STAR & BEPUBLICAN BANNER

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utter, and to argue, freely, is above all other liberties."-MILTON.

POB. XIII.—NO. S.

CDTTTSBYRG. PA., TWBSDAY, APRIL 27, 1841.

Wellokie spo. 875.

Office of the Star & Banner COUNTY BUILDING, ABOVE THE OFFICE OF THE REGISTER AND RECORDER.

I. The Stan & REPUBLICAN BANNER is pubished at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in adpances of TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CENTS. if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

II. No subscription will be received for a shorter period than six months; nor will the paper be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. A failure to notify a discontinuance will be considered a new engagement and the paper forwarded accordingly.

III. ADVENTISEMENTS not exceeding a square will be inserted THRER times for $1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion-the number of insertion to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Lettersand Communications addressed to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to.

THE GARLAND.

_... With sweetest flowers enrich'd From various gardens cull'd with care."

WHO ARE THE FREE?

BY JOHN CRITCHLY PRINCE.

We copy, says a late English paper, the following verses from The Chaplet, a Poetical Offering for the Lyceums Bazaar,' Manchester. The piece is a worthy gift to the cause of popular education, by, we believe, an operative:--

Who are the Free? They who have scorned the tyrant and his rod, And bow'd in worship unto none but God; They who have made the conqueror's glory dim Unchain'd in soul, tho' manacled in limb-Unwarp'd by prejudico-unawed by wrong, Friends to the weak, aed fearless of the strong; They who could change not with the changing

The self same men in peril and in power; True to the law of right, as wermly prone To grant another's as maintain their own; Foes of oppression, whereso'er it behour:

These are the proudly free!

Who are the Great?
They who have boldly ventured to explore Unsounded sess, and lands unknown before-Soar'd on the wings of science, wide and far, Measured the sun, and weigh'd each distant sta Pierced the dark depths of ocean and of earth, And brought uncounted wonders into birththe pestilence, restrained the storm, And given new beauty to the human form-Waken'd the voice of reason, and unfurled The page of truthful knowledge to the world: They who have toil'd and studied for mankind Aroused the slumbering virtues of the mind-Taught us a thousand blessings to create:-These are the nobly great!

Who are the wise?

They who have govern'd with a self-control Each will and baneful passion of the soul-Curb'd the strong impulse of all fierce desires, But kept alive affection's purer fires: They who have passed the labyrinth of life, Without one hour of weakness or of strife; Prepared each change of fortune to endure; Humble the' rich, and dignified though poor-Skill'd in the latent movements of the heart-Learn'd in the lore which nature can impart-Teaching that sweet philosophy aloud, Which sees the "silver lining" of the cloud, Looking for good in all beneath the skies: These are the truly wise!

Who are the blest? They who have kept their sympathics awake, And scattered joy for more than custom's sake; Steadfast and tender in the hour of need. Gentla in thought-benevolent in deed; Whose looks have power to make dissension cease Whose smiles are plassent, and whose words are Pesco; They who have lived as harmless as the dove, Teachers of truth and ministers of love; Love for all moral power-all mental grace-Love for the humblest of the human race-Love for that tranquil joy that virtue brings-Love for the Giver of all goodly things; True followers of that soul exalting plan, Which Christ laid down to bless and govern m They who can calmly linger at the last, Survey the future, and recall the past; And with that hope which triumphs over pain, Feel well assured they have not lived in vain; Then wait in peace their hour of final rest: These are the only blest!

MISOBLLANDOUS.

THE THREE BRIDES.

hillocks yonder, side by side?-There sleep with the effects of careful cultivation.you may observe a little isolated house with ger pause by the garden gate, to listen to God. a straggling fence in front, and a few stun-strains of the sweetest music, breathed by ted apple trees on the ascent behind it. It choral voices from the cottage. If the is sadly out of repair now, and the garden my sterious student and his wife were neg- unto him, in the sight of all Israel,—Be superstitious, and give ready credence to against the sides, and the wind tearing the after a few hours illness, died in the arms of was full of the spirit of wisdom. For Mo. every thing but kill the buffalo .- Boston pa. grey shingles off the roof. Many years a- her husband and her sister Madeline. This see had laid his hands upon him." no there lived in that house an old man and his son, who cultivated the few acres of arable ground that belong to it.

