STAR & REPUBLICAN B

G. WASHINGTON BOWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

"The liberty to know, to utter, and to argue, freely, is above all other liberties."-MILTON.

роь. XII.--УО. 45.

GBTTYSBURG, PA., TVBSDAY, FBBRVARY 1, 1848.

COUNTY BUILDING, ABOVE THE OFFICE OF your words have crazied my soul, which yet I act as virtue dictates, and we must cled her waist. THE REGISTER AND RECORDER.

bed —

rainbow of hope.

carce audible.

"Quintin, thou hast said it."

"Do you love him, Elzia?"

"Will you marry him?"

"But why Van Deg?"

ight.

"How can you ask?"

I. The STAR & REPUBLICAN BANNER is published at TWO DOLLARS per annum (or Volume of 52 numbers,) payable half-yearly in advance: or TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY of the year.

II. No subscription will be received for a shorter period than six months; nor will the paper be man and been a very woman in his affecgagement and the paper forwarded accordingly. but if he bids me wed-Quintin, you would III. ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding a square not censure me?"

will be inserted THESE times for $1, and 25 conts for each subsequent insertion—the number of insertion to be marked, or they will be published till forbid and charged accordingly; longer ones in the same proportion. A reasonable deduction will start, as he struck his hand upon his brow, be made to those who advertise by the year.

IV. All Lettersand Communications addressed to the Editor by mail must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to.

THE GABLAND.

- '' With sweetest flowersenrich'd From various gardens cull'd with care."

"FAIR FREEDOM'S HAPPY HOME."

BY MELZAR GARDNER.

Awake the glad shout-let the sound ring out Like a trumpet's thrilling tone; And the song shall tell, to the world how wel Was the prize of Freedom won ! 'Twas a gloomy day-no cheering ray Shone on their untrod path. When a patriot band, first m For Liberty or Death ! But the work was done-the To us the boon has come; While rolls the sea, our land a Fair Freedom's happy hom

Their hands . unstained-the ed----

In battle's dead array,-They had nerve to bear, and The terrors of the fray. Their nerves were steel, but if feel The wrongs their country

And they braved the storm firm-

To Gon, alone, they knelt And the work was done-the To us the boon has come; builds its happiness on the possession of meet no more as-" you. If it may not be that I shall be "Say not that we shall meet no more as your husband, oh promise me that no other lovers! Say that we shall meet no more; youth they recognized him in a moment,

-ball !" "I would fain do so," sighed the afflicted | could we meet but to love-to upbraid fate, virgin, "but if my father commands, can I which so cruelly divides us?"

OENTS, if not paid until after the expiration disobey? I have had no mother's care "I must away," said the girl; "I Quinsince childhood, but I have scarce felt the tin's affection is pure, he will condemn me loss; he has thrown by the coldness of a for tarrying."

"Farewell, then, sweetest ! If I lose discontinued until all arroarages are paid, un- tion for me. Shall I repay his kindness thee I will wander to some distant clime, loss at the option of the Editor. A failure to notify with ingratitude? Alas! Quintin, if he and strive to bury my regrets in new scenes Antwerp, the world owes some of its finest erate to relieve both. But we are told paper, out of the rottonness of which, like a discontinuance will be considered a new en- tells me to love another, 1 cannot do so; and amid new companions."

> lips. He watched her retiring form as it The expiring ray of the setting sun fell appeared and disappeared amid the follage on her features as she carnestly glanced at intervals, till it was finally lost to his view---then turned slowly and sadly away. upon her lover. "Ah," cried the youth with a sudden Never did father loye his daughter with more tondness than Algini his child Elzia. "why that blush, that agitation? Deceive me not, Elzia, you are not supposing a Her good was his great aim; and as he was an enthusiast in the art of the pencil, he case. This has already happened. I see deemed that one of that profession would it all. He has selected a bridegroom." The maid sank her head upon his bosom, and through her struggling tears she sob of the youth as he sat like one in a trance, breaking through the clouds of the passing all posterity by his works. "Van Deg," she answered sorrowfully.

than my own. Think you I would wanton. ly sacrifice it?" would ultimately be benefited. "Because he excels in my father's art."

n a painter !" Quintin was one of thorns, disclose who had commissioned him to de-nimself on it and yielded to his liver the communication.

striously had he laboured to seal and read-beyond measure; and as they beheld the that will be sufficiently severe, for, Elzis, and every tongne cried-"The Blacksmith !"

