& BEPUBLICAN BANNE

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utter, and to argue, freely, to above all other liberties."-Milton.

POL. II.-IPO. 48.

GBTTTSBVRG, PA., TVBSDAT, VBBRVART 25, 1540.

WHOLD SPO. 516.

the Court-House.

ume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in ad-

period than six months; nor will the paper be dis- little boys in the neighborhood of the scene. continued until all arrearages are paid, unless at By good fortune I escaped almost unnoti I told my companion that I liked neither pose you stay at my house a few days. I'v expenditures of the present year, including instituted suit against the owner of the Danthe option of the Editor. A failure to notify a dis- | ced; but not unaccompanied. The gratecontinuance will be considered a new engagement ful and earnest gaze of the rescued girl was and the paper forwarded accordingly.

for each subsequent insertion—the number of insertion to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Lettersand Communications addressed to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to

THE GARLAND.

From various gardens cull'd with care."

FOR THE STAR AND REPUBLICAN BANDER. To a Lady leaving Gettysburg. Wo long have expected the time which has come. When you, dearest friend, must leave us and home. The chain that has long twined around us must sever, Porhaps we shall see thee, O never, no never! But Heaven commands and why should we sigh, Though the last link be broken of earth's tend'rest

Yet how can it be, but with pain that we tell One that we loved long and dearly, a lasting fare-

You leave us dear friend, but memory will live, And oft to us sweet recollections 'twill give; Yes oft 'twill recall our childhood's bright hours, When rambling thro' forests and meadows and bowers.

How pleasant 'twill be when thus we look back, To the bright gleams of sunshine that lighted our

These pleasures have vanished and leave a sad We must bid them a final and lasting farewell!

How oft we together in music's sweet strains Have chanted to Him who omnipotent reigns; And oft with each other our breasts did we blend To Him our maker our father and friend. But when shall we see these bright pleasure again? The last link which bound us is broken in twain. Long yet may we hear the loud tolling bell, But thou must depart, farewell, O farewell!

Thus far on life's journey you've gladened our

And fain would we urge you yet with us to stay But duty has called you, 'tis this that demands; Obey then its voice and regard its commands. The' soon you must leave home and parents most

Yet fond recollection will oft linger here. Sweet home of your childhood, here long could you dwell,

But now you must bid it a lasting farewell! We wish you kind friends, good companion and

Where 'ere you may live, where 'ere you may

But never on earth's spacious bounds will you find.

A home dear as this you are leaving behind. We bid you adieu, then, dear friend, for a while, May Heaven upon you propitiously smile. . If all its sweet prospects thy sorrows dispel. You need not lament when you bid us farewell.

May God be your father, protecter and friend, His blessings upon you forever descend; And may we all meet in that haven of rest, The home of the pilgrim, the abode of the blest; Where parting and sighing for ever is o'er. Afflictions and sorrow there grieve us no more. Adieu then dear friend till the last tolling bell Shall summon us from time. Farewell! O farewell GETTYSBURG, Feb. 25, 1840.

MISOBLLANBOUS.

From the Philadelphia Casket. THE YANKEE ENGINEER.

BY CALEB CLAMBAKE. Whatever sceptic cold enquire for, For ev'ry why he had a wherefore. Butler's Hudibras.

Very fond I am of steamboats and stagecoaches. Not altogether on account of any inherent love for them, but from two adventures which happened to me, the first. while travelling on the former, the last while inside of the latter of these conveyances. That which occurred on board the steamboat being uncommonly short shall have precedence; it is necessary to a correct understanding of my second or I should not tell it. It fell out that, once upon a day, I emfell overboard. A sudden impulse, wheth- critter. Sam, ses she to me, go and lick you get near it, apparent beauties are deer of chivalry or of madness, I know not the brute like all natur'-It did tickle men fects, and those which were apparently dewhich, animating my bosom, I leaped into Ifew, I tell you, and I burst right out a laffin; I fects air arter all beauties.

tished at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Vol- fright, was very comely and fair to look up II. No subscription will be received for a shorter thanks, and the admiring looks of all the no way you can fix it.' with me still, and an angel in the shape of things, a just medium discover her residence, nevertheless I found lister, nor a school master perhaps? it to be impossible, and was about to give up in despair, when by chance it happened that I was forced to take a journey into the canawl contractor, air you?'

interior of our State.

