STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER.

GETTYSBURGH, PENN.

More Evidence--Porter's Dishonesty proved beyond Contradiction!

☞We ask attention to the following affidavit of old Mr. STONEBRAKER. No one can now doubt of Porter's DISHONESTY. Let the candid of all parties read and judge for themselves, and then say whether they can consent to elect such a man Governor of the honest and enlightened State of Pennsylvania.

Huntingdon County, ss.

Personally appeared before me, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for the said County, John Stonebraker, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say. that some time in the year 1817 or 1818, myself and T. M. Owens became the bail of David R. Porter, for the sum of sixteen hundred dollars, or thereabouts; after which Mr. Porter went to Beaver county, and sold a tract of land to Kiddo and Russell, which was situated in North Beaver township, and received for said Land, three bonds bearing date 7th December 1818, and which he deposited in the hands of James Allison, Esq. and brought to me the receipt of said Allison for those three bonds; amounting in all to about sixteen hundred dollars: on which receipt was an assignment to myself and Thos. M. Owens. The receipt was deposited into my hands by Mr. Porter, with a request that I should not give, at all, into the hands of Thos. M. Owens, said receipt; giving me as a reason that if the receipt got into Owens' hands, I would be likely to lose my share of the bail money. David R. Porter also left in my hands one other bond on Kiddo and Russell, bearing date same as the others, for three hundred and forty three dollars, and assigned by endorsement by David R. Porter to me, the assignment dated the 9th January, 1819--I also received from D. R. Porter a note or bond for about six hundred dollars, drawn by some person whose name is not distinctly recollected; I think it was Myers or Byers—he also left in my hands, one other obligation in favor of Patton and Porter, drawn by a Mr. Wakefield, the amount not recollected.

He also left in my hands a Patent or deed of A TRACT OF LAND situated in Beaver county, of five hundred acres or thereabouts; the whole of which bonds or obligations and said deed were deposited in my hands, somewhere about the first part of January, 1819, and assigned to me all except the deed, on which I believe, there was no assignment. The bond for three hundred and forty-three dollars, and the two subsequently mentioned obligations, and the deed were delivered into my especial charge by Mr. Porter, first showing me that the amount for which I was bail, could easily be made out of the bonds assigned to myself and Owens—and then saying "TAKE THESE" [meaning the three latter obligations and the deed] "AND KEEP THEM FOR ME." Shortly after which time Mr. Porter was confined, and came out of confinement by applying to the law, for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Not long after Mr. Porter was released he called on me, and I GAVE INTO HIS HANDS THE OBLIGATIONS AND DEED, except such as I had received the money for, of Mr. Allison, and THE BOND OF THREE HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE DOLLARS, which having been left in the hands of Mr. Allison as security, I did not then have. But which Mr. Owens brought to my order, some time after from Mr. Allison: about which time, in the presence of David R. Porter, and at his request, I assigned it to Geo. Davis, Esq. on which bond I never received one cent; neither did I on either of the two last mentioned obligations; and deponent further saith THAT DAVID R. PORTER TOLD HIM THAT HE HAD GOT ALL THE MONEY ON ALL THE OBLIGATIONS except Wakefield's—and Porter further told deponent, that HE HAD SOLD THE TRACT OF LAND, but deponent does not recollect the amount which Porter said he obtained for it.

Deponent further saith, that some time about the time that he was released, I think after his release, David R. Porter brought the books of account of the firm of Patton and Porter and delivered them into my hands, WITH A POSITIVE REQUEST THAT I SHOULD NOT DELIVER THEM INTO THE HANDS OF ANY PERSON EXCEPT HIMSELF—which books I took and put into a barrel up stairs, where they were kept for a considerable length of time, when DAVID R. PORTER CALLED AND TOOK THEM, and carried them to the office of Geo. Davis, Esq. and in which office I saw them some time afterwards. While in my possession, Mr. James M'Murtie called and demanded them, and I positively refused to give them to him. I then informed Mr. Porter that a demand had been made for them, and he then again desired me NOT TO GIVE THEM TO ANY ONE.

And said deponent, further saith that at the time of the transaction, he was in no way informed that the desire of Mr. Porter was to secrete his property from his creditors; deponent being at that time IGNORENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE LAW. Deponent further saith that his present statement is made on his part entirely to put his mind at rest; believing that many persons would charge him with conniving with Mr. Porter to secrete his property; and with a desire solely to lay before the people THE TRUTH OF A MATTER which is liable to much misrepresentation. To the TRUTH of the above then, as he knows that he must before many years MEET HIM WHO "TRIETH THE JUST AND UNJUST"—HE MOST SOLEMLY SWEARS, and further saith not.

JOHN STONEBRAKER.

DAVID SNARE.

Huntingdon county, ss.

L. S. I, Robert Campbell, Prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the said county, do certify that David Snare, Esq., before whom the above and foregoing affidavit appears to have been made, is an acting Justice of the peace in and for said county, duly appointed and commissioned according to law, and that all his official acts are entitled to full faith and credit. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and the seal of said court, at Huntingdon the 21st August, 1838.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Proth'y.

☞Now read the following Receipt draw by David R. Porter's own hand, and then turn to all the statements heretofore published about Porter's fraudulently taking the benefit, and see how far they have been borne out by the truth:

"Received, July 5th, 1825, of George Davis, Esq. one hundred and twenty five dollars, in part of Bond from Kiddo and Russell, of Beaver County, assigned by me to John Stonebreaker, and by him to George Davis."

DAVID R. PORTER.

CAPT. SAMUEL STURGEON.

☞The following statements triumphantly vindicate the character of Capt. STURGEON from the attempts made to injure it by the friends of Porter:

The undersigned citizens of Armstrong county, do certify that we have for many years been intimately acquainted with Captain Samuel Sturgeon, a resident of Plum Creek township, in said county, and from our personal knowledge of his general character, conduct and reputation, we believe him to be a man of veracity and integrity, and that he would not make any statement to the public not strictly true. That he has at all times received the confidence of his neighbors and fellow citizens, by whom he has been elected for several years past, to offices of trust, and has uniformly belonged to the Jackson party.

Armstrong County, ss.

Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said county, Abraham Fiscus, jr., who being duly sworn, says that he never at any time sold any land to Samuel Sturgeon, of Plum Creek township, in said county, nor does he believe that any other person of the name of Fiscus, a resident of the said township ever sold any land lying in the same township, to Samuel Sturgeon, but that some time in 1818, he entered into a contract with Robert Sturgeon, and sold to him about one hundred acres of land, in the neighborhood of Middletown, in said county, and made him a deed for the same. That he gave the said Robert the possession of the land, and the said Robert still continues to occupy the same. That he has been well acquainted with Samuel Sturgeon for the last twenty years, and that he never knew him to purchase any land from any man by the name of Fiscus during that time.
