

PARABLES.

SPOILER! SPARE THE OAK.

On hearing that it was in contemplation some time ago to break up "Old Ironsides," Oliver Wendall Holmes, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, poured forth the following soul-stirring effusion. It has not its superior in as many lines of American poetry:

OLD IRONSIDES.

Ay, tear her tattered ensign down! Long has it waved on high, And many an eye has danced to see That banner in the sky; Beneath it rang the battle shout, And burst the cannon's roar; The meteor of the ocean air Shall sweep the clouds no more!

DEFINITIONS.

Bonnet. A kind of inverted coal hod in which ladies' heads are carried. Misery. The life of an unpaid printer. Nothing. The conscience of a thorough politician. Umbrella. Common property. Independence. A strong determination to place yourself where you are not wanted. Tempest. Something that comes to married people after the honeymoon. Merit. That which receives no praise. Money. A fish peculiarly difficult to catch. The Grave. An ugly hole in the ground which lovers and poets wish they were in, but take uncommon pains to keep out of. Modesty. A beautiful flower that flourishes in secret places. Sensibility. A quality by which its possessor in attempting to promote the happiness of other people loses his own. A young man of talent. An impertinent scoundrel who thrusts himself forward; a writer of execrable poetry; a person without modesty; a noisy fellow; a speech maker. Lawyer. A learned gentleman who rescues your estate from your enemy and keeps it himself. My Dear. An expression used by a man and wife at the commencement of a quarrel. Watchman. A man employed by the parish to sleep in the open air. Rural Felicity. Potatoes and turnips. Thin Shoe. An article worn in winter by high spirited young ladies who would rather die than conceal the beauty of their feet.

RECIPE FOR THE LADIES.—Cream may be frozen by simply putting it into a glass vessel, and then placing the whole in an old Bachelor's bosom.

'RUNNING FOR AN OFFICE.'—'Hallow, where are you going?' 'I'm running for an office.' 'What office?' 'Squire Dox's—don't stop me—I'm sued.'

In speaking of the transmigration of souls, a dandy wittily observed, that he remembered being the only golden calf. "And now you've only lost the gliding," replied a lady.

BENEFIT OF HEMP.—A worthy farmer while tilling his ground was accosted by two suspicious characters, men who had frequently been suspected of sheep-stealing. "Well farmer," said one, "you labor hard, and we reap the benefits of your labor." "Aye, aye," replied the old man, "you speak true; I am about to sow hemp."

Johnny where's my razor? (bawled an Eastern shoreman, as he stood before the looking-glass duly prepared for the operation of shaving) "Why, daddy, I've just done opening oysters with it." "Well tar-pation take the boy, run and rub it on a brick bat, and by gosh, if you ever do the like again, if you shan't grind it."

STUDY OF HISTORY.—Scholars have generally a better idea of ancient than of modern history, because they study it more comprehensively. The boy's mind gets confused amid the multiplicity of wars, treaties and revolutions which crowd the pages of our modern records. Objects so near the eye are always confused; we must remove them to a certain distance to give a good aerial and lineal perspective.

DIFFIDENCE.—A man gets along faster with a sensible married woman in hours than with a young girl in whole days. It is next to impossible to make them talk, or to reach them. They are like a green walnut; there are half a dozen outer coats to be pulled off one by one and slowly before you reach the kernel of their characters.

MAN AND WOMAN.—Men are like horse-beans, the outside is good for nothing, but, with good boiling, they make a nourishing dish; women are like the more delicate bush-bean, in which bean and pod, inside and outside, are equally excellent.

NEWSPAPERS.—I positively never knew a man in the country who was too poor to take a newspaper. Yet 2 out of 3, even respectable people, read no papers but what they borrow. As I speak generally, I hope I offend none. If I do, the greater the necessity to speak out.—How many who think themselves too poor to take a newspaper, pay as much daily for drink. Miserable man! thou art poor indeed!

Doctor Franklin.

GENERAL HARRISON'S FAMILY.—Most sincerely do we mingle condolences with this bereaved family. We know well, as all must, that the blow that has lighted down upon them from the hand of the Almighty, is heavy and severe. But it must be of exceeding consolation to them that a nation weeps with them, and that a nation will revere the character, and cherish the memory, of one they loved so much and so worthily.

