

P A R A D I X
TIPPECANOE.

BY G. P. ROYAL.
AND let them sing their songs up Against the truth who can—
The few who have the hardihood
The general grief to ban!
The Nation mourns her President—His countrymen THE MAN!
He was a gallant gentleman,
A noble and a true
As a soldier under Washington, When first our eagle flew;
Though many breathed throughout the land Where now there breathe so few.
Throughout the land which still can mourn Those men of other days, Albeit a dwarfed and dwindled race Would stint those hearts of generous blood Whose ways are not their ways.
His mind—it was a Patriot's mind!
(The narrow-minded may start At what they cannot comprehend) In affluence of heart
He was so rich, it lent a glow
To every mental part.
His country, she was all to him,
The man of days long past—Since first his youthful pulses stirred At Wayne's wild bugle-blast, Till when he breathed in death for her The prayer which was his last.
These dying words!—what cheering cheer, When battling for the right, He broke from dying hero's lips Amid the reeking fight—What words more glorious than those Which sealed his speech that night!
He was a gallant gentleman,
A noble and a true;
The last, purchase, of that high race Which once on broad land grew—That primal growth which springs but once From out a soil that's new.
God's blessing on his memory, then!
God's malison on those Who'd tear the sod that covers him Before the greenward grows!
Sleep on, old chief, thy countrymen Will guard thy last repose.

LAWYER AND THE IRISHMAN.—While a number of Lawyers and gentleman were dining at Wicasset, few years since, a jolly scout from the Emerald Isle appeared and called for a dinner. The landlord told him he should dine when the gentlemen were done.—"Let him crowd in among us," whispered a hump of the law, [Albert Smith we believe,] and we will have some fun with him." The Irishman took his seat at the table.
"You were not born in this country, my friend!"
"No, sir, I was born in Ireland."
"Le your father living?"
"No, sir, he is dead."
"What is your occupation?"
"A horse jockey, sir."
"What was your father's occupation?"
"Trading horses, sir."
"Did your father cheat any one while here?"
"I suppose he did cheat many, sir."
"Where do you suppose he went to?"
"To heaven, sir."
"And what do you suppose he is doing there?"
"Trading horses, sir."
"Has he cheated any one there?"
"He cheated one, I believe, sir."
"Why did that one not prosecute him?"
"Because they searched the whole kingdom and could not find a lawyer."

RETORTED VS. MOTHER.—A singular and painful litigation has recently been in progress at Boston one which to all kindly hearts must cause regret, although none can fail to sympathize with the feeling in which it originated. The suit was in replevin brought by a mother to obtain possession of a watch and portrait formerly belonging to a dead son.—The defendant was a young lady to whom the son was betrothed, and it was clearly proved that the watch and picture had been given to her by the deceased just before embarking for the voyage in which he was lost. The verdict was in favor of the betrothed; but one hardly knows whether most to rejoice with her, or grieve with the mother, at this issue of a contest for the sad memorial so highly prized and so eagerly desired by them both.—Com-Ad.

THE THREE STUTTERS.—A gentleman afflicted with an impediment in his speech, sat down to a crowded dinner table, at a public hotel, and calling to a servant addressed him thus:
"We-w-w-ater g-give m-me some r-rrosat b-b-beef."
The servant stammered out in reply:
"W-w-w-a-s-a-saint g-got s-s-a-ny."
At this, the gentleman got highly enraged, supposing the servant was mocking him, sprang from his seat, and was proceeding to knock him down, when a third person arrested his arms, and cried out to him not to strike, saying that h-e-e he's at stutters the e-s-same a-s-a-w-w-w-e-d-d-o.

A DELICATE LADY.—There is a maiden lady living in this place who is so extremely nice in her notions of female modesty, that she turned of her washer woman because she put her clothes in the same tub with those of a young man! This is almost equal to the modesty of the lady who was ashamed to remove a table cover for fear of showing its legs.

"Well Patrick," asked the doctor, "how do you do to-day?"—"O dear, doctor, I in-joy very bad health intirely. The rumatiz is very distressing indeed. When I do go to sleep I lay awake all night, and see too dozed up as big as a goose's head's egg, so when I stand up I fall down directly." of Pulmonary Disease, not essential to tirely disappeared, and her strength increastles more, she found herself freed from all pain and other unpleasant symptoms which attended her disease. She is now enjoying perfect health, and willing to give any in-

LOG CABIN RIFLE.
A PROPOSITION WORTH CONSIDERING.
To induce persons to act as agents for procuring subscribers to the RIFLE we submit the following proposition.
For $35 we will send one hundred copies to not more than ten addressees.
For $15 forty copies to not more than four.
For $5 twelve copies to one address.
This will afford over twenty-five per cent to agents for their trouble, and as every one can procure one hundred or more subscribers, in their own neighborhood, he will be doing a fair business in these hard times. Any one to make it a business for a month could procure two or three thousand at least, as no body will refuse to pay fifty cents for a paper for six months during so exciting a campaign as the approaching one will undoubtedly be.