It was on the fourth of November, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and—no matter when, that I found myself a passenger in the mail coach that plied daily be- what on airth air you?' tween Duncan's Island and Millerstown.-It was a cold, drizzly morning when I started. The sun was just rising, or was about question: What are you? to rise, for it was his proper time, though he bad hidden his round, rosy face in a dense log, as a lazy man would conceal his own in his bed-clothes. The coach was a vehicle which was certainly not Tory built, by a great deal, but was infinitely better than the cattle that were to draw it along the road. They absolutely defied description. The in the neighborhood of a quarter of a century, was a raw boned animal, blind in one eye, and wearing a coat as rough and ragged as a sailor's Flushing jacket. His companion in bondage, was a little, short, plump brute, just released from his cottage, who had not assumed the gravity of age, and accordingly frisked and jumped in his traces to the great annoyance of his elder and more staid neighbor. The harness which bound them to the vehicle, was of that kind which requires careful handling, and no small degree of magnanimity on its own part, to prevent it from falling into pieces. Yet, despite the bad appearance of things presented, I was obliged to suffer it, for I could find no better conveyance. I was not alone. Another individual was with me, on whose countenance, manners, and habiliments, was written the word 'Yankeel' He was a tall, spare man, with a piercing eye, and a restless set of features .-His apparel, which was evidently the work of a country tailor, consisted of a coat, shortpolitical old wimmen. Ohl switchell what tween the two. My trees is almost breathing and so received breathing and the switchell what the switchest with fact received breathing and switchest with fact received breathing and switchest with fact received breathing and switchest with the swi which were stuffed to repletion; and a pair of 'Oh! no we never mention them's,' which being too short for their owner, were coaxed to the feet by means of narrow leathern straps. His terminations downward were cased in a pair of cowhide boots, well cleaned and greased; while the upper extremity was a thin mass of short cut, muchcombed and well-sleeked hair, over which was the smallest kind of a small hat. Discovering evidence in my companion's restlessness of his desire to speak, I leaned back on my seat and waited patiently till it should please him to open the conversation. I did not wait long. Hitching himself onward, till his half-disjointed frame was directly opposite to mine, he first looked out of the coach window, and then peered into my face. ..

'A dreadful nice country on our left,' said he 'mister-mister-Oh! I've heard your name, but forget it'-and he looked as tho' he expected us to reveal our patronymic.

"No matter about names," was my answer, 'it is too champaign just here to please me.'

'Tew shampain! oh! yes! Well, I like a tee to taller, though I take a leetle of the and they begin to inquire about him. Some stuff myself. I wish I could dew without it, that's a fact, but it don't hurt no one, a little, jest in moderation. Perhaps you like and he oughter to be sustained, and they

the land jest afore us now? 'No!' was my reply, 'it is too rocky.' 'Tow rocky! well, I admire to hear you her. I spose? She's of the Cummins of our Atwixt 'em all, he got an amazin' lot o' answer, he led us into the house. parts.' I signified my ignorance of his votes, and was elected jest as slick as a aunt by a shake of the head, and he pro- whistle. Arter the 'lection, some people cecded. Til jest up and tell you all about come to him, and said he had'nt oughter a farm house. it. We had an awful cross dog and his stand Sall's lies, and he'd better, now he name was Jupiter, but we always called was elected, have her up before the court him Jupe. Oh! he was such a tarnation for libellin'. The deacon had like to snickcross dog. Well, one night somebody or er right out, but he put on a long face, and other tried to get in our house that had'nt talked away a spell about his impregnable ted? Did you marry her? Come enlightoughter, and Jupe kicked up an awful rack- honesty, that only shone brighter for such a en us. et, and kept it up the hull night. The hull rubbin, and talk of that kind, until every bilin on us could'nt get a wink of sleep.-Next mornin' aunt Jerushy went out to him, and she did give him the most all-fired said she, to keep up such a noise the hull perience of the deacon as recited by him. deal of unnecessary ink spilling. I present lickin' you ever did see. 'I'l larn you,' time, you pesky, troublesome critter. You self. It would make a saleable volume of the following announcement, which I cut tained an eminence in the science; morely make a noise for nohtin' agin-that's all' | 1t.' -and then she walked into him agin like a thousand o' brick. The dog kinder sorter understood her, for next night he slept as barked on board one of these smoky craft sound as a rock, and in walked some tarnal that ply daily between Burlington and Phil- ugly chap, and clapped his pickers and you won't find nothin' what aint creditable. adelphia. It furthermore fell out, that af-stealers on almost every thing he could ter having accomplished my business I was find. Next mornin' folks were up bright returning, when lo! on reaching the city, and airly, and there was a mess to be sure. before our boat could be fastened to the Oh! Jehu Jones! how aunt did splutter. tew. Surveyin' character on bein' newly wharf, a young damsel, who was standing 'That good-for-nothin' dog of ourn,' sed presented to your view is like examin' a too near the unguarded side of the boat, she, aint worth his keep, the lazv, sleepy statue or a pictur' at a distance. When

