COUGH ASTEMA SPITTING OF RIOOD of Sixty Years Standing, curen by Dr Jayno's Expectorant!

PHILADELPHIA, August 16th, 1838. Mr. ATKINSON- Dear Sir: A few weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Carmonative, in restoring great number of passengers on board a Missia sippi steamboat, to perfect health who were affected with Bowel Complaint. I was glad to see you notice it so kindly; you may rest assured it eserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benofit I have received from this medicine, more especially his Expectorant, induces me to state my case to you for the bonefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been my misfortune, sr, to labor under a cough and asthmatical oppression, for more than half a century. When a soldier in the American camp, in 1778, I, with nany others, (owing to great exposure,) had a violent attack of disease of the Lungs, by which I was disabled from duty for a long time. Since that period until recently, I have never been from from a violent Cough and difficulty of breathing Year after year I have expectorated over a gill a day; often much more, and sometimes mixed with blood. For months together, night after night, I have had to sit or be bolstered up to obtain my breath. The weakness and debility caused by such constant expecteration, frequently brought me to a state horderin on death. been a matter of astonishment to my family and friends that I am here to write this to you. I have had skilful physicians to attend me, and every thing done that was thought likely to give me relief, without any heneficial effect. Last winter I had another severe attack of Inflame. tion of the Lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then considered my case as past the aid of medicine, when I was persuaded to call on Doctor Jayne. With the assistance of Divine Providence, through him, I was once more raised trom my bed, but the coughing and wheezing wearled me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant, 1 did so, with a strong hope that, as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the Lu gs, it might at least mitigate my sufferings. Need I say how gratifi ed I felt? It has EFFECTUALLY CURED me. As soon as I commenced taking it, I found it reached my case, and I began to breathe with more freedom. My expectoration became more easy. and my cough entirely left me. I now feel as well as ever I did in my life, and am better than I have been for the last sixty YEARS. Lust summor I spit a great deal of blood; now, thank God, I am perfectly cured Now, Sir, after suffering so long, and finding at last such signal relief from Jayne's Expectorant, I feel anxious to inform my follow citizens where relief may be had. their own sex. This is an important matter and should be borne in mind by those mothers who intend catering for their own, or their daughters' instruction and amusement. THE LADY'S BOOK has been published by the same Proprietor for nearly eleven years, and during that time he can safely say that no article has been admitted into its columns that parents might not with safety read to their chiliron. It has been his constant care to prevent the work from being sectorian, political or dispu-tations. He has watched its progress from its first appearance in the world of letters to its now almost mature age. How many vain efforts have been made during the period of its existence to establish a rivalry -- how many are still making, but in vain! The Book may almost be considered the creation of a taste for periodical litorature. There is but one magazine now in this country that can date its origin from the same period of the Ludy's Book; but the latter was the earliest periodical to offer remuneration for lite. rary contributions. General Contents -One original large sized ESPECTFULLY informs his old A Fashion plate coloured (mark that) overy Steel Engraving, by A. L. Dick, in each number.

Pictorial Embellishments, it is posititively the PARLOUR COMPANION. The Times aptly remarks that "a subscription to this work, would be a much more acceptable present to a fair friend during the coming holiday season, then any of the gingerbread annual made of Laura Matilda poetry and diluted prose. There are other publications that advertise FASHION PLATES. The Publisher of the Lady's Book wishes it to be distinctly understoo that the principal Fashions in his work ARE COLOURED, AND IN EVERY NUMBER; which is not the case with any other work pub lished in this country: unless they are coloured they are useless. The Literary Department is placed under the superintendence of Mrs SARAH J. HALE and Mrs. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY; two ladles so well known to the world, that to mention their names in connection with any publication is at once a guarantee of its morality, virtue, and util ity. Of their capability to conduct the LADY'S general, that he still continues to manufacity. Of their capability to conduct the LADY of BOOK, it is presumed no person will doubt, and the proprietor mentions with pleasure that no English or American Magazine can publish in connection with its literary Department two names so celebrated in the world of letters. It will be remembered that MISS LESLIE contributes to each number. The Musical Department is under the superintendence of J. G. OSBORNE, than whom no person is more capable of doing it justice. General Features .- Literature, Tales, Essays, Logends, Romantic Indidents in History, Extracts from the Old Poets, Roviews, Poetry, Femule Education, Embellishments, Fashions Co-

&c. &c. A great deal of curiosity is often expressed to see the Chiography of celebrated persons. We shall endeavor so far as lies in our power to grat ity this feeling, by giving from time to time correct imitations of the most celebrated writers of the day.

6m-18 Magazine may be looked for in the Lady's Book.

Our Reading Matter is about the same in quantity as any similar production, probably a little in favor of the Book. It would be foolish and false to say that it contains more, and the propri tor is not willing to condescend to such means for any supposed advancement of his interest-The paper is of the finest quality for periodical nee. And the typographical execution has long been a subject of congratulation with those best requainted with these matters.
