From Porter's Home. We extract the following from the proceedings o

"It is our duty to tell the unbought sons of this State, that we cannot support him, (Porter) because we know his MORAL, POLI-TICAL, and INTELLECTUAL character-lis MORAL, is far from spottess, and no palliative or purifier of the stains CAN or DARE be offered by his deluded advocates -His political, is written in the history of an official demagogue, grown fat upon the favors of the people-His INTELLECTUAL, has never been developed-five years in the halls of the Legislature, his deeds are a blank among the Lawgivers of of our Commonwealth. Base Treatment of a Poor Man! It is with no ordinary feelings of regret that we, in the discharge of our duty as the conductor of a public journal, feel compelled to lay before our readers the subjoined testimony of the DIS-HCNESTY of a man who has been elevated to high places in the Commonwealth. But we cannot shrink from that duty. We should feel no respect for a man, however high, or however wealthy, who would be guilty of acts so disgusting and insulting to the moral sense of community.

It, will be recollected, that in the "Evidence" which we have laid before our readers, DAVID R. PORTER, a candidate for the highest post in the State within the gift of the People, stands charged with having DEFRAUDED A POOR MAN | made. out of about $700 several years since; that Porter had since grown RICH and still refuses to pay him any part of said debt. In the face of the published transcripts from the records of the Court, David R Porter and his mizions come before the public and endeavor, after defrauding the poor man out of his just dues, to rob him of his good name also!

On the authority no doubt of Porter himself, his friends have published to the world that the suit between Sturgeon and Porter had been referred to arbitrators, who awarded that there was nothing due from Defendant (PORTER,) to Plaintiff," (STURGEON.) Meeting with this assertion and the announcement that Porter had grown very rich, Mr. Sturgeon went to Huntingdon in the latter part of June, and called on Mr. Porter and demanded a part, at least, of what was honestly due to him. Now, reader, peruse Mr. Sturgeon's account of the interviews with "Gen. David Rittenhouse Porter," testified to under

That the said deponent then went and called upon Maxwell Kinkead, and John Stonebreaker, the surviving arbitrators, on Tuesday, and Wednesday, the 26th and 27th June, A D. 1838, and obtained of the said arbitrators, a certificate that no AWARD HAD EVER BEEN MADE. That said deponent then returned and again called upon the said David R. Porter, and asked him if he, the said David, I:ad made up his mind to do any any thing for the said deponent: and he told him in conversation that he, the said denonent, had settled the claims of the poor la boring hands who had assisted him to perform the labor, the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars, or thereabouts, and that he, the said Porter, should do something for him. That the said David R. Porter admitted it was a hard case, and said that we had better compromise. That the said Porter desired the said deponent to name the conditions of a compromise. That the said deponent said he would leave it to the said David. Whereupon, the said David offered the deponent the sum of one hundred dollars, if the said deponent would part with him good friends, and said that he would leave the said deponent to think of the matter. That the said deponent did think of the matter, and in about half an hour met the said David R. Porter again at his house, accordingly to Mr. Porter's invitation, and then told Mr. Porter that he could not take the one hundred dollare: Mr. Porter then offored to give the deponent one hundred and eighty dollars, being the one half of the amount without interest, for which the said deponent had settled with the laborers, and dicines in the fact that the more they are known the the said David R. When the read it to deponent, said deponent told he read it to deponent, said deponent told him no could not sten it, NOR WOULD NOT SIGN IT IF HE, THE SAID POR-

TER, WOULD GIVE HIM ALL HUNTINGDON FOR DOING SO; thereupon he the said David R. This is not all. Read the subjoined Certificates of Messrs. Kinkbad and Stonebraker, the surviving arbitrators in the suit "Sturgeon vs. Porter and Patton," who certify that no award was ever made, that Porter "took the benefit" before the business was settled! Read and judge for yourselves, honest fellow-citizens, how well Mr. Sturgeon is sustained by the following certificates:-

GLAD TIDINGS! PETER'S VEGETABLE PILLS!

HEN a medicine comes before the public profession and distinguished men, and warranted by the seal of uniform success, the proprietor makes no unreasonable demand upon the public when he claims for it a superior consideration. PETERS' VEGETABLE PILLS.

Are undoubtedly entitled to distinction, inas live powers and pre-eminout virtues; and that they should do so in opposition to their personal interest must be attributed to their candor or their un willingness to condemn them in the face of all oh servation and the testimony of thousands. The extensively and effectually as to buffle credulity proprietor does not pretend that his Pills will cure all diseases, but he does say, and has satisfi ed the incredulous that in all diseases where a cathartic or an aperiont Medicine is needed, if used according to the directions for a fair period of time, they will effect a speedy and certain cure, and this much is placed beyond doubt by the tes timony and referencesot individuals already given

More than two millions of boxes of those cele brated Pills have been sold in the United States since January, 1835.

Dr. Peters has received upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED CERTIFICATES, all given in consequence of the good done by his medicines; and it will at once be seen by this evidence that no remedy for the prevailing diseases of the Southern and Western states has ever been presented to the notice of the afflicted with stronger claims for their attention. Founded upon the surest and soundest of all principles, viz. actual experiment. these Pills have been wonderfully successful in restoring the sick to health, and in spite of doubt tysburg Rail Road Company. and prejudices, the use of them in those parts of the country, which the proprietor has been able to supply, has been rapidly extending. It is high-Y a resolution of the Board of Mana-ly encouraging to him that, among the list of those gers of this Company, the Stockholders who have been either personally benefitted by them, or have witnessed their effects on others, are the names of many of the most respectable and intelligent men in the South; who have cheerfully given their written testimony to that effect.
