Delivered before the citizens of Petersburg (Y.

claim an extraordinary share of consideration for affections of his countrymen, but whose unspproachable excellence is already the property of purer lostre to the character of Washington. His grife upon Washington would be in vain on the policy of this illustrious man. And the consequences which would certainly result from the uniform observance of his injunctions, could not helding, and the expansion of his country; in short, with the none and renown and base errod no other purpose than to increase this purpose than to increase his reputation, and add to his glory. His whole his reputation, and add to his glory. His whole ingels to the possible together all the constituents of three policy for the renown in the policy of the sillustrious man. And the constituents of the same and institutions with a vigitant and jealous sys the honor and renown and beaustify humanity, that the usually oblivious flight of time has served no other purpose than to increase his reputation, and add to his glory. His whole in the policy of the same individual to a second torm of the Presidency. The sagacious mind of Mr. Jefferson early saw and the beautiful manually, and that the only legitimate right to govern is an appress grant of power from any the fever of his patients, and the morning of the policy of the same individual to a second torm of the Presidency. The sagacious mind of Mr. Jefferson early saw and the beautiful manually, and that the only legitimate right to govern is an appress grant of power from any the fever of his patients, and the morning of the presidency. The same and institutions of which we share the high power has a direction of the presidency. The same intention of the presidency. The same intention of the presidency and attempts have been the the only noblity of Nature. His first povisions. Ot the form to make the policy of the same individual to a second of the residency and the policy of the fearing the policy of the fear of the policy of th his name is familiar to the wandering Scythian."

Such are, and such ever will be, the legitimate rowards of exalted patriotism and virtue. What were all the trappings of royalty, or the arbitrary were warm and breathing personations of the virtues and the heroic deeds of the illustrious originate of the government which may be indeed the others. He was all the trappings of royalty, or the arbitrary extensive, embracing so great a variety of that republics can commit no greater error that re FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I had indulged in the and until time shall be no longer will be a test of with what patriotic pride they review the life of with adamantine strength. And we have only to der forms prescribed by the Constitution command of her armies and navies, to a pocommon expectation that you would be addressed the progress which our race has made in wisdom our Washington, and compare him with those of continue true to our own high duties; true to our by some of the distinguished strangers who were and in virtue to be derived from the venerations other countries who have been pre-eminent in own national principles; true to the glorious past scarcely less important of giving expression the he is the accountable agent, not the invited to be present on this occasion; and I likewise share the common disappointment which is wise share the common disappointment which is the production of Washington" (such is the lanfelt because of their non-attendance. Under these felt because of their non-attendance. Under these guage of another of his celebrated eulogist) "in often allied; but his fame is whiter than it is this germ of national greatness, the noble—the liability for injury to others, and that of a can be effected, public opinion may secure the national greatness, the noble—the liability for injury to others, and that of a can be effected, public opinion may secure

Fellow-citizens—There is something more than were but so many studies preparatory to the passifications. Fellow-citizens—There is something more than ordinarily interesting in this assemblage. The ordinarily interesting in this assemblage. The claims them because he is But if there is danger to public liberty ordinarily interesting in this assemblage. The there were; splendid exemplifications of some —such is his immortal memory. He shines, the reserved for Washington to blend them all in one, ancient Grecian is enriched with its apotheosized the meaning of passing events, nor attach undue and like the lovely master piece of the Grecian heroes and its men-gods; the Pantheon of pagan Rome bossts of its Romulus and its Remus; the hamilet. The twenty-second of February! It superior to that which imparts a matchless dignity practically realize its power. should come to us as richly fraught with permanent instruction as it is with passing conviviality. It should be made the season for recurring to the true principles of our social and political institutions. It should bring with its ennual returns and laws of the land. Its very observance should influence influes influes influes influes influes into us a portion of the importal Washington the constitution is the resulted framed of the convention with the min their hands. The admirable frame of republican government, and which secures to us our libertical career, on of the military brequests to some of his relatives, under which we live, and which secures to us our libertical career, on of the minimum to the words of the military brequests to some of his relatives.

