AIR-"The Old Oaken Bucket." Come on to the contest—the call is loud-ringing; Each son of the Keystone the call is to you; The foe all his forces to action is bringing; The battle-field soon will arise to your view, Then say, are ye ready, and wait to receive it,

The shock which the Freemen must shortly repel ? Right onward! your aid! every true son will give it, And vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well! The hard fisted Farmer;

The honest Old Farmer! We go for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well!

We want no new workmen-no experimenting On the blood-hallowed soil where our forefathers fought -

We'll keep the old path, and there'll be no repen And ever remember good lessons when taught!

Then away in your pride for the Farmer presiding; Let the note of approval in loud concert swell, And his fees still in vain may persist in deriding' We'll vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well,

The hard-fisted Farmer ! The honest Old Farmer!

We go for the Farmer, that's worked the Farm well.

Van Buren and Porter in vain with their legions Would vanquish the free in the clime of their birth: And they'll hear in deep thunder that these are the regions Where no tribute is paid save the tribute to worth!

That tribute is due, and we're hast'ning to pay it And soon they shall hear the glad triumph-tone

On the Ninth of October! No longer delay it, But vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well:

The hard-fisted Farmer ! The honest Old Farmer! We'll vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm PLOUGHBOY.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer. Philadelphia Advocate of Lynch Law.

CHARLES J. INGERSOLL. No little excitement was produced throughout our community on Saturday, by the publication of the proceedings of a Loco Foco meeting recently held in Spring Garden, and at which Charles J. Ingersoll delivered a written opinion. This opinion is incorporated with the proceedings, and is given at length with the name of its author. It embodies as deliberate and revolting a system of Lynch Law as was over carried into practice in the wilds of the Mississippi. The deliberate promulgation of such doctrines, and by such an individual, has excited a burst of indignation throughout Philadelphia. Good citizens, lovers of law, order and the rights of person and propertyno matter what their party sentiments, cannot but turn with horror from this opinion, as calculated to stir up the worst feelings of our nature, and lead to scenes of violence and outrage, appalling to the mind of every patriot. Fortunately, however, such doctrines can find no proselytes in this section of the country. They are incendiary and draw down upon the head of the author, not only a dreadful responsibility, but a degree of censure, which must, sooner or later, prove overwhelming in its character. In this subject, we submit a few extracts from this precious document:

"Laws are also in force punishing bribery, corruption, force, intimidation, and interference, actised to the jury of this right, and guarding it, as far as possible, by law, from evil abuse. Yet it is notorious, that in and about Philadelphia, it is much abused, and such abuse is committed with impunity, if not encouraged and rewarded as good deeds. It is believed that the special election in the Taird Congressional District, was unfairly carried, and intimations are abroad that the next General Election for the county, will be attempted to be carried by the same means, and their notorious agents. I shall therefore suggest what I hold to be the only remedy, and the right and duty of every elector to prevent each abuse, assuming that the right of suffrage is a vested right, as sucred as that of property, which every possessor of such right may vandicate by all lawful means. It is no more contrary to law to commit violence than to commit fraud; but there is this difference in the mit fraud; but there is this difference in the modes of redessing injury by force and fraud; that every one by law has a right to result and repel at once, a forcible violation by another, of his preparty; whereas, generally, iraud can be panished only by process of law, after its commission. If A MAN ASSAILS YOU OR YOUR PROPERTY WITH FORCE, YOU MAY DEFEND YOURSELF AND BEAT HIM OFF BY FORCE ON THE SPOT, AND BEAT HIM OFF BY FORCE ON THE SPOT, AND ARR NOT BOUND TO WAIT WHAT THE LAW ITSELF CALLS THE IMADEQUATE TRACE. That will do, go above him. DEMEDY OF PUTURE PROCESS BY LAW.

