The Election.

>The following article, we issued in an extra cdnesday morning last, directly after knowing the result in this county and previous to hearng from any other part of the State.

The election in this county has resulted as u. sual at ordinary elections. The vote for Prothonotary was not conducted upon party grounds, some of the strongest anti-masonic districts giving Danner a large majority ; Menallen, for example, gave him 66 majority, where our ticket ample, gave him 60 majority, where our ticket was largely ahead ; and the borough district gave him a majority, while the regular anti-masonic been received, and is one of the very best num.
