Mr. A. Good morning, Mr. Printer-I amin a harry. I see in your last paper that you are in want of money; I make it a point to pay the printer punctually.

Printer. So we have found you, sirshould like a thousand such patrons-our call was intended, of course, for those who are not punctual.

A. Right-all right, sir; please make up my bill to this date, and here's a five dollar change.

Pr. But, friend A. do you wish to discontinue ?

A. Why-yes, I think I must:-My bill for papers is quito large -I take no less than seven or eight papers; I must economise a little; and, besides, I don't seem to need a political paper at present-locofoco. ism will hardly need much attention for two or three years, it is so shockingly used up -in our section we can hardly find one for seed.

Pr. Allow me to enquire, friend, if all your papers are political.

A. No-three of them belong to this class, and then I have one large family newspaper from Philadelphia, (a murder paper as it is called,)two from New York, and faster at night. one from Boston.

Pr. Allow me to enquire still further, which class of these you intend to curtail. A. Why, I think I must stop the political papers, of course, the other contains twice or three times the reading.

Pr. Now friend the people of this country have accomplished a great victory over the prevailing corruptions of an unprincipled administration, will you be so kind as to inform me how the people were enabled how it became so generally known, that heard it, and for a time deep silence was this triumph?

The individual has only to place a finger on the top of an instrument to ascertain whether the heart is affected with slight love, tender love, constant love or passionate love. The instrument is considered as a very useful invention, and one that will save many a heart from the cheats that fancy is apt to impose upon it.

COUGH, ASTHMA, SPITTING OF BLOOD Jayne's Expectorant! PHILADELPHIA, August 16th, 1838.

Mr. ATKINSON-Dear Sir: A few weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Carminative, in restoring a great numbor of passengers on board a Missis-sippi steamboat, to perfect health who were affected with Bowel Complaint. I was glad to see you notice it so kindly; you may rest assured it leserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benefit I have received from this medicine, more especially his Expectorant, induces me to state my case to you, for the benefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been my misfortune, sir, to labor under a cough and asthmatical op. pression, for more than half a century. When a soldier in the American camp, in 1778, I, with many others, (owing to great exposure,) had a violent attack of disease of the Lungs, by which I was disabled from duty for a long time. Since that period until recently, I have never been free from a violent Cough and difficulty of breathing.
Your after year I have expecturated over a gill a day; often much more, and sometimes mixed blood. For months together, night after night, I have had to sit or be belstered up to obtain my breath. The weakness and debility caused by such constant expecteration, frequently brought me to a state bordering on death. It has who have been given up by their physicians as been a matter of astenishment to my family and incurable with "Consumption," have been resto friends that I am here to write this to you. I friends that I am here to write this to you. I have had skilful physicians to attend me, and every thing done that was thought likely to give me relief, without any beneficial effect. Last winter I had another severe attack of Inflama. tion of the Lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then considered my case as past immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured the aid of medicine, when I was persuaded to call by using this Expectoraut." Mrs. Dilks, of Sa. on Doctor Javne. With the assistance of Divine on Doctor Jayne. With the assistance of Divine Providence, through him, I was once more raised from my bed, but the coughing and wheezing wearled me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant. 1 did so, with a strong hope that, as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the Lungs, it might at least mitigate my sufferings. Need I say how gratified I felt? It has effectually cured me. As soon as I commenced taking it, I found it rouched my case, and I began to breathe with mero freedom. My expectoration became more easy, and my cough entirely left me. I now feel as woll as ever I did in my life, and am botter than I have been for the last sixty years. Last summer I spit a great deal of blood; now, thank God, I am perfectly cured Now, Sir, after suffering so long, and finding at last such signal relief from Jayne's Expectorant, I feel anxious to inform my fellow citizens where relief may be had. If you think this worthy a place in your paperyou will oblige me by noticing it.