The four first acts already past, A fifth shall close the drama with the day; Time's noblest offspring is the last;

Atthough the fiat of the People has gone both the most warmly disconting ment the Chief Magistrate of this glorious Union, nothing upon their part remaining to be done, it may be done, it may be done, it may be done, it may be thought that an motive may exist to keep up the forth, proclatming ment the Chief Magistrate of the Chief Magistrate of the Chief Magistrate of the grown under which the most warmly disconting ment the Chief Magistrate of the Chief Magistrate of the Chief Magistrate of the chief may be done, it may be done, has given us his very personation in that passage in which, speaking of the great Alfred, he remarks that the seemed, indeed, to be the complete model of that perfect character which, under the denomination of a sage or a wise man, the philosophers have been fond of delineating, rather as a fiction of their inagination, than in hope of ever seeing it reduced to practice; so happily were all his virtue tempered together; so justly were they blended; and so powerfully did each provent the other deals and securing and perpetuating the blessings of in which, speaking of the great Alfred, he remarks as a prodigy. His life baffled all speculation. The latter was a prodigy. His life baffled all speculation was prodiged. Washington's administration was preminently successful. His intercourse with form of a sage or a wise man, the philosophers bear found of delineating, rather as a fiction of their inagination, than in hope of ever seeing it reduced to practice; so happily were all his virtues tempered together; so justly were they blended; and so powerfully did each provent the other deals and securing and perpetuating the blessings of those exalted good to the greatest number. But, with these broad admissions, if we would compare the sovereignty acknowledged to exist in the mass of our People with the power as this can be effected by any legitimate to the mass of our People with the power beaution to a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shadow." With no out a model and without a shado the Heavens. We are talks of Washington in his tent, and that tal eye of each grateful Roman, those cold forms principles of our institutions. He exhorts us to were all the trappings of royalty, or the arbitrary distinctions of titled despotism, in comparison with the unsulfied radience of his name alone!—

Bow dissimilar is Washington's fame to that of whose name and achievements too many blindly idding, and whose very renown is built upon the compaction of time, it pleases the property of another hemisphere; and whose very renown is built upon the compaction of time are rendered. He compact with the others, he has never surposed the population of its various sections, of the population of its various sections, in the strongest language, his impresses upon us, in the strongest language, his deep conviction of the vital importance of national deep conviction of the property of an office of the property of an office of the property of an office ther of his country which the morose stoicism of common inheritance of all mortality-when he evils of excessive party spirit.

tearth, have emulated each other in the expression, of the American people to devise "the most suita- our country, as it ought to be. And they are, | racy, but of his assembled countrymen. | strengthens with his declining yours of its of ferrid admiration for the character of Wash- ble means of paying honor to the memory of the like the great characteristics of our country, fast Far different is the power of our sovereignty. Victim. If this is true, it is the part of Man first in war, first in peace, and first in the becoming the distinctive and controlling features It can interfere with no one's faith, prescribe wisdom for a republic to furnit the service Thus, one declares "that it will be the duty of hearts of his countrymen." The Senate of the ege. May it ever be thus. Thus are the forms of worship for no one's observance, of that office, at least to whom she has enthe Historian and the Sage in all ages to omit no United States, in their letter of condolence to foundations of the republic based upon mountains inflict no punishment but after well acer- trusted the management of her foreign reoccasion of commemorating this illustrious man; President Adams on that mournful event, declaro of granite, and the superstructure bound together tained guilt, the result of investigation un- lations, the execution of her laws, and the peculiar circumstances, I have consented to delivthe production of Washington it does really apbrilliant. The destroyers of nations stood absaled sublime spectacle of a hundred millions of freemen, full participation in all the advantages which that desired object. I give my aid to it by er a few remarks. You will certainly not expect pest as if nature was desirous to improve on here at the majesty of his virtues. It reproved the inhabiting a continent stretching from the Government, the acknowledge heretofore given, that pest as if nature was desirous to improve on here at the majesty of his virtues. It reproved the innuming a community and that all the virtues of the ancient world intemperance of their ambition, and darkened the tic to the Pacific ocean, cliving under the laws of edged property of all the American citizen under no circumstances, will I consent to Alfred, and speaking the language of Shakspeare derives from no charter granted by his fell serve a second term.

