in Affecting Incident. Some time ago, while attending an eminent surgeon, for the purposo of having an operation perormed on one of my ears, I met with the follow. ing case: - One morning a friend of mine led in to the same room a fine looking young woman who was completely blind and completely deaf. This sad condition had been brought on suddenly by a violent pain in the head. Her case was examined by a number of surgeons then present, all of whom pronounced it incurable. She was led back to the house of my friend, when she cagerly nquired what the doctor said about her case, and whether he could afford her any relief. The only method by which her inquiries could be answered was by tapping her hand, which signified no; and by saucezing it, which signified yes; for she could not hear the loudest noise, nor distinguish day from night. She had to receive for her answer on this occasion, the unwelcome tap No. She burst into tears, and wept aloud in all the bitterness of

"What," said she, "shall I never again see the light of day, nor hear a human voice? Must I remain incapable of all social intercourse, shut up in silence and darkness, while I live." Again All corners of the world, good men, nay, the secrets she wept.

The scene was truly affecting. Had she been able to see, she might have been pointed to the Bible as a source of comfort. Had she been able to hear, words of consolation might have been woken; but alas! these avenues to the mind were closed, to be opened no more in this world. Her friends could pity, but they could not relieve; and what made her case still more deplorable, she was an ornhan: had no father or mother, or brother or sistir, to pity and care for her. She was entirely dependent upon a few pious friends for her YOUTH .- Harrisburg Telegraph. support. This she felt-and continued to weep, till my friend, with great presence of mind, took Register's Notices. up the Bible and placed it to her breast. She felt it and said, "Is this the Bible?" She was answered that it was. She held it to her bosom, and

Mr. Hill's missionary school, in Athens, says, "there was one who startled me, he was the son of the Maid of Athens! To me, the Maid of Athens was almost an imaginary being; something fanciful, a creation of the brain, and not a corporeal substance to have a little urchin of a boy. But so it was. * * * The Maid of Athens is married to a Scotchman! the Maid of Athens is now Mrs Black! wife of Mr. George Black! head of the police! and her son's name is  Black! and she has other little Blacks!"

The noble suggestion of Mr. Stevens, communieated through a letter published some weeks since in the Branford Argus, in reference to provision being made for the education of the children of poor laborers upon the public works, we rejoice to see, has met a hearty response already, and called forth the efforts of some benevolent and philanthrophic Contractors in Luzerne county -We notice in a West Branch paper, an article signed by Edward White & Co., appealing affectionately to the Irish laborers, a number of they wish to employ upon condition that they practice total abstinence from all intoxicating li uors, and obligate themselves to lead sober and orderly lives. By complying with this condition. (and none will be employed who do not comply with it,) Mr. White promises on his part to provide for the education of their children, both in moral culture and religious instruction. We have read the article of Mr. White with much pleasure, and have no hesitation in saving that the heart which dictated this admirable repeal t a much neglected portion of our population, is imbued in no ordinary degree with those principles which are the anchor of hope to our Republic. True philanthropy-a love for human kind, unullayed by selfish motives and characterized by the purest benevolence, are alone the incentive which impel this friend of the poor Irish laborer to act as the pioneer in the glorious enterprize, suggested by Mr. Stevens for the amelioration of the condition of the children of the laborers on the oublic works. In speaking of Mr. Stevens' suggestion, Mr. White says: -"Mr. S. is indeed the friend of education-his conduct is beyond all praise. May others emulate so noble an example, may those tr power, whose fortunes a great portion of the Irish citizens have for so many years followed, even now prove their gratitude, by holding out the facilities of education to the thousands of Irish children similarly circumstanced throughout the nation." Though Pennsylvania is but the State of his adoption, Mr. Stevens has shown himself on all occasions, and under all circumstances, the mos efficient and intropid, as well as eloquent and unwearied friend to her true interests. He is the recognized champion of a system of universaledcation, as free to all as the air we breathe. While his craven spirited, foul and malignant on omes, are laboring with a zoal and is defatigable ess worthy a better cause, to rob him of his wel parned laurels. his course has still been onward in the beneficent and glorious enterprise, which will secure alike to the rich and poor man's child, the inestimable blessings of an early education