It is unnecessary to say more than that

Windsor Castle. 2

REMARKS OF THE Hon. James Cooper, of Pa., ON THE TREASURY NOTE BILL, In the House of Representatives of the United States, January 10, 1842. MR. CHAIRMAN: I do not design to inflict a long or set speech on the commit-passions of his soul mingled together in sing my opposition to the manner pro- condition of the people is as bad as that of But what of this! It only accords with such a manner that they became but one. posed by this bill of supplying the wants of the Government; and that the creditor of the former practices of the party. But, He considered the canvass as a lasting the Treasury, and to give a few short rea- an individual suffers as much from the post- Mr. Chairman, when I see my friend from Desperate was the conflict in the bosom monument for genius, and that he would sons for such opposition. I feel bound to do ponement of the payment of his claim as New York, the honorable chairman of the best consult his daughter's happiness by this, from the fact that I have hereto does the creditor of the Government. I Committee of Ways and Means, supporthis eyes fixed on hers, which, like the sun uniting her to one who would be alive to fore opposed the issue of Treasury notes. desire to see the government meet all its ing this bill, it not only surprises but con-

storm, gleamed from under their dripping Van Deg had been selected, as he was understood that, because I opposed them serve its faith inviolate; but, in our anxiety strange, to witness him, and those of his lashes, and soon he dreamed he saw the the boast of his country, and the figures of once, I must oppose them always, without in this respect, we should not forget the political friends who act with him, supporthis creation wanted nothing but motion to inquiring whether my former opposition sufferings of the people, nor fail to provide ing a measure which they have heretofore "Who is my rival?" he asked with voice make them such as their originals. Be- was right or wrong. 1 do not do it to pre- a remedy for them, if there be one in our denounced, not only as inexpedient, but sides, he was wealthy, and would add to serve an apparent consistency, but because power. Do they not as much deserve our fraught with the worst of mischiefs to the the affluence of the family. Finally, his I still look upon the measure as a poor commiseration as the Government? I country? What excuse can they give for daughter was not old enough now to judge time serving expedient, calculated to per. confess, sir, I am unable to understand the the abandonment of principles for which for herself; and though she had confessed petuate a system of quackery, unworthy of excessive sensibility manifested in behalf they formerly so trenuously contended?that she was prejudiced against her propo statesmen, and full of mischief. I am not of the Government. The people, it would What a commentary is their conduct on "My father's happiness is dearer to me sed husband, a few years of connubial in- one of those who adhere to opinions for- seem, have none of our sympathy. The the consistency of the Whig party? tercourse would overcome that, and she

Just as he was at this point of reflection persevere in error for the sake of consisten gotten. on the ensuing day, a letter carrier enter cy; and I regard the man who does so as ied the despairing lover, "why ed his apartment and handed him a letter, something worse than a fool. But I have loan negotiated at home will increase the pressing; that its drafts have been protested, saying he would wait without for an answer, not been convinced that my former opposi. existing pressure, by absorbing or with- and that an instant supply of means is noand had been bound by an oath not to tion to Treasury notes was founded in er. drawing so much money from active circu- cessary to prevent the Government from disclose who had commissioned him to de ror. I did not oppose their issue on fac- lation. This argument is fallacious in two being dishonored. This is hardly a suffi-