moreever their vanity was wounded by dis- Madeline. covering the extent of his knowledge.

on his brow. He thanked his friends for facetheir kindness, acknowledged their courtesy, and then strode away from the grave to bury his grief in the privacy of his deserted The bride uttered a frantic shriek.

and there was a time when he dreamed (vain fool) of immortality. Some of his must be!" productions came before the world. They set on foot in the hope of discovering the author. He, wrapped in the veil of impenevonder lone mansion, and from this region, to send forth lays which astonished the expressed all the horror he felt! world, was indeed a triumph to the visionary bard. His thirst for fame was gratified, and he now began to yearn for the companionship of some sweet being of the other sex, to ing, answer. share the laurels he had won, and to whisper consolation in his ear in moments of despondency, and to supply the void which the death of his old father had occasioned. a refined intercourse with a highly intellectual and beautiful woman, and as he had chosen for his motto 'whatever has been done may still be done,' he did not despair of success. In this village lived three sis- tain of Israel, and our lamented Harrison, ters, all beautiful and accomplished. Their names were Mary, Adelaide and Madeline. a fairer haired, more laughing damsel nevwhat above vulgar prejudices, permitted some sixty, and some ninety days. the visits of the hero of my story. Still did not withhold his consent from their mar-was the student's second heavy affliction.

ed in the mysteries of science, and as he one. To Adelaide, at length, he offered posed by the hand of an afflictive and awcould tell the name of every flower that his widowed heart. She came to his lone ful Providence, and he ascends to his high of adventures of a men by the name of Jas. 1840, the empress Anne of Russia caused a blossomed in the wood or grew in the garden, and used to set up late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his late at nights at his books or reading the mystic story of the late at nights at his late at nights at nights at his late at nights at nights at starry heavens, men thought he was crazed collection brooded over the hour. Yet what blessings may yet grow out of the uor bewitched and avoided him as the igno- they lived happily; the husband again smil- nion of all hearts under such a painful event rant ever shun the gifted and enlightened, ed, and with a new spring the roses again | Since writing the above, the Proclama-A tew there were and among others, the blossomed in their garden. But it seemed tion of the President, in annother column, minister, and lawyer, and physician of the as if a fatality pursued this singular man. for the day of Fasting and Prayer throughplace, who showed some willingness to aff. When the rose withered, and the leaf tell, out the land, has been handed to us for pubord him countenance but they soon dropped in the mellow autumn of the year, Adelaide lication, and it affords us hartfelt satisfachis aqquaintance, for they found the old too, sickened and died, like her youngest tion, that our present Chief Magistrate so ding on his way, he reached Bayou Laf- statues, stood six canon, carrying balls of man somewhat reserved and morose, and sister, in the arms of her hushand and of highly and justly appreciates the religious ouche in Louisiana. Leaving the Boyou six pounds' weight, and two mortars, entire-

To the minister he would quote the Fa- men, that after all, the wretched survivor there and the Scriptures, in the original stood again at the altar. But he was a mys- prostrate feelings of this whole nation. togue, and showed himself well armed with terrous being, whose ways were inscrutable, the weapons of polemic controversy. He whose thirsting for domestic bliss was doemastonished the lawyer with his profound ed ever to seek and never to find it. His accquaintance with jurisprudence; and the third bride was Madeline. I well rememphysician was surprised at the extent of his ber her. She was a beauty in the true medical knowledge .-- So they all deserted sense of the word. It may seem strange to version. But he little cared for that, for he dest peer, would have sworn the blood in languages, literature, history, philosophy, shoulders. She was a singularly gifted woscience, were unfolded one by one to the man, and possessed of rare inspirations .- love of all virtue .- Madisonian. enthusiastic son of the solitary. Years rol. She loved the widower for his power and led away and the old man died. He died his fame, and she wedded him. They were when a storm convulsed the face of nature married in that church. It was on a sum- the New Englanders in bargain-making, is terial, as far as it would go, in finishing his some men have made money without induswhen the wind howled around his shattered mer afternoon-I recollect it well. Durdwelling, and the lightning played above ing the ceremony the blackest cloud I ever of the little barren island of Nantucket, if is now flourishing in Texas clike a green the roof; and though he went to heaven in saw overspread the heavens like a pall, and faith and purity, the vulgar thought and said at the moment when the third bride prothat the Evil One had claimed his own in nounced her vow, a clap of thunder shook all others in this accomplishment. One of the elements. I cannot paint to you the the building to its centre. All the females the party at table, alluding to an illustra- bies and a very promising flock of young of the invention of the steamboat, locomogrief of the son at his bereavement !- shricked, but the bride herself made the re- tion of this characteristic of the Nantucket pige, during his short sojourn in the land of tive engines on railroads, the diving bell, He was for a time as one distracted. The sponse with a steady voice, and her eye population, which according to Sam Slick minister came and muttered a few cold and glittered with wild fire as she gazed upon had occurred in the professional practice of hollow phrases in his ear, and afew neighbors, impelled by curiosity, to see the inte- incoherence as they rode homeward, which true. He said it was essentially correct, rior of the old man's dwelling, came to the surprised him at the time. Arrived at his and proceeded to state the real incidents as

