STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER.

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utter, and to argue, freely, is above all other liberties."-MILTON.

РОВ. ПЛ.-ЛО. 6.

CHTTISBURG, PA., TUBSDAT, MAT 5, 1840.

Office of the Star & Banner COUNTY BUILDING, ABOVE THE OFFICE OF THE REGISTER AND RECORDER.

I. The STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER is pub 'ished at TWO. DOLLARS per annum (or Volume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in advance: or TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CENTS, if not paid until after the expiration of the year. that way." II. No subscription will be received for a shorter period than six months; nor will the paper be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. A failure to notify a discontinuance will be considered a new engagement and the paper forwarded accordingly. III. ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding a square will be inserted range times for $1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion-the number of insertion to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Lettersand Communications address will not be attended to

THE GARLAND.

----- "With sweetest flowersenrich'd, From various gardenscull'd with care."

THE MISER.

To be frugal is wise; and this lesson of truth Should over be preach'd in the ears of youth. The young must be curb'd in their spendthrift has Lest meagre want should follow on waste : But to see the hand that is wither'd and old So cagerly clutch at the shining gold-Oh ! can it be good that man should crave The dross of the world-so near his grave ?

Sad is the lot of those who pine In the gloomy depths of the precious mine; But they toil not so hard in gaining the ore As the miser in guarding the glittering store. He counts the coin with a feasting eye, And trombles the while if a stop come nigh; Ho adds more wealth : and a fiendish trace Of joy comes o'er his shrunken face.

Ho seeks the bed where he cannot rest, Made close beside his idle chest; Ho wakes with a wilder'd, haggard stare, For he dreams a thief is busy there : He searches around-the bolts are fast. And the watchmen of the night go past-His coffors are safe ; but there's fear in his brain And the miser cannot sleep again !

Ho never flings the blessed mite To fill the orphan child with delight-The dog may howl, the widow may sigh, He hears them not- they may starve and die. His breast is of ice, no throbbing glow Speaks there at the piercing tale of wo; All torpid and cold, he lives alone In his heaps, like the toad embedded in stone.

hanny to remove the only barrier to the between them with the solemnly expressed wrong track is taken-then look out for a gratification of her then predominant wish. words, "Let us pray !" And he did pray regular raccoon hunt. able to afford one even more costly."

mind were the more striking, as they marked the more strongly the contrast with a form.

noon.'

good one?"

ing the only---one."

price."

Janette's heart lenged for joy. She was which is to come; and so deeply did the the mush, and then they git back agin if not to be outdone by Matilda Frasier, and spirit of his petitions affect his wife and they can and place the old and neglected buttered-a being all joints and angles not she looked forward with exultation to that daughter that they joined with him in that Veteran at the head.

day when she would astonish her friends by most solemnly expressive phrase, AMEN. such an unexpected display. Her mother That night a new spirit reigned in the Old Hero treats every body who comes to peach-a young womanshared her fond anticipations, and it was breasts of the Oakely family. And when see him, and no matter what they want to to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they soon arranged between them that Miss what they had been half led to believe, was talk about, he's ready for 'em; for in his life-Chandler should be put into speedy posses | confirmed-when they were assured that the time, he has had considerable experience in sion of an article they now wondered could wealth so long idolized was their's no longer pretty much every thing. But when folks ever have found a place in their dwelling --scarcely a regret or a murmur escaped the come to sound him, to write to him, to know Charles Oakely commenced the world lips of mother or daughter, but both seem- what course he will take on this question or under his arm, on his way to the fishing talks particularly of going to Algiersempty handed, nor had he accumulated ed anxious to forget that misfortune had that question, when he is elected President landings, after breakfast, had some curiosi- though I think bim quite an Algerine almuch when he sought and obtained a part- fallen on them. A situation more benefitting --he refers them to the Constitution and the ty to see the famous East Room of the Prener to his poverty. Both were poor, and their means was procured, and thither they Laws, and says that they ever have been although they lived quietly together, his repaired to enjoy far more real pleasure than and always will be his guides -- no matter

