bottles enabling them to dispense with crutches, fannels and bandages, with which for years they have protected their limbs and bodies. Mr. O'Neill merits the gratitude of the afflicted, and the testimony of respectable physicians forbids those imputations which are generally attached to vendors of panaceas.

Saddles! Saddles! SADDLES!

Important Improvement in Spring-seated SADDLES!

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the Public generally, that he has purchased the Patent Right for making an Improved Spring-seated Saddle of the Zig Zag or W' spring in the Seat.

And also a Spring attached to the Girth or Girths and to the tree. The saddle is made with or without a Pommel, just as persons may fancy.

Saddles made upon this plan are incomparably superior to any heretofore in use, in point of strength, durability and elasticity, to the horse and rider. The application of the spring to the girth is productive of ease and comfort to the horse, and protects him from injuries arising from violent or sudden exertions. The Spring is also applicable to LADIES' SADDLES.

It is deemed unnecessary to state any thing more. The public are invited to call and judge for themselves.

The Subscriber returns his sincere thanks to his Customers and the Public in general, for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully inform them that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, AND ALL KINDS OF Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS

Look Here!

THE subscriber wishes to inform his patrons, and others who may wish to patronize him in future, that he has recently purchased Mr. Callahan's Patent Right for the use of his valuable improvement in making

Spring-seat SADDLES

Notwithstanding the prejudices against these Saddles heretofore, he feels justified in saying, that he hopes to gain the confidence and patronage of the public—as he is enabled, on the present principle, to ensure all his saddles without any extra charge.—That a soft, easy saddle is desirable to all persons who ride much, and particularly to those who may not be favored with a very pleasant horse; I presume all persons will unhesitatingly patronize the spring saddles, when they will be ensured as long as the purchaser may deem necessary.

The elasticity of the Saddle acting in harmony with the symmetry of the horse and rider, not only affords ease to the man, but incalculable advantage to the horse. All persons of judgment and experience must know, that a dead, unelastic weight on a horse is oppressive. The Spring in the Girth affords the following advantages: 1st Moving or yielding with the horse's chest in breathing, no cramps or chokes or any disease can arise therefrom. 2d. The girth will outlast two or three of the common kind, because the yielding of the spring on the sudden expansion of the chest prevents the girth from breaking, and saves the rider from falling; many falls have been the fruits of breaking girths. GENTLEMEN and LADIES are invited to apply, as the little difference in the cost of these and the hard Saddles is trifling, and incomparable with the difference in comfort and safety.

N. B. Saddlers in the country can be accommodated with Township or Shop Rights at a trifling cost.

The subscriber returns his thanks to the public for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully state that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, Saddle-Bags, Portmanteaus and Trunks; Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS,

with every other article in his line of business. All kinds of MARKETING taken in exchange for work at fair prices. EDWIN A. ATLEE. Gettysburgh, Jan. 16, 1837. 11-42

PUBLIC NOTICES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE United States Magazine, AND DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

ON the 1st of July, 1837, will be published at Washington, District of Columbia, and delivered simultaneously in the principal cities of the United States, a new Monthly Magazine, under the above title, devoted to the principles of the Democratic party.

It has long been apparent to many of the reflecting members of the Democratic party, of the United States, that a periodical for the advocacy and diffusion of their political principles, similar to those in such active and influential operation in England, is a desideratum, which it was very important to supply—a periodical which should unite with the attractions of a sound and vigorous literature, a political character capable of giving official support to the doctrines and measures of that party, now maintained by a large majority of the people. Discussing the great questions of policy before the country, expounding and advocating the Democratic doctrine through the most able pens that party can furnish, in articles of greater length, more condensed force, more elaborate research, and more elevated tone, than is possible for the newspaper press, a Magazine of this character becomes an instrument of inappreciable value for the enlightenment and formation of public opinion, and for the support of the principles which it advocates. By these means, by thus explaining and defending the measures of the great Democratic party, and by always turning to the public a clear and powerful commentary upon those complex questions of policy and party which so frequently distract the country, and upon which imperfectly understood as they often are by friends and misapprehended and distorted as they are by the enemies of the public good, it is of the utmost importance that the public should be fully and truthfully informed; it is hoped that the periodical in question may be made to exert a beneficial, rational and lasting influence on the public mind.

