TO MY CREDITORS.

TAKE notice that I have applied to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Adams county, for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that they have appointed Monday the 24th of January next, for the hearing of me and my creditors, at the Court House in the Borough of Gettysburg, when and where you may attend if you think proper.

JOSEPH LITTLE, Weaver. Dec. 21, 1841.

MANSION HOUSE.

Mrs. Wm. E. Camp, (FORMERLY OF THE WASHINGTON HOTEL.) HAS removed to the MANSION HOUSE, at the corner of Second and Railroad streets, Harrisburg, where she will be pleased to accommodate her old customers, in the best style and on the most reasonable terms.

A PROPOSITION! Reduction of Terms, and the Cash System!

PROMPTED by a desire to disseminate cheap information, and place his paper within reach of every person, even of the most moderate means, the publisher of the Harrisburg Chronicle proposes, if sustained by the public, to commence the next volume of the paper, opening in February, upon a new system, and upon such terms as will enable every citizen of the Commonwealth to become acquainted with matters and doings at the seat of government. We propose upon the commencement of the next volume to reduce the yearly subscription of the paper (which is now three dollars a year) ONE THIRD, that is to publish it twice a week during the session of the Legislature and once a week during the remainder of the year, for TWO DOLLARS per annum, being a reduction of one dollar upon our former terms. Subscriptions to be paid invariable IN ADVANCE. The session of the Legislature is generally five months in length, during which time our subscribers will receive two numbers each week, making nearly one hundred numbers each year, for the same price that is now charged for weekly county papers! These terms are very low, as every person will observe, but if our proposition is accepted, and the money forwarded with every subscription, we have no doubt of being able to make the new system work with as much advantage to ourselves as it certainly will for the reading community.

H. MONTGOMERY. Dec. 21, 1841.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made by the undersigned for License to keep a Public House in the town of Hampton, Reading township, Adams county, at the January Court of Quarter Sessions, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

JESSE WATTERS.

We, the subscribers, citizens of Reading township, do hereby certify, that we are all well acquainted with Jesse Watters, the above Petitioner, and know him to be a man of good repute for honesty and sobriety, and therefore recommend him as a suitable person for keeping a Public House of Entertainment, and that a Public House at the place prayed for is necessary, and the house and premises convenient and fit for the purpose.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.—Having noticed several remarks attached to the advertisement of a Nostrum called a "Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry" by which it appears the proprietor of that article is endeavoring to injure the reputation of that invaluable and highly approved medicine—"DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY"—and to bolster up his miserable preparation by resorting to fiction and falsehoods, we deem it necessary to caution the public against such trickery, and request all those who wish to secure the genuine preparation of Wild Cherry to be very particular when they purchase or they may be deceived and get a very different article.

In order to protect the public from imposition, copy rights have been secured, and the genuine medicine will invariably be put up in moulded bottles with the words "WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY" blown in the glass, and the signature of Henry Wistar M.D. on the Label without which none is genuine.

Remember the genuine Balsam is sold only in Gettysburg by SAMUEL H. BUEHLER, Appointed Agent. Gettysburg, 14, 1841.

TO MY CREDITORS.

TAKE notice that I have applied to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Adams county, for the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and that they have appointed Tuesday the 25th day of December inst, for the hearing of me and my creditors, at the Court House in the Borough of Gettysburg, when and where you may attend if you think proper.

MICHAEL RUPP. Dec. 7, 1841.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

American Ladies' National Magazine. GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1842.

The most splendid and valuable Magazine ever published.

THE only Magazine devoted to Ladies, and conducted by members of their own sex. Composed entirely of original articles, by the most eminent writers of the age;—and embellished with a larger number and greater variety of costly, elegant, and attractive Pictorial illustrations than any publication. Edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Morton M. Michael, Mrs L. H. Sigourney, L. A. Godey.

Contributors to each Number. Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. E. C. Embury, Theodore S. Fay, N. P. Willis, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, T. S. Arthur, Mrs. E. F. Elliot.

In announcing to his numerous patrons and the public at large his arrangements for the year 1842, the proprietor of Godey's Lady's Book takes occasion to acknowledge the unparalleled and triumphant success of his Magazine, which has now reached the extraordinary number of 40,000 Copies Monthly, being a larger edition than has ever been printed of any other work, of any description, in America. This success he is aware has been attained by the vast superiority which the Lady's Book has always maintained over the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival its merits, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it, in all its departments, Literary, Intellectual and Moral, as well as Pictorial, Emblematic, Artistic and Mechanical.