wife was ever sighing for the splendor of the when rioting in what seemed an exhaustless what station he is in--whether in his Cabin English waiter in attendance came to the rich. Though, in the main, a good sort of abundance. The party, the carriage, the at the North Bend, or in the Cabinet at the a woman, she lacked that uncommon sense piano, and costly furniture wore forgotten. White House at Washington-whether on so requisite to contentment in the posses. Economy and industry took the place of horseback at the head of an army, or on sion of little, as well as that knowledge of fashionable folly, and they are now prosper- foot at a ploughtail-with a sword in his domestic economy, generally so important ous and happy. Mrs. Oakely lost her pride, hand, or a hos in his hand---it makes no in the acquisition of more. Janette, her but found contentment. Janette lost the only child, and so like herself in form and same, and also a foppish beau who had an mind, was just verging to womanhood, and eye to her fortune, but she had found her have made the constitution and the laws, jist being heir, as was supposed, to an ample own good qualities, and has applied herself so it is with his barrel of hard cider. There fortune, she looked forward to a splendid to their improvement, as well as the worth is no use of promising one man a glass of career in the circles of gaiety and fashion. of a young man who sighed for her when hard cider and another man a glass not Had she possessed in her mother a wiser rich, and who adores her now while com- quite so sweet-atother man a glass of counsellor, she would have been, at eighteen, paratively poor, and whom she will doubtless hard cider and another a glass a leetle hara very different person. She lacked not the reward ere long, by surrendering herself to der-they must all take it as it comes from principles of an opposite character, but un-der the false training of her mother, they the "ups and downs" of life, and happy it don't suit 'em he can't help it--it is his had been suffered to repose uncultivated, would it be if all who toppled from the pinwhile the weeds of folly were cherished into nacle of fortune could gain as much by the and full, and bung sp--and the spiggot about an extensive growth. These defects of descent as did the Oakely family. From the New York Express. pleasing-a speaking eye, and a faultless MAJOR DOWNING IN THE CABINET,

ON THE NORTH BEND.

Her father possessed none of the frivolity We lay before our readers the Major's of herself or mother, and o wing to the stern and letter from the Cabin, which will be ness of his integrity, and his industrious read with much interest. The idea (or we habits success followed his efforts till the should say notion) he shadows forth that tioneering. Whenever he got among day connection, that 8 elders have been elected one at St. Clairsville, a few days ago, was time we have chosen for his introduction to the doctrine of the Cabin is "no political the reader. He had been, what is called favoritism" in the distribution of the con- old ragged paper dollar --- "There," says he, supernumerary preachers, and that only one procession extended for several miles; fifdown in the world, but now he is so far up tents of the "great barrel politic of the na- fellow citizens-look at this, and then look clergyman, the Rev. Joseph Rusling, has teen hundred horsemen, one hundred waas to rank among the first in wealth in the tion," may not perhaps suit ultra expecta. at that-"Here, says he, is the kind of died during the year. The Conference city of his residence. But the time has ar- tions. But it is sound Whig doctrine. The money the "bank ruffins" want you to take contains within its limits 34,070 white mem-

those they select to administer the Laws. many folks he talk'd to told him it was pur-

"Perhaps she too may wish a fifteen hun-in all the fervency of a broken spirit. He There is no place like The cabin here, to dred dollar one! Gen. Chandler is surely acknowledged his forgetfulness of God-know what is going on-East, West, North There is no place like The cabin here, to Cincinnati, Ohio: "O, no father--she does not wish a bet- of those bound to him by the strongest of coming and going, stop in to see the Gine-

"How stupid she must be, Janette, must long cherished; thanked his Creator for the of letter every day; and the way the Gine. down that bespeaks the ripening peach-a the not?" queried Oakely. Janette's face gift of existence-the blessings associated ral gits along with matters, convinces me flowerwas crimsoned at his pointed irony, but be- with it, as also for the hopes of an immortal more and more that he is one of them kind fore she could frame any reply, her father existence hereafter, inspired by the promises of folks we read about, who, arter doing rose, and as he left the house said "let Miss of the Gospel. He commended the world good service, are pushed aside by the crowd Chandler have the Piano Forte at her own to the care of him on whom all are depend. for a spell, who git their eye on a new light, ent for the life that now is, as well as that or jack-o'-lantern, which leads them into priced,"cagerly responded Janette, who was become somewhat composed, he knelt down the comes--as come it must, when the odds--he knows no other political guide. The Gineral says that jist as the people it don't suit 'em he can't help it-it is his business to keep the barrel still and quiet, as nigh the centre as possible, so that the cider will run clearest and no man get dregs and skums.