OF

infuse into us a portion of that lofty spirit which has given to the immortal Washington the conservated title, Pater Patrix! Let it serve to refersh our recollection of the wholesome and invalidation with the manner of Green or Roman oratory or patriotism, which valuable lessons which may be derived from the sincerity with which they are uttered. frequent study of his character and principles.—

Let it impel us to linger over the moral beauties you travel back to the days of the Brutuses and if used only with the forbearof his life; attentively contemplating the wisdom the Cates, in order to nerve your valor or stimulate by its silent provisions be called into safer and or dispel their fears. The outline of prin assigned to others. Limited as are the pow- ance and in the spirit which was intended of his precepts and the purity of his motives; your patriotism, when the decis and virtues of permanent action, by the continual exercise of this ciples to govern, and measures to be adopt ers which have been granted, still enough by its authors, it may be productive of great marking all the various excellencies so pre-emi- the father of his country are invested with so spirit. And, in times of high political excitement, ed by an Administration not yet begun, will have been granted to constitute a despotism, good, and be found one of the best safeguards nently blended in the man; and studying to be resplendent a radience? Surely, surely, the friends when the whole nation is rocked to and fro by soon be exchanged for immutable history, if concentrated in one of the departments. to the Union. At the period of the formawhat we behold; until (to use the beautiful senti- of human rights and human liberty, both at home the intensity of strenuous partizan effort, it ren- and I shall stand either exonerated by my This danger is greatly heightened, as it has tion of the Constitution, the principal does ment of a congenial spirit) "we contemplate his and abroad, who are sending up so many heartfelt dered doubly necessary to recur seriously to these countrymen, or classed with the mass of always been observable that men are less not appear to have enjoyed much favor character till all its virtues spread out and display aspirations for the prosperity of free government momentous subjects. Washington has left us the those who promised that they might delighted vision; as the earliest in this western republic, could breathe no more unfailing evidence of his regard and appreciation to bethomselves to our delighted vision; as the earliest astronomers, the shepherds on the plain of Baby-lon, gozed at the stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellation, overpowering at length the spirit which pervades these precepts of the beholders with the united blaze of the beholders with the united blaze of the stars till they saw them form into the stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellation, overpowering at length to be stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellation, overpowering at length to be stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellation, overpowering at length to be stars till they saw them form into clusters and constellation, overpowering at length to be started to the affairs of government, in times of the beholders with the united blaze of the beholders with the united blaze of the started the spirit which pervades these precepts of the started the affairs of government, in a spirit repulsion of the bighest political excitement, in a spirit repulsion of the bighest political excitement, in a spirit repulsion of the bighest political excitement, in a spirit repulsion of the bighest political excitement to the adoption of the bighest political excitement to the provision so apparently repugnant to the convulsion of kingdoms and cemented by the sed the Sovereign Disposer of all things to remind justice towards all nations—the cultivation of ocrat of Athens could console himself under Nothing can be more corrupting, nothing words of the constitution, and, therefore, not an almost idolizing people that there was, even in peace and harmony with all; and last, though not a sentence of death, for a supposed violation more destructive of all those noble feelings within the competency of the Judiciary to There is something in the character of the fa- the great Washington himself, that which is the least, he conjures us to guard against the slarming of national faith, which no one understood which belong to the character of a devoted declare void. and which at times was the subject of the republican patriot. When this corrupting That however enlightened and patriotic misenthropy and the pride of intellect, equally was gathered to his fathers—it is deeply affecting. Fellow-citizens.—The principles and policy of muckey of all, or of banishment from his passion of the human they might suppose, from past experience, yield to. The highest in worldly estimation, the even at this remote time, to look back upon the Washington are fast receiving that universal achome, his family, and his country, with or mind, like the love of gold, it becomes in members of Congress might be, and however which he hasendowed them.

time or other of their political career, on conformity to the Constitution, whilst the

Time, which but too often consigns to premature oblivion the memory and the deeds of the good and the great, has, in its Lethean flight, but to enshrine the remembrance, and add a pure lustre to the character of Washington. His actions and fame are so indissolubly associated.