That this is no idle boast, he appeals to the experience of the past twelve years, in all which time he has made no promise to the public that he has not fully performed, nor undertaken anything which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the utmost.

Entering as he is about to do, on the 24th volume of the Lady's Book with increased energy and accumulated resources; with an ample knowledge of the business in which he is engaged acquired by long years of unremitting application—with a subscription list unparalleled in the annals of literature; with numerous facilities not possessed by any other publisher; with well-digested and wide-extended arrangements—and above all, with a steadfast purpose of maintaining the lofty elevation his work has reached, the proprietor has not hesitated to incur expenses which under other circumstances might well prove starting but by means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the richest, the rarest, the most attractive, and the most valuable periodical, intrinsically and extrinsically, ever offered to the public.

Literary Department.

Mrs. S. J. Hale, L. H. Sigourney, Miss E. Leslie, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, Mrs. F. S. Osgood, Mrs. A. M. F. Annon, Mrs. E. F. Elliot, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. H. Beecher Stowe, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. J. Thayer, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. E. C. Stedman, Miss Meata M. Duncan, Mrs. C. H. W. Edling, Mrs. M. St. Leon Loud, Miss M. B. Snow, Kate Franklin. He will be entitled to furnish occasional articles from Maria Edgeworth, Mary Russell Mitford, Mrs. Cornwell Baron Wilson, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Mrs. Hoffman, Mary Howitt, and other English lady-writers of distinction, some of whom have already published in the Lady's Book the first original contributions they have ever made to American Literature.

Nor has he omitted to procure the services of eminent writers of the opposite sex. Aware of the universal and well-deserved popularity of N. P. Willis, Esq., and confident that the productions of his graceful and eloquent pen will be highly acceptable to the readers of the Lady's Book, the proprietor has entered into an arrangement by which he will be able to give in each number of the work, an exclusive article from that gentleman; and he has also retained all the contributors whose writings have heretofore given such general satisfaction, including W. G. Simms Esq., Professor Ingrahame, Professor Dimity, Professor Frost, Professor Walter, Park Benjamin, Esq., R. S. Mackenzie; LL. D., T. S. Arthur, Esq., H. W. Herbert, Joseph C. Neal, Hon. Robert T. Conrad, Dr. J. K. Mitchell, Epes Sargent, G. P. Morris, Joseph R. Chandler, Robert Morris, P. Earle, N. C. Brooks, E. Holden, A. McMakin, L. F. Tassiro, Rufus Dawes, E. D. Squirr, J. McLellan, J. J. Aldrich.

With such aid, it is not too much to say, that the Literary Department of the Lady's Book will surpass anything that has ever been or can be attempted.

Ornamental Department.

It is a source of no little pride to the proprietor of the Lady's Book, that he first introduced into this country the plan of furnishing, along with a monthly periodical of elegant literature, embellishments of an attractive and costly character. The first steel engravings accompany such a work were given by him; the first mezzotint engraving was given by him, the first put terms of lace work and embroidery were given by him; the first coloured plates of Fashions were given by him; the 1st music was given by him. These are things to which he would not refer, if some of those who have essayed to follow in his footsteps, not content with imitating all he does, even to the form of his book, the size of his type, and the color of his cover, had not foolishly put forward claims to originality, and attempted to found a right to an exclusive merit on doing that which he had borrowed from his example. But what he has done heretofore in the way of embellishment to his book, though it far exceeded any effort of those who strove to copy his movements, cannot compare with what he now means to do. His arrangements for this department of his work have been projected on the most liberal scale of expenditure, involving such an extent of outlay as has never before been dreamed of in any periodical, European or American. As an evidence of his intentions, he now states that each number of the Lady's Book for the ensuing year, will contain, at least,

Three Splendid Engravings; embracing in the series every possible variety of subject, Historical, Landscape, Picturesque, Portraiture, Imaginative, Emblematical, and executed in every possible variety of the art; Mezzotint, Stipple, Medallion, and that most chaste and expressive manner, the Line and Dot combined, which has given such world wide celebrity to the works of modern artists.