rived to drop individual delineations and to group them again before the reader. "Well, father, Miss Chandler is to have the Piano. She will send for it this after "and it the constitution and the Laws of the guide and rule of the guide and rule of the piano. She will send for it this after "and it the constitution and the Laws of the guide and rule of the guide and rule of the sector ary in the banner of Harrison and our country. "But the banner of the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "But the banner of the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "But the banner of the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "But the banner of the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison and our country. "Agree the sector ary ing the banner of Harrison ary follows and a sector ary in the sector ary ino

ted all the strangers to take a seat with him

Walker and Mr. Buchanan says, to less hard money at an rate.

perian, a monthly publication issued in besides, that if ever he was thrown out of "Young womanhood! the sweet moon ready to assist him. Such an instance of implored pardon for his own, and for the sins and South; for pretty much all creation, on the horizon's verge,' a thought instured, honesty in a poor man is worthy of all combut not uttered-a conception warm and mondation. It was fortunate, perhaps, for ter than mine-she has quite a plain taste human ties-prayed that both he and his ral-to say nothing of special committees glowing, yet not embodied-the rich halo the owner that many who pass themselves

> A flower which is not quite a flower, Yet is no more a bud.'

Upon this, the Sunday news makes the following capital parody: "Young womanhood! molasses touched with a little brimstone-spread on bread not

A woman, which is not quite woman, Yet something more, nor a gal."

AN INCIDENTAL AFFAIR .-- A countryman lately, with his great coat rolled up sident's House, and its mirrors of barn door size, when ringing the bell, a prime white door, and seeing that only "one of the people" on foot was there, slammed it in his 100 ruined gamblers, 50 Greeks, 200 face, alter saying, "You had better come at seven o'clock; the President's rooms are heel, and significantly replied, "I'm thinking the President's House will be open before day on the 4th of March next, for ev. ery body; for Old Tip is a mighty early riser, and was never yet caught napping. Georgetown Advocate.

A PRETTY LITTLE BILL .- During the year 1839 there was expended in the New York almshouse department $3,396 for Champagne, Old Hock, &c., for the entertainment of the commissioners.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,-We have been favored with a copy of the There was a chap come along through minutes of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Gen. HARRISON is carrying all before the way west with an appointment by Gov-Thursday last. We learn that 13 preachers valley of the Ohio resounds with the name ernment as "a receiver of Public Land have been admitted on trial, that 9 remain of Harrison and Tippecanoe. Large meet-Money,"- and of course come along elec- on trial, that 8 have been admitted into full laborer, he'd take out a hard dollar and an and ordained this year, that there are 12 attended by upwards of 10,000 persons; the of preachers, amount to $1866 57. The diers were congregated, besides thousands The little incident of the electioneering ty difficult now a days to git hold of bank 10 per cent. collections to $775 92. The from all quarters. Several steamboats, "Sub-Treasury" is happy. We regret money or hard money,-but he told 'em to additional collections for necessitous cases, well freighted with good and true Whigs of hang on, and vote for the Sub-Treasury to 8986 71 .-- Phila. Inquirer. Cincinnati, attended, with a bountiful supply of provisions for the barbacue, which might expel from their hearts the pride so sent from all quarters and about two bushels which precedes the rising sun-the rosy off for gentlemen, were not the finders. Boston Atlas.

WILDED SPO. 526.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT .- The following this money back, was to present Connel beautiful extract is from Gallagher's Hes- | with fifty dollars, and he assured Council employment, he would always find a friend.

THE CINCINNATI BANK EMBEZZLEMENT. -In the Cincinnati Chronicle of the 18th inst. is published the following extract of a letter from a citizen of Cincinnati, now in Paris. The letter is dated March 6.

"I met with a singular adventure to day; walking down the Boulevards, who should filled out-an unformed form, deformed by I meet with bat Wu. SURTEES, Esq. the the newspapers had fabricated many lies about him, and that he was the injured man! &c. He lives at Verseilles, but says he shall go to Italy in a few days; and thinks of travelling all over the world. He ready.

According the calculations of a German author, of the 1000 English travelling on the continent, 333 are officers on half-pay, grooms, jockies, ladies' maids, and governesses, and to pass over the rest of the stanot open for visitors till ten in the morning" tistical table, one only who goes abroad "in -whoreupon, the farmer, turned on his order to improve his mind and his heart."