himself a man, fushioned by the same At from the acknowledged defects of the Con character of the times in which we live, imparts to this and similar meetings, a peculiar interest and importance. I am sure I do not mis-interpret and importance I am sure I do not mis-interpret and importance I am sure I do not mis-interpret and importance I am sure I do not mis-interpret and importance I am sure I do not mis-interpret and patriotism. The mythology of the same I in one hands, there is, I apprehend, not much less Notwithstanding the limited sovereignty from a misconstruction of that instrument. possessed by the People of the United as it regards the powers actually given .elsim an extraordinary share of consideration for the pride of every model, and the perfection of the pride of every model, and the perfection of the pride of every model, and the perfection of the Bernard, its St. Ignatius, and others; and the constitute the Government which I had supwith the occasion we now honor.

We have met together for the purpose of commemorating another anniversary of the birth of memorating another anniversary of the birth of memorating another anniversary of the birth of memorating another anniversary of the birth of the continue for the prediction of the world, when speaking of the world to constitute the President a part of the objects for which it was created. It has the legislative power. It cannot be claim-Washington. We have come here for the purtered a few years before his birth, be true; if inits illustrious ornament and pride in the name great and free nation. I appear before you, been found powerful in war, and, hitherto, ed from the power to recommend, since,
and matchless worth of Washington.

| Commendation of the pur| Commendation Washington. We have come here for the purpose of paying the homage of our hearts to the principles and the character of that great man whose memory is not only enshrined first in the whose memory is not only enshrined first in the whose memory is not only enshrined first in the whose memory is not only enshrined first in the whose memory is not only enshrined first in the word of the western and national provided in the purpose that the grand powerful in war, and, inthorto, and matchless worth of Washington.

Fellow-citizens, to take the oaths which the justice has been administered, an intimate and matchless worth of Washington.

Constitution prescribes as a necessary qual- union effected, domestic tranquility preserving the deal it be designed by Providence that the grand and matchless worth of Washington.

Fellow-citizens, to take the oaths which the oaths which the oaths which the deal it be designed by Providence that the grand and matchless worth of Washington.

Constitution prescribes as a necessary qual- union effected, domestic tranquility preserving the deal it be designed by Providence that the grand and matchless worth of Washington.

Fellow-citizens, to take the oaths which the oath is eminently a spirit of progress. The present is And in obedience to a custom coeval with citizen. As was to be expected, however, may be something more of confidence in its age of results. It is stretching out its cause our Government, and what I believe to be from the defect of the language, and the the propriety of the measures recommendthe world, and the common heritage of the whole human race. Let us give full vent to our ardent how could this imposing, swelling, final scene, be armushies for all the associations which cluster appropriately opened, how could its intense in the language of the duties arisen as to the amount of power which it can be no difference. In the language of sympathies for all the associations which cluster around the day we celebrate. Let us exult in the consciousness of a new-born spirit of patriotism.

Once more, we stand up a common platform.—

isympathies for all the associations which cluster appropriately opened, how could its intense in- the eternat principles or justice on which is intense in- the eternat principles or justice on which is intense in- the eternat principles or justice on which is intense in- the eternat principles or justice on which is described upon to perform.

It was the remark of a Roman Consul, in grant.—This is more particularly the case ors' which it grants "are vested in the constitution, "all the legislative powers; overly the case of the unit of the instrument in the amount of power which is an early period of that calebrated Republications.

It was the remark of a Roman Consul, in an early period of that calebrated Republication to that part of the instrument in the distinct of the constitution, "all the legislative powers; overly the case of the constitution, and the legislative powers are unusually granted, or was intended to the Constitution, "all the legislative powers; overly are the case of the constitution, and the called upon to perform.