Office of the Star & Banner | the river, and with the assistance of a strong | I guess I'd a better snickered in my sleeve Chambersburg Street, a few doors West of arm, and a stronger rope, the one end of though, for she fetched me sich a lick on which was thrown toward me, the damsal the chops, what dew you mean, you impuwas rescued. I saw no more than one dent scamp, said she, rale riled, what dew I. The STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER is publican Banner is published, that the maiden, despite the you mean by this laffilin', go, dew, what I mister,' said my companion, while a cun-towards the construction of the Croton Aqu. Stephen McFarland,' when on her passage tell you, or I'll skin you within an inch of ning smile mantled over his features. But, on; after assuring myself of which, I made your life.' I shet up about the quickest. hallol here I am near home, and as he ut- 13 was paid during the last half of 1839. into by the steamboat 'Danube,' by which, vance: or TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CENTS, the best of my way for the shore, fearing Now, you're jest such an awful critter as if not paid until after the expiration of the year. that if I stayed I might be annoyed with aunt Jerushy, there aint no pleasin' on you

Not liking to rest under this imputation. ground that was too level, nor that which inquiries, and sought by every means to led. 'Oh! you're not a doctor, nor a min-

'Neither,' I replied. 'Oh! I see! you aint an injineer or 'Neither of these, my friend;' was the

'Then,' said he, while his countenance bore all the marks of baffled curiosity,

'A man of leisure,' replied I hesitating little-and now-permit me to return the

'Mel ohl-why I'm an injineer on the State-works down to Columby.'

'Then I imagine you are a violent politi cian,' said 1.

'Then I rather guess you are mistaken, responded the engineer, 'darn politics! Ev ry body talks of politics, and the whole country is in a great hurry to change their taller of the two, whose age was somewhere rulers, as if they ever gained by such swopping.

'And do they not?' inquired I. In course not,' was the answer, 'they have to give tow much boot. 'They have, my friend,' said I, 'to use your own expressive phrase, to give too much boot, but they gain something by it. The burthens of the public-that prince of donkeys - are always lighter after the accession of new rulers.

'Ohl yes, certainly, they're jest like now lambaste folks every day afterwards. And ants; and villins and swinglers; with other names tew tedious to mention, and as the ed. aucsheneer sed, when he was asked for a catalogue of the vartues.' every public man, and it is a great and cryonce mighty name to be the plaything of fast at early candle light."

forgetfulness!'
'Well, you air takin' on, at a great rate, declare, and eenamost about nothin' at ail. As for the abusin' it does a man nation sight good. It fixes his flint the right way. The more you abuse a man, providin' he don't turn right round and abuse you, the better it is for him. People air apt to ex amine, and if a man's bad, and you say he's a leetle worser, their sympathy gets, riz, and they vote for him. Why, when Deacon Jones wanted to get to the legislatur' he guy old Sal Slocum and she was a whole had never hearn tell o' the deacon afore, folks said, it was a tarnal shame that sich an old git-out should abuse an honest man, heard me speak. body left him, convinced he was the most sufferin' patriot in all natur.'

I laughed heartily at the anecdote, and said, 'I should like to hear the political ex-

'Oh! hol' exclaimed the engineer, in a tone of triumph, 'you're an author; air you? Jest as like as not now, you've been takin' me off the hull time, but I rayther guess 'I should hope not,' I replied.

'No very likely on so short an acquaintance,' said he, in reply, 'though you might

Well,' said I, ' you are a shrowd fellow truly, and I think your opinious are exceed ingly correct.'

None of your flattery, if you please,

III. Adventure seemed to accompany me wherewill be inserted Tranze times for $1, and 25 cents soever I went. Yet though I made divers lawyer, I spose?' I shook my head and smibour, don't mind our short acquaitance, being double the original estimates; and it investigation of the case, the Jury brought stage. ted with this pithy apothegm, I bade the York. driver assist me in taking down my baggage. negro, made its appearance.

trunks into the wagon. Get in, sir, Mis- New York. Whole length of the aqueduct spent all his days ashore?" ter-Mister-- quest. I found myself conveyed at a rattling at Harlam river, which will not be comple- dress; our morality; our habits of life. : We pace toward his domicil.