The American Guide Plates of Fashions, colored, will be given every month. In order to give the greatest attractiveness to the subjects of his embellishments the proprietor has given orders to various American Painters, of established reputation, who are now engaged in preparing expressly for the Lady's Book, numerous Oriental Pictures, on National and Historical events, some of which are nearly completed, and will soon be in the hands of the engraver. Among the painters thus engaged he may enumerate:

J. G. Chapman, Painter of the National Picture of the Baptism of Pocahontas. P. F. Rothermel, J. P. Frankenstein, S. S. Osgood, of Boston, I. Williams, &c. He has also established a correspondence in London, through which he will receive early proof impressions of the finest prints executed in that metropolis, and will thus be constantly supplied with an immense variety, from which to make suitable selections. In addition to this, he will receive the only copies of the celebrated prize Engravings of the Edinburgh Apollo Gallery, sent to this country, one of which the Examination of Shakspeare before Sir Thomas Lucy, he has already given to his patrons, and another of which, The Stray Children he has now in preparation as well as a series of Pictorial Illustrations of Shakspeare.

Determined to satisfy every variety of taste, the proprietor has also made arrangements for a series of the most superb Mezzotints ever executed in this country several of which are already engraved, and will be given to his subscribers as soon as a sufficient number of impressions can be taken to supply his immense edition. Beside the services of H. S. Sudd, of N. Y. who has now in hand a number of plates, she has secured the invaluable aid of Mr. Humphreys, of London, who is universally conceded to stand in the foremost rank of English Engravers, whose splendid efforts in Mezzotint have commanded the admiration of the most distinguished amateurs and critics. This eminent artist is now engaged in preparing, expressly for the Lady's Book, a number of Mezzotint Pictures, which the proprietor pledges himself to be of an unsurpassed excellence; and of the most interesting and attractive subjects. To guard against all possibility of difficulty hereafter, he has likewise ordered from England a Complete Mezzotint Establishment, and immediately on its arrival, Mr. W. F. Tucker, of this city, will commence operations in that department of art.

In order to procure the various embellishments in season, the proprietor has made permanent arrangements with the following eminent engravers, all of whom are now engaged in executing steel plates for the Lady's Book.

- New York. Philadelphia. A. L. Dick, W. F. Tucker, N. Gimbrede, J. B. Neglige, W. H. Jackman, J. B. Forrest, J. G. Duane, W. H. Ellis, A. Jones, E. Humphreys.

R. G. M'CREARY. June 1, 1841.

HORSE-POWER AND THRASHING MACHINES.

THE Subscriber takes pleasure in announcing that he is now prepared to furnish the Farmers of Adams and Franklin Counties with the best HORSE POWER AND THRASHING MACHINES ever put in operation in either of the above counties.—The advantages of the Horse-Power are obvious from the fact, that a much greater velocity of the cylinder of the Machine is acquired by a slower walk of the horses than in any other Machine now in use, and having greater leverage and less friction requires lighter draught. The superiority of the Thrashing Machine consists in that of Thrashing more grain in any given time with four men to attend it, than the Machines now in use do with seven men to attend them.

The above powers and Machines are permanently constructed, and will wear much longer than any heretofore offered to the public. The Shops in which they are manufactured are Mount Maria Furnace, near Millerstown, Adams county, and at Indian Springs, near Waynesboro', Franklin county, Pa.

All orders will be thankfully received and promptly attended to at either of the above shops. Farmers and others would do well to examine the above, previous to purchasing elsewhere. J. DONALDSON. August 24, 1841.

WAGON MAKING.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general that he carries on, in connection with the blacksmithing the Wagon Making Business, and is prepared to execute all orders in either of the above businesses in a workmanlike manner and at the shortest notice. C. W. HOFFMAN. Gettysburg, May 5, 1840.

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE.

And if you have a friend, relation, or know any one that is afflicted with that distressing disease, CONSUMPTION, persuade them without delay to try that famous and universal medicine, the BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which has cured thousands of this complaint, and every other that he had failed. Read the following unobscured proofs of its efficacy: Buxborough, 8 pt 10 1841.

Dear Sir—Please send me two bottles more of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent me before, I have taken nearly all of the first two, and confidently believe this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have never found any thing that has relieved me so much. I have stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night and feel better in every way than I have for many months. Yours, respectfully, JAMES KRILEY. Buxborough, 8 pt 12, 1841.

Friend Wistar—I must again trouble you to send me two bottles more of your invaluable Balsam. I have now taken three bottles in all, and can assure thee that it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. Send by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend, JACOB HOLLOWAY.