It was the remark of a Roman Consul, in an early period of that calebrated Republication to that part of the instrument in the case of the constitution in th Once more, we tand up a common parton.— Inguisity of the language which men of the most oppression. There is no logitimate or just govority which treats of the legislative branch. be a solecism in language to say that any vable in the conduct of candidates for offi. And not only as regards the exercise of pow. politicism, and assembled together, in the spirit of conduct; men of sober judgments and profound rulers. Equality is the only true basis of this ces of power and trust, before and after obtended under a general clause, giving that body the authority to pass all laws tution has given to the Executive the power and trust, before and after obtended under a general clause, giving that body the authority to pass all laws tution has given to the Executive the power and trust, before and after obtended under a general clause, giving them—they seldom carrying out that body the authority to pass all laws ing of Washington. And why should we wonder towards reason, humanity and religion all tend. in the latter case the pledges and promises necessary to carry into effect the specified er to annul the acts of the legislative body Fellow-citizens—This day is not without its at it! The fame of mere heroes, indeed, is grow—It is the friend and coadjutor of civilization, mormade in the former. However much the powers, but in relation to the latter also. by refusing to them his assent.—So a sim Fellow-citizens—This day is not without its at it. The issue of more deliver, indicating the contract of the more desired to the interest of the more desired to the many respects, but in relation to the interest of the many respects, but in relation to the interest of the many respects. It is however, consolutory to reflect that ilar power has necessarily resulted from that sober thoughts and its solomn spreads. And they ing vuigar: Dut since the world negat, the solomn spreads the whole land, receiving a voice been but one Washington. And his fame is principle of the age: it will be that of all ages to in the lapse of upwards of two thousand most of the instances of alleged departure instrument to the Judiciary: and yet the should pervade the whole land, receiving a voice been but one transmission. And the land of the management of the manage which are found together, throughout the country, on this day. They should be alike spoken in the town and in the country; in the city and in the town and in the country; in the city and in the country coun clusters and constellation, overpowering at length the syes of the beblders with the minied blass of a thousand light."

The availington. The will we impair to our fleeting corporation. The will we impair to our fleeting corporation. The will not be so transient. Thus do we, as it were, resulcitate the hallowed manne of the father of his country; and, in effect, restore, those golden days when his string worth—that daily beauty in infe-that all the relations which the sustained to the relations of the day were alarmed at the catent of the own which the more of the father of his country; the board form it any being the control of the power which had been granted to the relations of the day were alarmed at the catent of the own which the more of the father of his country; the board form it any being the profession of the father of his country; the substitution, for the adoption of the work which the merits of the whole mannety ment that the displayed no one quality in excess; that he shall be exposed, from the magnitude of the lower which the power which has billowed mannetic. There were all the power which has being the profession was not a great man can more lyment that the displayed no one quality in excess; that the hadden four profession to the believes which appeared not to be in harmonic was a power in the profession of the father of his country; the profession was not a simple representat which shone forth in him tempered; so pre-eminently were the elements of his nature adjusted mind deficient; no quality in excess; no false ensuring domestic tranquility; providing for the upon to administer it must recognise as its leaves, has been in that direction, it is, greatest of gamuses; the most splendidly and awed evidence of a nation's spontaneous, deep, and coptation and authority which they so well de- without an alleged cause; that it was the satiable. It is the never-dying worm in or largely particling, in the general, of the amenget men; in sheet, the pride and power of heartfelt grief, which was evinced in the anxiety serve. In truth, they are the very portrations of as implest; the pride and power of heartfelt grief, which was evinced in the anxiety serve. In truth, they are the very portrations of as implest; the pride and power of heartfelt grief, which was evinced in the anxiety serve. In truth, they are the very portrations of as implest; the pride and power of heartfelt grief, which was evinced in the anxiety serve. In truth, they are the very portrations of as implest.

ble to expect that bodies so constituted vorce, as it is called, of the Treasury from the I have spoken of the necessity of keeping the they speak, warning the People against the should not sometimes be controlled by local interests and sectional feelings. It was proper, therefore, to provide some umpire, therefore, to provide some umpire, from whose situation and mode of appoint. To this dam. from whose situation and mode of appoint. ger to our republican institutions, and that creathey respectively claim are often not defined by the master of the Roman people and the sen-to guard, protect, and defend the rights of all, and of every portion, great or small, from the injustice and oppression of the rest. I consider the veto power, therefore, given by the Constitution to the Executive of the officers can be officually checked by renewing to the control of the by the Constitution to the Executive of the United States, solely as a conservative power; to be used only, 1st, to protect the Conthan giving their own votes; and their own er; to be used only, 1st, to protect the Con stitution from violation; 2dly, the People from the effects of hasty legislation, where their will has been probably disregarded their own unbiased in their will has been probably disregarded.