During the way, my entertainer comenthe rest mankind engaged his attention.

school-masters. They don't lick the boys In the meanwhile, I moved down to this about 138 feet; its length about 1420 feet. at fust, and for a while all goes on as smoothe place, for I got it mighty cheap, and as I There will be 16 piers as supportors to the and slick as sugar-house molasses. But obtained a situation on the state improve- bridge, viz: six in the river, which is 620 only wait till their dander get's riz at some- ments, I thought it was a first rate chance. thin', then they lay it on like all natur, and Home she come lately, and she was altered Those in the river are to be 20 feet by 40 so arter gittin' their hand once in, they amazin. Of course, as I'm a father of at the base, and about 84 in height, to the hern, I think a little more of her than any spring of the arch, diminishing in their dithen don't they ketch it. Oh! no. As for the schoolmasters, all the wimmen come out. last Sunday, she was the prettiest gal, and of the bridge is $443,432. and call them the hardest lot o' names; and the most like a lady, of any in church. as for the sinators, and congrissmen, and But jest look at that orchard. It's next to presidents and so forth, don't they git it from mine; and now observe the difference a-

'Your neighbor is unfortunate,' I rejoin-

· Unfortunate! no sich thing. He don't published of his death. bestow enough labor on nothin about his 'You are right; you are right, indeed,' I place. He haint got elbow grease enough Frenchman by birth, tall, finely formed, of answered, 'abuse is certainly heaped upon for manure. Look at his house, why it's highly polished manners, and in his pleaing evil. Pray heaven, it may not shake upshot of the matter. His folks don't rise a bad man. When conversing upon a semy country to fragments, and leave her before seven, while mine eat their break- rious subject he would stand for hours with

> Our conversation was now suspended by the stoppage of the coach before the door of a substantial stone house, near which stood a spacious barn and stable.

' Now, git out,' said he, and wo'll jest be baggage.' We passed up a short avenue, and I saw old and the other young, who rushed forward to greet my companion. He bestowed a hearty kiss on the lips of the youngest, and turning round introduced me. I stamteam in the slanderin' live, ten dollars to go mered - would have spoke-but was una- had made half the merchants of that city round and call him names. She arned her ble, for it was my divinity of the steammoney tew, mind I tell you. Well, people boat. She was as confused at first as myself, but at length observed to her tather. 'This is the gentleman who preserved me from drowning, and of whom you have ing robbed an American citizen.

What! exclaimed the astonished pa-

And so ended my second adventure, which would be highly interesting. began in a stage coach, and terminated in

'But,' exclaims some astonished and an-some two years since out of a country paper. by giving their leisure to study.

"Married on the 19th inst., by the Rev.

---for a race of giants.

CROTON WATER WORKS .- It appears in no great hurry, I should calculate, sup- ing January 1st, of $1,585,076 53. The the owner of the McFarland, immediately you're jest as welcome as the Governor, will be fortunate, if it is not found at last in a verdict for the plaintiff; of $23,000, come along,' and before I could decide to that a still further sum is necessary. A and interest being the full amount claimed refuse or not, he dragged me out of the committee of the Legislature, we perceive, by him .-- Pa. Inquirer. estimate the entire cost of the work at about Needs must when the yankee engi- 812,000,000. So much for "pure and A Sailor walking in Smithfield Market, to the distributing reservour at Murray Hill 'Clambake,' said I, supplying the word. (42d street) will be about forty miles. The 'Mister Clambake,' continued he, 'and whole work is under contract to be finished most loan-loving nation under the sun. We we'll soon get to home.' Obeying his re- in 1841, except that embracing the crossing borrow pretty nearly every thing-our ted till August, 1843. Should the entire are not an idle people, nor a foolish people aqueduct, with this exception, be finished ced discoursing on divers topics, and among by the close of the year 1841, the Commis- of a notion, that nothing of our own is worth. sioners have determined to erect a tempor-The women are curious critters, that's ary conduit pipe, of proper dimensions, for ing to foreigners is worth its weight in gold. a fact. Joe, but long sorrel, will you. conveying the water across said river, by There's somethin' about 'em, I don't know which means our citizens will have the benwhat it is, that's a pog above anythin' the efit of the aqueduct one or two years sooner musters of natur, can produce. My darter than they would by waiting for the high country gal in all natur. I sent her to Bos. this bridge, from its base at the bottom of ting to school, for four years and better. the river to the top of the parapots, will be feet wide at this point, and ten on the land.

