From the Casket.

A KISS.

A kiss—O, 'tis a magic spell That wildly thrills the breast, And bids it with emotion swell, When lip to lip is pressed: 'Tis friendship's pledge—affection's seal— And though a transient bliss, Yet still the coldest heart must feel The rapture of a kiss.

A kiss 'tis love's own tender breath— Fond language of the heart— The last communion hold in death, When friends forever part. When gloomy cares disturb the breast, No charm can soothe like this; The mind is sweetly lulled to rest, Beneath a magic kiss.

A kiss! yes, 'tis a magic delight, Whose memory often cheers, And shines through clouds serenely bright, Recalling bygone years: Who hath not felt the bosom, With an ecstatic bliss, As loving souls together meet In transports glowing kiss.

A BOSOM FULL—A female in Baltimore was suspected recently by a storekeeper of secreting in her bosom a skein of worsted, and he insisted upon searching her, to which she objected for some time, but being threatened with exposure, she consented. He found concealed in her bosom the worsted, two shawls, a pair of stockings, and to his astonishment, a pair of skates.

CONSECRATION OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS.—Dr. Chance was consecrated Bishop of Natchez on Sunday last at Baltimore, and on Sunday next at the same place, the Rev. Richard Whalen will be consecrated Bishop of Richmond Va. Of the latter gentleman the following entertaining anecdote is told. Some twelve months past, a member of Congress from Maryland with some few friends strolled into a new church that was being built at Bath, Va. They found in it only one workman, up to his elbows in the mortar. Pray sir, asked they, who is the architect of this church? I sir! Who is the mason? I sir! Who is the pastor? I sir.—N. Y. Express.

BAD ORTHOGRAPHY.—The Newark Daily Advertiser, in noticing the evils of bad orthography, uses the following language: "Our newspapers are doing more, we fear, to derange our orthography than Dr. Webster will do to arrange it. This proverbial inaccuracy is doubtless owing mainly to the carelessness or incompetence of proof-readers, whose business it is to exercise a watchful supervision over the printers. The English papers are better paid, and are consequently more accurate. They are made up with greater care, every department being under separate and competent control, and the best of the London prints undergo such careful supervision, that they may be received as authority in orthography. But, besides this general carelessness, a long list of words might be selected which are almost habitually selected. "Afterward and toward, for example, are almost always printed with a final s. Allege is spelled with a d nineteen times out of twenty. Crystal is usually written with a superfluous h; decrepity with a d; expense with a c; practice for practise; prophecy for prophesy—the orthography of the verb in both cases being mistaken for that of the substantive. Visitor and survivor are generally spelt with an o. Tithe and cipher are almost universally written with a y; and twattle, a very good old English word, lately dug up, is converted into twaddle."

The Hartford Courant says, "we would just merit those whose trees were destroyed by worms last year, that this is the only time for boring and phasing sulphur in them. We have never known the experiment to fail when made before the sap rises, though it is of course entirely useless to do it afterward."

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says, that on Friday last Gen. Harrison made an informal visit to the departments of war and navy; at the latter, an incident quite amusing occurred.—The press for several days past on the heads of departments for office being almost unprecedented, the Secretary gave positive orders to the messenger, not to allow any one to enter his room, without appraising him who it was that wished to have an intercourse with him.—After a while, the old General approached, and enquired if he could see the Secretary; the messenger, not recognizing the President replied that he could not, until he had informed the Secretary who wished to see him. Some one standing by, whispered to the messenger that this was the President; the faithful fellow, however, said that, "it did not matter—his orders were to let no one enter without leave from the Secretary." The old General laughed heartily at the joke, and awarded him great credit for being so faithful a sentinel.

OLDEN TIME.—An old gentleman by the name of Benjamin Garrison, a resident of our County, visited our place on Friday last. Mr. G. is 103 years old, and is remarkably active for a man of his years, having rode twelve miles that morning to transact some business in person.—Waynesburg (Pa.) Dem.

JOSEPH BONAPARTE.—The Count de Survilliers [Joseph Bonaparte] whose health suffered severely in the autumn, has had it quite re-established. The poor of Monk's Kirby, a village adjoining the domain of Newham Paddock, where the Count resides, have had 25 guineas distributed amongst them by his orders. The uniform benevolence displayed by the ex-King during his protracted residence in this country would seem to indicate that the epithet of "the good Joseph," applied to him by Madame Junot in her memoirs, was fully merited.—He is extremely popular in his neighborhood.—Eng. papers.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Hon. D. DURKEE, Esq. President of the several Courts of Common Pleas, in the Counties composing the 19th District, and Justice of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and General Jail Delivery, for the trial of all capital and other offenders in the said District—and Wm. M'CLEAN and Geo. WILL, Esquires, Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and General Jail Delivery, for the trial of all capital and other offenders in the County of Adams—have issued their precept, bearing date the 27th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Common Pleas and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and General Jail Delivery, and Court of Oyer and Terminer, at Gettysburg, on Monday the 26th day of April next—

Notice is hereby Given, To all the Justices of the Peace, the Coroner, and Constables, within the said County of Adams, that they be then and there, in their proper person, with their Rolls, Records, Inquisitions, Examinations, and other Remembrances, to do those things, which to be done and also they who will prosecute against the prisoners that are, or then shall be, in the Jail of the said County of Adams, are to be then and there, to prosecute against them as shall be just. GEO. W. M'CLELLAN, Sheriff. March 16, 1840. 10

To the Directors of Common Schools in Adams County.

