This work has been emphatically termed, "The Ladies" National Magazine, as it is a receptacle for the contributions of the most celebrated Female Writers of America, most of whom of any emineace contribute to its pages.

> Twelve volumes have siready been issurd. It is usual to announce that a small edition only will be published. Contrary to this, the proprietor of the Lady's Book announces that he will publish an immense edition, with which he hopes to supply all those who will favor him with orders, commencing with the January number. It will be seen by this advertisement that eveof this work to make it superior to any othper trait could be deared for ladies, edited by their own sex and assisted as the editorial department is by the pictorial embellishments, it is positively the Baudior compan-

> There are other publications that advertise Fashion Plates. The publisher of the the Lady's Book wishes it to be distinctly under-tood that the principal fashions in his work are colored, and in every number, which is not the case with any other work published in this country. Uncolored Plates of Fashions, also monthly. This is a novel feature in the work, and as it is no great expense to give plates of fishions without coloring, the publisher will give from three to six figures each month, in addition to the three colored-this will make in all generally nine figures of fashions mentaly. -Lace patterns and patterns of embroidery will be published at regular intervals.-I hese beautiful ornaments (particularly the ormer) have given great satisfaction.

General Fratures .- Literature, Tales, Essays, Legends, Romantic incidents in History, Extracts from the old Poets, Reviews, Female Education, Embellish ments, Fashions, colored and uncolored Lace, Embroidery, Fac Similies, Music. &c. More than 60 figures of fashions, veurly, colored and uncolored, the Proprieter being determined to consult all tastes. Any embellishments to be found is any other Magazine may be looked for in the Ledy's Bock.

Increase of Subscription .- In 1838, we sublished 10,500 copies; during the months of January, Sebruary and March, 1639, we increased the list to 13,500, and had then to reprint three numbers, and increase to 15,000. With the next volume we advanced to 17,000, and we now print 25,000 copies monthly, probably the greatest monthly list of subscribers in the world.

Transmission by Mail -One advantage the subscribers of this work will have, is, its early reception. It will be received at he remotest cities of the Union by the first day of the mouth of publication.

The January and succeeding number will be printed on an entirely new type, cast expressly for the Work, and will be found. on inspection to be a truly beautiful letter, discovered for all stages of Consumption, not too small to be read with ease, nor too Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Hourseness, large to prevent the usual quantity of matter given in each page. The paper is of the finest quality for periodical use, indeed, the typographical execution has long been a subject of congratulation with those best acquainted with those matters.

The price of the Publication is $3 00 per annum; we copies for $5 00. The money to be positively received before a number is sent. No letters will be taken from the Post Office unless the postage on them is paid. Unless positive orders are given at the time of authoribing, the work is continued after the first year, and if not paid during the year, the price will be in creased to $4.

South Roston, Feb. 22d, 1636. A Remarkable Case.

A gentleman states an extraordinary ase that of his wife, who was reduced so low by a putmonary complaint, that symptoms of approaching dissolution began to exhibit themselves, so that her Physician intimated that nothing further could be done for her-that her case was past human skill, and the Doctor observed shortly after, while at a neighbors, that Mis. W. was about to leave us. The same evening a relation recommended a trial of these (Relie's Asthmatic) Pills, they were accord ingly administered, producing such relief, and effecting so favorable a change during the night, that in the morning strong hopes were afforded of at least a partial restoration of her lo alth, which was effected, and made comparitively comfortable by a continued use of these Pills.

Timely Relief.
