

ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of WILLIAM GARONER, late of Latimore township, Adams County, deceased, are requested to call with the subscriber without delay, and discharge the same; and those who have claims against said Estate, are desired to present them properly authenticated for settlement.

GEORGE ROBINETTE, Ex'r. November 24, 1837. 6t-34

SADDLE MANUFACTORY.

THE Subscriber informs the public that he has purchased the right of making and vending SPRING-SEAT SADDLES agreeably to Callihan's Patent.

He has now on hand, and is prepared to manufacture, in a neat, substantial manner, and on reasonable terms, ALL KINDS OF Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, Saddle Bags, Portmanteaus and Trunks; Carriage, Wagon and Cart Harness, with every other article in his line of business.

The Subscriber returns his thanks to the public for the favors extended to him since he commenced business, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same.

An Apprentice to the above business wanted immediately.

JACOB W. GILBERT. Fairfield, November 21, 1837. 3t-34

PUBLIC SALE.

WILL be sold at public sale, in the Borough of Gettysburg, on Saturday the 23d of December next, at 1 o'clock P. M. THAT VALUABLE LOT OF GROUND.

Fronting on Chambersburg Street, in the Borough of Gettysburg, and adjoining lots of Robert Taylor and Henry Zell—late of the Estate of John Myers, deceased.

The improvements are a good TWO-STORY STONE HOUSE, with a convenient Kitchen attached—a never-failing well of water at the back door, a stable, good fence, &c. The property is situated in a pleasant part of the Borough; and, being but one dwelling West of the Diamond, well calculated for almost any kind of business. Mrs. Myers, residing on the premises, will show the property to any person wishing to purchase.

TERMS.—One third of the purchase money in hand and the balance in two equal annual payments, well secured, without interest. A good title will be given; and possession can be had on the first of April next.

Also—Three Shares of Stock in the Gettysburg and Petersburg Turnpike Road Company. Terms, Cash.

MARTIN EBERT, Adm'r. De bonis non, with the Will annexed, of John Myers, deceased. November 24, 1837. 4t-34

Kettlevell, Wilson & Hillard GROCERS & COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

Corner of Commerce and Pratt Streets, BALTIMORE.

OFFER to the Country trade for Cash or prompt payment, the following GOODS:

- 50 lbs. S. H. Molasses
200 lbs. West India & N. Orleans ditto
200 bags Rio Coffee, (part strong scented)
100 " Lagaira do.
100 " Havana do.
50 lbs. N. Orleans & Porto Rico Sugar
10 pipes and half pipes Champagne and Rochelle Brandy
5 " Gin.
50 tierces Honov
200 boxes Raisins
100 quart do.
150 eighth do.
50 kegs do.
Fresh importation.

TOGETHER WITH Cinnamon, Cloves, Pepper, Teas in chests, half chests and boxes, &c. &c. Baltimore, Nov. 17, 1837. 4t-33

TRUSTEES' NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted to ANDREW BUTT, of Gettysburg, to call on the subscribers, Trustees of said Andrew Butt, and make immediate payment. And those who have claims against him will also present their accounts for settlement on or before the 1st of December next.

EDWIN A. ATLEE, Trustees. DANIEL BALDWIN, November 10, 1837. 4t-32

POCKET BOOK LOST.

LOST on the 13th inst., on the Carlisle road, between Majors' Mill and Gettysburg, A PLAIN LEATHER POCKET BOOK, containing one dollar and twenty-five cents, mostly small notes; and two promissory notes, with a number of receipts and bills in it of no consequence but to the owner. A liberal reward will be given for the book and contents, or any part thereof.

JOEL HENDRICKS. November 24, 1837. 3t-34

DR. BUTLER'S EFFERVESCENT MAGNESIAN APERIENT, for dyspepsia or indigestion, nervous debility, giddiness, headache, acidity of the stomach, habitual costiveness, cutaneous diseases, gout, gravel, &c. and much valued as a gentle cooling purgative, an article highly recommended by the Faculty, has just been received at the Drug Store of

Dr. J. GILBERT. June 30, 1837. 4t-13

PUBLIC NOTICES.

TEACHERS WANTED.