The following relatives of Gen. Harrison were present in the city on the day of his funeral, viz: Mrs. Jane Harrison, of Ohio, [son's widow] and two sons. Mrs. Taylor, of Va., [niece] a daughter and two sons. Pike Harrison, [grandson] son of J. C. S. Harrison and grandson of Gen. Pike. Mr. D. O. Coupland, of Va. [nephew.] Henry Harrison, [grand nephew] son of the preceding, who has acted as confidential Secretary of the President. Dr. John Minge, of Charles city, Va. [nephew.]

We may also add the name of Mrs. Findlay, of Ohio, who adopted Mrs. Jane Harrison as a daughter, and who almost invariably occupied the right hand of the President at his table. The following are the surviving relations who were absent. Mrs. Harrison, the General's bereaved wife. John Scott Harrison, the only living son. Mrs. Judge Short, eldest daughter. Mrs. Dr. Thornton, daughter. Mr. Taylor, daughter. All these are living at or near North Bend. Mr. Taylor and his wife and family were expected to become members of the President's family for the whole term of his service.

The following are the names of the deceased members of the family. Lucy Harrison, a daughter, married Judge Esto. J. C. S. Harrison, a son married Miss Pike. Both dead. Wm. H. Harrison, jr., married Miss Jane Irwin. His widow presided at the President's table, and her personal graces have commended her to the affections of all who have had the pleasure to know her. Dr. Benjamin Harrison, a son. Died the last summer. Carter B. Harrison, a son, who was a lawyer of fine talents, and accompanied General Harrison to Columbia. Died two years ago. All of the sons left children.—Madisonian.

THE WHIGS TRIUMPHANT IN CONNECTICUT.—The Whigs have just achieved a signal victory in Connecticut. They have elected their entire State and Congressional Tickets, and by majorities, it is believed fully equal to those of last fall. Both branches of the state Legislature are also Whig.

THE SUCCESSION.—General Harrison was inaugurated on the 4th of March, and died on the morning of the 4th of April—thus having discharged the duties of Chief Magistrate, barely one month. His death is the first instance of such visitation, in the Chief Magistracy of the nation since the foundation of the existing form of government. The office of Vice President was devised and created by the framers of the Constitution, with a view to this or a similar contingency. The present National Union went into operation on the 4th of March, 1789. And it is only in the case of the ninth president, in the fourteenth official term of the Presidency, and in the fifty-third year of our existence as a united people under the Constitution, that the demise of President Harrison, calls into action the distinctive and distinguishing attributes of the second officer of the Government. By virtue of a constitutional provision, the office of President of the United States devolves upon Vice president John Tyler, of Virginia—an honorable and honored son of an Ancient Commonwealth. By another provision of the Constitution, in case of the death of other disability of both President and Vice President, Congress is empowered to determine the temporary succession. In pursuance of this Constitutional provision, a law was accordingly passed by the first or second Congress, declaring that in case of the removal by death or otherwise of the President and Vice President, the President pro tem. of the senate or if there be no such officer at the time then the Speaker of the House of Representatives, shall act as President, until the disability be removed, or a President elected.

The financial history of Florida, as presented by one of her presses, given to exaggeration, we must think, presents a state of things not very creditable to the territory, or those who have had the management of affairs there. In West Florida $500,000, it is said, were borrowed to build a railroad; every cent has been squandered, not one foot of railroad has been constructed, and we would ask the inhabitants of that District, wherein they are benefitted. In Middle Florida $300,000, was issued to create the capital of the Union Bank.—Five sixths (or nearly the whole) of the amount borrowed was divided among eighty individuals. That they suddenly become the possessors of plantations and slaves, of showy castles, mahogany furniture, carriages, silver spoons, silk dresses, watches, and tawdry jewelry. The end of all this is represented as being as ruinous to the men as it is disgraceful. In East Florida, it is said, the outbreak of the Indians arrested the operations of the Life and Trust Co. Only $400,000 have been issued, and only 250 bonds sold.