Gentlemen.—The following statement is made in accordance with the school law, passed in 1836. I am yours, respectfully, FRIS. R. SHUNK, Supt. Com. Schools. HARRISBURG, Feb. 23, 1841.

The amount of tax every district must levy to entitle itself to its share of State appropriation is a sum equal to at least sixty cents for every taxable inhabitant in the district, according to the last triennial enumeration made in the spring of 1839. A list of taxables in each district is hereto appended. Districts that have already accepted the Common School system, and received their share of the appropriation for former years, will on levying the proper amount of tax, be entitled under existing laws to receive for the school year 1842, which commences on the first Monday of next June, one dollar for every taxable.

Districts which have not received any part of the appropriation of former years, but which accept the system for the first time, at the annual election in March next, and levy the proper amount of tax, will under existing laws receive $4 40 for every taxable in the district in 1835, and $3 00 for every taxable in 1839, according to the annexed list. These sums, by a resolution passed April 13th, 1840, will remain in the State Treasury for the use of non-accepting districts, until the first of November, 1841, and no longer.

Number of taxable inhabitants in the several School districts of the county, according to the enumerations of 1835 and 1839.

Table with 4 columns: District Name, 1835, 1839, and another 1839 column. Rows include Berwick, Conowingo, Cumberland, Franklin, Freedom, Germany, Gettysburg, Hamilton, and Hamiltonban.

FARMERS!

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, and the Farmers, particularly, that he has ready for delivery his Improved Two Horse THRASHING MACHINES;

One of which is now in the possession of Mr. Abraham Fisher, residing in Menallen township, Adams County, Pa. Messrs. Fisher and Forney having fairly tested the utility of this machine, furnish the following Certificate:— We certify, that we have in use one of Mr. S. H. LITTLE'S PATENT HORSE POWERS, and believe it to be decidedly superior to anything of the kind we have ever seen. From the small degree of friction and the rapidity of motion, two horses have thrashed at the rate of two hundred dozen a day, with the greatest ease, and without injury to the grain. ABRAHAM FISHER, DANIEL FORNEY. Menallen township, Sept. 5, 1840.

WE, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have seen one of S. H. LITTLE'S Two Horse Patent Portable Thrashing Machine in use and can assure the Farmers and the Public that it is worthy of the highest praise and patronage, as two horses can do the work of four with more ease and less hands. It saves one half the labour and performs the work in the best manner possible. It possesses a decided advantage over any other machine, being less liable to get out of order, and easily to be removed. To see it in operation is sufficient to satisfy any one of its great utility and the propriety of our statement. George Smyser, John F. M'Farlane, David Ziegler, Wm. N. Irvine, C. Aughinbaugh, David Troxel, Jr. Joseph Little, Amos Maginly, James D. Paxton, David M'Murdie, John Scott, Quintin Armstrong, Barnhart Gilbert.

Farmers who have been waiting for something better than heretofore offered for sale, will find this to be the article. Come see it, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. S. H. LITTLE. Gettysburg, Sept. 22, 1840. 11-26

Garlegant's Balsam of Health,

Prepared only by the sole proprietor, JOHN S. MILLER, Frederick, Md. THE subscriber has just received a further supply of this valuable medicine, which has gained a celebrity which few other articles have received in so short a time as this; the sale of which, has constantly increased, and will continue to increase, as its merits are made known. This celebrated BALSAM OF HEALTH, is a medicinal and vegetable compound, warranted a safe and effectual remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia, and for the whole train of diseases resulting from, and connected with a disordered condition of the stomach and liver, or derangement of the digestive functions. As a family medicine it stands unrivalled, and should be possessed by all heads of families, particularly by all those that are subject to a constipation of the bowels: it operates as a gentle aperient, gives a tone and action to the stomach and bowels, and enervating and invigorating the whole system. This Balsam of Health does not contain a particle of Mercury, but it is composed altogether of vegetable matter, which renders it perfectly harmless, and it is no hindrance to business, nor any proper customary employment and habits. The proprietor could give a great many certificates of cures performed by this medicine in this advertisement, if it did not occupy so much room; therefore he declines to quote any such certificates, as all those who wish to see them can, by applying to his agent in this place. ALBANY LOCK HOSPITAL. SYPHILIS.

Omnis Principis obsta. ENCOURAGED by the uniform success attending his peculiar method of treatment, for the prevention and cure of venereal complaints, and confirmed by the experience of many years in a widely extended practice, suitable also of the happy effects resulting to the community, from having confined himself entirely to the study and care of a class of diseases which there is every reason to deplore are too prevalent. Dr. COOKE continues to direct his sole attention to the treatment of every disorder that occurs from impudence, whilst under the influence of intemperance or any other baneful excitement, and to the cure of those dreadful maladies, which too often arise therefrom. These commences in a most simple form, and through neglect or injudicious treatment afterwards assume more aggravated states of disease, occasioning abscess ulceration, nodes, caries of the bones, pseudo syphilis, cancer, premature old age, and too often end in a protracted incurable state of miserable existence. Dr. COOKE though professing exclusively the study and cure of these particular complaints, deems it proper to inform his friends and the public in general, in justice to his professional character, that he was properly educated and regularly initiated into every branch of the profession as a general Practitioner in Europe. Dr. COOKE may be consulted therefore at all times, as usual at his office, which are properly fitted up and arranged for confidential consultation. Country patients residing at a distance—and all other patients who prefer writing instead of a personal interview—can be treated with equal success on describing minutely their case by letter, and enclosing a remittance for advice and medicine. There will be no difficulty in sending packages to any part of the United States, and the medicines will be securely packed, carefully protected from observation, and sent without delay to the place appointed.