Algini was astonished at these words President; nor will I support them on par- ed will not be withdrawn from circulation yet how ardently had he lov and as soon as the other retired, broke the ty principles, now that Mr. Tyler is Presi- at all, even on the supposition that the None of ns can have forgotten with what dent. ittachment, and just when he "If the parent consulted the daughter's One of the grounds on which I opposed whose means are now affoat, constituting a the victory over her coufi- happiness, would be not seek from her if the issue of Treasury notes was the fear portion of the circulation. The money to this two years ago, notwithstanding we I that he struggled for was the does not love another? I think she that they would tend to produce extrava will only change hands; it will pass by the were told by the gentleman from Virginia, ist-he could bear the thoughts does. But if Van Deg is to possess the gance in the administration of the Gov- draft of the Government into the hands of [Mr. Jones] the then chairman of the Combe could weep over her grave, fair being, may I be mistaken ! May her ernment, ending in a national debt, of the creditor of the Government, and still go mittee of Ways and Means, of the distresse the vegetation above it - he marriage to the man of your choice not which the people would be ignorant until on in its round of circulation, without in ing embarrassments of the Governmentthink that the prize must be hurry her to another world ! Her obedi- involved in its embarrassments. That this terruption, performing its customary func- its urgent need-that many of the public to be given to another's em. once causes her to submit. I lay claim to measure will produce extravagance in the tions. But, in the next place, the loan will creditors were in a state of actual destituwas madness in it. her affections; but with these do not pie- administration can hardly be doubted .- not be taken by those whose money is now tion, in consequence of the imbility of the 7an Deg, that rough, haugh. tend to alter your determination. You While the wants of the Government can in active circulation. It will be taken by Government to pay them. Yet, sir, we in, how unworthy he to pos- have the reputation of patronizing merit as be supplied by the easy process of an issue those capitalists who have locked up their turned a deaf ear to his appeals, and steadiif such value, how unfit to it appears in painting. Defer the nuptuals of Treasury notes, costing no more than funds, through want of reliable securities ly refused to grant relief in such a form, a tender plant, how unsuitable to this day twelve-month, and let Van Deg the price of the paper and the printing, it in which to invest them. These hoarded We opposed the measure at every step. .pirit for the angel who need on that day place his chef d'auvre on the left is not likely that a very strict economy millions, instead of being withdrawn from ed some congenial soul to ensure her felicity. of the altar. If the one which appears on will be observed in its administratioa. It circulation, will be added to it; relief will trenced ourselves in another. We first re-"Will she not droop, whither, die in the the right does not tell of a more skilful will go on, issue its notes, involve it thus be afforded, and the existing pressure fused to go into committee to take up the cold atmosphere about him?" he asked master, I abide the result. If it does, then self deeper and deeper in debt, conscious mitigated. himself, when at length exhausted nature it is but fair to leave to your danghter the that any embarrassments which may en- It has been likewise argued, that if a loan rules were suspended, and it was taken up

WHOLD NO. 615.

Office of the Star & Banner | spoke hustily and unworthy of myself. But | It is a sad thing to part with those we love; bosom of a young man, whose arm encir- versive of the end of government than were of the great parties of the country might ever avowed, even in the worst despotisms consistently support this bill, but that the Every one was charmed and delighted which have existed in the world. other could not; and, in view of this, was

But we have been told by the Hon. Chair. about to advert to facts which form an imman of the Committee of Ways and Means portant part of the political history of times (Mr. Fillmore) that the Government is in not far remote, to show that one of these a state of embarrassment, which requires parties, after having destroyed the old "Blacksmith no more," said Quintin, immediate relief. I have no doubt that United States Bank, became the patron of in other places as well as in the Treasury. count liberally-nay, profusely; incorporarelics of art, and, among the rest, the inimi- that a loan cannot be negociated in this reptiles from the slime of the Nile, was He imprinted a kiss upon her willing table painting of "The Misers," now at country, and that, to obtain one, it will be bred that spirit of profligacy which, enternecessary to go into a foreign money mar ing into men and Govornments, produced ket; that this will require a delay of three ultimately that foulest of all infamous to meet its engagements. But let the gen- consistently support the bill under considtleman recollect that the entire American eration. It is true that it proposes an people are in a condition of great embar. issue of paper money, based, not upon rassment; that multitudes of creditors have specie, but on twelve or fourteen millious not only had the payment of their claims of a deficit. It is true that it is intended delayed, but have lost them altogether .- | for the relief of the Government, without be most worthy of his child. These two tee; and only rise for the purpose of expres. Let the gentleman bear in mind that the any regard to the benefit of the people.--Yet, Mr. Chairman, I would not have it engagements with punctuality and to pre- founds me. Is it not strange, ay, passing