> Onto RAIL ROAD. - An adjourned meetat Winchester on Wednesday last, to deliberate and decide upon the question of transfrom the Winchester Republican, and after thoroughly discussing the merits of the ques tion, it was finally decided, by a large ma jority, in favor of the proposed sale. Should the contract be closed, which will thus change the ownership of the six miles of the Win-Ferry, and vest it in the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, the arrangement or transfer will of course in no degree affect injuriously the intercourse between the upper portion of the Winchester Rail Road, and Harper's Ferry, or between Winchester and Baltimore. On the contrary, every thing in that respect will go on as smoothly as heretofore, and, as a great law character once said, while acting the partizan politician -"probably more so." According to the Winchester Republican in case the arrangement is consummated, every thing will go on as usual, with this single difference, that the passengers will change cars at Halltown and the burthen trains be drawn from that point by a different Locomotive. PROGRESS OF SCIENCE. - Among the many new inventions which have lately astonished the public, we think that the "Rail road Pill Counting Machine" of Dr Peters may be said to cap the climax. It is worked by a dog!-counts the pills with unerring accuracy!!-distributes them into their boxes!!!-and performs the labor of twelve persons!!!. The greatest difficulty which the proprietor has experienced in the preparation of his pills, was in the time it took up in counting them, so many to a box; and this ble one. The present year's crop has been has been most happily obviated by his ex- abundant, and a letter from Washiegaw ceedingly ingenious invention. Dr. Peters county states that the wheat on every acre is procuring a patent for his machine, and will pay for the land, clearing, ploughing will exhibit it at the Fair of the American and fencing, and leave a profit of five dollars Institute .- New Yorker.

The Susquehanna Register, a quiet gentlemanly paper, that puts no name at the top of its columns-but by standing upright, naturally fends to the right side-holds the following language with reference to the state of feeling in that county :- U. S. Gazette. Public Sentiment in Susquehanna.

Intelligence from all parts of the county trengthens the opinion that the people of Susquehanna, at least that portion of them who are not strongly imbued with party feelings, are satisfied with the administraion of our present Governor, and determind to sustain him at the ensuing election. n preference to a man of doubtful princioles, character and talents. Even the strong political prejudices heretofore entertained by many against Goy. Ritner, are fast giving way to a knowledge of his straight forward and independent course, and his sagacity in cluding all the tricks and traps set by his opponents to ensuare him. It is getting to be a general reply with almost very Farmer or Mechanic we meet, when interrogated as to his preference for Governor, that they dont see why the present Governor has not done as well as any other, and since the hot headed politicians quarrelled Gov. Wolf out of office and got the Dutch Former in, they think it best to keep him in, and let these political managers go their own way. They dont know what Porter has done to show himself capable of doing any better, but he may do worse, &c.

"Wo TO THE WICKED "-The evidences f Porter's frauds, and unfitness for the office to which a few evil minded persons are disosed to elevate him, are coming so thick pon us, that we begin to despair of being ble to lay them before our readers. But holding as he does so prominent a place in the eves of the public, we deem it due to them to be put in possession of all the facts outhing his moral character, or his fitness for the station to which he aspires. The affidavit of John Stonebraker completely confirms all the particulars revealed by the on. If ever there was a crimical conviced by the most positive, direct and irrefutable evidence, David R. Porter is no less so. The evidence is of a nature that cannot be doubted, more than any person who has ever seen the city of London can doubt that there is such a city .- Pa. Courant.

Rye township, notwithstanding the Democrats' political way of "being mighty smart in figures," will make a change of sixty; and this change will be for Ritner. All the folks about Caroline Furnace don't go for Porter. Ritner will get a respectable vote considering the number of hands engaged at this furnace. Like the Perry county dockets, Mr. Stroop has left this matter in an unsettled state. [Perry Forester