VIRGINIA AND NEW YORK.—The Richmond Whig of the 27th ult. says: "We have been permitted to examine Gov. Patton's letter to Gov. Seward, surrendering the fugitive Curry to the demand of the latter, and we shall spread it before the country on Monday. While it recognizes the right of New York, and complies with that right, to demand the surrender of a fugitive from her justice, it insists in the strongest terms upon the reciprocity of the constitution obligation. It abates no jot or tittle of the rights of Virginia, but on the contrary urges them with increased and irresistible force. We are much deceived if Gov. Patton's letter does not command a high degree of popular admiration.

"We are sincerely, and we think most rationally, in the hope that the conduct of Virginia, if it does not avail to sober down Gov. Seward, will command the approbation of the people of New York, and prevail with them in addition to their previous possessions, to procure the justice to which we are entitled. It boots not now by what means this question has become serious: It has become serious, and we trust that the people of New York will compel their Governor so to regard it. While resting alone with Gov. Seward, we would not consent for one to regard him as the State, and his action as that of the people; but it has now assumed a different aspect, and we call upon New York to put down faction, by recognizing her constitutional obligations, and doing, not as she would, but as she has been done by."

"Pa, what is a spirit stirring speech!"—"Observations made while preparing one's toddy, my child."

Her symptoms were general debility, attended with a constant Cough, pain in the side, breast and back, with other symptoms indicative of Pulmonary Disease, not essential to intimate. After using the second bottle of this invaluable medicine, her Cough entirely disappeared, and her strength increasing fast, and by the time she used two bottles more, she found herself freed from all pain and other unpleasant symptoms which attended her disease. She is now enjoying perfect health, and willing to give any information respecting her cure; likewise recommends this Syrup to all afflicted with a Cough or a disease of the Lungs. LOG CABIN RIFLE.

PROPOSITION WORTH CONSIDERING. To induce persons to act as agents for procuring subscribers to the RIFLE we submit the following proposition. For $35 we will send one hundred copies to not more than ten addresses. For $15 forty copies to not more than four.

For $5 twelve copies to one address. This will afford over twenty-five per cent to agents for their trouble, and as every one can procure one hundred or more subscribers, in their own neighborhood, he will be doing a fair business in these hard times. Any one to make it a business for a month could procure two or three thousand at least, as no body will refuse to pay fifty cents for a paper for six months during so exciting a campaign as the approaching one will undoubtedly be. ALBANY LOOK HOSPITAL. SYPHILIS.

OMNES Principis obsta. ENCOURAGED by the uniform success attending his peculiar method of treatment, for the prevention and cure of venereal complaints, and confirmed by the experience of many years in a widely extended practice; sensible also of the happy effects resulting to the community, from saving himself of patients who study and care of a class of diseases which there is every reason to deplore are too prevalent.

Dr. COOKE continues to direct his sole attention to the cure of this disorder that occurs from intemperance, whilst under the influence of intemperance or any other baneful excitement, and to the cure of those dreadful maladies, which too often arise therefrom. These sometimes commence in a most simple form, and through neglect or injudicious treatment afterwards assume a more aggravated state of disease, occasioning abscess ulceration, nodes, caries of the bones, pseudo syphilis, cancer, premature old age, and too often end in a protracted incurable state of miserable existence.

Dr. COOKE though professing exclusively the study and cure of these particular complaints, deems it proper to inform his friends and the public in general, in justice to his professional character, that he was properly educated and regularly initiated into every branch of the profession as a general Practitioner in Europe. Dr. COOKE may be consulted therefore at all times, as usual at his offices, which are properly fitted up and arranged for confidential consultation. Country patients residing at a distance—and all other patients who prefer writing instead of a personal interview—can be treated with equal success on describing minutely their case by letter, and enclosing a remittance for advice and medicine. There will be no difficulty in sending packages to any part of the United States, and the medicines will be securely packed, carefully protected from observation, and sent without delay to the place applied for. This Balsam of Health does not contain a particle of Mercury, but it is composed altogether of vegetable matter, which renders it perfectly harmless, and it is no hindrance to business, nor any proprietary employment and habits. The proprietor could give a great many certificates of cures performed by this medicine in this advertisement, if it did not occupy so much room; therefore he deems it quite unnecessary, as all those who wish to see them can, by applying to his agent in this place.