Other considerations, which cannot be too highly appreciated, will render the establishment and success of the proposed Magazine of very great importance.

In the mighty struggle of antagonist principles which is now going on in the United States, committed to the World as the depository, and exemplar of those cardinal doctrines of political faith with which the cause of the People in every age and country is identified. Chiefly from the want of a convenient means of concentrating the intellectual energies of its principles, this party has hitherto been almost wholly unrepresented in the republic of letters, while the views and policy of its opposing creeds are daily advocated by the ablest and most commanding efforts of genius and learning.

In the United States Magazine the attempt will be made to remove this reproach. The present is the time peculiarly appropriate for the commencement of such an undertaking.—The Democratic body of the Union, after a contest which tested to the uttermost its stability and its principles, has succeeded in retaining possession of the executive administration of the country. In the consequent comparative repose from political strife, the period is auspicious for organizing of this character, interfering with none and cooperating with all.

Co-ordinate with this main design of The United States Magazine, no care or cost will be spared to render it, in a literary point of view, honorable to the country, and fit to cope in vigor of rivalry with its European competitors. Viewing the English language as the noble heritage and common birthright of all who speak the tongue of Milton and Shakespeare, it will be the uniform object of its conductors to present to the fairest intelligences in the various branches of literature, that which will be made to diffuse the benefit of correct models of taste and worthy execution.

In this department the exclusiveness of party, which is inseparable from the political department of such a work, will have no place. Here we stand on a neutral ground of equality and reciprocity, where those universal principles of taste to which we are all alike subject will alone be recognized as the common law. Our political principles cannot be compromised, but our common literature it will be our common pride to cherish and extend, with a liberality of feeling unbiassed by partial or minor views.

As the United States Magazine is founded on the broadest basis which the means and influence of the Democratic party in the United States can present, it is intended to render it in every respect a thoroughly NATIONAL Work, not merely designed for ephemeral interest and attraction, but to continue of permanent historical value.—With this view a considerable portion of each number will be appropriated to the following subjects, in addition to the general features referred to above:

A general summary of Political and of Domestic Intelligence, digested in the order of the States, comprising all the authentic important facts of the preceding month.

General Literary Intelligence, Domestic and Foreign. Geographical Scientific Intelligence, including Agricultural improvements, a notice of all new Patents, &c. A condensed account of all new works of Internal Improvement throughout the Union, presented by a general view of all now in operation or in progress.

Military and Naval News, Promotions, Changes, Movements, &c. Foreign Intelligence. Biographical obituary notices of distinguished persons.

After the close of each session of Congress, an extra or an enlarged number will be published, containing a general review and history of its proceedings, a condensed and abstract of important official documents, and the acts of the session. Advantage will be taken of the means concentrated in this establishment from all quarters of the Union, to collect and digest such extensive statistical observations on all the most important interests of the country as cannot fail to prove of very great value.

This portion of the work will be separately pagged so as to admit of binding it, and will be furnished with a copious index, so that the U. S. Magazine will also constitute a complete Annual Register, on a scale unattempted before, and of very great importance to all classes, not only affording a current and combined view, from month to month, of the subjects which it will comprise, but also for record and reference through future years; the value of which will increase with the duration of the work.

Although in its political character The U. S. Magazine adheres to its claims to support particularly to the Democratic party, it is hoped that its other features referred to above—independently of the desirable object of becoming acquainted with the doctrines of an opponent thus advocated—will recommend it to a liberal and candid support from all parties, and from the large class of no party.

To promote the popular objects in view, and relying upon the united support of the Democratic party, as well as from other sources, the price of subscription is fixed at the low rate of five dollars per annum, while in mechanical arrangements, and in quantity of matter, &c. the United States Magazine will be placed on a par at least with the leading monthlies of England. The whole will form three large octavo volumes each year.

The subscription will be in all cases payable in advance, or (for the first year only) six dollars on the delivery of the third number. The establishment of this rate in such an establishment will be obvious to all.