LAFITTE, THE PIRATE. - The last number of the Galveston Civilian contains an skirted, and garnished with flat, round brass a lot o' names! hero's and tyrants, and false-buttons; a vest, the capacious pockets of hearted natriots: and ricreants and misers those who knew him, and many think he is still alive, no authentic account having been > Lafitte, according to the Civilian, was a enamost a tumblia down. I'll tell you the sant moods no one would ever take him for one eye shut, and at such times his appearance was harsh. He stated that he had spent one winter in fashionable society at $60,000 during the time.

> This distinguished leader and his gang in time for dinner. Joe will attend to the built quite a village upon the present site of Galveston as early as 1812. His own house was two stories high, and a very good one. upon the porch of the house two ladies, one The others were only one story, and of plainer construction. They procured their building materials from N. Orleans, with which place they kept up a regular intercourse. In fact, Lafitte boasted that he rich. He uniformly alledged that his dup redations were committed alone upon vessels sailing under Spanish colors, and ho is known to have hung one of his men for hav-

He lost four vessels and many men in a storm in 1818. Three of the vessels were voted for him. Others agin sed he must rent, 'you air the chap air you, that saved lost at sea, and one went ashore on Virgin be a man of consequence, or his enemies my darter. Give us your hand-Darnation in Point, on the opposite side of the bay would'nt find out sich means to blagyard seize,' said he, at the same time inflicting When he left the island he went to embark him, and they voted for him. And the a tremendous shake upon my right arm, in the Columbian service, having received 'You're jest about as hard to please as my deacon's private friends, without distinction if you shall leave here for a month. Come the tender of a commission in their navy, aunt Jerushy, and she was an awful crooked of party, got riled at hearin' him slanged in, come in all hands. Wife, you've got since which no authentic account of his critter, that's a fact. You never heard on about in this way, and they voted for him. dinner ready? and receiving an affirmative movements has been published. At true history of this bold and extraordinary man nal.

> No TIME FOR READING.—Go into the house of some of our farmers and you will gry reader, 'are you not going to tell us of find no newspaper, no periodical of any when Mr. Bynum cried "Bah!" at the conyour interview with the lady? Did you kind, and hardly a book. Ask such men not make love to her? Were you accept to subscribe for a paper, and they will toll ed hastily round, believing that some old you that they have no time to read one. sheep had obtained admission to the floor of But who is so constantly employed as to the House .- Louis. Journal. Dear reader, if you be a gentleman, it is find no leisure for the employment of his none of your concern, and so I make free mind? Not the farmer, for the long winter to tell you. But, perchance the inquirer evenings afford him several hours every Canada, to live in the enjoyment of Britmay be a lady, and then I must be civil day, which he might devote to reading. ish sympathy.' When they arrived, they Now to save a world of trouble, and a great | Not the mechanic, for instances are fre heard that they were under the government quent where industrious artizans have at of a "Squaw King," and forthwith packed

> One of the most eminent oriental schol-Escalus Taxenwell, Caleb Clambake, ars of the age, is Professor Lee, of one of Esq., of Philadelphia, to the amiable and the English universities, and yet all his ed- ing an opinion that he was insane, and layer accomplished Miss Mary Sherman, only ucation was acquired during the moments his damages at $20,000.—The Post says daughter of Ichabod Sherman, Esq., of this of leisure which he found while employed county, and formerly of Wallingford, Con- as a journeyman carpenter.

> CENTENARY COLLECTION .- We have be-TALL PARTY. - Four persons were re fore us the proceedings of the South Carocently married in Matthews county, Va., lina Conference of the Methodist Episconal whose united height makes twenty-five feet. Church, from which we learn that the cen-languages; and the number of those wor-The grooms are each six feet six inches tenary collection, in the five districts com-