The honorable chairman of the Ways and Means, by way of apology, has told the committee that an exigency has arisen; that the wants of the Treasury are tious principles when Mr. Van Buren was respects; first, because the amount borrow. cient excuse to justify us now, if our former course on this subject was correct .--loan will be taken by banks and capitalists, pertinacity (with what factious partinacity, if we were wrong) we resisted a bill similar When driven from one position, we inbill: and when, after weeks of delay, the privilege of choosing her partner from the sue can be relieved by resorting to a new be taken at all it will be taken by the banks, in committee, the debate upon it was conissue. In this insidious way a large public and that they will be compelled to curtail tinued, if I recollect right, for nearly a debt will be created, of the existence of their discounts. This argument, in my month, in the face of repeated admonitions ed more filled with life. He imagined posal, as it suggested a trial of skill in his which the people will not be sensible until jugdment, is without force. The bonds of from the chairman of the Ways and Means, loaus to supply its wants, it would find itself for banking transactions as specie; for on at every step-on taking the bill out of under some degree of necessity to avoid such bonds specie may always be raised .- committee, on ordering it to its third readextravagance and profligate expenditure; its There will be no necessity, therefore, for ing, again on its final passage, when only five or six of the 110 Whig members vodo so, the community will be no worse off. yet the very same men who then so reso-Mr. Chairman, in providing means to The amount of the loan will be paid out on lutely opposed this measure, or a similar supply the wants of the Government, we the drafts of the Government, and go at one, have become its supporters. Is it strauge, Mr. Chairman, that a plain, sim-Mr. Chairman, when I recollect the forple minded man, should be confounded by For myself, sir, I then opposed the issue to the same extent as a loan? If they will than surprised to see that they have be-uny factious opposition to the administrachanics, will derive no benefit from this public funds from their legal depository, which it has been plunged by the obstinate measure. Sir, let me ask what advantage and placed them in the custody of these folly of the Executive; but it will not achieve the end which we ought to have in [Here the Chairman (Mr. Hopkins, of view-the relief of the people. notes contemplated by the bill? None, or Virginia) called Mr. Cooper to order, on But, sir, 1 am not very anxious to provide ways and means for the relief of the Government which do not extend to the country. I am not sure that a little adversity might not have a wholesome effect on learn, when the overwhelming disasters of his administration the confidence of the nation. His acts have produced the emses that, if the measures recommended and passed by the Whigs at the late extra session had been carried into effect, there expedient of Treasury notes would have been necessary? This exigency, of which been dishonored by protests. There would at he instantly made reparation. "in meeting you sgain, since I am an affi-"Forgive me, dearest," he entreated; "I anced bride. This night must be our last. posite seat with her head resting on the ples-on principles more selfish and sub-order, I was proceeding to prove that one supplied its wants and saved it from dis-stepping from behind the canvass, "but the its condition is embarrassed; but let it not the State banks; gave them the custody of artist, who demands his reward !" be forgotten that embarrasments prevail the public money; encouraged them to disgenius was rewarded; and to the happy hus. They extend to the people; they, too, have ted myriads of new ones; and that from band, Quintin Matsys, once blucksmith of need of immediate relief. A loan will op these issued that overwhelming flood of merly expressed, after experience has de- Government-the Government is every monstrated their error. I trust I shall never thing! The people, the country, are for

Mr. Chairman, it has been argued that a While rolls the sea, our land Fair Freedom's happy hom ...

On bunker's height, at deep midnight, The band of heroes stood: ---Ye may trace their toil, on that holy soil. They moistened with their blood .----And all that day, the fearful fray, Raged on that battle field: And the forman's dart, pierced many a hear That had been Freedom's shield ! But the work was done-the prize was To us the boon has come;-While rolls the sus, our land shall be Fair Freedom's happy home !

O'er land and tide-our country's pride-Her FLAG-to the breeze was given ! From its starry gleam, by hill and stream, The fee was backward driven !--They have passed away, like a quiet day-Like a ripple on the deep !--That banner-waves o'er the quiet graves. Where its brave defenders sleep ! But their work is done-the prize is won-To us the boon has come;-While rolls the sea, our land shall be Fair Freedom's happy home !.