> "Madeline," said he, "what means this! your cheek is as pale asyour wedding gown!"

He found, at last, the solitude of the "no, no, -this is my sister's shroud? The of time in travelling to Nantucket, and remanage almost inexpectable, and he pass there of confession has arrived. It is God maining there probably during the whole ed the echoing floors from merning till that impels me to speak. To win you I lost circuit, amounted to as great a escrifice night in all the agony of we and desolation, my soul! Yes; yes -I am a murderess! - on his part, as if he pleaded in every cause vainly importuning heaven for relief. It came to him first in the guise of poetic inof her young heart,—but I gave her the come, and I will pay you the thousand and three days epiratian. He wrote with wonderful ease fatal drug! Adelaide twined her white dollars, but you shall be at my disposal for but survived. and power. Page after page came from arms about my neck, but I administered the whole sittings, and I shall let you out, bis prolific pen, almost without an effort; the poison! Take me to your arms; I if I can.'

> She spread her long white arms and stood floor!"

"And the bridegroom!" asked I "the husband of the destroyer and the victimswhat became of him?"

"He stands before you!" was the thrill-

THE WAYS OF PROVIDENCE. We must be allowed to usurp or aid the offices of the Christian Pulpit a little in such and general grief that surrounds us, we know it will not be ungrateful. We have been forcibly struck with the resomblance between Moses, as the Capas the deliverer of the American people, but never can I forget the beauty of those necessary to conduct the hosts of Israel pensive; but of the three, Madeline, the el- "And the children of Israel wept for Moses dest, possessed the most fire, spirit, cultiva- in the plains of Moab thirty days." The tion and intellectuality. Their father, a people of this country have decreed mour-

tion which be found springing up between to that of General Harrison, will be found should return home-even begged the vil. in the cause in which he was to suffer. A Mary and the poet. - When, however, he impressively remarkable from beginning to lian who decoyed her away, to use his in- remarkable example of his power over himfound that her affections were engaged, be end, and scarcely less so the history of one fluence to this effect, and finally, through self and others occurred at this melancholy ing. She bedaubed herself with white, so people as compared with that of another, the persuasion of some friends who accom- moment. He was passing out, attended by riage, and the recluse bore to his solitary It is unnecessary to particularize them, as panied him in the search, she was prevailed the sheriff, and preceded by the execumansion the young bride of his affections. - | they are open to the thoughts of all. Be. upon to return. Oh, sir, the house assumed a new appear- hold the scene, and admire the ways of that ance within and without. Roses bloomed Providence which rules over the nations of in the garden, jessamines peoped through the earth! Till now, we had thought Gen-Do you see, said the sexton, "these three the lattices, and the fields about it smiled eral Harrison necessary for the future. So might it have been supposed that Moses ture no cloths, and have no agricultural met paused for a moment; his hands were three brides, whose history I am about to Lights were seen in the little parlor in the was, when the people arrived at the bor. implements. Singular as it is, they are not at liberty—he kissed his cheek—and relate. Look there, Sir; on yonder hill; evening, and many a time would the passen- ders of Cangan. Not so the thoughts of

"Joshua he shall go before thee. * *

No man, standing in the unexpected po. fle was a self taught man, deeply yers staters of the deceased and talk of the lost sponsibility of his charge. It has been im- old cat and shaving her.