ALBANY LOOK HOSPITAL.

ENCOURAGED by the uniform success attending his peculiar method of treatment, for the prevention and cure of venereal complaints, and confirmed by the experience of many years in a widely extended practice; sensible also of the happy effects resulting to the community, from having confined himself entirely to the study and cure of a class of diseases, which there is every reason to deplore are too prevalent.
Dr. COOKE continues to direct his sole attention to the treatment of every disorder that occurs from impudence, whilst under the influence of intemperance or any other baneful excitement, and to the cure of those dreadful maladies, which too often arise therefrom. These sometimes commence in a most simple form, and through neglect or injudicious treatment afterwards assume a more aggravated state of disease, occasioning abscess ulceration, nodes, caries of the bones, pseudo syphilis, cancer, promature old age, and last and not least, a protracted incurable state of miserable existence.
Dr. COOKE though professing exclusively the study and cure of these particular complaints, deems it proper to inform his friends and the public in general, in justice to his professional character, that he was properly educated and regularly initiated into every branch of the profession as a general Practitioner in Europe.
Dr. COOKE may be consulted therefore at all times, as usual at his offices, which are properly sit-ted up and arranged for confidential consultation.
Country patients residing at a distance—and all other patients who prefer writing instead of a personal interview—can be treated with equal success on describing minutely their case by letter, and enclosing a remittance for advice and medicine. There will be no difficulty in sending packages to any part of the United States, and the medicines will be securely packed, carefully protected from observation, and sent without delay to the place appointed.

Garlegant's Balsam of Health, Prepared only by the sole proprietor, JOHN S.
MILLER, Frederick, Md.

THE subscriber has just received a further supply of this valuable medicine, which has gained a celebrity which few other articles has ever received in so short a time as this; the sale of which, has constantly increased, and will continue to increase, as its merits are made known.
This celebrated BALSAM OF HEALTH, is a medicine and vegetable compound, warranted a safe and effectual remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia, and for the whole train of diseases resulting from,
and connected with a disordered condition of the digestive functions. As a family medicine it stands unrivalled, and should be possessed by all heads of families, particularly by all those that are subject to constipation of the bowels, it operates as a gentle aperient, gives a tone and vigor to the stomach and bowels, and invigorating and invigorating the whole system. This Balsam of Health does not contain a particle of Mercury, but it is composed altogether of vegetable matter, which renders it perfectly harmless, and it is no hindrance to business, nor any proper customary employment and habit. The proprietor could give a great many certificates of cures performed by this medicine in this advertisement, if it did not occupy so much room; therefore he deems it quite unnecessary, as all those who wish to see them can, by applying to his agent in this place.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.—This invaluable medicine is daily affording some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have ever used it for Asthma, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup or Hives, Consumption, Chronic Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soreness of the Breat, difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the Lungs and Breast, can do almost to its own relief. Bronchitis, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of Consumption, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease (Bronchitis) are Coughs, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a spitting up of Phlegm or matter, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind-pipes or air vessels, which run through every part of the Lungs. This Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy Expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.
It always cures Asthma—two or three large doses will cure the Croup or Hives of Children, in from fifteen minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of Whooping Cough; and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with "Consumption," have been restored to perfect health by it.
REV. JOHNATHAN GOING, D. D. President of Granville College, Ohio, says—"he was laboring under a severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he felt himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured by using this Expectorant." Mrs. Dilks, of Salem, N. J. was cured of Asthma of twenty years standing, by using two bottles of this medicine.— Mrs. Ward, also, of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also, of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be far gone with Consumption, was perfectly restored by three bottles. Dr. Hamilton, of St. James, South Carolina, was greatly affected by a cough, Soreness and soreness of the lungs, and on receiving a bottle of this medicine, found permanent relief.

The following certificate is from a practicing Physician, and a much respected Clergyman of the Methodist Society, dated Modest Town, Va. August 27, 1838.
Dr. Jayne—Dear Sir—I have been using your Expectorant, extensively, in my practice, for the last three months, and for all attacks of cold, inflammation of the lungs, consumption, asthma, pains and weakness of the breast, it is decidedly the best medicine I have ever tried.
Very respectfully yours,
R. W. WILLIAMS, M. D.

