R & REPUBLICAN BANNE

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utter, and to argue, freely, is above all other liberties."-MILTON.

POB. K. - JPO. 50.

GDTTYSBURG, PA., TVBSDAY, MARCH 10, 1840.

WHODE 340. 513.

the Court-House.

I. The Stan & Republican Bannen is published at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volhorribly a ghastly smile.' He spanned her sent him reeling to the wall. He recover, escape. If she admonishes your inconsiderable with the reasons which induced him—an old says:—"At a Van Buren State Conventished at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volhorribly a ghastly smile.' He spanned her sent him reeling to the wall. He recover, escape. If she admonishes your inconsiderable with the reasons which induced him—an old says:—"At a Van Buren State Conventished at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volhorribly a ghastly smile.' He spanned her sent him reeling to the wall. ume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in ad- face with his fingers; I twisted off two but ed, however, immediately, and returned the Presidency, the Colonel related the fol- January, 1939, Mr. Allen stated that the vance: or TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CENTS, tons of my coat. He encircled her head the compliment with great vigor. Finding feelings, and support affliction—if she triif not paid until after the expiration of the year. with his arm; I tore out a handful of hair. we both might expect some severe spare umphs, in tact, and is condescendingly po-II. No subscription will be received for a shorter period than six months; nor will the paper be dis- and spake; and I feit my blood reddening selves in the attitude of John of Bologna's was considered remarkably shrewd and in- son with a perticont. General Murphy of continued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. A failure to notify a discontinuance will be considered a new engagement and the paper forwarded accordingly.

III. ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding a square will be inserted THREE times for $1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion-the number of insertion to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Lettersand Communications addressed to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to

THE GARLAND.

--- "With sweetest flowers enrich'd, From various gardens cull'd with care."

SONG. In sunny youth the minstrel lyre To notes of joy are strung, And o'er each gaily answering wire The boy enchanted hung. His hope was free, his heart beat high, For she, his lady love, was nigh: And tenderly her melting eye Beam'd on him as he sung.

In sunny youth, to pleasure's breeze, We set our silken sail. And lightly borne o'er summer sea, Her fairy islets hail. The skies are always cloudless there, The fragment bowers are bright and fair, And music, in the balmy air, Is heard o'er hill and dale.

Ah! sunny youth, in distance beaming, A light snot on the sea, O'er wintry billows faintly gleaming, We still look back on thee! Wisdom points to scenes sublime, But her glacier snows we climb, How blest appears youth's summer time Of love and posey.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the February Knickerbocker. Phrenology and Animal Magnetism. HOW THEY SERVED AN INDIVIDUAL. AN AMUSING STORY. Trifles light as air,

Are to the jealous, confirmation strong, As proofs of Holy Writ,'

The text may be found in the tragedy of Othello, third act, third scene. I state this remarkable fact, to show that the above is an 'original quotation,' taken directly from the author, and not merely quoted from a previous quoter. I hold that there may be as much piracy in quotation, as in stealing an original idea; and I am ready to wager that half the scribblers in the world quote from quoters, without ever reading the origina's. But to the illustration of my quo

A few years ago I left my native State. on an invitation from my kind uncle Scrapings, of Havana, to join hun in partnership there, under the firm of Scrapings, Scrapps, incontinently fallen in love with a beauty of my native city, of eighteen years, and a looking little creature, with eyes as black as a pair of suspender buttons, and two was arranged that I should go to Havana, ly. Every thing we touched was converted into gold, and almost without an effort. I kept up a correspondence with Clara, out track of unadulterated love.

given many a parting kiss! The evening portunity to insult her and me. But no; ded for every one, as they require skill, was warm—the parlor windows were open, her sister is there, and smiles complacentand I heard within voices and laughter .-- ly, as if in mockery of my disgrace P Sofily I approached, and slily I looked in. With a thrill of horror I beheld Clara seat- Clara's ear-she replied aloud: "O how ed in a rocking chair, while a fellow, a rejoiced I am at your return, dearest ! My young fellow, a handsome fellow, seemed heart is all your own l' with one hand to be playfully covering her A single moment's reflection would have my indignation, to listen-

"I think," said he, "you are fond of men one to another, after the decease or treach | Magnetism ! Animal Magnetism ! It was | with a few stanza's of Miss Landon's song: ery of the first. Now suppose your lover prove treacherous—don't you think so?"