Perhaps you will think it strange, young have done this thing himself, so exactly in terrible blow, and it becomes us to be humbled under the stroke. As a nation we him, and the minister, from whom he dif- you to hear the praise of beauty from such ble, that we come not out of this scene, with. He also erected for his own accommodation fered in some trifling point of doctrine, spoke lips as mine; but I cannot avoid expatiating out falling prostrate as a nation before the very slightly of him; and by and by looked upon hers. She might have sat upon a throne of Heaven, and saying with one voice on the self educated farmer with eyes of a- throne, and the most loyal subject, the prou Thy hand is righteous, O Lord God, and by the waves upon the shore.—A high tide grieviously hast thou afflicted us, imploring at length ensued and the flat boat was once derived his consolation from lettier resour- her veins had descended from a hundred his pardon of "our grievious and manifold ces, and in the untracted paths of science kings. She was a proud creature, with a offences," and beseeching him to annoint found a pleasure as in the pathless woods! tall, commanding form, and raven tresses, our present Leader with wisdom and unc- venture, the Sabine pass. Crossing Sabine comes under the eye of hundreds who will He instructed his son in all this lore—the that floated, dark and cloudlike over her tion from on high, and to inspire people Bay, (about thirty miles in width) he en- never see the sign over the door; yet some and rulers with the fear of himself and the tered the mouth of the Rionatchee, and soft heads pretend to argue that because we were to judge from the following onec- bay tree,' and appears to be 'spreading his dote, would seem to carry off the paim from branches' in the most approved manner, works of Roger Bacon, who wrote in the own loss. Judge Story, who was present, room rather abruptly; and observing a re- regular trade is kept up between that enwere praised and circulated, and enquiries like a maniac before him, said the sexton, remarked, that he had often heard the an- markable expression in his countenance he terprising city and the Santa Fe country. rising in the excitement of the moment, and ecdote mentioned, but never before heard it apologized for the interruption. He had a A merchant there, a Mr. Beeler, ships assuming the attitude he described, "and authenticated. He added, 'the current fork affixed to his little deal table, and ap- goods in a steamboat for Independence, Mistrable obscurity, listened to the voice of ap. then," continued he, in a hollow voice, "at edition proceeds to tell that your client let pended to it there was a tress of hair. "You souri which are taken thence in wagons to plause, more delicious because it was obtathat moment came, the thunder and the flash, you out for eleven hundred dollars, saved need by stealth. From the obscurity of and the guilty woman fell dead on the his own pocket entirely, and gained ten per ly I am employed. This little tress has ninety seven miles by land. Goods are also The countemance of the narrator cent. on his speculation. Mr. Webster long been dear to me, and I am plaiting it consigned to him for the American Fur client had not reported the amount of the the day of that fatal event, there was found sent on steamboats to St. Louis, and then named Theodore Allen, arrived at Baltimore on Wednesday week last,accompanied siasm and fortitude did not the above traits cities, is about five thousand six hundred He would picture to himself the felicity of a time as this. In the midst of the deep by a woman whom he represented as his exhibit. His fortitude, indeed, never for and forty miles. Such is the spirit of trade wife. They remained at one of the hotels sook him. until Friday, when another person, named Abraham Bitzanberger, a tavernkeeper slept soundly as ever; and when the fatal near Frederick, made his appearance in morning dawned, he arose, knelt down and The three wealthiest sovereigns in Europe search of a missing wife and $500 in cash. prayed, ordered some milk which he drank, are Louis Phillippe of France, the Elector He soon discovered the whereabouts of his wrote two letters—one to his brother in A. of Hesse, and the old King of Holland. more especially in the correspondencies of wife, and also her gallant, Theodore Allen, merica, and the other to the Secretary of Louis Phillippe is the richest, though the I am far enough past the age of enthusiasm, the two great facts, that as Moses was only who, while a lounger about his house for State enclosing it; and then desired the Elector of Hesse is not far behind him.some weeks past, went by the name of G. sheriff to be informed that he was ready. The latter derived his wealth from the sale young girls. Mary was the youngest, and through the wilderness, to the borders of E. Wanbaun. A warrant was procured When they came into his room he said that of Hessian soldiers to England for her wars Canaan, was permitted only to see the pro- for the arrest of Allen, and $65 in gold and he had two requests to make; one that his in America, Ireland and on the continent. er danced upon the green. Adelaide, who mised land and then taken from earth to silver, some of which was indentified by the arms might be left as loosely as possible. was a few years older, was dark haired and heaven, so has it been with our Captain. owner, were found upon his person. It which was humanely acceded to. "I make ed traffic in the blood of his subjects, the was clearly ascertained, that the real name the other," said he, "not under any idea Elector built near Hesse a magnificent of the accused was Grason, a man well that it can be granted, but that it may be chateau, which is called by the people in known in the State prison, having been re- held in remembrance that I have made it; the vicinity 'the Castle of Blood.' man of taste and educatian, and being some- ning for General Harrison, some thirty, leased from the penitentiary a short time it is that I may be permitted to die in my since. Upon these evidences of guilt, the uniform."4 This of course could not be the visits of the hero of my story. Still In the reflections of every religious man accused was fully committed. The husband granted; and the request seemed to have no he did not altogether encourage the affections of the history of Moses band seemed very desirous that his wife other object than to show that he glorified number 6,244 -but are entirely unimpro- ed him in his heart, and the tears were ved-dress exclusively in skins-manufac- streaming from his eyes in torrents. Emsaid to be entirely free from the deletrious the man who had been an inmate of a dun effects of intoxicating liquors. Their reli- geon, habituated to the scenes of horror, and gious services are generally connected with hardened against their operation, fell sense-And Moses called unto Joshua, and said un animal gratification. They are extremely less at his feet. Before his eyes had open is all overgrown with weeds and brambles, lected by the neighbors, what cared they? | strong and of good courage." The people the impositions of jugglers. Their women ful sufferer had closed forever. and the whole place has a desolate appear. Their enduring and mutual affection made of this country are already acquainted with perform all the labor of raising vegetables ance. If the wind were high now, you the home a little paradise. But death came the dying charge of Gen. Harrison to his dressing skins for tents and ropes, building might hear the old crazy shutters flapping to Eden. Mary suddenly fell sick, and successor. "And Joshua, the son of Nun, houses, preparing food-in short, they do

