MONEY WANTED

We shall be glad to find a little help at the approaching Court. We need of all that is due us. There is a large amount due for Subscription and Advertising.

ATROCIOUS MURDER BY THE OPPONENTS OF ABOLITION!

It will be seen by the subjoined extract that the Rev. Mr. LOVEJOY HAS FALLEN A VICTIM TO THE LAWLESS SPIRIT OF SLAVERY, which seems determined, every where, not even excepting our own country, to place itself above the Law and the Constitution, to impose SLAVERY or DEATH upon every freeman who has the independence to assert the rights of an American citizen.

MURDERED HERO!

The following extract from the Boston Telegraph of the 5th inst. "LAMENTABLE OCCURRENCE. It is with the deepest regret that we stop the press to state that at a late hour last night an attack was made, by a large number of persons on the residence of Messrs. Godfrey, Gilman & Co. for the purpose of destroying a press intended for the revival of the Alton Observer, which shocking act resulted in the death of two individuals—the Rev. E. P. Lovejoy late Bishop of the Observer, and a man named — Bishop Severo others were wounded; two severely and the others slightly. We can send no more at this time, than that the assailants succeeded in effecting their object."

Further Particulars.

After the above was put in type, we have received the enlarged statement, furnished by the Alton Correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Another Letter from Jack

ALL HAIL—TWO POLITES AFLOAT! ON BOARD THE 1 POLITE, A. D. 1837.

My dear friends, I thank you for sending me the paper regularly, but I have had time to write to you now for some time.

The next morning she falls in to gather her goods on the pier, and the man who she had just seen, and who she had just seen, and who she had just seen.

As the ship sailed, she saw a man in a red coat, and a woman in a blue dress, and a man in a white coat, and a woman in a black dress.

My dear friends, I thank you for sending me the paper regularly, but I have had time to write to you now for some time.