Numerous other certificates might be added, out of the above are considered sufficient evidence of its great usefulness.

JAYNE'S
CARMINATIVE BALSAM.

IS a certain, safe and effectual remedy for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, or Loosness, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, Cholic, Gripping Pain, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, &c. &c., and all Spasmodic and Nervous Diseases, as Sick and Nervous Headach, Hysteria, Cramp, &c. &c.
This is one of the most efficient, pleasant and safe compositions ever offered to the public for the cure of the various derangements of the stomach and bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for curing Cholera Infantum or Summer Complaint; and in all the above diseases it really acts like a charm.
All persons are requested to try it, for there is "no mistake" about its being one of the most valuable family medicines ever yet discovered.— Hundreds of new thousands of certificates have been received from Physicians, Clergymen, and families of the first respectability, bearing the strongest testimony in its favour, too numerous to publish.

CERTIFICATES.
This is to certify that I have used Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam very extensively in Bowel Complaints, and have not the least hesitation in declaring it superior to any preparation that I have met with for the relief of those diseases.

Dr. D. JAYNE.—Dear Sir,—Having made use of your Carminative Balsam in my family, and finding it to be admirably adapted to the complaints for which it is intended, I take pleasure the public generally, believing those who are afflicted with any of these complaints will find re-

ATTENTION BALD HEADS. NO AP-PROXY FOR WIGS. OF all the remedies ever devised for the restoration and preservation of the Hair, nothing has been found equal to Jayne's Hair Tonic. It seldom fails to restore the hair to health and beauty. Many who were bald a few months ago, can now exhibit luxuriant heads of hair, by the use of it.
Copy of a letter from Dr. S. S. FITCH, PHILADELPHIA, May 10, 1839.
Dr. Jayne.—Dear Sir—I feel that I can hardly say enough to you in favor of the Hair Tonic, prepared by you. My hair had been falling off about two years, and had become very thin threatening speedy baldness, when I commenced using this remedy. In about one week it ceased to fall off.
I have used it now about three months, and have as full and thick a head of hair as I can possibly desire. I have recommended its use to a number of my friends, who all speak well of it.
I am successful in almost all the various articles of your Tonic, I may add, that before using the Tonic, I had tried almost all the various articles employed for the hair, such as the Macassar Oil, all the different preparations of Bear's Oil, Vegetable Hair Oil, &c. &c. without experiencing much, if any benefit.
Respectfully yours, S. S. FITCH, more or less bald for many years, used three bot-

COUGH, ASTHMA, SPITTING OF BLOOD OF Sixty Years Standing, cured by Dr.
Jayne's Expectorant.
REV. JOHNATHAN GOING, August 16th, 1838.
Mr. ATKINSON—Dear Sir: A few weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Carminative, in restoring a great number of passengers on board a Mississippi steamer, to perfect health who were affected with Bowel Complaint. I was glad to see such notice of so kindly; you may rest assured it deserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benefit I have received from this medicine, more particularly his Expectorant, induces me to state my case to you, for the benefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been my misfortune, sir, to labor under a cough and asthmatical oppression, for more than half a century. When a young man in the American army, in 1775, I with many others, (owing to great exposure) had a violent attack of disease of the Lungs, which I was disabled from duty for a long time. Since that period until recently, I have never been free from a violent Cough and difficulty of breathing.
Year after year I have expectorated over a gill day; often much more, and sometimes mixed with blood. For months together, night after night, I have had to sit or to be dozed up to obtain my breath. The weakness and debility caused by such constant expectoration, frequently brought me to a state bordering on death. It has been a matter of astonishment to my family and friends that I am here to write this to you. I had had skillful physicians to attend me, and every thing they did, I thought likely to give me relief, without any beneficial effect. I winter I had another severe attack of Inflammation of the Lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then considered my case as past the aid of medicine, when I was persuaded to call on Doctor Jayne. With the assistance of Divine Providence, through him, I was once more raised from my bed, but the coughing and wheezing wreaked me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant. I did so, with a strong hope that, as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the Lungs, it might at least mitigate my sufferings. Need I say how gratified I felt! It has EFFECTUALLY CURED ME. As soon as I commenced taking it, I found it reached my case, and I began to breathe with more freedom. My expectoration became more easy, and my cough entirely left me. I now feel as well as ever I did in my life, and am better than I have been for the last sixty years. Last summer I spit a great deal of blood; now, thank God, I am perfectly cured. Now, Sir, after suffering so long, and finding at last such signal relief from Jayne's Expectorant, I feel anxious to inform my fellow citizens whose relief may be had. If you think this worthy a place in your paper you will oblige me by noticing it.