Bristol, September 8, 1841. Dear Doctor—Hearing so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your agents the other day for a bottle, and have since had the pleasure so much, that I want three bottles more sent soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams of different kinds, with tried Javay's Expectant and other medicines besides, but nothing has ever done me as much good as your Balsam. Send by the steamboat Bolivar. Yours truly, WILLIAM THOMAS.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in Consumption, it is also the most effectual remedy ever discovered for LIVER COMPLAINTS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, &c., as hundreds will testify who have been cured by it after all other remedies had failed. It has not only cured me, but my WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. Sold wholesale and retail by WILLIAMS & Co., Chemists, No. 33 South Fourth street, Philadelphia. Price $1 00 a bottle. For sale at the Drug Store of S. H. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Oct. 19, 1841.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.

By the extraordinary virtues of that unrivaled medicine, the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," the well known case of a young lady afflicted with BRONCHITIS and LIVER COMPLAINT, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, &c. Boston, June 16, 1841.

To Dr. H. WISTAR:—Dear Sir—In your last letter you ask if your Balsam has been successful in this city. I reply to that enquiry, I can assure you I have never before used any medicinal article, and I believe me to be in some cases it has effected surprising cures, and in others has given great relief after every other remedy had failed. But there is one case that excels any I have yet heard of. This was a poor woman that has been afflicted with CONSUMPTION for several years, and had tried every thing in vain.—Knowing she was very poor, yet very worthy, I sent her a bottle gratis, which she has since received, and has not felt so well for the last year, and believed your medicine was the only thing that saved her life, &c. The same society have purchased over thirty bottles for different poor persons, and will do thirty more, as the price is very highly purchased many more, the price is very highly.

Yours, respectfully, HOLBROOK, BARTLE & Co. Be very particular when you purchase to ask for "DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," as there is a SYRUP of this name advertised that is entirely a different medicine. Prepared, wholesale and retail, by WILLIAMS & Co., Chemists, No. 33 South Fourth street, Philadelphia. Price $1 00 a bottle. For Sale at the Drug Store of S. H. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Oct. 19, 1841.

COUGHS & COLDS.

THE CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION.—Simple as these complaints are usually considered, the one who deny their being the most common cause of this fatal and distressing disease. It is indeed a melancholy truth, that thousands fall victims to Consumption every year from no other cause than NEGLECTED COLDS. Yet we find hundreds, nay thousands, who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks and months, until they have become incurable. At first you have what you may consider a slight COUGH or COLD; you allow business, pleasure or carelessness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast, you become hoarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood, a difficulty of breathing ensues, and the cough becomes more violent, and is attended with this distressing complaint. If then you value life or health, be warned in time, and don't trifle with your COULD, or treat to any quack nostrum to cure you, but immediately procure a bottle or two of that famous remedy, the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," which is known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify whose lives have been saved by it.

Be very particular when you purchase to ask for "DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," as there is also a SYRUP of this name in use. Prepared, wholesale and retail, by WILLIAMS & Co., Chemists, No. 33 South Fourth street, Philadelphia. Price $1 00 a bottle. For sale at the Drug Store of S. H. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Oct. 19, 1841.

CROUP IN CHILDREN.

MOTHERS, BE ON YOUR GUARD.—This is the season when the dreaded complaint attacks your interesting little children, and often raves on of those who fondly dot on, and carries hundreds to the grave. Every mother should, therefore, know its symptoms, watch them closely, and always be prepared with a remedy to cure it, as many are daily sacrificed by such neglect. At first the little patient is seized with a shivering, it grows restless, has flashes of heat, the eyes become red and swollen, it breathes with difficulty, and then comes that fearful COUGH that will surely terminate in convulsions or death unless something is immediately given to check it. In this complaint the "BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," is well known to be the most speedy cure ever discovered. It is indeed a precious remedy—mild, safe and innocent, and sure to give the little sufferer immediate relief, and assist the mother who loves her safety and health.

Be very particular when you purchase to ask for "DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY," as there is a SYRUP of this name advertised that is entirely a different medicine. Prepared only by WILLIAMS & Co., Chemists, No. 33 South Fourth street, Philadelphia. Price $1 00 a bottle. For sale at the Drug Store of S. H. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Oct. 19, 1841.