MISCELLANDOUS.

THE REWARD OF GENIUS.

BY J. R. B. GARDINIER.

fragrance of the gorgeous plants which grew upon the wall; as he drew each face, each A burst of applause arose from the au-in wild untutored luxuriance about the shall lineament, he recoiled in surprise as their dience as he did so-and well merited was lingered and gave a rosy hue to the face of at her side.

"Nay, Quintin," said she, "say not so; it is feeling which actuates me-it is feeling brain; he was wild and wandering, he flush of joy. which prompts me to say-it must not be. lieve I would act contrary to my own deapartment. sires-would cause you unhappiness?"

"Is this your love?" said the other, with a tone of fretfulness. "Methinks it cannot be a very ardent flame when it is so easily ex- ecuted by a magic power. tinguished by the perverse and obstinate tyranny of a __"

lips. "You will respect the father if you ward?" esteem his child."

The noble mind of the youth was struck with the reproof, and although it was bosom of night, the lovers were again averse to his desires, her filial obedience together. told of so much pure and holy excellence, that he instantly made reparation.

yielded to weariness, and he fell asleep. The mind, though, yielded not to the fa- two." The father was delighted with this protigue of the body; on the contrary, it seem-himself in the street. The bills rang, the favorite study. He accordingly returned it is unavoidably fastened upon them. But the United States, bearing an interest of that delay was fraught with disgrace to people shouted, and gay equipages passed word of his acceptance of the terms, and if Government were compelled to resort to six per cent., will furnish as safe a basis the Government. The battle was renewed by. It was a day of public rejoicing, for notified Van Deg'thereof. Elzia, the daughter of Algini, was to wed

Van Deg: the nation's favorite, the cele-A year passed away, during which the brated painter. People recounted the lovers never met. Elzia had lost sight of dependence on the people would be greater; contracting their circulation. It will not scenes he had delineated, and lauded the Quintin, and in answer to her inquiries they would always possess a knowledge of be their interest to do so; nor is it at all ted for the bill. But two years have artist to the skies. All this grated in the concerning him, all she had been able to its condition, which would operate as a probable that they will. But if they should elapsed since the period to which I refer; mind of the dreamer, but he trembled, and learn was, that shortly after their last in check to extravagance. the cold perspiration gathered on his fore | terview he had left the city, and gone, no head as the nuptial cavalcade approached; one knew whither.

they halted at the chapel, and the groom The day was now arrived when she was are bound to adopt such as will at the same once into circulation. conducted the bride, all pale and trembling, to become a wife. Sad to her were the time produce relief to the people, at least to the alter; he looked up the aisle, when, kind offices of the bride's maids who assist as far as it is practicable. The question, mer determined, persevering opposition the spectacle? as the father was about giving his love ted at her toilet; yet she sustained a smile then, which addresses itself to us, is this: made by my political friends to the issue of away, he rushed up and seized her; she upon her face, although her soul was Will Treasury notes produce this effect Treasury notes, I am something more of Treasury notes on principle, not from shricked and fell dead in his embrace; her | weighed down by grief.

relations and the priests all gazed or hor. The chapel was thronged by people anx not, we should resort to a loan. If Treasu. come their advocates. That the party, tion of Mr Van Buren; and I will not now ror; he raised his eyes, saw the misery in lous to view the ceremony, and as the ry notes be issued, bearing an interest of recently denominated the Van Buren par. support a similar measures merely because their countenances, and as his face fell full bride, richly clad, was led to the altar by six per cent., they will soon find their ty, should be found supporting this mea- another administration happens to be in upon the bosom of his lovely burden, he her father, the latter announced that her way into the vaults of the banks or the pos- sure, does not surprise me. That party, power. I shall never in the discharge of expired, and at that moment awoke. Still hand was to be bestowed on the artist session of capitalists. This has been the notwithstanding their disclaimers and as my duties as a legislator, be governed by the forms were before his eyes, fresh in whose skill was the most undeniable, to be case heretofore and it will continue to be sertions to the contrary, were always the a motive so little in consonance with the his recollection as if he had beheld the determined by the merit of the pictures so. These notes never find their way into paper-money party. It is true that they interests of the country. This measure, I

