THE CASE OF MCLEOD .- We stated yesterday that the Supreme Court of the State of New York, had decided this case adverse to the discharge of the prisoner. It was then our intention to furnish our readers with an abstract of the numerons points and arguments ombraced in the decision, but these being for the most part such as th general reader would take comparatively little interest in, we have concluded not to encounter the labor of the task. The prisoner was indicted for murder in Niagara county, in the State of New York, was arraigned and, after pleading not guilty, was committed for trial. The Revised Statutes of New York allowed him to be brought before the Supreme Court, under a writ of habeas corpus, and under the same statutes, he was further allowed to allege any fact to show either that his de- tor at York, Pa. in the room of Mr. Small resigned. MILITARY ENCAMPMENT.

The voluntcers of York intend to hold an encampment at this place, commencing on Tuesday, the 24th August, 1841, and to continue three days; will make suitable arrangements for the reception of such of heir fellow soldiers from abroad as may favor them with a visit. The Volunteer companies of this and the adjoining coun-ties in Pennsylvania--and those of the cities of Philadelphia, and Baltimore, are invited to participate with the Volunteers of York in the duties of the encampment They may rest assured of a Soldier's cordial

It is hoped that the favorable season selected for the occasion; the facilities for reaching York from almost every point o the compass, and the obvious advantage to all volunteer companies to enter occasional ly the rough school of the soldier, will in duce many of our military brothren to a cept the invitation hereby beartily extended

The companies of York, sensible of the eproach which has fallen upon many sinnr efforts to improve American Volunteers in camp duty, in consequence of the indis cretion of a few, have detormined not to permit wine or ardent spirits of any descripion to be sold or used within the limits the encampment or the lines of the guard