ANECDOTE OF WEBSTER.—The talent of

> 'Bill, Bill,' said an urchin, 'daddy's fairly and the heart of man-Days-months rolled on, and the only sition of President Tyler, could fail to have dead. 'Is hel well I'm darn'd sorry; but solace of the bereaved was to sit with the some deep sense of the solemnity and re- he'll never lick us again for lathering the accordance with what we believe to be the miles into the Gulf. A change of wind and a pound of powder was fired off, the ball of God has stricken us with a sudden and and stranded her on a sand bar near Shanatique. Here he was detained three months tour or five hundred yards from the water, the explosion. The illumination in this have celebrated the funeral obsequies of a during which period he killed a large num- palace at night was astonishingly grand. great and beloved Chief, and decreed a ber of wild hogs, and salted pork enough mourning of many days. It is most suita- to supply his family for 2 years afterwards. and that of travelors, quite a respectable dollars for a sign, where he would never dwelling from the drift wreck wood, thrown think of paying half the sum for advertising. more upon the waters. Hoisting his sail he launched forth and reached without ad vertisement is a comprehensive sign that thence ascended to the town of Beaumont some men have done a good business within Texas. Here he erected a house for a out advertising, advertising is unnecessary. tavern, making use of his flat boat for ma- - They might as well argue that because proverbial in America, and the inhabitants edifice. We are informed that Mr. Clark try, industry is unnecessary.

> A young lady in New York, having been Jean d'Acre. His own words are these: slighted by her swain, determined to end without eating or drinking, for three months and three days! It was a perfect skeleton, EMMET'S LAST MOMENTS .- One day, Mr. Webster went, and was sub let by previous to the trial, as the Governor was his client, who drew the fees to relieve his going his rounds, he entered Emmet's one of our Pittsburgh Exchanges that a stated with great good humor, that, as his to wear on the day of my execution." On Company, from the Eastern cities, to be sub-tees which he drew, he could not tell sketched by his own hand with a pen and be loaded in steamers to the Yellow Stone whether this addition was correct or not. ink, upon that very table an admirable like. three thousand and sixty miles—there re-Sam Slick's report of this occurrence is not ness of himself, the head severed from the loaded into keel boats, and taken to the veentirely accurate. - George Comb's Notes. body which lay near it, surrounded by the ry head of the Missouri river, to the Com-ELOPEMENT AND STEALING .- A man aphernalia of a high treason execution. tains, six hundred miles further. The

On the night previous to his death, he tioner-in one of the passages stood the turnkey, who was personally assigned to him which was almost as thick as plaster on a THE PAWNEES.—The Pawnee Indians during his confinement; this poor fellow lov ed again upon the world, those of his youth-

The color of the rebel uniform was green.