THE School Directors of Huntington township, will meet at the house of Moses Myers, in Petersburg, (Y. S.) on Saturday the 2d day of December next, at 1 o'clock P. M.—where proposals will be received for TEACHERS for seven schools.

JAMES MCOSH, Jr. Sec'y. November 24, 1837. 4t-34

TEACHERS WANTED.

THE School Directors of Straban Township will meet in Hunterstown, on Saturday the 9th of December next, at 12 o'clock M. at the house of Jacob Sawberber, to receive proposals for TEACHERS, to take charge of the Public Schools of said township. By order of the Board, HENRY WITMOR, Sec'y. November 17, 1837. 4t-33

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of DANIEL HARMAN, late of Straban township, Adams county, deceased, are requested to call with the subscriber without delay, and discharge the same; and those who have claims against said Estate, are desired to present them properly authenticated for settlement.

The Administrator resides in Straban township. JACOB HARMAN, Adm'r. October 20, 1837. 6t-29

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of A. JOSEPH SHENEFELTER, late of Conawago township, Adams county, deceased, are requested to call with the subscribers without delay, and discharge the same; and those who have claims against said Estate, are desired to present them properly authenticated for settlement.

The Administrators reside in Conawago township. JOSEPH SNEERINGER, Adm'r. JOHN KHUN, October 20, 1837. 6t-29

NOTICE.

ALL persons having claims against the Estate of PETER MORITZ, late of Franklin township, deceased, will please present the same, legally authenticated; and those indebted are requested to make payment, without delay, to the subscriber, residing in said township. D. MIDDLECOFF, Adm'r. November 10, 1837. 6t-32

FIRE! FIRE!

DELAWARE COUNTY INSURANCE COMPANY, CAPITAL, AUTHORIZED BY LAW, $250,000! CHARTER PERPETUAL.

THE subscriber being appointed Agent for the above Company, would respectfully inform the public that he will make insurance either permanent or limited on property and effects of every description, against loss or damage by fire, on the most reasonable terms.

SAMUEL FAINESTOCK. Gettysburg, Oct. 13, 1837. 4t-28

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of WILLIAM J. SEABROOKS, late of Hamilton township, deceased, are requested to call with the subscriber without delay, and discharge the same; and those who have claims against said Estate, are desired to present them properly authenticated for settlement.

The Administrator resides in Hamilton township. JESSE SEABROOKS, Adm'r. October 20, 1837. 6t-29

STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with the usages of the Democratic Anti-Masonic Party of Pennsylvania, a State Convention for the nomination of a suitable candidate to be supported for the office of Governor of the commonwealth, at the next general election, will be held in Harrisburg on the fourth day of March next (1838)

The county committees of the several counties are therefore respectfully requested to take the necessary measures to have their respective counties or districts represented in the Convention by a number of Delegates equal to the number of their Senators and Representatives in the State Legislature, so that there may be a full, and equal expression of the wishes of the whole party in the selection of the candidate. The accomplishment of that object by the convention, is all that is necessary to produce the complete triumph of the cause.

THOMAS H. BURROWES, THOMAS ELDER, THEOPHILUS FENN, AMOS ELLWAKER, FRANCIS JAMES, WILLIAM W. IRWIN, JAMES STEEL, WILLIAM AYRES, HARMAR DENNY, SAMUEL H. FISHER, WILLIAM SMITH, SAMUEL S. WHARTON. State Committee. Harrisburg, Nov. 17, 1837.

$20 REWARD.

ABSCONDED from the Subscriber, living in Emmitsburg, Frederick County, Md., on Sunday the 5th inst. an indentured apprentice to the Tailoring business, named James Row. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, straight-made, sandy hair, and is a good workman. The above reward will be given for the delivery of said boy into my hands. All persons are forewarned from harboring or employing said boy at their peril, as I am determined to put the law in force against any person so doing.

JAMES HOSPELHORN. November 17, 1837. 4t-33

PUBLIC NOTICES.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of GEORGE EMLET, late of Mountjoy township, Adams county, deceased, are requested to call with the subscriber on or before the 1st day of January next, and discharge the same; and those who have claims against said Estate, are desired to present them at the same time properly authenticated for settlement.

The Administrator resides in Mountjoy township. GEO. R. HOFFMAN, Adm'r. October 20, 1837. 6t-29

Saddles! Saddles! SADDLES!