Name with my coreant shall not describe the common of the dictates of their own unbiased in degree to the false Christs whose coming was fore.

from whose situation and mode of appointment more independence and freedom from such influences might be expected. Such a one was afforded by the Executive Department, constituted by the constitution. A person elected to that high office—having bis constituents in every section, State, and subdivision of the Union, must consider himself bound by the most solemu sanctions to guard, protect, and defend the rights of certary of the Trensury without communicating by their passions, lave been known to adopt to the Executive and that creating they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respectively claim are often nut defined by the master of the Roman people and the sent they respective their will has been probably disregarded or not well understood; and, 3dly, to prevent the effects of combinations violative of the rights of minorities. In reference to the second of these objects, I may observe that I consider it the right and privilege of the Econtive, which might be used with power to Congress to carry into effect the powers expressly given. And I believe, with Mr. Madison, "that repoated recognitions under varied circumstances, in acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, accompanied by indications in different modes of the con the office to the proble, compensate for his services of their own unbiased judgments. Never, with my consent, shall an officier, and of interests, the advantages of each of the rights of minorities. In reference to the power to the responsible will.

There is no part of the means placed in the People to decide disputed points of the Constitution, arising from the general grant of power to Congress to carry into effect the powers expressly given. And I believe, with Mr. Madison, "that repoated recognitions under varied circumstances, in acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, accompanied by indications in different modes of the con tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, accompanied by indications in different modes of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, accompanied by indications in different modes of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, accompanied by indications in different modes of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the con
tions under varied circumstances, in acts of the con tions under varied circumstances, i by indications in different modes of the concurrence of the general will of the nation, as affording to the President sufficient authority for his considering such disputed noints as settled."

of the general will of the nation, the guilty or to varnish crimes." A descent and thority for his considering such disputed noints as settled."

of the presses in the nocessary employment of the nation, of the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same person, at the same time, act as the citizen of two same person, at the same person, a thorsty for his considering such disputed points as settled."

Lipwards of half a century has elapsed since the adoption of our present form of government. It would be an object more highly desirable than the gratification of the curiosity of speculative statesmen, if its precise situation could be ascertained, a should never be looked to for schemes of finance.

Should be not only telerated but encouraged.

Upon another occasion I have given my oplanies in the legislation of constitution many modes of the constitution with the citizen. States his adv.ce as the citizens of other States his adv.ce as the citizens of the time being, a citizen. He may indeed to the citizens of other States his adv.ce as the chart of the character of the allies which it is to be that of liberty, is harsh, vindictive the charse, to be that of liberty, is harsh, vindictive to the chiral the max dealers of the character of the allies which it is to be that of liberty, is harsh, vindictive to the chiral the max dealers of the character of the allies which it is to be that of liberty, is harsh, vindictive to the fair exhibit made of the operations of each of its Departments of the powers which they respectively claim and exercise. of them, or between the whole Government and those of the States, or either of them.

Considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to do so. Some of our best political maxims and the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to do so. Some of our best political maxims and the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to do so. Some of our best political maxims and the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether different department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether department of the government should be permitted to the considered proper that an altogether department of the government should be permitted to the cons We could then compare our actual condition and opinions have been drawn from our parent has for so many years been preserved. Nover and established amidst unusual professions they respectively claim and exercise, of the collisions which have occurred between the collisions which have o

The second of controls of the control of the contro

REPUBLICAN BANNER. burg, on Tuesday the 16th day of March next, at 1 o'clock, p. w.

Gen. Harrison's Inuagural

The Federal Lucofoco convention, which met and a one story Brick Back Buil

Correspondence of the Gettysburg Star and Banner. on which are erected a

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Sheriff's Sales.

AN pursuance of a Writ of Veditioni Ex mon Pleas of Adams county, and to me directed, will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Court house, in the horough of Gettys-

A Tract of Land

TWO STORY BRICK HOUSE,

---AL50--

Huntington township, Adams county, Pa situated in Cumberland township. Adams county, containing FIFTY ACRES, more ponas, issued out of the Court of Com-