There are three things that are unsearch able: the nature of God, the love of Christ.

'I'm blowed if I do,' as the trumpet said when asked to give a tune.

A PALACE BUILT OF ICE. -- In the year A VOYAGE ON A FLAT BOAT.—A series Sailor. About four years ago Clark star and twenty feet high, and constructed of ted on a flat boat with his wife and four large pieces of ice cut in the manner of children from the town of Erie, Pa., situa free-stene. The walls were three feet ted on the lake of that name, and by the thick. The several apartments were furroute of the Ohio and Erie Canal, reached nished with tables, chairs, beds, and all the Ohio river. Descending the Ohio and kinds of household furniture of ice. In Mississippi, making a brief stay at our lan front of this edifice, besides pyramids and sontiments of the American people, as to by the south-west pass he progressed on his by made of ice. As a trial from one of the voyage, until he was blown off, about twelve former, an iron ball, with only a quarter of a high tide drove his flat boat back again which went through a two inch hoard, at sixty paces from the mouth of the piece, which remained completely uninjured by > Advertising is like a traveling sign. No business man will hesitate to pay twenty The one is a sign only seen by those who pass the store and can see the goods that are for sale as well as the sign. The ad-

Roger Bacon, a Propher.-In the having been blessed with a couple of ba 13th century, may be found an anticipation refuge and of promise .- Vicksburg Whig. the suspension bridge, and, it might almost be said, of the recent events of St.

'Men may construct for the wants of navher miseries and her life together, by igation such machines that the greatest funeral. With a proud and lofty look the house she sunk upon the threshold; but this follows. A Nantucket client had asked drowning herself. Full of this direful in vessels, directed by a single man, shall cut son stood above the dust and the dead in was the timidity of a maiden. When him to go to that island to plead a cause for tent, she went to the river side, and having through the rivers and seas with more rathe midst of the band of hypocritical mour- they were alone he clapsed her hand-it him. Mr. Webster, after mentioning the screwed her courage to the sticking point, pidity than if they were propelled by rowners, with a pang at his heart, but serenity was cold as ice! He looked into her distance, the loss of time, and the interrup- jumped in. The water being, however, ers; chariots may be constructed which, tion to his other practice, said that he could extremely cold, cooled down her temper in without horses, shall run with immeasuranot go unless he received a fee of a thousand a wondertul manner, so that when she rose ble speed. Men may conceive machines our cheek is as pale asyour wedding gown!" dollars. The client objected to paying so large a sum for pleading one cause. Mr. l instruments, such as bridges that shall span MAY BE 80 .- A hog, it is said, was found the broadest rivers without any intermedia under a barn floor lately, in Onondaigua ate support. Art has its thunders more county, N. Y., where it had remained, terrible than those of heaven. A small quantity of matter produces a horrible explosion, accompanied by a bright light; and his may be repeated so as to destroy a city or entire battalions."

> scaffold, the axe, and all the frightful par- pany's fort and store, in the Rocky Moun-What a strange union of tenderness, enthu. whole distance to which from the eastern and commerce. - New York Sun.

> > WEALTH OF EUROPEAN SOVEREIGNS .-With part of the proceeds of this unhallowpersonal property of the king of Holland, the least wealthy of the three, amounts to nearly fifty millions of dollars.

> > FACE-PAINTING .- Lady Coventry, the celebrated beauty, killed herself with paintas to stop the perspiration. Lady Wortley Montague was more prudent; she went often into the hot bath to scrape off the paint, wall.

> > RENOVATION OF MANUSCRIPT. - The following method is said to be effectual in rendering writing visible which has been effaced by an acid. Take a hair pencil and wash the part which has been effaced with a solution of prussiate of patash in water, and the writing will again appear as if it had not been destroyed.

"Thomas-there is too much bustle berel" Where, Pu?

I mean there is too much noise-you must stop it." 'Is a noise a bustle, Pa?"

'Yes, child' Golly gracious!-then sister Sally does wear the biggest soise you ever saw, Pa. -Richmond Star.