They were seated in a rich and shady ar-bour, over which the creeping vines wan-dered in every variety of curve, suspending lighted his lamp, and taking a coal trem around at this proclamation, and, striding the community, the agriculturists and me-in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the State banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the in lieu of it, the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed in the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed in the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed the state banks, removed the interval in the state banks, removed the st large clusters of their precious fruits, while the excinguished embers in his chimney, to the picture he had painted, he uncurtainthe atmosphere was laden with the mellow he commenced the portraiture of the group ed it to their view. vour constituents or mine will derive from banks.

dowy retreat. The fading light of day yet perfect resemblance to the individuals that cry of approbation. became more and more impressed upon The scene of the piece was the chapel in the maid who sat therein, as she regarded him. As he concluded the outline, he which they stood, and the whole represenwith mournful tenderness the vouth seated beheld in it a faithful transfer of his dream, ted to the life. There was the priest all will soon find its way into the general cir. the committee in opposition to the contemwanting nothing but the variety of colour. but breathing, while the bride and groom culation of the country, and measurably plated issue of Treasury notes, and was

Had I not feeling for my father, do you be- awoke, the rays of the risen sun gilded his the performance, when suddenly the other it will at the same time benefit the people. been the practical advocates of a baseless retrace his steps and return to Whig mea-

As daylight sought its slumbers in the another sppeared in its place. This repre- committed against the people by the admini- The appeal was briefly discussed by advanced to old age, dandling a beautiful now for the special benefit of the Govern- Cost Johnson. The appeal was then with- credit of the Government would not have "I am doing wrong," murmured Elzia, infant, on his knee, which bore an expres ment without regard to the interests of the drawn, and Mr. Cooper proceeded.]

next to none. But if a loan be negociated, the ground of irrelevancy. especially if abroad, the amount borrowed Mr. Cooper said that he was addressing

A thousand thoughts darted through his and their friends appeared as if in the full relieve the pressure which exists in the about to show that one of the great parties the Executive. I know his head is slow to money market. Thus, while a loan will of the country might consistently support flung himself on his bed, and when he next Algini was about to speak in raptures of afford effectual relief to the Government, such a measure, because they had always the late elections have not taught him to curtain was drawn aside, and a cry of hor- This end-the benefit of the people as well paper system, but that the other could not. sures, as the only means of conciliating to Ris first object was to seek the murel for burst from the multitude as they press as the convenience of the Government - He said it was not his intention to discuss picture, and he trembled lest it had all ed forward to behold! Van Deg gazed we should keep in view. It is the chief the propriety of the removal of the depobeen a dream; but there it stood, as it ex. breathless in wonder, and Algini uttered a end of government, and, when we lose sites or the State bank system; he only re- barrassments which this bill proposes to wild shrick of despair-"My daughter!" sight of it, we are neglecting to perform ferred to them as historical facts, to illus. relieve? Who doubts this? Who suppo-

charcoal," cried he, striking his breast in each countenance in the picture was easy to legislators. The doctrine that the Gov. | The Chairman said he was unable to see "Stay your words," interrupted she as a delirium of joy, "what might I not effect recognize except that of the youth, which eroment should take care of itself, and any connexion between the removal of the she laid her delicate hand tenderly on his with other means? what might be my re- was burried in the bosom of the bride.- that the people required to much when they deposites and the issue of Treasury notes; would have been any difficulty in obtaining But ere, with wondering eyes, they had asked at its hands a sound and uniform cur- and, adhering to his decision, Mr. Cooper a loan, or that a resort to this buckstering fully scanned it all, it was thrust aside and rency, was one of the highest offences took an appeal.

the issue of the five millions of Treasury

"If this is the result of an effort with It was the delineation of Quintin's dream; the highest and most important duties of trate his argument.

sented a lovely arbour in which Algini was, istration of Mr. Van Buren. To legislate Messre. Cooper, Cary, Stanly, and W. we have been told, would not exist. The