> A SLEEPER.-A story is told in a London paper, of a person named Bradley, aged 22 years, who had been in one continued nap for the last 27 weeks. He is kept alive by gruel and other liquids, which his mother pours into his mouth. His body is described as much wasted; and the faculty had not been able to explain his mysterious case.--Ib.

ALL ALIVE IN THE GREAT WEST. Extract of a letter to the National Intelligencer, dated

Louisville, Ky., April 14, 1840. ings are being held in every quarter. The gons, well loaded, and thousands on foot-Among the former were a body of seventy Death comes-but the miser's friendless bier Is free from the sobbing mourner's tear; Unloved, unwept, no grateful one Will tell of the kindly deeds he'd done. Oh ! never covet the miser's fame, 'Tis a cheerless halo that circles his name ; And one fond heart that will truly grieve Will outweigh all the gold that he can leave.

MISCELLANEQUS.

UPS AND DOWNS.

"Fathor," said Janette Oakely, a beautiful bat vain young woman, "I have made a is it not?" call on Miss Frasier to-day, and what do you think I saw there?"

"Probably a giddy unthinking girl like yourself, who is miserable till she possesses every new extravagance that folly sets afloat," was the half-gay, half-grave response.

"Why, father," continued Janette, "how can you say so?" and assuming one of her most witching smiles, she added, "Miss Frasier has got a new Piano Forte of superior tone to her old one, besides being far more richly and beautifully finished."

"Well, what then child?" responded her father, with pensive gravity.

"Why, I was thinking-but you will b offended I fear." "Not in the least, unless you do wrong, as well as think. So you was thinking Piano had provoked! that"--- "I should like a Piano like Matilda's," was the half timid response of Janette.

er. "but what is the cost of such an article, daughter were all impatience for that which everlasting western country can have no my dear ?"

"Only fifteen hundred dollars father," and days remained to prepare for Janette's par- where folks live in small cabins don't know though we don't care much about it, yet Janette crouched down by his side and re- ty. Evening came, but Oakely was yet ab- much except digging, and hoeing, and loaf- there are a good many folks from them to protect vessels passing between New garded him with a fond depreciating smile. | sect and nothing had yet arrived. He came, ing, and are easily bamboozled-but here | parts here and about in the great. Western

Charles Oakely loved his daughter; his but much later than usual, yet he atoned every man stands strait up on his hind legs reserve,-they feel a kinder pride about it. hand pushed aside the rich tresses that shad- | partially for his delay by the more than usual ed her polished brow, and imprinting there. kindness of his manner. sasharares the cause on't most awful. on a parent's kiss, he added, "fifteen hundred "Where can you have been, Charles, so I wish some of the folks in our big cities, dollars is a large sum for such an article, late?" was the query of his wife, as she scat- who are considered considerable politicians day the great Clinton first floated in a canal my dear, is it not?" ed herself fondly by his side.

"True, father, but are you not as well uble to afford it as Mr. Frasiei ?"

in their way, and go round among the peo-"I have had an uncommon share of busi ple there, and get up processions, and banness to attend to, my dear, and I rejoice that ners and other night work, and humbug it is done. Come, daughter, bring forward 'em with notions about the importance of

"It may be so, but what say you my dear?" addressing his wife who had been a stlent the bible, and read a portion of it for our mu- carrying this ward or that ward, and that, "as goes sich and sich a ward so goes all but not a disinterested listener. tual instruction." "I am anxious that Janette should prevail.

The calm seriousness with which this creation." I wish, I say, they would come with you. She and Matilda are each to give | was uttered forbade any remark on his usu- out this way, and see the inside of the great a party soon, and I have a desire not to be al request. It so happened that Janette national pudding, they would feel pretty for solution. If our present rulers, with ble, and he abandoned all hope of recovereclused by her in the ornaments of the par- opened the book at the fifth chapter of Mat- small I tell ye. Why, till folks git on the three armies, one regiment of Bloodhounds, thew, beginning, "Blessed are the pure in western side of the Allegheny Mountains, and forty millions of money, cannot, in four lor."