I paused no longer. Job himself, when incrusted with 'sore boils,' would not have waited so long as I did. I rushed into the much of animal attraction to suit me; but room, and catching the dog by the throat, laid him prostrate. "Villain!" cried I, 'and is it thus you attempt to inveigle away the affections of my betrothed? Know, sir, that will suffer death, rather than dishonor!"

The mother and sister ran screaming from the room; but Clara, recognizing me at sonce, fell upon my neck, cried out, "O Judgment, (Reader, my euphonious ples name is Judgment Scrapps,) dear, dearest Judgment! spare him, and I will explain all to your satisfaction!"

Half doubting,I quitted my hold, and half doubting, I returned her embrace. "Say on, my Clara; I shall be but too happy to believe any thing you can say in explana

"That gentleman whom you have so wronged, is Dr. Feeler, the Phrenologist." "Phrenologist!-and pray what may that

"Why, dearest, it is one who uses the same means to discover another's intellect and disposition, that a monkey does to discover a certain species of the animal crea-

"Ah, I understand; such as we used to f money--"

"Say no more, Sir," replied he, "I per-dignity. ceive that your animal organs, and that of ideality, vastly preponderate over the reflectistay !" I cried: "I entreat, I implored cessity of asking permission of the Virginia ways sense enough to know their own intertive; and this unfortunate combination has Pardon, pardon my ignorance!" led to these unhappy consequences: but if 'No, Sir: I am well satisfied, from the tery: while President Monnor, still more bring them on a lovel with the slaves of the again, Sir; any other time, Sir; but don't let me detain you now, Sir; good evening, Sir;" and I politely bowed him out of the

"And now, my dear girl, let us forget this getting ready to be married. We will be the female sex might be extenuated, by the lar, and of about the age of sixty years, yet one!" married in one month from this very day!" forced 'march of the age.' "A month!--dear me! So very soon!--

So unexpected!" "Soon! Not a bit too soon, dearest! So ust shut that little ripe mouth, and let me hear no arguments, no objections. I must be back to Havana in all November."

At this juncture, the mother and sister e entered; and after explanations; reci tal of adventures, statements of future arrangements, and obtaining the old lady's consent, they considerately left us to ourselves, and we poured out our souls togethand Company; but, before I went, I had er, in all the rapture of passionate attachment. Next day I left for New York, there to purchase my wedding garments, and to little money. She was a most voluptuous- transact certain other necessary business. At the expiration of a week, I again drew near the temple of my idol, secretly hoping little hands, as white-oh, how white! And that the accursed phrenologist had been exthe dear creature loved me, too; and so it tending his examinations in other regions, came to pass, that we were 'engaged.' It if any where, during my absence, and feeling beside a great curtosity to find how get well established in business, then return Clara employed her leisure. So I crept up to claim Clara Smith, (an own sister of softly to the house, and again peeped in at John) for my bride. In due time, I was the fatal window. The phrenologist was established, and business prospered famous | not there-would to Heaven he had been? -but a person somewhat older and a great deal larger, with spectacles on nose, and a most diabolical smirk of total depravity. in which there was a due proportion of vows, | She was seated in the old fashioned easy rhapsodies, and apostrophes; but occasion- chair, leaning back, while her eyes were ally interspersed, on her side and on mine, closed, as if in conscious shame at her dewith little trifling jealousies, which tended graded situation; and he was standing over to give a lively dash of bitters to the other- her, making motions that almost stifled me wise too sickening draughts of sweets .- with mortification and rage. He seemed There was nothing very serious in these to be rubbing his dirty digits up and down lovers' quarrels, however, and after a short over her soft velvet cheeks; those cheeks I time, we always returned to the old worn had so often kissed, cheeks that now blush ed with guilty passion! Anon, the rascal Two years passed away, and I was mn- passed his hands over her full, heaving hoking ready to return for my beloved. I som. Yet I had resolution enough to a. was always fond of exciting surprise, and want the result. The scoundrel kneeleddetermined, on this occasion, to make a ay, kneeled to her !- and passed his hands sort of trap door entree into the presence of up and down each side, even to her very my little idol. So, having deceived her as feet! How my blood tingled! "Yet," to the time when she might begin to expect | thought I, " I will wait ! It may be, after me, I found myself, in the month of Septem- all, some other new fangled notion, started bor, in New York, on my way home; and during my absence. I must not again the next evening found me at Clara's gate make a fool of myself too suddenly. She how soon things will change. These inthat gate over which I had taken and may be asleen, and the fellow takes this op-

Soon the fellow rose, and whispered in eyes, and with the other 'paddling in her convinced me that she supposed herself ad that is the very class worth having.

