OUR COUNTRY.

BY W. J. PABOUIR, ESQ. Our country!-'tis a glorious land-With broad arms stretched from shore to shore. The proud Pacific chafes her strand, She hears the dark Atlantic roar; And nurtured on her ample breast, How many a goodly prospect lies In Naturo's wildest grandeur drest, Enamelled with her leveliest dyes.

Rich prairies, deck'd with flowers of gold, Like sunlit oceans roll afar; Broad lakes her azure heavens behold, Reflecting clear each trembling star, And mighty rivers, mountain-born, Go sweeping onward, dark and deep, Through forests where the bounding fawn Beneath their sheltering branches leap.

And cradled 'mid her clustering hills, Sweet vales in dreamlike beauty hide, Where love the air with music fills, And calm content and peace abide; For plenty here her fulness pours, In rich profusion o'er the land, And, sent to seize her generous stores, There prowls no tyrant's hireling band.

Great God! we thank thee for this home-This bounteous birthland of the free; Where wanderers from afar may come, And breathe the air of liberty!-Still may her nowers untrammelled Her barvests wave, her cities rise: And yet till Time shall fold his wing, Remain Earth's loveliest paradise!