"A most commendable pride," was the equivocal response! and by the time she had finished the first arter breakfast time into the Union. Every much time, what amount of money, and

"But," continued he, "what will you do with the old or rather the present new one? You surely do not want two." in all the violence of grief. Her mother, though, for a time, the men at the helm at

"O, we can soll it to Gen. Chandler !-from sympathy or other cause, was equally Washington may git the old ship on the first, shall go to the head of his class. Cy-Maria was admiring it much while here affected, nor was Oakely free from the same wrong track, and succeed by aid of fogs to pher away for your lives, gentlemen. yesterday, though the thought it rather high emotion. When his wife and daughter had keep the matter quiet, but as soon as trou-

' said Janette exultingly. "At what price my dear?" "The same it cost. When she found you had left it to her to set the price, she would the Major did'nt make him holler loud not take it at less. Do you think the sale a enough for the workmen to overhear him. folks-and no doubt in time the most on 'em It is our "Express" duty, however, to make would git an office, and that would give 'em Certainly--the best you ever made-behim heard by the workmen.

AT THE CABIN OF THE NORTH BEND. "Here is the check for the money-a third of the cash for the new one.' Outo, April 3, 1840. To the Downingville folks at home and the diggins, and the Gineral of course invi- ject of differences with the United States: "So you will lose only one thousand dollars after all, will you my dear?" was the elsewhere.

Fellow Citizens-The Ohio has riz, and and his people at the table; and arter the with the neighboring States appears to have grave response of her father. so has the hull Western resare-one by Gineral had ask'd a blessing and we all got greatly diminished, if not wholly to have "What say you," he continued, address ing his wife and daughter, "to a new carrihard rain and t'other by hard cider. In to work at the dishes, this "land receiver" age---the present one is somewhat soiled,

"By all means," was the exclamation of both! "Let the new one be fashioned like to do any kind of business-as the present Gineral and I tother side, and he thought it the hands of the General Government of Judge Arnold's, though not so sparingly mounted !"

Oakely bowed, as if in assent, while a bitter smile played over his features for a mo pockets for their wages. So there is no the making of any man like you who em- ly subsisting between two of the greatest ment, when all was calm again. The result use to do any thing, unless the wages of ploys laborers." "How so," says the Gin and most enlightened nations of the world, of the conference was a resolve to sell the the office-holders is to be cut down to hard eral. "Why," says he, "you know it will and in the maintenance of which their best principal part of the furniture-all of a cost money prices-jist as flour and grain and knock down the prices of labor, as Mr. interests are acknowledged mutually to couly character, and replace it with that more cotton is. The office-holders and other government than half price what is now paid, and the interrupted on light or insufficient grounds. fashionably splendid. Both mother and daughter retired to rest that evening full of folks out here are making great calculations difference then you know, goes right into importance, which their new display was on Eastern Elections; they say that old the pockets of the employer?" The Gineral neighbors. Alas for the poor Frasiers! They Treasury and no Credit"-and that New and says he, "Do you hear that, Major?" were to be overwhelmed by a competition York will follow and so forth. Well, I "Not exactly," says I, "Gineral. Now of public affairs under which we separate." in finery, which a fifteen hundred dollar don't know how that is-but other folks out says I, stranger, speak up a leetle louder this way don't seem to care if all East and for I am hard of hearing in my left ear; but, A few days sufficed to clear the house of New York City and State go that way, and says I, take care not to holler too loud, or its most valuable furniture. Enough was I don't wonder at their feeling a leetle in the workmen will overhear you" You nev left, however, for convenience and comfort, different-for folks living on the edge of er see a feller so cut down; he look'd like a ceedingly embarrassed in keeping the peo-"I thought as much," continued her fath- and when this was done, the mother and salt water, and never having been in this streaked bass three days out of water.

We are looking out here now to know was to replace what was gone. But two idea on't; it aint here as in some countries, how the Connecticut election has gone; and -when troubles is upon the country, and

-and "every little helps in the first go off," as the good old woman said when she empt. a repetition of the late border warfure." ied her wash-tub in the big Erie Canal, the boat thro' that "wild, costly and destructive State speculation."

Yours, with great respect. J. DOWNING, Major, &c. &c.

Only think of a war with Great Britain waged under the auspices of the present administration. Reader, here is a problem spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven," they haint got more than about a leetle years, conquer 500 Seminole Indians, how paragraph, her voice became chocked; and man knows the constitution here jist about what number of men and dogs will they reunable to proceed, she gave way to emotion as well us he knows how to plant corn: and quire to subdue Great Britain? The locofoco, that works out this problem was paraded in great form at the city mar-NEW BRUNSWICK .- The session of the Legislature of New-Brunswick was closed ket before being transferred to the boat. The excitement is beyond all precedent. Yesterday, this same critter called on the on the 31st ult. by a speech from the Lieut.