Office of the Star & Banner | neck with his damned fingers; while her | dressing me; but, blinded by what I had | Chambersburg Street, a few doors West of mother and sister sat on a sofa, quietly grin- seen, and the agony I had felt, I could ap vou in a ready made and well delivered we have heard, was delivered by Col. Mc. Memphia Enquirer of the 23d ult. fixes ning at the fellow's impudencel I felt my preciate nothing save my own dishonor; speech, which had evidently been prepared Kenney, at the dinner on Saturday, the 22d upon Ross county Allen, the charge of the blood hissing in my veins, yet I stood still, and jumping in at the window I rushed up and kept waiting for you, then make your of February, in Harrisburg. Speaking of red "flannel" lie, most indubitably. He Finnally, the dumb ass opened his mouth ring, before we had finished, we placed our lite-then cut a caper for joy, and come the very tip of my nose; but I restrained lists, while our eyes glared like the eyes of flying Mercury, for you have ample cause telligent -- the other was an idiot. All the Chilicothe, immediately pronounced it to be hungry wolves.

Clara and her sister advanced to the ros nothing but Animal Magnetism!"

"Av, av," I replied, "I saw it was!" at the same time shaking them off, and re-doubling my efforts; "there was quite too madam, may go to --- laid me prostrate and senseless.

" How !-what !" I exclaimed : " Ah ! I romember! Where is Clara?

"She left the room but now, declaring that she had done with you forever." her in to receive my farewell."

Presently she entered, when I commencout of breath. She listened calmly till I litic or just. He allows them to be "sercoldness and hauteur:

well for ever. This is not the first time call craniologists. Humph! I never had ence of Animal Magnetism is an exalted and a member of the cabinet, a minister abroad, the pleasure of seeing one. But is that in- innocent one; quite as much so. Sir, as that after having taken an active part in every deed all! What a fool I have been! My of Phrenology; and that a woman may wise and good measure of the Federal Govdear Clara, and you my dear Dr. Feeler, is submit to the process from pure love of ernment, was dismissed without any provisit possible you can pardon my atrocious vi- knowledge, without compromising her dig. ion, and would have terminated his labore olence? Sir," continued I, hesitatingly, for nity, her modesty, or her honor!" And so ous career in poverty, had not his friends he looked rather needy, as I thought, "Sir, saying, she turned her back upon me, and offered him the place of president of one of the people were considered by the little Ma-you will allow me a thorough examination frequent manifestations of your jenlousy and destitute, after having spent his patrimeny monerchical government of the Old World. violent disposition, that we never could be in the service of the State, was constrained "Sir, you are very kind, very--but hav- happy together. I should be as jealous as ing just returned from a foreign land, Sir, yourself; and our life would be one scene and these are the men to whom their counand wishing, Sir, to sav something to this of discord and rude commotion. And, Sir try owes the invaluable acquisitions of Loulady, Sir, will you be so good as to call -however reluctantly-I must now bid isinna and Florida." you an unequivocal and eternal farewell!"

Bitter remorse overwhelmed mc. "Stay.

> norant of the extent to which modern sci- the following comment: ence had been carried; because I had not

-----POPPING THE QUESTION.

This important science in the economy of matrimony, is sensibly and philosophical-and manner in which they are pronounced, Federal government, although yet vigorous, ced with evident marks of sorrow, instead of majority here, his friends have bethought triumph, showing unfeigned regret for have themselves of coming to his relief by remoing caused pain which she could not allevi ving the clerk of the Court of Common ate—if her voice is soft, broken, and trem- Please, who was a Jackson man, and giving ulous-her eye dimmed with a half formed him the place, which is a lucrative one, as tear, which it requires even an effort to sub a sort of retiring pension. His friends in due-then, I say you may share in her sor- the East talk of making him President of row, for you have probably lost a prize the United States-Meanwhile we have toon but the Opposition can elect Harrison worth gaining; but though you grieve you made him clerk of an inferior court." may also hope, if you are a man of any pretension, for there is evidently good feeling to build upon. Do not therefore, fly states that there is at present living at Hildout and make an idiot of yourself, on receiv- gausen in Silesia, a man named Hans Heiz, beginning to be alarmed at the prospect of in cash, were recovered-having been in ing your refusal; submit with a good grace; solicit a continuance of friendship, to sup doors for the 37 years, but still takes 2 or port you under the heart crushing affliction 3 weeks in his chamber every day. When outre conduct of any kind-jest a little at lable to speak distinctly for six years, but the Indian war, said to them-" Gentlemen, the expense of your own failure, without utters a few inarticulate sounds, which his if you ever come to Vicennes, you will alhowever, attempting to deprive her of the grandchildren, who attend him (all his sons ways find a plate and a knife and fork at your sentence; let her sorrow be mingled centuries, a thing never witnessed, perhaps. the latch pulled in." with admiration, and there is no knowing since the times of the patriarchs." structions, you will percieve, are not inten-

