Important to the Sick.

HE vississitudes of the summer, and the preceding spring, have afforded pecuvery general assortment are the following har opportunities for exemplifying to the country the happy effects of Dr. W. Evans' Camomile Tonic Pills, upon debilitated constitutions. In cases of extreme nervous suffering, which stimulating tonics only momentarily relieve, and at length greatly aggravate, a single box of these beautifully compounded pills has proved an immediate and continual benefit. The loss of appetite and tremulous exhaustion which all invalids feel during this oppressive season, are relieved within two or three hours by one dose only; and in many cases a few doses will forti fy the system a long time against a recur rence of these attacks. To Ladies especially, who suffer from nausea and Jassitude incidental to interesting changes of health, these pills are friends indeed, and a bottle of them has hence become a favorite bondoir and toilette confident of ladies in wedded life. If taken before exercise in the open air, they will generally prevent the lasitude and fatigue which frequently attend it at this seato relieve these sensation in a few moments. That oppressive sensation of arterial fullness and throbbing in the head, which is generally experienced in fervid and sultry weather, is so speedily removed by those Pills that they are recommended by a great number of our best Physicians in preference to any other prescriptions, as they are well known o be in many other cases.

The cures, the great, effectual and undenia ble cures which this fine tonic and restorative remedy effects in the cases that are particularized in other advertisements, are ged, hard and very painful, and became othdaily exciting the admiration and enlisting the candid acknowledgment of the medical profession who witness them.