Prentice.

Gineral jist as the horn was blow'd for din- Governor, Sir John Harvey. The speech Business is almost at a stand. Nothing 18 talked of but Harrison and Reform. So ner, and the workingmen all come in from contained the following allusion to the subthat you can safely set Ohio down at 20,-000 majority, Kentucky at 15,000, and In-"The prospect of any further disturbance diana greater than either.

In Western Pennsylvania and Virginia, the same feeling exists. Hundreds are vanished, in consequence of the prudent all my born days I never have seen any or "Sub-Treasurer," got talking with the course adopted by our more immediate daily falling into the Whig ranks, all seething like it. As for business, the folks in Gineral about the advantages of the "Sub- neighbors of Maine, in having placed the ing the necessity of a change of Adminisall this quarter say there is no use in trying Treasury" system; and as he sot next to the conduct of the boundary dispute wholly in tration.

office-holders git pretty much all the money warn't necessary to talk loud, and so says the United States-thereby affording to both

GIRL.-dropping a curtesy.-"Yes, sir, can;-but I hate to, most plaguily.'

sist, will not be suffered to be disturbed or philosopher and practical men, and is, after "In now taking leave of you, therefore, 1 do so in the confident hope that nothing may | wisest men, judging by this criterion, have about to give them among their wondering Connecticut will go all hollow for "Sub- looked at him and then he looked at me, occur, during the recess, calculated to im- presumed that the depth of the sea may be pair the prosperous and satisfactory state measured by the height of the mountains,

> GEOGRAPHY.-- A London weekly paper informs its readers that "the two governments of Washington and Maine are exple of their respective provinces from actual hostilities upon the litigated questions of the otary. Register of Wills, or Clerk of Court HONEST POVERTY REWARDED .- A gen tleman of New York arrived at the Treshall be required by law, or an order of mont House a day or two ago on his way court, to publish any notice in the newspato Lowell, and while in the city had occa pers, and is allowed by law or said order to sion to exchange some money. He placed charge the expense of said officer to make the bills in his vest pocket, and took the out a bill showing specifically the amount actually paid for printing said notice, and if cars for Lowell. When he reached there said officer shall charge any other or greathe discovered that he had lost a five huner amount than actually he paid for publiskdred dollar bill. The loss seemed irreparaing said notice, he shall be subject to the. penalities prescribed by law for taking illeing the money.

"Her Majesty's troops are stationed there Brunswick and Lower Canada."

gal fees, to be sued for and recovered in the The gentleman returned from Lowell, and was not a little surprised to learn a mode prescribed by the 26th section of an Methodist clergyman, the Rev. T. C. act entitled an act establishing a fee bill, Pierce, had been put in possession of his passed on the 28th March, 1840; but submoney by an honest orange seller, named ject to the limitation contained in the 15th Connell, at the Lowell dopot, who had found section of the supplement to said ect, pasit there, the gentleman having dropped it sed the 22d February, 1821: Provided, That while procuring a ticket for the cars. The the penalty shall not take effect until the let first thing the gentleman did upon getting I day of Angust news?

American and British frontier;" and that An SCHOOLMASTER .- "Well, miss, can you that trade puts in circulation, and change it he, in a low tone, almost a whisper, "why countries the most satisfactory guaranty right off for hard money, and put in their Gineral, this Sub Treasury system will be that the peace and friendship now so happilecline a kiss?"

> DEPTH OF THE OCEAN.-The depth of the Ocean is a point which alike has puzzled all, left in the wide field of conjecture. The most probable guide is analogy; and the the highest of which are between twenty and thirty thousand feet. The greatest depth that has been tried to be measured, is that found in the Northern Ocean, by Lord Mulgrave. He hove out a very heavy sounding lead, and gave out along with it cable rope to the length of 4680 ft., with-

LEGAL NOTICES.-The following section of a bill recently passed both houses of the State Legislature is of importance, and par-English country Journal "regrets to hear licularly to the publishers of newspapers. that recent disturbances in Albany threaten who have suffered from the practice which

out finding bottom.

it is designed to correct:

"In all cases where any Sheriff. Prothon-