"If, on the other hand, the lady refuses | There is in southern climes a breeze,

That sweeps with changeless course the seas; Fixed to one point-oh faithful gale!

Thou art not for my wandering sail.' "If she bursts out into a loud fit of laugh wait till I spoil your magnet, and then you, ter, as I once knew a lady do, then join her lost one worth weeping for."

POVERTY OF PUBLIC MEN.

Chevalier, (whose letters, says the Boston Journal, we have mentioned as just is-"Glad of it! Have the kindness to call sued by Weeks, Jordan, & Co.) evidently divisions with intense interest. At length thinks that our public characters, and especially our national functionaries, are aled a tirade upon her fickleness and faith- lowed to spend and be spent in their coun- Dear Billy, one butt more for the sake of lessness, etc., which only ended when I was try's service, rather more than is either nohad done, when she replied with freezing vants" of the people, but thinks they are not treated as well as other menials. As might am sorry for it, but you have got along with welfare, and knowing some of his hearers "Mr. Scrapps, you have spared me the be expected, he would have a system of re- such a set of rotten scamps that I can have were supporters of Mr. Van Buren, he hit pain I might have felt in bidding you fare- tiring pensions. On this subject he says:

your absurd jealousy has brought you into LATIN at New York, who, after having situation the most ridiculous. You will grown old in the service of the republic, afdoubtless ere long learn, Sir, that the sci- ter having been for forty years a legislator. Pennsylvania; they loved Jackson as well the chief magistracy of these United States, was stalking out of the room with great the banks in New York. The distress of gicinn and his federal advisors they would President JEFFERSON in his old age is well find themselves mistaken in their views .known, and that he was reduced to the ne-Legislature to dispose of his estate by lot- est, and rebuke those who would dare to to implore the compassion of Congress:

General Harrison's case strikes him as I lost that girl, merely because I was ig. that gentleman at Cincinnati, and gives us "I had observed at the hotel table a man

I had been struck with his open and cheerful expression, the amenity of his open and certain air of command, which appeared through his plain dress , That is,' said ly handled by an old Bachelor in Frazer's my triend, General Harrison, clerk of the Cincinuati Court of Common Pleas'-"Though it is impossible to say any thing | What! General Harrison of the Tippecanoe much to the purpose about refusuls general- and the Thames?—The same; the ex-genly, a little tact and observation will always cial, the conqueror of Tecumseh and Proctell you whether the girl who refused you tor; the avenger of our disasters on the would have been worth having, had she ac- Raison and Detroit; the ex governor of cepted. I am speaking of verbal communi- the Torritory of Indiana, the ex-senator in cations only; as nobody ever writes who Congress, the ex-minister of the United these men at cards, and General Harrison can speak. It is usual, in all cases of refu | States to one of the South American repubsal, for the lady to say that she is deeply lies. He has grown old in the service of grateful for the honor you have done her; his country, he has passed twenty years of but, feeling only friendship for you, she re- his life in those fierce wars with the Indigrets that she cannot accept your proposal, ans in which there is less glory to be won, &c. &c. I have heard the words so often, but more dangers to be encountered than at that I know them by heart. The words, Rivolt and Austerlitz. He is now poor, however varied, signify little; it is the tone with a numerous family, neglected by the that must guide you in forming your esti- because he had the independence to think mate of the cruel one. If they are pronound for himself. As the Opposition is in the Longevity.-The Observer of Trieste in his 142d year. He has not gone out of things. you have sustained. Take her hand at par- the weather is fine, he opens his window years in which to pay up!