In return for a remittance of $50, eleven copies will be sent; for $100, twenty three copies. The certificate of a postmaster of the remittance of a sum of money will be a sufficient receipt, all dangers of the mail being at the risk of the Publishers. All communications will be addressed, post paid, to the undersigned, the Publishers. LANGTREE & O'SULLIVAN. Washington, D. C., May 29, 1837.

GARLEGANT'S BALSAM OF HEALTH.

Prepared only by JOHN S. MILLER, at his Drug and Medicine Store, opposite the Market House, Frederick, Md.

THIS valuable Medicine has already acquired a celebrity to which few others perhaps in so short a time ever arrived, and its extensive use for 4 or 5 years, in various parts of our Country, Ohio and Towns in Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, and New Orleans, which has attended it with unparalleled success.

Hundreds of persons have used it, and nine out of ten cases have been permanently cured of Dyspepsia, indigestion, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Palpitation of the heart, and all those train of Diseases resulting from a disordered condition of the stomach and liver, or derangement of the Digestive functions, such as GENERAL DEBILITY OR WEAKNESS, FLATULENCE, LOSS OF APPETITE, SORE THROAT, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, COLIC, HEADACHE, JAUNDICE, FLATULENCE AND BILIOUS COLIC, &c. &c.

To Adults and Children who are troubled with Worms, it will operate as a safe and thorough purgative. It is entirely Botanical in its composition, and may be used by both sexes and of any age, with perfect safety, without any change of habit or diet.

A full and satisfactory Direction accompanies each Bottle, which can be had at one Dollar per Bottle, and by the quantity at a liberal Discount of the proprietor and of all his agents, who are named at the bottom of each direction.

New testimony of its efficacy is frequently received, a few of which follow this advertisement, and many more can be seen on the directions around each Bottle.

About two years ago I was severely afflicted with the dyspepsia, which I had for the last fifteen years, previous to the above named time, which was very much increased by my having a blood vessel ruptured upon my lungs, occasioned by lifting, which increased my complaint, dyspepsia and general weakness and inability to sustain the weight of my body. I resorted to a number of remedies, but all without success. I had immediately to throw it up. Seeing Garleгант's Balsam of Health advertised, I was induced to try a bottle; after taking the very first dose it appeared to strengthen my stomach; and every dose of the first bottle helped me so much, that in the course of a few days my stomach began to retain and digest a few ounces of food, and continued to do so until I had used seven bottles, which cured me entirely, and restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since, and not before for fifteen years. I cheerfully recommend it to all persons who are afflicted with dyspepsia or debility of stomach. Given under my hand this 11th day of January, 1834.

HENRY LOUTH N. Frederick county, Va. Certificate of Nicholas Weaver. This is to certify that I bought of your agent at Gettysburgh, several bottles, of your valuable Balsam of Health, which completely cured me of the Dyspepsia. I had taken much of other patent Medicines, but found no relief, until I made use of your Balsam of Health, which effected a radical cure, and do recommend it to all those who are troubled with that obstinate disorder Dyspepsia. NICHOLAS WEAVER. Gettysburgh, Pa. Nov. 2, 1836.

Certificate from the Rev. D. F. Schaffer, Pastor of the Lutheran Church. JOHN S. MILLER—Dear Sir:—I do not do my duty to inform you that I consider Garleгант's Balsam of Health, prepared by you, a superior medicine. My wife has long been in a delicate state of health, and of course no means were left untried of which we could hear; myself opposed to nostrums and patent medicines—I nevertheless consented to purchase a bottle of your Balsam of Health, and I do hereby testify that it has afforded more benefit from the use of it than of any other medicine. My opinion is that if a cure can be effected, as regards the disease you mention, your Balsam will, if used in the first stage of the disease. D. F. SCHEFFER, E. D. Frederick, Aug. 23, 1836.

P. S. I used the Balsam in my own family and administered it to some indigent persons, and invariably found it a most efficacious vermifuge. For sale only at the Drug Store of SAMUEL H. BUEHLER, Agent, Gettysburgh. February, 13, 1837. 6m 46
