THE CRUSADER'S SONG-TO THE HEBREW MAIDEN.

BY MRS. CRAWFORD. HEBREW maiden, veil thy beauty, Lest my heart a rebel prove. Breaking bands of noble duty For the s. . n chains of love-Look not on me, sweet deceiver!

Though thy young eyes beam with light, They might tempt a true believer To the darkest shades of night. Hebrew maiden, while I linger, Hanging o'er thy melting lute, Every cord beneath thy finger Wakes a pulse that should be mute. We must part, and part forever; Eyes that could my life renew! Line that mine could cling to ever! Hebrew maiden, now adieu!

THE HEBREW MAIDEN'S ANSWER. CHRISTIAN soldier, must we sever! Does thy creed our fates divide? Must we part, and part for ever? Shall another be thy bride?

Sprits of my fathers sleeping! Ye who once in Zion trod. Heaven's mysterious councils keeping, Tell me of the Christian's God!

Is the Cross of Christ the token Of a saving faith to man? Can my early vows be broken? Spirits answer me! They can. Mercy- mercy shone about him-All the blessed with him trod: No, we can't be saved without him!

THE BIRTH-DAY BALL. June .- MOTHER, is it right to keep our birth-

Mother .- What do you mean by keeping birth-June .- I mean to stay at home from school on those days, and to have a party in the evening, and to dance, and to play, and to have plenty of nice things to cat and drink. Mother .- Before I answer your question, let us consider what the return of our birth-day should bring to our minds. 1st. It reminds us of the goodness of God in creating us at first, and in preserving us so long in life and comfort; 2d. That another year of our short lives is gone, never to return; and 3d. That we are a year nearer to the judgday in the manner you have mentioned.

Jane.-Why, I suppose not; but people do not think about such serious things, when they keep their birth-days. They only think of pleasure .of the has invited several of the girls in school party. She says she is going to have a splendid new dress, and they are to dance, and have ice cream, and cakes, and every thing nice. And she has invited me to come, too. May I go, mother? Mother .- My dear, you know I do not like to deny you any thing that can please and profit you at the same time; but I think Miss Campbell might find a more profitable way of spending an evening, and I do not think it my duty to let you joir her and her friends in such trifling amusements. expect you to give one on your birth-day, and I do not think this proper. Jane .- But, mother, did they not keep their birthdays in the Bible times? Mother .- I think it likely that Abraham and Paul, and other pious persons mentioned in the Old and New Testaments, did observe deer birth-days but it was not as seasons of sinful mirth. I suppose, on such occasions, they thanked God for the mercies of the past year, confessed their sins. andsought pardon, and formed plans for spending the coming year more profitably to themselves and others. However, the Bible does not say any thing about it. I know of only two instances of the keeping of birth-days mentioned in the Bible, one in the Old Testament, and one in the New; and it is remarkable that in both instances, it was the birthday of a wicked king that was celebrated. Of Pharaoh we are told that the made a feast unto all his servarits:" and of Herod, that "he made a supper to his lords and high saptains." The later was more like a modern birth-day ball, for the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, and upleased Herod, and them that sat at most with FELONY. him." Now let us draw near, and examine this scens more closely. Although not so pleasant, it may prove more profitable to you than attending

Miss Campbell's party. Behold the splendid hall, made as light as day by thousands of lamps, reflected from polished mirrors. See the crowds of noblemen and milita ry officers, arrayed in purple and fine linen, all eager to pay their court to the powerful monarch. And see him, the proud, cruel, ungodly tyrant, shining with gold and diamonds, and funcying himself almost a god. See the tables loaded with every thing that can raise and gratify the appetite; and listen to the music that charms every ear. Are they not happy, who enjoy all these delights? No-the curse of God rests on them!

And now, let us leave this scene of splendid misery, and go a few streets off, to that gloomy building, the very sight of which is enough to chill the heart. It is the public prison. Let us open the massy iron doors, that creak dismally on their hinges, and let us enter that damp dark dungeon. See, who lies there? An old man, chained to the wall, miserably clad, pale and ghastly; an outcast from society, with none to speak to him a kind word or to do him a kind office. What a contrast to the scene we have just left. Is not this man wretch ed? No-he is a child of God, an heir of heaven and is destined to shine in glory, like a star of the firmament, for ever and over! This is John the Baptist-the forerunner of Christ, the greatest of the prophets. And now let us return to the festive hall. Herod is so delighted with the dancing of the commencement of the past week, the Yetts, for one SECOND LIEUTEN. scriber, residing in Hancock, Washington Salome, that he promises to give her whatever she proceeds of which amounted to $340, which

-my heart sickens at the thought-the ghastly bleeding head of the pious Baptist! Such was the on his return to Mexico. fruit of a birth-day ball!

June .-- Mother, I do not wish to go to Miss Campbell's party; for I am sure I could not enjoy the dancing, and the sweet-meats. I should all the time be thinking of Salome and John the Baptist.

Practical Operation of the Sub-Treasury Scheme!

nt $10.000-

The Secretary of the Treasury has reluctantly laid before Congress after an interval of three months, and after having his memory again called to the subject, a Report, in obedience to a resolution of congress, requiring him to state, "the names of all Recoivers, Collectors or Depositories of public money, who are in default, the length of time due, the security given, if any, and how much has been or will be lost, together with all the correspondence upon the subject from the 1st January 1834 to this time."

This report, it will be seen embraces 1st the Banks; 2nd Collectors, Receivers, &c. Many of the Banks, which were lately employed as the depositories of the public money have paid in full the amount placed in their hands—the balance, it is thought will pay without a suit except twelve; and against one of these twelve, suit has already been instituted. Suit has also been instituted against the Franklin Bank of Boston, (since exploded,) which appears to be indebted in a balance of $17,469,60, and which also appears to have been selected as a deposite bank by the Sec., without conforming to the provisions of the law. It also appears that on the 18th Dec. last there was in the Commonwealth Bank the 'sum of $43,-819 90;—it will be recollected that in consequence of the suspension, this bank, as well as the others, was discontinued as a deposite bank by law in May last. As to collectors of customs, receivers of monies &c. we merely notice the sums which fell due in the years 1836 and 1837, and which are still owing. Among the sums reported as defalcations on the part of the collectors of customs, there is one of $8,777,25, one of $13,850,15, one several sections of the country in regard to of $483,99, one of 907,151, one of 205,71. the fitness of their respective districts for one of 3055 and one of 14,753,31, and there is reported as owing on account of "official emoluments" one sum of $3,497 92, and one of 2,101,97, and one of $5,805,72.-These defalcations are all for the two last

There are also large sums reported as having been directed to be deposited in Banks which never have been deposited.

The aggregate of the whole amount stated as due from the two heads alone of Collectors and Receivers amount to SOME WILLIONS. The items, as mentioned above becoming due in TWO YEARS

What a contrast to the good old times when the United State Bank held the public monies and without one single cent of loss or of charge, or without the possibility of being converted to the use of barefaced speculators and corrupt politicians, not only kept the public money, but subserved in so eminent a degree the interests of the whole country.