ED BY SUCH RESISTANCE TO WRONG, YOU ARE NOT GUILTY. BUT SUPPOSE YOU SEE HIN CHEATING YOU, QUIETLY 1 CHEATING YOU OF YOUR RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE BY PALPABLE FRAUD, MAY YOU NOT PREVENT AS WELL AS PROSECUTE SUCH INVASION OF YOUR RIGHT? 1 THINK YOU MAY!" Here it will be observed, Mr. Ingersoll contends that if one individual believe that he sees another cheating him, he may murder him upon the spot; arguing that "it is no more contrary to law to commit violence than to commit fraud." Thus, the individual cheated, or supposed to be cheated, is made judge, jury and executioner; and the individual supposed only to have committed the crime, is to be murdered without trial, worse than this, or more fatal to real Liberty, has never been promulgated in the wilddest of anarchy. We are as much opposed to cheating and election frauds of every description, as Mr. Ingersoll possibly can be; but we hold that individual a recreant both to the laws of his country, and the proprieties of life, who would in the accomplishment of any object, trample the trial man like manner. by jury in the dust, and erect in its stead, an inturiate, hot-blooded, and summary system, such as is sketched out in the extract above quoted. There are fifty methods that Mr. Ingersoll might have suggested, calculated to secure fair play, if such were his real object. It is well known that in Kensington the Loco Focos have the majority and all the inspectors,-why, therefore, did not Mr. Ingersoll propose that in that district, one of the clerks and the judge of each Ward should be taken from the opposite party, and thus fair play be secured to both sides, by the presence at each window, of election officers of both political and LEAD. persuasions? An example of this sort, set by the Loco Focos themselves, would no doubt have been generally imitated, and thus every voter, no matter what his political feelings, would have been submitted to a fair and independent ordeal. Such a sys tem, however, is not desired by Charles J. Ingersoll. Fair play is not his object. He knows, he feels that the freemen of the Third Congressional District, would never elect a Tory in spirit as their representative to Congress. Hence it is, that he is for getting up some new system of election -some Lynch-like and disorderly proceedings at the polls, some bloody and anti-republican principle. He will fail, however. He was in a minority before he gave publicity to the atrocious opinion to which we have adverted. That opinion will still further overwhelm him with popular indigna. tion. Its author should and will be execrated, whenever law and order are respected. Here in Philadelphia a code, a code better suited to the days of Robespierre than to those of the present period, will be received with one unmingled sentiment of disgust

A Screw Loose!

Mr. M'CLEERY: I wish, through the meium of your paper, to inform the Porterites of Drumore township, that they have placed my name on their committee of vigilance without my knowledge or consent, and that I cannot vote for their David R. Porter, the Masonic, Loco foco, Sub treasury, Shin plaster candidate, because I believe him to be a dishonest man; but should I live till the election, I will cast my vote for the old Farmer, Joseph Ritner, because I believe him to be both honest and capable. JOHN HARLAND.

Another Screw Loose!-The Loco Focos have met with a sad loss in Union county. Mr. Yearick the editor of the Union Times—a rank Porter paper—after perpetrating a number of forgeries, one of them on the West Branch Bank, for a large amount, and several others on different individuals in Union county, in all of which he used the name of his own father, has "cut a stick," and cleared out. He was last seen at Wa- 150 eighth do. terstreet, in Huntingdon county, on his way to the West. Wonder if he gave his brother Davy a call as he passed through Hunting-

BUNKER HILL TO BE DESTROYED!-The Boston Journal says:-"Tde grading of Bunker Hill, or more properly, Breed's Hill, has commenced. We visited it yestorday and found the pickaxe and spade briskly employed. We learn that it is the intention of the proprietors of the lots to reduce the hill about eight feet, and of course jacobinical to the last degree; and will only the old redoubt will be destroyed, and all the surface removed excepting a few hundred square feet around the Monument! Wo learn that much feeling exists in relation to this proceeding; and we hope it is not ever order that there may be no mistake upon yet too late to stop the desecrating work and save the battle ground." Stop the destroyers if possible. Save the desecration of that holy ground. There is not a place on Earth, not Thermypylæ, nor the Capitoline Hill of Rome, so worthy of immortal honor, or whence, have sprung results of such momentuous importance to the human race.—Ibid.