One of the very best political speeches | THE PETTICOAT HEIR APPARENT .- The lowing anecdote:

selves. He then informed his brother that ALLEN." the sheep were separated into two equal portions, of which he might take his choice. For some time the idiot surveyed the two ton. putting down his head as was his custom when he wanted to romp with Billy, he said: old times-the best of triends must some-as the poor sitly boy loved his Billy--lie is one who was in bad company now. The old rotten corrupt tederals were around him, and though like the cunning brother, they might hope to cheat that great simpleton the public, by playing upon their affections, yet simple as Foolish as the people might be, they had al-

COMING AROUND. Like many others who went off half cocked, immediately after the nomination benighted region of a neighboring county, of Old Tippecance, the New York Herald another of the same class. He encountered finds that it is necessary to follow what it of the natives-all thorough slitch Locos. cannot longer resist-the swelling tide of They held a parley, and politics, of course, popular enthusiasm in favor of the gallant being introduced, the Whig began to let soldier "who has fought more battles than out on "old Granny Harrison," the "imbehughable mistake; and dear, we must be then learned, that undue similarity with about the racdium height, stout and muscu- any other American General and never lost cile dotard," &c. His auditors spread the

In a letter written from Washington, the editor states that "the President gives no soirces, no entertainments, but a badly cook. ed dinner occasionally to members of Congress, who cry it up or down with their politics. He lives in the most excluded way; for all the world like a proud English lord fore, I set in to abusing Harrison, to prein his castle. Forsyth, Paulding and Poin- vent you from doing it-for it would be a sett, all old withered dandies, with more pity if Van did not get a single vote." hauteur than sense, form his exclusive companions. They amuse themselves with playing whist and looking at French prints.

"What a contrast between the life of at the plough tail! The "battered dandy," of Kinderhook, as though he had just came out of a band box-and the "old granny" of Ohio, tending his cattle and feeding his noultry l

Green in Baltimore "Sir," said he, "Mr. ately passed that body by a vote of 92 to 7 Calhoun, by his coalition with Mr. Van Bu- Thus decidedly speaks the Empire State aren, has lost his moral influence, and in my opinion, Gen. Harrison will be elected."-I was very much surprised to find such opinions in such a quarter. Mr. Calhoun stands fast to his ideal state right opinions. while the whole south is changing around him. He does not perceive that the ground and make off with a box, containing $1100 is stealing from under his feet.

I can hear or gather, there can be no ques-

THE LOG CABIN AND HARD CIDER CAN- was thus within an hour's journey of his DIDATE .- Gen. Harrison, when parting place of destination, when his pursuer came ting; kiss it frequently, but quietly; no and smokes three pipes. He has not been from a regiment of his soldiers, just after upon and captured him. honor of the victory. Rise in her estima. are dead,) understand. "This man," adds my table, and I assure you that you will not end unhappily. Yet, managing mothtion by the manner in which you receive the Observer, "has lived in three different never find my door shut, and the string of ere, and heartless daughters, are continually Mississippi Banks.—By a vote of 47 to cording to the State Treasurer's report is choice. I am utraid to conjecture how 34, the House of Representatives of the $15,400,000. It is comprised in two class large a portion of women marry because tact, quickness, and feeling, in order to be Mississippi Legislature, have adopted a re- ses, of bonds, called long and short bonds. they think they shall not have a better appreciated and acted upon. If you want solution requiring the Banks of that State The latter are issued at two, four and six chance and dread being dependent. Such these qualities, just make love purse in to resume specie payments on the 1st of years, amount to $5,000,000 and bear an marriages no doubt son etimer prove teleman hand; it is a safe mode of proceeding, and April next, on all their habilities, and upon annual interest of $300,000. The other bly comfortable; but a great number would will answer admirably with all ranks, from failure to do so, their charters are to be for- class of bonds amount to $10,400,000, fall have been far happier single. If I may Almack's to the Borough. There is only letted, and their affairs to be wound up by due at different periods between the year judge by my own observation of such men. one class with whom it will not answer, and commissioners—their debtors to have four 1840 and 1886, and bear a semi-annual interest of $260,500.-Nat. Int.