Important Improvement in Spring-seated SADDLES!

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the Public generally, that he has purchased the Patent Right for making and vending Spring-seated Saddles of the Zig Zag or W' spring in the Seat.

And also a Spring attached to the Girth or Girths and to the tree. The saddle is made with or without a Pommel, just as persons may fancy.

Saddles made upon this plan are incomparably superior to any heretofore in use, in point of strength, durability and elasticity, to the horse and rider. The application of the spring to the girth is productive of ease and comfort to the horse, and protects him from injuries arising from violent or sudden exertions. The Spring is also applicable to LADIES' SADDLES.

It is deemed unnecessary to state any thing more. The public are invited to call and judge for themselves.

The Subscriber returns his sincere thanks to his Customers and the Public in general, for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully inform them that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, AND ALL KINDS OF Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS

At his Old Stand in South Baltimore Street, Gettysburg.

All kinds of MARKETING taken in exchange for work. DAVID MCREARY. December 26, 1836. 4t-30

Look Here!

THE subscriber wishes to inform his patrons, and others who may wish to patronize him in future, that he has recently purchased Mr. Callihan's Patent Right for the use of his valuable improvement in making Spring-seat SADDLES.

Notwithstanding the prejudices against these Saddles heretofore, he feels justified in saying, that he hopes to gain the confidence and patronage of the public—as he is enabled, on the present principle, to ensure all his saddles without any extra charge.—That a soft, easy saddle is desirable to all persons who ride much, and particularly to those who may not be favored with a very pleasant horse; I presume all persons will unhesitatingly patronize the spring saddles, when they will be ensured as long as the purchaser may deem necessary.

The elasticity of the Saddle acting in harmony with the symmetry of the horse and rider, not only affords ease to the man, but incalculable advantage to the horse. All persons of judgment and experience must know, that a dead, unelastic weight on a horse is oppressive. The Spring in the Girth affords the following advantages: 1st Moving or yielding with the horse's chest in breathing, no cramps or cholics or any disease can rise therefrom. 2d. The girth will outlast two or three of the common kind, because the yielding of the spring on the sudden expansion of the chest prevents the girth from breaking, and saves the rider from falling; many falls have been the fruits of breaking girths.

GENTLEMEN and LADIES are invited to apply, as the little difference in the cost of these and the hard Saddles is so trifling, and incomparable with the difference in comfort and safety.

N. B. Saddlers in the country can be accommodated with Township or Shop Rights at a trifling cost.

The subscriber returns his thanks to the public for the very liberal support extended to him, and would respectfully state that he has at all times

A LARGE AND GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Saddles, Bridles, Martingals, Saddle-Bags, Portmanteaus and Trunks; Carriage, Wagon and Cart HARNESS, with every other article in his line of business.

All kinds of MARKETING taken in exchange for work at fair prices. EDWIN A. ATLEE. Gettysburg, Jan. 16, 1837. 4t-42

COMPOUND CARRAGEEN COUGH SYRUP.

The superior advantages of this Syrup are that it is a compound exclusively vegetable, and contains no alcoholic or narcotic ingredients.

For sale at the Drug Store of Dr. J. GILBERT, Gettysburg, October 27, 1837. 4t-30

PUBLIC NOTICES.

THE BALTIMORE COMMERCIAL TRANSCRIPT, FOR THE COUNTRY.

THE COMMERCIAL TRANSCRIPT is a Daily Paper published in Baltimore, Md., and devoted to Commercial, Literary, Political and General Intelligence. It is established on a firm basis, and has a wide and increasing circulation, both in the City and the several States. The Daily is furnished to subscribers at the low rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings of both Houses of Congress are regularly detailed. The important events of the day are not to be omitted, and from no source can an unbiased and impartial account of the course of affairs be so confidently expected, as from a paper which is so extensively read, and which is so generally read and understood by the public. It is published at Washington in a quarto form, and is sent to subscribers at the rate of SIX DOLLARS per annum. The paper for the Country is what its name imports: a Fair Statement of the manners and movements of the world. It contains: I. Political and General Intelligence. Every event is noted, and it is believed successfully, to give clearly and particularly information of occurrences of interest, and the proceedings