But to mere pique. We do not say this was the be authentic returns of the election from all for the Vice Presidency. The Gettysburg Star quotes us, and amends thus: We more that the first section be amended so as to read.

President .--- DANIEL WEBSTER. What think ye, friend Riddlei We think that Clay is our first choice; we think him rather the greatest man living in any clim and we know that we could support him with un ded enthusiasm. We have had a sneaking kindness for him ever since we cou it, if we cannot have him to fight for, we ca fight with hearty good will for the Giant of th North-the great Webster. If we can have neither we shall come into the ranks with pride to sur port the patriot Harrison, a soldier, statesma and an honest man. Is the Star answered? We never saw the Star's remarks, until handed to us yesterday: the paper containing them did not reach us. The Editor will not, therefore, regard our silence as uncou Cretainly not. The answer is also satisfac tory and gratifying. It shews that the Advocate, we select the following:--