A Warning .- A case of importance to from the semi-annual report of the Water travellers and steamboat proprietors, was Commissioners, just published, that they recently decided at Cincinnati. It seems had paid, prior to the 1st of January last, that during the last season, the steamboat duct, $3,917,859 82, of which, $1,243,827 from New Orleans to Cincinnati, was run tered the last words the coach stopped. There remained due, for work performed there was not only a total loss of the McFar-'Now,' he exclaimed, turning to me 'you during that period, $341,249 40; making land, with her cargo, etc., but the loss of a appear to be a clever chap, and as you aint a total paid or due for the six months end number of valuable lives. Captain Strader. got a couple of first rate horses, and you the above sum of $341,249 40, are estimate ube, for the full value of the boat. The triwas too rough, preferring, as in all other things, a just medium

'I say, squire,' resumed be, 'you aint no I hesitated, 'I see what you are thinkin a got a couple of inst tate noises, and you the above sum of $2,100,000. The entire cost of the al took place the week before last, in the work, when completed, it is now calculated, Supreme Court of Cincinnati, his Honor will reach the modest sum of $9,000,000— Judgo Este, presiding. When, after a full > neer drives,' said I to myself; and comfor- wholesome water" for the city of New saw an over-driven bull making towards him and thus hailed the animal: "Bull, shoy ! Fifty-four sections of the aqueduct, out of Put your holm down, I say, shipmate, or by This done, my new acquaintance requested ninety-seven, are already finished, and several of the light me to be tolerably patient, as his own coneral others nearly so. The whole length paid no attention to his greeting, but speedvoyance would be there shortly. And true of aqueduct arched complete, is about twen. ily overturned him into the mire. Jack ly enough he spake, for in a few moments, ty-six miles. About six and a half miles got up, and brushing his jacket, again ada country light wagon, driven by a young of aqueduct remain to be completed in dressed the retreating beast: "I told you Westchester county, and seven and a half how it would be, you cursed lubber! but Now Joe, said the engineer, 'hift these of aqueduct and pipe work on the island of what's to be expected from a fellow that's

It may be well said of us, that we are the -but somehow or other we have got hold: a brase farthing, and every thing belong-

A preacher at the west is said to have made use of the following thrilling catastro-Mary, for instance, she left me the wildest bridge to be completed. The height of phe : "Brethren, 'tis as hard for a sinner to enter the kingdom of heaven, as for a codfish to climb a barber's pole, tail upwards, with a louf of bread in his mouth!"

> The following droll paragraph is from the Houston (Texas) Star:

The whole story told. The following minute statistics of Austin are said to be correct: On the first day of January, 1840, the whole population, members of congress, speculators, gamblers, loafers and all, a-mounted to 8,856-whites 711. White adult males 550--do. females 61!-children 100-familes 75-mechanics 34-lawvers 4-physicians 5-printing offices 2-rav-

Contrast -- or which is the best Democrati -Resolution offered by Mr. Van Buren at a meeting in Hudson, N. York, during the

"Resolved, That the war is impolitic and disastrous, and to employ the Militia in an offensive war, is unconstitutional." Extract from Gen. Harrison's official account of the battle of the Thames:

"We have suffered greatly for the want. of provisions, and the whole army has sub-Washington city, and that he had expended sisted for the last three days on RAW BEEF WITHOUT SALT.

THE COLORING ON SUCAR PLUMS IS SAID to be generally made with poisonous matter. The fine green color is given by the arsenite of copper, and the yellow is made with the chromate of lead. Both the chemical compounds are virulent poisons. Well, the Cuba bloodhounds have arrived in Florida. What next? When are the brutes to enter into active service? On what day, memorable through all future the dogs of war?" On that day, let the bold eagle. " the winged warrior of the air," cease to be our country's emblem. Thenceforth let her emblem be the Dog?-Louis. Journal; time, will the magnanimous government of the greatest Republic on Earth " let slip

Who is Gen. Harrison! What party will support him? To what office can he be elected ?- Trenton Emporium.

The son of Benjamin Harrison. The Whigs. The Presidency .- Louis. Jour-

Mr. Bynum's powers as a mimic are highly complimented by the correspondent of the Alexandria Gazette. He says that clusion of Mr. Stanley's remarks, he turn-

A lot of Indians migrated from Ohio to up their 'duds' and came back.

A Mr. Hildreth has prosecuted the Edifor of the Boston Morning Post for expressno use in having the Worcester hospital's

The doctrines of the Wesleyan Methodists are preached in twenty-eight different shiping God according to that creed is estihigh, and the brides six feet. Lock out posing that conference, amounts to $61,026 mated at two millions four hundred and for a race of giants.

| Dock out posing that conference, amounts to $61,026 twenty eight thousand.