ladies of Chilicothe, after the gallant defence An old man who lived in the western of Fort Stevenson by Major Craghan, prepart of this state, had two sons; of these, one sented him with a sword, and Gen. Harrito rejoice. If the lady snaps at you, as property which he possessed was an old a vile slander, under his own hand in the much as to say, 'You are an impudent fel- rusty gun and a flock of sheep. In the flock | Scioto Gazette, and called on Allen to subin general; and I think you would find little cue, and caught my arms, crying out, the low'-which may be sometimes true, though was an old ram named Billy, and he was the stantiate his caluminous charge by naming difficulty in transferring your affections from while, at the top of their voices: "Animal it should not exactly be told-then reply only creature to which, except his father, the time and place, when and where it octhe poor simpleton evinced the least degree curred. Allen never replied. The ladies of attachment. Often on a pleasant day of Chilicothe also, soon after Allen made the might the pair be seen butting each other charge, called a meeting, and passed resoluin p'ayfulness, or lying on the sunny side | tions pronouncing Allen's charge to be a of a verdant hill, caressing with the utmost base unfounded calumny; and demanded of tenderness. But the father died and the him to name one lady who participated in poor boy having one object less to call forth the alleged affair; and that if he did not. by all means; for you may be sure that she his affections, seemed to become more fond his silence would be received as a proof of "Here, as Yellowplush says, I recollect is an ill bred hoyden or a downright idiot. of the society of Billy than ever he was be- his having uttered a vile and calumnious I was obliged to stop; for at this moment But if unable to speak, grief at having caus- fore. A short time after their father's death, falsehood. Allen never opened his mouth; I received a blow under the left lug, which ed you pain makes her burst into tears—as the cunning son counting on his brothers and from that time he has been looked upa little Swedish girl once did when such a great love for Billy, divided the flock, put- on in the contempt and decision he merited, When I recovered, I found myself upon proposal was unade to her-then join her if ting all the diseased sheep together with by the honorable of both parties, and the the sofa, and Clara's sister bathing my tem. you like, for the chances are that you have Billy into one inclosure, while the sound boys to this day, when he passes them in members of the flock were driven by them- the streets, cry out "there goes petticoat

Henceforth, this calumniator may be styled " petticoat heir apparent" to Tom Ben-

We lately heard of a minister, who had been a chaplam in Harrison's army in the late war; who, a short time since in holding forth to a congregation somewhere in times part, and I think you and I will play Indiana, and feeling it his duty to minister no longer. I love you dearly billy, and I to their temporal as well as their spiritual nothing more to do with you. Brother I upon the following expedient. He carnest-"I had already seen the illustrious GAL- take the other lot of sheep. Farewell Billy. ly prayed for the welfare of the whole hu-Thus, said the Colonel has it been with man race, and that " God would in his merthousands of the original Jackson men of cy direct the American people to select for

H onest and well qualified, A merican in principle, R epublican in heart, R eform his aim.

I ndependent of political quacks, S trong in support of our Constitution, O pen to the voice of the people, and N ever oppressing them, in order to grat-ly his malice for individuals." To which there was a fervid and unanimous response of "Amen"

By taking the first letter of each line we have the name of HARRISON.]-Harrisonian.

A very rabid and notorious Whig was passing a few days since, through a very when he encountered some ten or a dozen white of their eyes to the Heavens, in utter tonishment. "What! have you changed? Have you quit the Whigs?" "Yes - it is now pretty certain that Harrison will get all the votes in the Union-he is certain of all except this neighborhood. I was afraid you too were about to quit Van, and there-

They all, of one accord, swore, after the old Virginia fashion that they would be whipped if they would vote for Van.

Richmond Whig.

NEW YORK AGAINST THE SUB-TREASU-RY .- The anti-sub-Treasury resolutionsfrom the House passed the senate of New York on Thursday, by a vote of 16 yeas to 9 nays. Being slightly amended, they "A few days ago, I saw Gen. Duff were returned to the House, and immedigainst the Sub-Treasury scheme of the Spoils' party.

ROBBER ARRESTED.—The man, Wright, formerly a stage driver in the employ of Mr. Reiside, who managed to "abstract" in hard money, some two weeks since, near " From every fact, inference, and opinion | Smithfield, Pa has been arrested at Buffalo, N. Y. and the principal part of the booty found upon him. The money belonged if they will come to the polls as they did in to the Bunk of Norwalk, Ohio. About 1837 and '38. They have the votes no $400 of it had been "invested" by the rob. mistake, as the returns the last four years her in a horse, a gold watch, and other will show. The administration here are jewelry to match. The earticles and $700 nossession of Wright something less than a week He was making for Canada; and MARRYING FOR MONEY .- I never know a marriage expressly for money that did playing the same unlucky game. I believethat men more frequently marry for love The debt of the State of Alabama, ac- than women y because they have a freet some way of getting a living - Child.